DUKE OF CONNAUGHT IS NOW GOVERNOR-GENERAL

CANADA GIVES A ROYAL WELCOME
TO HER NEW GOVERNOR-GENERAL

Duke of Connaught's Arrival is Made the Occasion for a Great Ceremony at Ottawa—National Societies, Cabinet Ministers and the High Court Judges Were Represented—Ottawa People Made the Day a Holiday for Themselves

(Canadian Press Despatch)
Ottawa, Oct. 16.—Ottawa turned out in its numbers on Saturday afternoon and evening and did honor to the new Governor General, the Duke of Connaught and his suite who arrived by special train soon after two o'clock.

The King's Uncle
Ottawa has had many Governor Generals before, but not of Royal birth, and the coming of the uncle of the King of England was therefore made the occasion of more than usually gorgeous ceremony. The weather was fine, and the city was practically in holiday attire and spirit. All classes of citizens assembled at Parliament Hill, and here witnessed the grand spectacles.

Addresses of Welcome
A feature of the welcome was afforded by the national societies of Canada, the St. George's Society representing the English, the St. Patrick's Society representing the Irish, the St. Andrew's Society representing the Scotch, the St. David's Society representing the Welsh, and the St. Jean Baptiste Society representing the French-Canadian peoples. Each of the great national societies presented the Duke with a beautifully inscribed illuminated address; testifying to their allegiance and welcome.

Got to Work
Immediately after the imposing ceremonies were over, and while the rest of the citizens were still engaged in merry making, his Excellency plunged at once into work. The officials were in waiting at Rideau Hall, and as soon as he arrived, various official business was at once proceeded with. This included the signing of the order-in-council calling for the by-elections in those districts whose representatives have been elevated to the Cabinet.

Earl Grey's Rifles held their first drill for the season on Friday night. Captain Stork in command, and there was a fine turnout of the men. In future the Corps will meet for drill on Wednesday nights instead of Fridays as formerly. This arrangement has been found more satisfactory.

Fortunes in Sharks
San Francisco, Oct. 16.—Fortunes in the developments of the shark-catching industry await the venturesome fisherman, according to reports along the waterfront here today. It is said that there are vast hordes of sharks along the coast, with a ready market for the skins, oil and fins in China. The fins sell at 25 cents a pound.

Weather Outside
Wireless reports today from Ikeda and Skidegate show the weather to be fair though cloudy, with smooth seas and light winds. Triangle Island reports sea rough and weather cloudy.

DEDICATED THE
NEW BUILDING

Rev. F. W. Kerr Preached First
Sermon in Presbyterian New Hall Sunday.

Sunday morning saw the first regular service held in the new Presbyterian Church Hall on Fourth avenue. Rev. F. W. Kerr preached from an appropriate text, and there was a large attendance of the congregation. The first gathering held in the hall was the banquet held there last week, but the first religious service was made the occasion for the dedication of the hall as a place of worship. Services will be held there every Sunday morning from now on, but the pastor will continue to hold his evening service in the Empress Theatre as the hall is hardly large enough to hold the evening audiences. The new hall which was the work of the young men of the congregation acting in conjunction with the capable contractors, Messrs. Mitchell, Currie and Watt, is a very substantial and convenient building for its purposes. It will be used as a gymnasium for the young lads during some evenings of the week this winter.

S.S. PRINCESS BEATRICE REPORTED ASHORE

Popular C. P. R. Vessel Ran Aground at Noble Island Last Night—The Princess Royal Went to Her Assistance—No Details to Hand

By wireless message flashed to the Triangle station the C. P. R. Princess Royal last night the Princess Beatrice is ashore at Noble Island, half way between here and Vancouver. The Princess Royal stood by her last night, but proceeded on her way north passing Pine Island at 11.30 p.m. The Royal will not be in to Rupert until late this evening. Only meagre details of the Princess Beatrice are available at the time of writing. She is a wood built boat, and capable of taking a pretty severe grounding without serious damage. No apprehension was felt for the safety of steamer, cargo or passengers, when the

STARVING SAILORS REACH PORT
AFTER SUFFERING GREAT PRIVATION

Two Terrible Tales of the Sea—Schooner Bender Bros. on Trip from Nome to Seattle Had Explosion in Her Gasoline Tanks—Schooner Nottingham Dismasted and Waterlogged in Last Sunday's Gale—Starving Crew Lived for Four Days in the Rigging

(Canadian Press Despatch)
Seattle, Oct. 16.—Two terrible tales of the sea and its hardships came to light yesterday, when the crews of the schooners Bender Brothers and Nottingham came into port. There were thirty-seven of them, all suffering from exposure and starvation, while two of them are severely burned and require hospital treatment.

