PROPOSED TO DIVIDE THE CITY INTO THREE WARDS

SUFFERED DEATH WOUND ON THE HUNTING TRAIL

STRENUOUS ATTEMPT TO RUSH MUSIKE, A YOUNG MONTENEGRIN, INTO HOSPITAL BY TRAIN TO SAVE HIS LIFE PROVED OF NO AVAIL—ACCIDENT UP RIVER.

Hurried into the hospital from the afternoon train yesterday with a serious wound in the abdomen causd by the accidental discharge of his rifle, Musike Rajkovich, a young Montenegrin who resided in the Cetinje Hotel, died last night.

He had gone up river to hunt not far from the G. T. P. and was accompanied by a fellow countryman. While going through the bush carrying his rifle the trigger caught and the gun went off, the bullet tearing an ugly wound in the lower part of the hunter's body. With difficulty he was packed to the railway track and the train was flagged to take him into Rupert.

At the general hospital no hope was held out from the first for his recovery, though he was a young man of splendid physique. He had no known relatives or very near friends ni Rupert, having come here recently from Alaska. The body lies at E. L. Fisher's funeral chapel. An inquest may be held.

The bylaw will come up for further consideration next Monday.

PANIC-STRICKEN ACTING MAYOR

"For God's Sake, Don't Try to Work," Said Vernor Smith to S. P. McMordie During Strike.

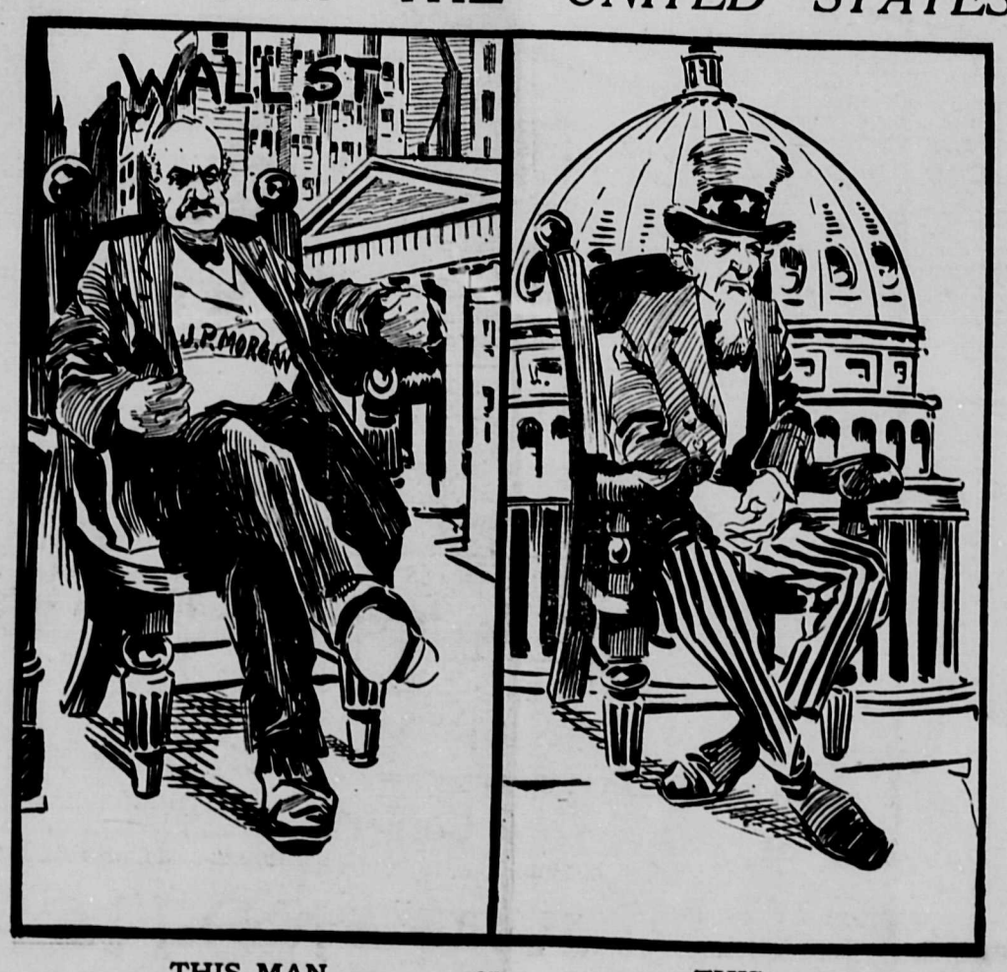
"For God's sake, don't try to work," are the actual words used by Acting Mayor Smith to S. P. McMordie in connection with the contractor's efforts to start up his contract during the strike. This was stated by S. P. McMordie under oath this morning as witness in the case of Watson vs. City, still proceeding.

