BRITISH TROOPS ORDERED OUT TO PREVENT RIOTS

FINE FRUIT AT CANNERY NEAR NAAS RIVER MOUTH

Gardening at Millbay Richly Repays Trouble—Fruit Ripening in Golden Sunshine—Goose Bay Mines and Smelter Going Rapidly Ahead—Big Payroll

While the Lakelse and Kitsumkalum Valleys are priding themselves on their fruit bearing possibilities, and while even northerly Ketchikan is advertising her whopper strawberries, there is a new country opening up in the Prince Rupert district which will rival the best of the fruit valleys in Northern British Columbia. This is the Naas Valley. So little has been said until lately about the Naas districts as fruit country that nearly every one sets the whole place down as merely a mining district. Recently the Upper Naas country was "discovered" as an agricultural land and the existence of ripening fruit in abundance there just now has been proved by prospectors.

Lower Naas Too

But as proving the undoubted fertility of the whole Naas Valley and its fruit growing possibilities J. Crippen, who has just paid a visit to Mill Bay Cannery at the mouth of the Naas is enthusiastic over the fruit grown in a garden close to the cannery by Mr. Henry Doyle who owns the outfit. Every kind of soft fruit is growing and ripening to perfection in Mr. Doyle's garden. Raspberries, strawberries, currants, and all garden fruits planted have thriven splendidly. That such results can be got in the coast district of the Naas Valley shows how excellent are the prospects for fruit growing and agriculture in the Upper Naas country towards which prospectors are now turning their attention. No one would dream of combining fruit growing with salmon canning or copper gold smelting, any more than they would project an orchard property on Second avenue, Prince Rupert, but the fact that fruit can be grown successfully in the salmon canning and mining district of the Naas country as well as in Prince Rupert is excellent testimoney to the climate of the whole district which has for too long been belied.

Goose Bay Progress

Mr. Crippen, after as he says, "browsing amongst the luscious berries" went on and paid a visit to the Goose Bay mines. Here, he says, the Granby Smelter Company have over 150 men at work They have laid two miles of solid plank wagon road to the miles from the smelter site, and are pressing on at full speed with the development work. The smelter when in operation will employ thousands of men, and Goose Bay will be a thriving centre of industry. Coke will be brought in in large shipments, and the smelter product will keep the steamers busy once the plant is running. Considerable advantage will accrue to Prince Rupert accordingly. At present Mr. J. Graves, president of the Granby Smelter Company, T. James, general manager of the Tyee Smelter Company, and Mr. Sylvester are visiting the works at Goose Bay.

ARMED SOLDIERS PATROL BRITISH RAILWAY LINES

Strike Situation Has Reached a Crisis—Government Announces Its Intention to Maintain Law and Order at the Point of the Bayonet if Necessary

(Canadian Press Despatch)

London, August 17.—England today is an armed camp again. Soldiers armed with rifles loaded with ball cartridge are patrolling the railway lines north and south of London, while the cavalry squadrons are assembled at the stations in the danger zone, ready to ride to battle with the strikers on the outbreak of any further riots.

Situation Critical

Meetings with a view to settling the controversy between the rail companies and their employees were held yesterday at the Board of Trade, but when they were adjourned late last night the situation remained as far from being solved as when they began.

The railway managers declare that they had been promised protection in running trains and will not yield to the men. The representatives of the railwaymen's union declared the strike will take place at the expiration of their ultimatum tomorrow morning.

Will Enforce Order

In the house of Commons yesterday Winston Spencer Churchill, the Home Secretary, declared that the non-unionists were entitled by law to work without molestation, and would be protected in the exercise of their rights.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer David Lloyd George, also declared that the Government was determined to protect the railways and the food supplies at all costs and would not depart in the smallest degree from its determination to protect life and property.

Military Prepare

At Aldershot the military authorities are taking every precaution to insure the working of the railways if a strike is called. Every soldier in the Aldershot command has been placed under orders for duty. All the soldiers are being armed with rifles and supplied with ball ammunition. They will be stationed along the railway lines north and south of London. The cavalry will be employed at the stations and also will patrol the lines so as to be able to get quickly to any point of danger.

Trains will be worked by flag signals. It is estimated that twenty-five thousand men from Aldershot will be prepared to move in a few hours. Similar precautions have been taken at all the military stations in Great Britain.

A hundred and one descendants are left by Robert Fryer, who has just died at Yarmouth, Norfolk, at the age of ninety-five.

