LORD'S DAY ACT TO BE ENFORCED IN VANCOUVER

LAUNCH QUEEN MARY IS WRECKED CROSSING METLAKATLA SAND BAR

Entwhisle Brothers Have an Unfortunate Start to Their Trip to Masset—Had to Spend the Night on an Island Without Shelter—Lost Their Cargo of Gasoline—Indian Who Lost His Grapes Lost a Box of Oranges Also

An incident showing the risks f the journey to Masset in small asoline boats loaded with the asoline freight which the regular asserger steamers will not carry curred in the small hours yesteray morrirg. The launch Queen lary belorgirg to the Entwhisle rothers of Masset piled herself p on a rock outside Metlakatla the darkness, and was so badly amaged forward that she flooded most at once, and was only oled ashore and beached in time save half the cargo. The rest as washed into the sea and rewed the shore near the scene. heir dinghy broke adrift at the me of stranding.

Had to Swim for It

In the effort to save the launch he of the brothers, R. B. Entwhisle, had to swim ashore with a pe at some risk in the darkness, d all on board the wrecked unch were wet through when ey landed on the small unhabited island off Metlakatla. ere they endeavored to make emselves comfortable for the ght, managing to light two fires th the only two dry matches ey possessed. They had no elter, and spent the better part the night searchirg along the ore to save cases of gasoline hich had gone overboard when e launch swarmped.

Hit the Bar

On board the Queen Mary on the trip were R. W. Entwhisle, R. C. Entwhisle, A. Munro, and two Indians, Mark Spence and Robert Brown. Brown is one of the best Indian pilots on the coast, but the launch struck as he was trying to make a new short cut at half tide across Metlakatla Bar. Probably if the launch had not been loaded with seventy cases of gasoline she would have passed safely over the sunken rock which pierced her.

Is He a Hoodoo?

Mark Spence (not Brown) is the Indian who fell into the water at the wharf the night the launch started for Masset. He was in his bunk sleeping at the time she struck, and the others were much amused after the "lost grapes" incident, to find that Mark's chief anxiety during the wreck was over a case of oranges he had purchased for the family at home in Masset.

Lost His Oranges, Too

While the rest toiled after cases of gasoline on the beach Mark scoured the shore for oranges, and aroused the frequent enquiry whether he was expecting to find his lost grapes too. In the morning when they were busy signalling to Metlakatla for a boat to take them over there, Mark was busy drying over the fire the colored handkerchiefs he had bought for the youngsters. The accusation that poor Mark is a hoodoo glances harmlessly off his imperturbable personality. He's like Kipling's married man "He wants to get home to his tea."

Cargo is Principal Loss

The Entwhisle brothers think that the repair bill for the launch will be light. The engine is all right. Some of the cargo is lost, that is the main loss. The Queen Mary represents a value of $1000 at least, and her owners are thoroughly experienced boatmen on this coast. They are, in fact, the holders of the record for the trip from Masset to Rupert in a gasoline boat, and have made long trips north and south of Rupert also.

The vessel was escorted by a flotilla of torpedo boats under command of Vice-Admiral the Duke of the Abruzzi.

Casualties Slight

London, Oct. 18.—Now that the cable has been repaired between Tripoli and Malta it is shown that previous reports of the fighting were greatly exaggerated. Dispatches from Malta state that the town is practically unharmed by the bombardment and that the Italian gunners fired so wildly that most of their shots pased over the forts and buried themselves harmlessly in the sand. The only casualties were three people killed while watching the bombardment

Government Victory

The Government at Pekin claims a great victory. Their troops hold the trenches at Hankow as well as the station where the reinforcements are hourly arriving.

The rebels have fallen back upon Wu Charg which is said to be strongly fortified. Casualties on both sides are supposed to be large, the fighting at times being at the bayonet point.

During the fighting, the land forces and Chinese warships shelled the rebels' position, but the despatches state that the fire from the forts was much more effective, and that at least one of the Government gunboats is badly damaged.