City Solicitor Peters suggested that the change in police chief had ended the strike by the method of making a determined stand to stop the trouble.

"The war in short was quick and bloody," suggested the City Solicitor.

"Had it been a little quicker it might have been much less bloody," replied the contractor.

WHO RULES THE UNITED STATES?



THIS MAN
In Wall Street, New York

THIS
in Washington

The recent disclosures in the investigation of the United States Steel Corporation, now being held at Trenton by Justices Buffington, Gray and Lannington, have opened the eyes of the people of America to the fact that a perpetual civil war is in progress between the people of the United States and the trusts.

A clever cartoonist has depicted the question that is in the minds of the people by the accompanying picture, entitled "Who rules the United States?"

CITY OPENS UP ITS DEFENCE IN THE CONTRACTORS' SUIT FOR DAMAGES

Supt. of Works, in His Cross-Examination, Admits That the Dump Was Often Ahead of the Retaining Wall Gangs—Witness Described Police Protection as a Farce

Supt. of Public Works M. J. McNeil was the principal witness for the defense examined in this morning's hearing of the case of Watson vs. City. His evidence principally went to show that in his opinion the contruction of retaining walls by the city did not hinder the contractor. He would not swear that lumber taken off the contract by the city had been measured by the city or any city employee, and said that the only time he had had any difference with Watson was when he had threatened to strike him, and then it was witness' fault.

Cross-examined by Mr. W. E. Williams, he admitted that Watson had an end dump some distance ahead of the retaining walls, but this, he maintained did not mean that the retaining wall was hindering the work.

John R. Morgan, contractor, gave clear evidence to show that it was more difficult for a contractor to dump for retaining walls than straight ahead. He described all the evidence of the Superintendent of Public Works as "ridiculous" and said the city's attempt at police protection was a farce.

COAL PROBLEM UP AGAIN; CONTRACT TO BE CANCELED

CHEAP COAL DECIDED ON FOR LIGHT PLANT AFTER DISCUSSION RECENTLY REFUSED BY SUPT. LOVE—NEW TENDERS TO BE CALLED FOR.

The Council coal problem is up again. The present light plant coal contract is to be canceled and new tenders called for.

E. Love, suprintendent of the light plant, wrote last night to the Council complaining that the coal now being delivered is of too poor quality to serve the purposes of the plant. The coal is full of slack, says Mr. Love, and in wet weather weighs so much more that tons are lost to the city. Love also said that the scales are never in the same place on the wharf where he can get them, and on one occasion he found them off balance.

Mr. Love asked the Mayor to cancel the contract for this coal, and Alderman Hilditch accordingly moved that Mr. Kelly, the contractor for the coal, be notified to stop delivery.

The City Solicitor suggested that the contractor should be ordered to pay the difference in price between the poor quality coal and the right stuff. Tenders will be called for 225 tons of steam coal at once.

M'NAMARA MADE FOOLISH BOAST

Said That He Could Not Be Convicted—This Caused McManigal to Turn Against Him.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

Los Angeles, Dec. 8.—"I've got hundreds of thousands of dollars and the American Federation of Labor back of me. It took only $30,000 to clear Vincent Altman at Chicago, and if they could not convict him they cannot convict me."

This boast, attributed today by James McNamara on the train from Detroit to Chicago while under arrest on the night of April 12th, caused Ortie E. McManigal, then also under arrest, to become angered with McNamara for his indiscreet statement and led McManigal to break from his companion, said Detective Malcolm McLaren in his evidence given today before the Grand Jury.