NEW COLD STORAGE PLANT TO BE BUILT IN THE CITY

Joint Stock Company With Capital of $200,000 is Being Formed ---Will Have Cold Storage Plant, Ice Works, Saw Mill and Big Store for Employes Use---Profit Sharing Scheme to be Put in Practice---Work to Commence Very Soon

Within a few days all arrangements will be completed to establish another cold storage plant in Prince Rupert. Already a site has been selected, plans for development drawn up, and officers selected for the new company.

Capital of $200,000

Mr. H. C. Breckenridge who is the prime mover in the enterprise will be president of the company which will be capitalised at $200,000. An extensive cold storage plant will be built on the waterfront, making its own ice. It is proposed also to instal an up to date saw mill for the purpose of cutting lumber for the various buildings required by the company.

A Novel Feature

A novel feature of the new company will be the installation at various points along the coast and up the river of coolers for storing fish. These will be close to the fishing grounds, and the fishermen instead of having to bring their catches into the city, will be able to unload them at the coolers. The company's steamer will then be able to make the trip round the coolers, bringing the cargo in cold storage in her hold to the main plant.

Profit Sharing Scheme

The stock of the company which will be divided into 2,000 shares of $100 each. It is proposed that after a certain sum is reached as profit for the stock holders that the surplus will be divided between the shareholders and the employees of the company, thus making the fishermen sharers in the company's profits.

Will Run Store Also

For the benefit of the men employed at the fishing stations a large store will be run, supplying the men with goods and supplies at a low cost and making the new concern as co-operative and self supporting as possible.

To Start Work Soon

As soon as the necessary preliminaries are completed, which will probably be within a few days, work will be rushed on the plant. It is expected that it will be shipping before the New England Company's plant at Seal Cove is completed. Messrs. Shaw, Duduward and others are associated with Mr. Breckenridge in the new enterprise.

FLEET OF SIXTEEN SHIPS TO ENTER PACIFIC TRADE

To Prepare For the Great Pacific Traffic Which Will Follow the Opening of Panama Canal, The Harrison Line are Building Fleet of New Vessels

(Special to the Daily News)

Vancouver, August 17.—The prospects of the increased trade between the Pacific Coast and Europe and the Pacific Coast and the Atlantic States is making itself felt here in shipping circles.

It is announced that, to cope with the greatest increase of traffic expected from the opening of the Panama Canal in 1915, the Harrison Line has at present in course of construction eleven new combination freight and passenger steamers for the Pacific Coast route. In addition to these it is stated that five more steamships have been ordered.

With the opening of the canal, the monthly service between Antwerp, Liverpool and Vancouver will be shortened materially and in the near future a fortnightly service is to be expected. The Pacific Coast agents of the Harrison Line are Balfour, Guthrie & Co.

It is reported that the opening of the canal will cause the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company, which has for almost seventy years run a service to the West Indies from the United Kingdom, to send its boats right through to the Pacific Coast, inaugurating another service between the United Kingdom and Vancouver.

TROOPS BIVOUACKED IN THE STREETS OF LIVERPOOL

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Liverpool, England, August 17.—Armed soldiers with fixed bayonets bivouacked in the streets of Liverpool last night, following the attempts of the mob of rioters to release some of their number from Walton Jail.

Their orders are not to fire over the heads of rioters in the future, as this endangers innocent persons, but if it becomes necessary to shoot, to pick out the apparent ringleaders of the mob and shoot them down.

All Liverpool was in an uproar last night over the riots. Motor wagons which were conveying print paper to the newspaper offices were attacked, street car windows were smashed and another attempt was made to release prisoners from vans conveying them to Walton Jail.

The police and soldiers, however, were present in force, the troops with bayonets fixed. The crowd was not so daring as on Tuesday night and did not compel the military to fire.

Accused was admitted to bail of $2000, and his case was remanded until Monday at the request of Mr. Alex Manson, counsel for the defence.

City Solicitor Peters appeared for the prosecution and Postmaster McIntosh was present with others to give evidence.

RECIPROCITY AND THE PANAMA CANAL

Reciprocity and the Panama Canal are two different subjects. Each is by itself an instrument for the development of trade and the extension of markets. Combined they have a special significance for the people of Prince Rupert.

The markets of Eastern Canada and the United States are separated from the mines and forests of the Pacific Coast by a range of mighty mountains and three thousand miles of land. Man's ingenuity has pierced a route through the mountains, but the cost of rail transportation prohibits large exchange of products to take place between the east and the west.

The Panama Canal is being built at a cost of hundreds of millions in order to connect the east with the west by a cheap water-route.