ELEPHANT AT TORONTO IS STUDYING DENTISTRY

It Has Succeeded in Performing the Difficult Task of Extracting One of Its Own Aching Molars With Its Trunk—The Ache Measured About Three Cubic Inches

Toronto, Oct. 18.—There is an lephant at the Riverdale Park oo here which is fast qualifying or a diploma from the Royal ollege of Surgeons. It has done hat many a qualified dentist annot do. It has drawn one of ts own teeth.

For several days of late the lephant was observed to be sufferng pain. Its agonies were such hat those standing by supposed hat someone had broken the law by feeding it something nauseous. It threw up its head and groaned, and inserted the tip of its trunk in its mouth, as though wishing to dislodge something which had stuck there. It worked the trunk frantically, until at last, with a snort of relief, it drew the obstruction out, and cast it outside the enclosure. What was the keeper's surprise to pick up a large molar which had been the cause of all the trouble.

The tooth which the elephant thus extracted for itself measured roughly about 2 1-2 x 2 1-2 inches. It was only a couple of inches deep, and had evidently been broken off in the gums. The crown was in a good state of preservation, but decay was apparent lower down.

Murder of Ah Wye, Crown Witness Against Alleged Murderer Who Escaped Jail Stirs Public Opinion—Large Illicit Liquor Trafficking With Indians is Blamed

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Victoria, Oct. 19.—Instructions have been given to Constable Burr, of Ashcroft, to take immediate measures to lead to the speedy termination of the epidemic of law defiance there, largely the result of illicit trafficking in liquor among the Indians of the Clinton Chilcoten districts.

It will be remembered that after the murder of Edward White occurred, the suspected Indian Moyie succeeded in breaking jail and is still at liberty. It is regarded as significant that Ah Wye, the Chinaman who was the Crown's principal witness against Moyie, was mysetriously butchered a fortnight ago

As the first step towards disciplining the Indians, Constable McMillan has been retired from the service to be relieved by the best man procurable. A selection is now under consideration.

"KINGSWAY" CAUGHT MONSTER SHARK

When the trawler Kingsway came into harbor this morning she had on board besides a fine haul of about 120,000 lbs. of marketable fish, a real monster of the deep win the shape of a huge ground shark about fifteen feet long and weighing according to Captain W. H. Brown's estimate nearly 2,400 pounds.

The shark is one of the ugliest looking monsters you could well see, black, rough skinned, with huge girth. Its "waist measurement" is probably about twenty feet. Its stomach was distended with fish, for the ground shark devours everything it can catch, and does considerable damage to the fish beds. Instead of throwing the creature overboard now it is caught, the Kingsway's crew will take it to Pacofi where at the fishing station it will be converted into fertiliser. The liver produces a kind of oil useful commercially, and this will be extracted.

Captain Brown mentions that this trip owing to severe weather outside was not as good as many. "There is the chance always with good weather," he says, "of getting a haul of 10,000 pounds of fish in two hours' trawling. To see the net come up filled with red cod, grey cod, white cod, flounders, halibut and sole after a successful shot is a great sight. It looks just like a big colored balloon. Only bad weather prevents us from making such shots every time on the fishing grounds out of Rupert."

THE CENSUS RETURNS

It appears the reciprocity orators who balanced the trade of eight million Canadians against the trade of ninety-two million Americans were all wrong. Canada has not yet attained eight millions. She has only got a good start off from the seven million mark. By the time the complete returns are in her population will still be well below seven and a quarter millions.

The population ten years ago was recorded at 5,371,315. This makes an increase of one and three quarters millions in ten years, an increase roughly of about one third. This while a little less than was expected is an excellent showing. A similar increase in the next ten years will place Canada very close to the ten million mark.