CITY MAKES A BAD ERROR

DAILY EDITION. FRIDAY, DEC. 8

A SOLEMN WARNING TO THE JOURNAL.

Ever since the day that the Journal accommodated The News with mechanical assistance at a time when we were reorganising our plant, The News has had a soft spot in its heart for the Journal. Any little differences of editorial opinion we all have are looked on with calm, nay, generous, emotions.

But there comes a time when it is necessary to sacrifice friendship on the altar of duty. The Journal is free to plead for higher pay for the City Solicitor, or to chide us for not growing enthusiastic over the virtues of the aldermen. We will stand for it without a murmur. But when the Journal announces its recent Sunday edition as "December 26, 1911," it is clearly time to call a halt. This is one of the boldest pieces of misrepresentation that has ever appeared in the Journal.

It is of no use for the editor of the Journal to plead that he had a "morning after" feeling and guessed it was the 26th. Such an explanation ill becomes a good Methodist. Coming so closely after his being honored by a position on the Conservative executive, the public will not be so easily satisfied that the incident is not part of some political plot to deceive the electors.

But the electors will not be deceived. The plot, though daring in conception, and carried out with a bold effrontery worthy of a better cause, will be doomed to defeat. The children who now sit round with copies of the Journal of "Dec. 26th, 1911," in one hand and tear-laden handkerchiefs in the other—mourning the fact that Christmas has passed and Santa Claus has failed to put in an appearance—may dry their tears. The plot has failed.

The Journal still is entitled to a warm place in our affections. It can borrow a galley of type or a monkey wrench or our umbrella at any time without notice. But it must not attempt to bluff the people of Prince Rupert out of their Christmas.

HOW TO KILL YOUR TOWN.

Kick.
Keep kicking.
And don't quit kicking.
One pull one way and one t'other.
Send to other towns and buy your goods.
Denounce your merchants because they make a profit on their goods.
Knife every man who disagrees with you on your method of doing business.
Refuse to unite in any scheme for the betterment of the material interests of the people.
Tell your merchant that you can buy your goods a great deal cheaper in another town and charge him with extortion.
Keep every cent you get, and don't do anything of a public nature unless you can make something out of it directly.
When you say anything of your town say it in such a way that it will leave the impression that you have no faith in it.
Patronize outside newspapers to the exclusion of your own, and denounce your own for not being as large as the bigger city papers.—Plumas Standard.

WRITING LOVE LETTERS

Some People Say That It Is Lost Art Among Modern Men.

Criticism has not been lacking anent the alleged degeneracy of modern love letters. We are told that they are less frequent, shorter and less sincere than their predecessors. On the first two of these counts there may be some grounds for complaint, and the reason is easy to find. For the average young man the business of making a living must necessarily absorb nearly all his time, and—if he is to succeed—the greater part of his attention and thought. Moreover, when he becomes engaged he accepts the responsibility of providing not only for his own needs but also for her's whose comfort and happiness are, or should be, the great care of his life.

It has been suggested that an engaged man should spend at least an hour a day writing to his fiancee; but the sensible girl will remember that an earnest and diligent application to business and to the improvement of his position is far more convincing evidence of the sincerity of her lover's affection than all the letters he could ever write. Far more love can be expressed in an hour's hard work than in half a dozen sheets of notepaper.

FIRST: "CATCH YOUR PRINTER"

DIRECTIONS FOR COOKING A HARE:
FIRST:—"CATCH YOUR HARE"

To produce good printing you must "first catch your good printer. . . You can't get good printing from a poor printer, even if he work with never so good an equipment. If he lacks the "knack," the trained taste, the single-minded fondness for his work which real printers have, he will do poor printing for you. If he has all of these, and in addition to them adequate modern equipment, your printing will have distinction, salesmanship, the lure of type-beauty.

As this office produces good printing you may infer the presence of a good printer—who is "catchable."

. . . . ITEMS OF . . . . SPORT!