So much does the Panama Canal mean for California that the City of San Francisco will celebrate the completion of the great canal with a season of civic rejoicing in which the whole of the Pacific Coast will join. The opening of the markets of Virginia, Maryland, Delaware, New York, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Maine and New Jersey to the raw materials and native products of the Pacific States will mean great prosperity to California and the Pacific States.

The effect of reciprocity will be to admit British Columbia to most of the great commercial advantages that the opening of the Panama Canal will bring. Our lumber will not only enter Washington and California free of duty. Reciprocity, plus the Panama Canal, will admit the lumber and shingles of British Columbia to every State on the Atlantic Coast from Texas to Maine.

Reciprocity will open a sea route for the delivery of our fish free of duty to all the Southern States.

The Panama Canal will open a market for the paper which reciprocity will now enable the American dealers to buy in British Columbia free of duty.

In the series of exclusive stories of progress and development which the Daily News is running in its news columns, we yesterday told of the intention of Mr. John Moore of the Great Northern Paper Company to erect a large paper making plant in the vicinity of Prince Rupert if reciprocity goes through.

Mr. Moore is not the only astute captain of industry who perceives that reciprocity and the Panama Canal will mean an era of prosperity and development for British Columbia.

No province or district in Canada stands to gain so much in every way from the adoption of reciprocity as does Northern British Columbia.

NOVA SCOTIA MEN'S PLIGHT

Wrecked in Mid-Pacific—Toiled and Starved in Open Boat Over 100 Miles of Sea—Comrade Missing.

(Special to the Daily News)

Melbourne, Aug. 16.—A tragedy of the sea is related by the survivors of the barque Puritan, which sailed some months ago from Newcastle, N. S. W., for San Francisco. The vessel sprang a leak in a storm 800 miles distant from Tahiti, and the crew put off in two boats, seeking to reach the nearest land. In one of the small craft were the captain, the second mate and ten men, and in the other Mr. Hatfield (the mate) and the remainder of the crew of 22.

The two boats kept together for two days, but on the second night they got separated in the darkness. The captain and the men who were with him set sail for Anna Island, which they reached in safety. Here they subsisted for eleven days on a sixth part of a pint of water and two biscuits each per day. At the end of that period their circumstances had become so desperate that the captain and three men set out for Tahiti.

After they had almost abandoned hope, they came in sight of Tahiti, and on landing were well treated. Immediately the news of the remainder of the captain's party being still on the island was received, a vessel was sent to rescue them with all speed, and the men were found and succored. The second boat, in which were the mate, Hatfield, and ten men, has not been heard of, and it is feared that all perished. Hatfield and another man, Chapman, were natives of Nova Scotia.

For thirty years coxswain of the Lowestoft, Suffolk, lifeboat, Bob Hook, who helped in saving 600 lives, has died at the age of 84.

If you had prophetic insight, you could pick out, frequently, ads in the "Business Opportunities" classification, on which prosperous enterprises will grow up.

= THE COSY CORNER =

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

AN EARLY FALL MODEL

Above cut was made from a recent importation of frock to be worn during the late summer and early fall, and shows the new sleeve. The magyar or kimono waist has lost favor and is not seen on any of the newest gowns. This model was developed in cashmere de soie, with insets of velvet and trimmings of soutache braid and velvet-covered buttons. Note the treatment of sleeve; it is set in with a piping of velvet.

EVENING GOWNS

Pretty and Light for Summer Weather

For summer evening gowns crepe de chine combined with voile chiffon or the finest and sheerest of lace net makes up most attractively and a very charming simple evening gown of these materials can be made at surprisingly low cost. The upper part of waist should be of chiffon or net, and the lower skirt, if trimmed with a band of passementerie or of jetted or embordered trimming or even bead fringe is becoming and extremely smart.

FLAKED COD

Delicacy with Cream and Curry Powder

Cold fish carefully flaked, make a mixture of cream, curry powder, salt and butter; have some boiled rice dry and whole, cook the fish slowly in the curry mixture, and add the hot rice, tossing all well together; when hot, dish the kedgern in a pyramid (should be a pretty gold color), and grate over the top some of the yolk of hard boiled egg, cut the whites in rings and garnish with these and some fried parsley.

Ever Taste Flower Sandwiches?

You make them with fragrant butter, and press them together or roll the slices. They are attractive with a petal or two of the flowers strewn on the butter so that it will just show at the edge. Wrap the sandwiches in muslin and put them in a bowl with flowers until wanted. When handed round, lay a spray of flowers on the plate. Nasturtiums are often the flower chosen to flavor the butter with.

Beads Going Out

Beads are losing hold on the favor of the ultra chic, but will be used throughout the season because so many expensive bead embroideries were bought in the spring and cannot be thrown aside. Some of the beaded arrangements are wonderfully lovely too and retain prestige by force of their charm. It is in the cheaper phases that beading has become less popular.