An analysis and comparison of the figures is very interesting. They show that the growth is almost uniformly greater the further west one goes. Prince Edward Island alone has gone back. She had 103,259 in 1901. Today she has but 93,722. Nova Scotia has done little better than hold her own. Ten years ago she had 459,674 population. Today she has 461,847.

Ontario and Quebec, the old rivals have had a curious paralleling of growth. Quebec has increased by 351,799. Ontario has increased by 336,955. The slight advantage Quebec shows makes a much better showing when looked at from the percentage of growth, for she had a smaller population to work on. Today Ontario has a population of 2,519,002 and Quebec 2,000,697. Quebec's growth which is more rapid than the growth of Ontario, has also been much less assisted by immigration.

The greater increases are in the west. Manitoba with an increase from 255,211 to 454,691 nearly doubles her population. British Columbia with an increase from 178,657 to 362,768 (without Yale-Cariboo) succeeds in more than doubling herself. Alberta and Saskatchewan do even better, each of them practically multiplying their population by five within the ten year period. The exact figures to date are: Alberta in 1901, 73,022; in 1911, 372,919. Saskatchewan in 1901 numbered 91,779. Today (without Regina and Battleford) she numbers 453,508.

Most spectacular of all is the growth of the Western cities. Calgary and Edmonton have increased ten fold, while Regina beats all percentages by an increase from 2,249 to 30,210. Vancouver and Winnipeg have room for an argument as to which is entitled to the individual honors for the largest growth. Winnipeg has increased from 42,340 to 135,430, a gain of 73,090. Vancouver has increased from 27,010 to 100,333, a gain of 63,323. But if Vancouver is entitled to take in North and South Vancouver (and this is the way the population of London, England, is calculated) then her growth is 87,125.

Prince Rupert's population is given at 4771. It may be remembered that the News some months ago predicted that the population would be found to be a little under 5,000. One effect of the city census will be to cut off three of the liquor licenses in the city, our Board of License Commissioners having already issued licenses to the limit allowed for a city of 7,500. This liberality by our temperance Mayor may have been due to his desire to show that he is not a bigoted teetotaler. But this, of course, would not be considered a sufficient excuse for wilfully violating the license laws.

Always the human mind turns from the accomplishment of today to regard the hopes of tomorrow. Ten years ago—five years ago—no man imagined that the shores of Kaien Island would ever bear a city. Today we have a city of 4,771 souls. What will we have when the census of 1921 is taken?

NEWS ABOUT STEWART MINES

Little Joe O. K. Mine is Offered to the Portland Wonder Co.—Mining Progress.

Stewart, Oct. 19.—The chief item of news in Stewart mining circles this week is the offer by Joe Perrault, owner of the O. K. Mine, to sell his property to the Portland Wonder Company. This move is with the idea of protecting the stockholders in the company, which has fallen through owing to the non-payment of the bond by the promoters. Mr. Perrault is now developing the property himself, and has opened up a new tunnel 200 feet west of the original workings. The new ore is reported very rich.

Engineers Galore

Five mining engineers have arrived on visits this week, and this indicates the amount of outside attention Stewart is receiving. Both Portland Canal and Red Cliff are on the shipping list, and others will soon follow. The annual meeting of Red Cliff will be held in Vancouver on the 27th inst., when good reports are promised.

Ben Bolt

Thirty-six men are on the payroll and sinking and drifting are in progress. Application has been made for a wagon road to the property to permit taking in machinery. It is probable that a snow road will be arranged for this fall. Next spring Sir D. D. Mann has in view the erection of a concentrating plant.

Cascade Falls

Clarence Kirk has commenced the driving of a 300-foot tunnel under contract. Supplies have been taken into camp and development will be continuous.

Portland Canal

The company purpose sending out another large consignment of concentrates to the Tacoma smelter before the end of the month.

Sick Room Helper

If a small clock is beyond repair do not throw it away, but set it aside for use in the sick room. It will then be found useful for taking medicine. As each dose is given to the patient turn the hands to the hour when the next dose will be due. This is much better than trusting to memory.