At New York the other night George Goulding showed the crowd how to break records at walking. He broke three of them at once. In a three-mile walk he passed the mile and a half mark in 10:17 3-5, two seconds better than the previous time; the two mile mark in 13:45, three and three-fifths seconds better, and the three mile mark in 20:59 3-5, nine and three-fifths seconds better. F. P. Murray made the previous records in the early eighties.

Hal Chase has resigned as manager of the New York American League club. However, he will play first base next season, receiving the same salary.

Chase said: "I have found that a star ball player who can get a big salary is foolish to take up the responsibilities of leading a ball club. I am not crazy for the job. All I want is for Mr. Farrell to pay me what he did last year and I will step out and take care of things at first base."

Con Walsh of Seattle, one of the best known athletes in America, is now in Vancouver. He was a resident of Woodstock, Ont., for a couple of years and went to the last Olympic games as a member of Canada's team. He holds the record for the 56-pound weight for height over a bar and for distance, and also holds the American championship for the hammer throw, having hurled the hammer 177 feet 6 1-2 inches at the A. A. U. championships at Pittsburg last summer. His record throw for distance with the 56-pound weight is 37 feet 2 inches for height, 16 feet 6 1-2 inches, and over the bar 15 feet 1 1-2 inches.

Bruce Ridpath, the Ottawa hockey player who was hurt in an automobile accident at Toronto recently, is recovering fast. His healthy life has counted for him in the days he lay near death's door, but he will be a weak sick man for a long time yet.

A special cable from Australia announces that Jack Donaldson, South African sprinter, is now world's champion in the hundred, one hundred and ten and one hundred and thirty yards distances, following the defeat of Arthur Postle, Australian, and Y. F. Holway, the Massachusetts athlete.

Cosmopolitan and Dickens

CHARLESE DICKENS is still a "best seller." Publishers don't argue pro and con over his books—they just order a new carload of paper, oil the presses, and let them speed on. And it has been over forty years since, one morning when the yard was filled with scarlet geraniums and the breath of syringa was heavy in the air, the great author followed little Nell. Now that the centenary of his birth (February 7th), 1812), approaches and everybody is thinking of Dickens. We have secured several articles which will tell many things about him that have hitherto been unknown. In the January Cosmopolitan his son, Alfred Tennyson Dickns, will tell you some of his own personal recollections of the great novelist. Later, probably in February Mary Angela Dickens, his granddaughter, will give an intimate view of Dickens as she remembers him. In fact, in these and other articls on Dickens which will follow—fully illustrated, of been publishd of thee human—course—we shall aim to give you a more vivid picture than has yet the home—side of the great master, written by those who knew him best. Read the articles—they will surely arouse a new interest in the "best beloved" author in your library. Subscriptions to Cosmopolitan will be accepted until Dec. 10th, at the special low rate to Canada of $1.50. Cosmopolitan Agency, Box 851, Winnipeg.

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

START THE DAY WELL

The Early Morning Note of Cheerfulness Brightens the Day.

Do start your working day right. There is no better message to give to those you meet than a cheerful "good morning." It is only selfishness that makes any one surly and ill tempered at the very beginning of the day.

There was a girl who had a very bad habit of complaining every morning about having to get up so early. One morning while she was complaining as usual the thought suddenly came to her that some time there would come a morning when she would not awaken, when the world would be going on as always, only she would not be there to take her part in it all. She hopped out of bed on the instant, and to this day she has never complained of having to waken early. She is glad each morning just to be living, and she starts the day with a song.

Won't you?

COOKING SWEET POTATOES

There Are a Number of Ways of Treating the Tasty Tuber.

The recipes for cooking sweet potatoes which appeared in The News a few days ago proved so interesting that we are offering some more of the approved ways of cooking this delectable tuber.

Sweet Potato Croquettes—Boil four sized sweet potatoes until thoroughly done, then mash; add pepper, salt, butter and a half pint of peanuts, shelled. Chill and make into molds. Dip in an egg beaten with two tablespoonsful of water and then in bread crumbs. Cook in very hot fat until bread crumbs are brown. Serve with breaded pork chops.