Voyage from Nome
The schooner Bender Bros. was making the trip from Nome, Alaska. She is a gasoline driven craft. All told she had twenty-five men on board. When but 160 miles from Cape Flattery her gasoline tank exploded, enveloping the ship in flames. After heroic efforts the crew managed to save themselves from being burned up at sea, but the chief engineer and Captain Knaflich were badly injured in the flames.

Food Gave Out
The vessel was then entirely dependent on her sails. After terrible suffering the men managed to navigate their craft in the teeth of the gale, right into port. The last few days were made more terrible by the fact that their food had given out. They were all in a starved condition when they reached Seattle.

Exposed Six Days
The men rescued from the schooner Nottingham had undergone an equally trying experience. Their vessel which is owned by the Globe Navigation Company had left Westport, Washington, for Callao with a cargo of lumber. All went well until they reached the Oregon coast last Sunday and a great gale rose.

Masts Carried Away
The gale carried masts and sails away, and almost capsized the schooner. The water broke open the hatches and poured in, and the vessel became waterlogged. She lay wallowing in the seas day after day. It was impossible for the men to stay on the decks, as the furious seas broke over them.

In Rigging Four Days
Captain Svenson and his eleven men were obliged to cling to the shattered rigging for protection. For four days and nights they survived, suffering agonies from the exposure. They were unable to obtain any food, as their stores were locked up inside the water filled vessel.

Rescued at Last
At last, driven northwards by the gale, the men were picked up by the schooner David Evans, which cared for them and brought them into port after their long sufferings.

ACTOR MADE SPEECH

Mr. W. S. Van Dyke of the Williams Co., Gives Address on Labor Organisation.

In the Majestic Theatre which was crowded last night, Mr. W. S. Van Dyke of the Dave Williams Stock Company, now playing at the Empress, gave a popular address on Labor Organisation under the auspices of the I. W. W. branch in this city. Mr. J. Shaw occupied the chair, and A. O. Morse, organising secretary, took a share in the evening's proceedings, ushering those who attended to their places. Mr. Van Dyke is a personal friend of Mr. Morse, both men holding strong views regarding the organisation of labor for the emancipation of the worker.

In his address last night, Mr. Van Dyke laid emphasis on the imperfections of organisation as practised at present, and showed how the efforts made by those whose interests are opposed to those of the workers have tended to disrupt and render non-effective many unions of workers by the insidious process of separating big unions into smaller individual groups, thus enabling one union to scab upon another indirectly or even directly during times of labor strife. The remedy was, of course, universal union for the wage-workers irrespective of trade, calling, class or training. Mr. Van Dyke who is suffering from a very severe cold, spoke well and proved a popular exponent of his convictions.

DEATH OF OLD-TIMER

Mr. T. C. Birnie Passed Away This Month. Pulpit References Last Night

News reached the city last week of the death of Mr. T. C. Birnie, former partner of the firm of Birnie and MacLachlan in this city, and a well known old-timer of Prince Rupert. Mr. Birnie left this city this spring, and was then in poor health. He went to New Westminister to pursue his business as a real estate agent, and was awaiting the opening up of Port Mann interests when his health grew worse. His death was brought about by the disorders induced by an attack of typhoid fever which seems to have been impending for some time.

Deceased was a strong churchman, and no fewer than four Baptist pastors acted as pall bearers at his funeral at New Westminster. Last night in the McIntyre Hall Rev. W. H. McLeod made a special reference to the late Mr. Birnie, a staunch member of his church while in Rupert. At the close of the service Mr. Davey played the Dead March. Deceased leaves two daughters and two sons besides a widow. They were popular residents of Rupert in the early days.

FIND RICH GOLD
IN LABRADOR

Two Men in a Small Steamer Who Went on Prospecting Trip There Return with Some Rich Samples.