—Another— Great Story

THE DAILY NEWS READERS HAVE ANOTHER TREAT IN STORE FOR THEM

The News has received so many letters of appreciation from its readers for its enterprise and judgment in securing the serial rights of Captain Clive Wolley's great story, "The Tenderfoot's Wooing," that it has gone still further.

The News has secured the serial rights for Louis Tracy's Great New Story

"The Pillar of Light"

and will start the story very shortly

Louis Tracy is the greatest writer of fascinating adventure stories in England.—His plots are vigorous.—His characters are lifelike. There is not a dull paragraph. His stories are models of good English too. . . . .

What The Pillar of Light Is

The "Pillar of Light" is a sea story of love and adventure. As you may guess the "Pillar of Light" is a lighthouse. The story concerns the romance of Stephen Brand the lighthouse keeper and man of mystery. It is a story of heroic deeds in many lands. It will hold you to the very last word and delight you all the time. In the end you will see the greater meaning of the title "The Pillar of Light. : : :

This story is exclusive in British Columbia to the Daily News and its readers. See that you get the story from the start by having your name entered on the Daily News books as a subscriber.

ITEMS OF SPORT

Captain Jack Williams, champion mile swimmer of the world in 1882, is in Canada today. Williams defeated Captain Matthew Webb, the first conqueror of the English Channel, in a great swim in the new basin of the Lachine Canal for the world's championship and a prize of $1,000.

Captain Williams, who was 77 in April, recently distinguished himself by swimming 33 miles in August last, from Altham, Illinois, to St. Therese, Missouri. During the ex-champion's career he made many notable swims around Montreal, and for a time was swimming instructor at St. Helen's Island. In 1890 he swam across the San Francisco Bay against the cross currents, taking 2 hours and 10 minutes to cover the five miles. A short while later, in an exhibition swim, he went around the famous Seal Rock.

During his life he has saved no fewer than thirty-six persons from drowning, six of these being in Montreal, and in one instance he brought a drowning man back to life after he had been immersed for twenty-five minute.

* * *

Captain Jack Williams is a Portuguese by birth, and came to Montreal in 1874, leaving again in 1882 for the United States, of which country he is now a citizen. In spite of his age, the ex-champion looks as hale and hearty as ever.

That the championship ball games will result in the establishment of new records for gate receipts is the opinion of McRoy, who predicts each member of the winning club will receive in the neighborhood of $5,000 for his "hit." Last season, when the Cubs and Athletics broke all previous records, the amount received for the players totalled over $79,000. Secretary McRoy expressed the opinion that the players share this year would be close to $150,000

Hughey Jennings, manager of the Detroit American League team, may become manager and a stockholder in the Washington American League Club. During the series between Washington and Detroit Jennings conferred with President Noyes of the Washington Club, who informed him that he would be welcome as manager and stockholder if he could be arranged with the Detroit management.

When we read that the price of radium has tumbled to $80,000 a gram we are all out of patience with the chronic grumblers who are kicking about the high cost o living.

Abe Attell is the cleverest and craftiest little financier in the prize ring. Abe makes a specialty of stringing "finds" in one night stands by letting them draw with him in ten round bouts and then after their hopes and the hopes of their backers are aroused he gets another bout with them and puts them into dreamland in the early stages of the contest. Abe's idea in this procedure is to get the benefit of two gates and to pick up any easy money that the enthusiasts, backing the "comer," who made such a good showing against the champion in the first bout might be rash enough to place on their favorite. But when the issue is a big one Attell just gives the best possible account of himself and never in his career did he lose a decision till he took a chance with Matt Wells, the brilliant lightweight from over the pond. In spite of the fact that he is uncertain betting in many of his bouts of minor importance Abe is liked by the fight fans who recognize his wonderful skill and science and popular opinion conceded that he is the best lightweight who has ever worn the crown of that realm since the days of the incomparable George Dixon.