Sweet Potato and Turkey Croquettes — Mix thoroughly two cups of mashed sweet potatoes with two tablespoons of melted butter and a little cream or white sauce, one-half teaspoon of salt and a little cayenne. Add the beaten yolks of one or two eggs and stir over the fire until the mixture leaves the side of the saucepan, then set it aside to cool. Chop finely one cup of the dark meat of cold turkey, mix with it alittle of the brown gravy and form into small balls. Cover with the sweet potato mixture, making larger balls of a uniform size, dip in eggs and bread crumbs and fry in deep fat.

Sweet Potato Balls — Mash thoroughly four good sized sweet potatoes, season with salt, pepper and butter. If necessary add hot sweet milk until the mixture is the right consistency to mold. Make into small balls. Flour lightly and saute in butter. Serve, placing alternately on dish with meat balls or meat croquettes.

THESE TWO GIRLS ARE EXPERT MECHANICS.

Misses Susie and Emma Minder at work in father's machine shop.

TWO WOMEN MECHANICS

They Can Bore a Casting Just as Good or Better Than Any Man.

Gas City, Kas., Dec. 7.—In Frederick Minder's machine shop and foundry two girls swing 18-pound sledges with dexterity and ease unexpected from their sex. Emma and Susie Minder are these "boss workmen" of the Minder foundry. Susie is 24, Emma is two years her junior; both go to work in the morning with their dinnerpails slung over their arms, hale, hearty, well built, German girls.

At the foundry of the machine shop the girls don leather aprons, roll up their sleeves and sail in. Until the evening whistle blows they may be found among the lathes, molds and forges, at the rough work usually done by men.

"Do we like it?" they questioned in chorus.

"Of course we do, or we would not be working here."

"We can do the work so much better than any men father could hire," said Emma, "that father would be willing to pay us more wages than men ask."

There was just one little touch of femininity that crept into the interview, however. It was when the photographer wanted to take their pictures. The girls insisted on making the photographer wait until they had brushed up their hair a bit and had removed their leather aprons.

GONE ON LONG HOLIDAY TRIP

Mr. G. O. Monroe, of The News Staff, Will Have Winter Holiday in West Indies.

By the steamer Prince Rupert there left this morning Mr. G. O. Monroe of the office staff of The Daily News, who is going on a long vacation trip to his home in Boston, and from there will join a holiday party to spend the winter in Jamaica.

Mr. Monroe has been in Prince Rupert since the early days, and has well earned the vacation holiday that he now goes to enjoy. After vacation he will either enter into business in the east with a former partner or, as is more likely, return to Rupert for keeps.

Admiral Schleys Own Story

A man died the other day, and with his death passed America's most popular naval hero—popular because championed by the people, though officially denied the full fruits of his long and brilliant service. This man was Admiral Schley, hero of Santiago, one of the great sea-fighters of history. Shortly before his death Admiral Schley completed for Cosmopolitan a series of articles giving his personal recollections of his forty-five years in in the navy. He was not anxious to do this for there was at least one old sore that an autobiography must reopen. But we urged upon him the fact that nearly four million readers would see each instalment of his story, and most of these readers believed, with Admiral Dewey, that the men who stood on the deck of the Brooklyn that July Sunday in '98 was entitled to the glory of that great victory. So he consented. Not in the cut and dried way, but unlocking his secret soul as he had never done before. The first installment of the autobiography, the life story of a man worth while in the nation's history, appears in the Christmas number, Subscription to Cosmopolitan will be accepted until December 10th at the special low rate to Canada of $1.50. Cosmopolitan Agency, Box 851 Winnipeg.

UNIQUE RETAINING WALL

Nothing Like It in Heavens Above or Earth Beneath.

"Did you ever build a retaining wall of this kind?" asked City Solicitor Peters in cross-examination of Mr. Pillsbury yesterday.

"No, and I don't think anybody else did, either," replied the engineer. (Laughter, promptly suppressed.)

"I do not say this to cast any discredit on the City Engineer," added Mr. Pillsbury, "but rather that I think the city did the best possible with the funds at its disposal."