PHOTOGRAPHY FOR GIRLS

Pleasant and Profitable Hobby Nowadays

A college girl during this summer earned money to finish her course by making post cards on which were views of a noted summer resort. The most beautiful collection of photographs the writer has seen were made by a lady who followed the pursuit for her own pleasure.

Many English women are engaged in photography and are very successful. Pre-eminent among these is Miss Alice Hughes, who began the work when it was looked upon as scarcely suited to women. We are told that Miss Hughes has probably taken more photographs of royal personages and their children than any other living photographer, and she has received at different times many marks of royal favor. Not long since Queen Mary came to her studio and sat for her.

Until the accession of King Edward and Queen Alexandra, Miss Hughes made a point of never going out of her studio to take photographs—her sitters, even the most distinguished of them—came to her. But after that event she went several times to Buckingham palace to take portraits of Queen Alexandra; and one of her most prized treasures is a beautiful monogram brooch, set with precious stones, which was presented to her by the Queen Mother after one of these sittings.

Miss Hughes is a daughter of the late Mr. Edward Hughes, the portrait painter whose pictures of beautiful women are well known.

Most of the noted and lovely women of the day have sat to him. He painted Queen Mary when she was still Duchess of York, and he had the honor of painting Queen Alexandra no less than three times.

The work gives an opportunity for the development of the skill and artistic taste which is characteristic of a great many women.

OFF THE PLATE

Socks Seybold holds the American League record for home runs. He established it in 1902. The former Athletic, who is now playing ball in the American Association, in that year made sixteen. Luderus is confident that he will be able to surpass this record. Tim Jordan, a former Brooklyn player, now with Toronto, made a close approach to Seybold's record in 1906. He also repeated in 1908. Jordan in both years made twelve homers. Last season Fred Beck of the Boston Nationals, and Schulte of the Cubs, were tied for the home-run honors in the National League. They each got ten.

✿ ✿ ✿

Alexander of the Phillies, says that the big league scouts, as a rule evade the New York State League in looking for players. It can be safely said that in the future the scouts will change their routes.

✿ ✿ ✿

President Ben Johnson of the American League, is different from Tom Lynch in punishing ball players. Instead of suspending the athletes and thereby weakening the club he imposes a big fine. Lynch would rather suspend a player for three days or more, as he did Joe Tinker, in Brooklyn. It was Tinker's first offense in four years.

✿ ✿ ✿

When the Sanford horses were shipped away from Amsterdam, N. Y., to the sales ring at Buffalo last week, not a wheel was turned in the great carpet mills of Amsterdam. This was by order of General Stephen Sanford, to emphasize the harshness of the legislation that prevents the racing of the product of his Hurricane stock farm in the Empire State.

✿ ✿ ✿

Frank Laura, the local heavyweight who wired Tom O'Rourke of the National Club, New York asking for permission to enter the "white hope" tourney, received a wire telling him to come on if the conditions suited him. Laura is in fair shape.

✿ ✿ ✿

Anxious to cut in on the profits which are to accrue under the operation of the new law legalizing prize fighting, fully a score of promoters from all over the country are in New York trying to organize fight clubs. Jimmy Britt is the latest arrival. He announces that he has secured a lease on the Huber casino, and will put on only top notchers. Meanwhile sentiment against the game is growing, and an effort is to be made by the reform element to have the law repealed when the Legislature reconvenes.

✿ ✿ ✿

The C. P. R. and G. T. P. have made a rate of a fare and one-third for the round trip from Vancouver to Victoria August 20 to 27, covering cricket week, providing such clubs consist of not less than ten adults, or their equivalent, travelling together on the going trip. Purchasers of these tickets are requested to ask the agent for "Club" tickets, which will be issued on above basis This recognition of cricket week is a compliment which will be appreciated.

The Duke of York's school, Chelsea, S. W., will in future be known as the Duke of York's headquarters, it is officially announced.

Mrs. Neher, Green Street, will not receive this week.

PEN PICTURE OF LAURIER BY "TAY PAY" O'CONNOR

Great Irish Leader and Journalist Tells Why the Jingoes Hate Sir Wilfrid For His Courageous Stand For Canada's Freedom and Progress

The most imposing figure at the late Imperial Conference, writes Mr. T. P. O'Connor, M. P., in The Chicago Tribune, was undoubtedly Sir Wilfrid Laurier. That remarkable man exercised the same magnetic influence over the people of England as he does over those of his own country.