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

DECAY OF THE TEETH

Lime Starvation the Basic Cause, Says a Chemist

"The almost universal decay of the teeth is proof positive that our nation is suffering lime starvation," writes a chemistry lecturer in the Dietetic and Hygienic Gazette.

"Our dentists prescribe tooth washes and tooth pastes, advocate local hygiene, fill cavities and fit bridges, and all this time ignore the fact that the basic cause is lime starvation.

"Dentists will tell you that the sugar you take in your mouth acts directly upon your teeth. Dentists shut their eyes to the evident fact that decay starts first in the pulp beneath the intact enamel and honeycombs the interior tooth until the shell-like bridge of enamel breaks beneath the strain.

"The enamel gives absolute protection against the external attacks of acids and sugar. I have immersed sound teeth for months in a solution of fruit acids and sugar and have been unable to detect any erosion of either the enamel or the pulp.

"When you eat sweetmeats the sugar, with its irresistible affinity for soluble lime, combines with the calcium of the blood, and the blood retaliates by sapping the soluble from the pulp and substance of the teeth. Druggists make use of this affinity of soluble lime for sugar when preparing the official syrup of lime. Lime forms a solution thirty-five times stronger in simple syrup than in the same quantity of water. If you want your children to have sound, white teeth, see that their diet is rich in lime and poor in sugar."

Tomato and Corn Combined

A delicious vegetable dish is "corn and tomatoes." Skin and cook ripe tomatoes as for stewed tomatoes. When about half cooked add sweet corn which has been scored and scraped from the ear, so as to get as little as possible of the fibre of the grains. Stir frequently after adding the corn. Season with salt, pepper, sugar and butter to taste. Also add a small bit of fine-minced onion.

Potato, Tomato and Salad

Cut four cold boiled potatoes into cubes, and two tomatoes into eighths. Thoroughly mix the potatoes with three tablespoons oil, one tablespoon vinegar; one teaspoon tarragon vinegar, salt and pepper to taste, and one tagblespoonful finely cut chives. Mound in the centre of a platter, surround with sections of tomatoes, and a border of lettuce.

Tomato and Crab Salad

Peel and scoop out interior from six ripe tomatoes, salt, drain, and chill. Remove the meat from six or eight crabs, according to size and chill. At serving time mix lightly with mayonnaise dressing which has been delicately flavored with tarragon vinegar and put into the tomato cups. Serve on lettuce.

Tomato Salad

Wash and cut in small pieces, but do not chop, one large ripe tomato, one small onion, and one green pepper. When ready to serve, pour over salad one-half cup of good vinegar, one teaspoonful salt, and wash of pepper.

USEFUL INFORMATION

Handy Hints for Household Help

Dishes which have contained dough or pastry should be washed in cold, not hot, water. The hot water cooks the dough and so makes it much harder to remove.

For scrubbing kettles that have been burned or for removing food that has stuck to the pan in the process of cooking, nothing is better than a piece of very coarse sandpaper.

A simple way to clean plain pieces of silver is by placing it in a pan in which have been put one quart of cold water and a tablespoonful of washing soda. When the water begins to boil the silver should be removed and immediately wiped.

Batters should be beaten well and then allowed to stand some time before using, in order that the air may pass into them.

Use a hot oven for bread, meat and pastry; a moderate oven for buns and large cakes, and a slow one for milk puddings.

Handy Mirror

A substitute for a cheval glass may be provided in a little house by fastening an ordinary looking-glass to the inside of a closet door where there is a good light, so that the lower edge of the glass shall be almost level with the bottom of the door. In this mirror one may see very well how a skirt hangs.

Saves Carpet

Old stair carpet should not be wasted, for it will make good pads to go under the new stair covering. First shake the carpet and then cut away the bad parts; divide the remainder into short lengths, double them, and tack them at the edge of each step, where the thread comes, before laying the new carpet.

Helps Mother

A gate between two rooms has proved a blessing in one house. It is fastened in the doorway, between the nursery and "mother's room." There are times when the mother likes to watch the children without being right among them. Often sewing or writing may be done more easily with the gate between the mother and the little ones.

Soft Icing

In case your icing is too soft, try tying a band of stiff wrapping paper a little higher than the cake, and see how nicely it sets the icing. There is another advantage in this band. If left on the cake and stood in the cake box they are just as moist a week or two later as the first day baked.

Woman Diplomat

The first woman to enter the diplomatic service of any country is Miss Clotilde Luisi who has been appointed by the President of Uruguay an attache of the Uruguayan Legation at Brussels. Miss Luisi recently obtained the university degree of Doctor of Laws.

PRINTING FOR CITY

Council Puzzles Over Technicalities in Printing Tenders. Ald. Hilditch Regrets Having to Consider Tenders at All.

Tenders for printing advertisements for city bylaws now ready for the public were opened at Monday night's council. Following were the bids:

Daily News, $13.40 for the whole job: Journal, 5 cents per line for first insertion and 2 cents per line for subsequent insertions.

After endeavoring with the help of Alderman Newton to discover which was the lowest tender, and calculating that at six words to a line, Alderman Newton's practical estimate of the job, the Journal's price would come to $15.75 for one insertion the matter was left to the City Clerk to figure out again. The Evening Empire did not bid.

"I am sorry this came up while I am in the chair," said Acting Mayor Hilditch. "If I were not in the chair I would certainly advocate the straight and narrow path and put this advertising where we know it is safe and not break into new ground."

TWO CONSTABLES ARE DISMISSED

Services of Constables McArthur and Swasey Dispensed With by the Police Commission at Special Meeting Yesterday.

Constables McArthur and Swasey, both of the Prince Rupert police force have been dismissed from the force. This decision was come to after a short meeting of the Police Comissioners, Acting Mayor Hilditch taking the place of Mayor Manson as chairman of the Comission. The meeting was held yesterday afternoon in the Mayor's office at the City Hall and was held behind closed doors.

No reason for the dismissal of the constables is given out beyond the statement by Acting Mayor Hilditch that the men's services are unsatisfactory to the Commission. The Acting Mayor, however, hinted that the reason for the Commission's dissatisfaction with these constables was based on the result of an investigation of charges made that the constables had been too familiar in their associations with the restricted district, for the presumed purpose of keeping themselves posted with the movements of the criminal class frequenting that district.

"The Commissioners intend to put a stop to this intimacy between the police and the restricted district," are the words of Acting Mayor Hilditch as chairman of the Police Commission.

TROOPS CLASH WAR IN CHINA

Fierce Fighting Between Rebels and Imperial Troops at Hankow—Twelve Warships Present.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

Pekin, Oct. 19.—The army of rebels and the Imperial troops came into collision near Hankow on Wednesday morning and a battle is now in progress. A strong force is at Wu Chang, and eight warships are in the river opposite the city, the bombardment of which will take place on Saturday. In addition, twelve foreign warships are present.

The German sailors while endeavoring to stop pillaging at Hankow today came into conflict with the rebels and a sharp engagement ensued. Admiral Winslow commanding the British Eastern fleet has arrived at Wu Chang and will take command of the international forces. It is reported that General Li Hung, the commander of the rebel forces, has deserted.

A launch carrying intending bidders for the work of clearing Woodworth Lake shores left for Shawatlans Lake this morning. News was telegraphed to the port this morning that the C. P. R. steamer Princess Mary will leave Vancouver for the north late tonight, to take the trip advertised for 5he Princess Beatrice. She will probably be in the harbor on Saturday night.

The Princess Mary is one of the most recent additions to the C. P. R. coast fleet, and is handsomely fitted and fleet-heeled boat. She recently arrived on the coast after making a trip out from Scotland. If she manages to make the port during the evening, she will be the cynosure of many eyes.