The slight, alert figure, the long thin, hatchet face crowned with an aureole of beautiful white hair, the adroitness and grace of speech, the courtliness of manner, the impression of a Frenchman walking straight out of a portrait gallery in an old eighteenth century French chateau, and the language of fervent loyalty to the British flag. All these things fascinate and even hypnotize the English people, and wherever therefore the Canadian prime minister goes he stands out physically and intellectually from every other colonial.

But though he thus extorts universal admiration personally, Sir Wilfrid Laurier is not loved politically by the Tories, and especially by the tariff reformers, as we call our protectionists. The the chief sponsor in Canada, is hated by them with a fervor beside which even the opponents of the treaty in Canada itself is tepid.

They see hopes in that treaty. Their idea of the British Empire is that it should be hedged off from every other country in the world by a wall of tariffs and be united in its different parties by tariffs which give to each other a preference over all other nations. Such an idea is in the judgment of all men of liberal opinions in England a false and even disastrous one, and to any such ideal no Liberal will consent to give countenance.

The Tories keep girding at the reciprocity treaty, their organs denounce it almost daily, and they eagerly devour every speech which is antagonistic to it. They have denounced the Imperial Conference as much as they dared to do, because it did not pronounce in favor of preferential tariff and they would denounce Laurier if they dared.

This, however, is but one of the many reasons why the Tories dislike Laurier politically. They regard him as the great obstacle to the form of imperialism which they advocate. If they were to speak their full minds, they would demand that the dominions should be pledged to give the full material by which they mean military and naval support to any policy which the Mother Country might adopt. Of course, Laurier has steadily resisted every proposal which in any way threatened even to infringe upon the absolute self-government of Canada, and in that policy he has the support of most of the other colonial premiers and of all Liberal leaders at home.

Laurier will never assent to any form of imperialism which means "jingoism," and the Tories are "jingoes." Thus it is that underneath the general chorus of affection and respect for Laurier which is sounded by the press and the people of this country, the keen ear may detect this minor note of condemnation and of dissatisfaction among the Tories. Fortunately it does not trouble Laurier; a perfect serenity of temper is one of the many great political gifts of that extraordinary man.

MAGNIFICENT FAST LAUNCH ARRIVES FOR GRANBY CO.

Power Boat "Kipling," Sixty Feet Long, Sixty H.P. Slender Beam, Makes 15 Knots per Hour—Will Run Between Rupert and Goose Bay

Another superb launch has been added to the fleet of fine power boats plying in and around Rupert. The "Kipling" a new and handsome 60 ft. boat just purchased by the heads of the Granby Smelter arrived Company in Rupert last night and has since pulled out for Port Essington and Goose Bay.

The Kipling is in every way a beautiful power boat. Developing 60 H. P. with a beam of only eight feet and length of 60 ft. she is one of the fastest gasoline boats here making 15 knots an hour.

Her equipment is perfect. She carries two dinghies and all appurtenaances of an efficient power boat. Built and purchased in Vancouver by the Granby Company the Kipling will run between Rupert and the Granby property at Goose Bay, Hidden Creek, and Observation Inlet. She is for the use of the company's officials. This morning the Kipling met the S.S. Prince Rupert at Portland Inlet to embark several of the Granby Company's heads.

REST FOR McDONALD

An Angry Angus of the Great Clan was Giving Trouble

Attired brilliantly in a bright blue suit of dungarees—Angus McDonald, seaman of the Prince Rupert, made his bow to Magistrate McMullin this morning charged with the inevitable "D and D," and was sentenced to thirty days.

Accused looked like Cinderella after the ball, for he had lost one boot, and his light fantastic toe was encased in a burst patent leather slipper. Angus pleaded hard for pity but the police evidence proved him to have been so very obstreperous and caused so much trouble that there was nothing for it but the month's rest after his exertions which Magistrate McMullin prescribed.

A SEA TRAGEDY

Captain of British Tug Tells of a Gruesome Sight

Tacoma, Wash., Aug. 16.—Captain E. McMullen of the British tug Bermuda, which arrived here from Taxada Island, B. C., reported that at 6 o'clock Tuesday evening in the vicinity of Active Pass, in the Straits of Juan de Fuca, he saw a man thrown overboard from a tramp steamer flying a foreign flag which was passing out to sea from Victoria or Vancouver.

"I was looking at the vessel through the binoculars," said Captain Mullen, "when I observed a commotion on the forward deck and from the struggling mass of sailors a man was seen hoisted over the bulwarks with a rope around his neck. He was lowered to within a few feet of the water, and then the rope broke, or was cut."

The Canadian authorities have been notified of the circumstance.