"TENNESEE'S PARDNER"

Western Mining Play to Be Presented at Theatre

A western play, "Tennesee's Pardner," will be given by the Williams Stock Company tonight. The scene is set in a mining camp and is highly colored. The different types of character one meets in a camp being true to nature.

"Gee Whitaker Hayes" played by Dave Williams is a good natured, worthless specimen who takes life very easy and cannot understand why others should not do the same. Mr. Van Dyke plays a high toned gambler who always gives a square deal. Miss Pinkie Mullaly takes the part of the quaint little girl called "Tennesee."

"Tennesee's Pardner" is entirely different from anything so far presented by the company and should prove a winner.

She has a reputation as a good sea boat.

"Weldy" who was one of the first to participate in the rush to the Klondike made good with a vengeance at Cobalt. He is said to be worth a million, his presents to the bride including a cheque for $25,000 and a $5,000 automobile.

MAJORITY OF JUST TWO VOTES

Interesting Situation at Halifax—Tories Have Two Majority Over Liberals for Whole Town.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 18.—Judge Wallace gave out the official figures in the Halifax recount yesterday as follows:

Hon. R. L. Borden (C.)	7,040
Hon. A. K. Maclean (L.)	6,946
Dr. Edward Blackadar (L.)	6,879
A. B. Crosby (C.)	6,787

Messrs. Borden and Maclean are, therefore, the members-elect. The total Conservative vote is just two more than the total Liberal vote.

AT THE THEATRE

"Roanoke," a Drama of the South, Proved Very Entertaining.

"Roanoke" as played by the Williams Stock Compary last night was a drama entirely satisfactory to the audience. The Empress Theatre was well filled, and frequent applause showed how well the work of the compary was appreciated.

In this drama Byron L. Aldern takes the heavy role of Ezekiel Morse, the miser and murderer. His make-up is a wonderful bit of work and most effective. His interpretation of the part last night was in every way realistic and convincing and full of artistic restraint.

As "Roanoke" Miss Pirkie Mullalley had a particularly effective part full of pathos as the blind girl hardly treated by fate and cruelly served by her vindictive cousin Anabelle Peyton. Miss Mullally realised her part with very touching effect throughout and looked charming in the simple ragged dress of her days of poverty. Miss Marguerite Doyle played "Annabelle" with understanding and effect, effacing her own naturally winsome personality very cleverly in the role of the bitter tongued evil hearted cousin, and winning the appreciation of her audience. Miss Ora Wolff in the role of Aunt Dinah proved herself a splendid "darkie" and both amused and touched the audience by her humor and pathos.

W. S. Van Dyke made a good Joe Peyton, taking the part of the half crazed young man with really splendid effect. Arthur Cyril as Captain Will Forrest acted brightly and well. G. L. Sweatman as Gen. Harry Peyton played his short part very effectively, and was thoroughly convincing in the death scene. As Colonel Tom Bailey Dave Williams was as usual, a very attractive actor.

Two very telling scenes were those in which the blind girl is saved from an awful death by the song of a bird which leads her away from the chasm into which the savage old miser would lead her, and the thrilling scene when the miser haunted by horror of the dead is confronted by the figure of the man he thinks he killed. Great applause acclaimed the successful rendering of these scenes.

FIRST: "CATCH YOUR PRINTER"

DIRECTIONS FOR COOKING A HARE:
FIRST:—"CATCH YOUR HARE"

To produce good printing you must "first catch your good printer. . . You can't get good printing from a poor printer, even if he work with never so good an equipment. If he lacks the "knack," the trained taste, the single-minded fondness for his work which real printers have, he will do poor printing for you. If he has all of these, and in addition to them adequate modern equipment, your printing will have distinction, salesmanship, the lure of type-beauty.

As this office produces good printing you may infer the presence of a good printer—who is "catchable."