(Canadian Press Despatch)
St. Johns, Nfld., Oct. 14.—What is declared to be the richest gold find since the days of scattered pockets in California, was made by two men who returned today in the small steamer Kite from a voyage to northern Labrador and Baffin Land.

The men, R. S. Elmsley of Ottawa, and Richard White of St. Johns, chartered the steamer three months ago, ostensibly for a trading voyage. They returned with five tons of mineral which they declared at the customs house. The mineral was enumerated as gold quartz, placer gold, iron, mica, plumbago, porphyry, dolomite, rhyolite, leucodiorite and schist. One member of the steamer's crew exhibited a three-ounce nugget of almost virgin gold.

The men refuse to discuss their discoveries. Two patrons of the flowing bowl paid each five dollars and costs at the bar of the police court this morning. They were no old offenders so they shall be nameless.

NEW YORK GIANTS BEAT
THE WORLD'S CHAMPIONS

Leaders of the National League Beat the Leaders of the American League in an Exciting Game at New York by 2-1—Bender Did Great Work

(Canadian Press Despatch)
New York, Oct. 16.—Before an attendance of forty thousand baseball fans who shouted themselves hoarse with delight, the New York Giants, the champions of the National League, defeated the Philadelphia Athletics, the champions of the American League and holders of the title to the world's baseball championship. The game was an exciting one, and was decided by the bare majority of 2 to 1. The Philadelphia team outhit the local men, who owed their victory chiefly to Bender, their pitcher, who struck out eleven to Matthewson's five. The game was in doubt until the last minute. The complete score was:

New York Giants: 2 runs, 5 hits, 0 errors.
Philadelphia: 1 run, 6 hits, 2 errors.
The victory of the Giants caused great elation among the crowds who witnessed the game.

THE MAYOR'S RETIREMENT

The news conveyed by the Mayor's organ that he intends to retire from municipal politics will occasion no surprise. The decision was expected. The Mayor has had ample opportunity during the last few weeks to survey the handwriting on the wall. The lesson has not been lost on him.

At the time Mr. Manson announced his intention to enter municipal politics, the News advised him to reconsider his decision. We took the ground that no man could serve two masters—that it was impossible for one man to be Mayor of Prince Rupert and member for Skeena at the same time without sacrificing one or the other duty. Events have proved that Mr. Manson has sacrificed each in turn. And on top of all his difficulties, has been the added difficulty that always confronts a politician who enters municipal affairs—the inability to keep politics out of the city business.

Now that Mr. Manson has decided to withdraw from municipal affairs, it would be a good opportunity for the best of the citizens to agree together to eliminate party politics from the city administration. Mr. Manson's friends might very well lead in this excellent work. By inducing some competent business man, disassociated from both political parties to stand for Mayor, by selecting aldermanic candidates for their administrative ability instead of for their party fidelity, they might show an excellent example of civic patriotism, that would do them honor.

There is one thing Mr. Manson might do—ought to do—to prove his sincerity as a representative of Prince Rupert in the legislature. He should introduce a bill in the legislature, giving Prince Rupert the power, whenever a majority of her citizens so decide, to have government by commission. Only in that way does the ultimate hope of the city's best interest lie.

At present we are under a strange tyranny. Even if every voter in Prince Rupert wanted commission government, we could not have it. Attorney-General Bowser for some reason struck his pen through the modified demand of the citizens that they be allowed to appoint comptrollers. Until a special Act is passed giving us the right to have commission government we cannot institute it.

The right of a community which has to supply the taxation, to decide what form of local government it will have to administer it, is so manifest as not to require argument. The first thing Mr. Manson should do at Victoria when the legislature reopens is to bring forward a bill giving to the city of Prince Rupert the elemental right to choose what kind of civic government it shall have.

PASSING COMMENT

The Vancouver News Advertiser says that Prince Rupert has expectations of becoming the second largest port on the British Columbian coast.

Not at all. Prince Rupert has expectations of making Vancouver the second largest port on the British Columbian coast.

Tonight, Alderman Newton will have one more splendid opportunity to move that steps be taken to abolish the ward system. Watch him take advantage of it.

There is one good thing to be said in favor of Alderman Newton. Though slow to learn, he believes in copying good examples. Have you noticed how he is remodelling his newspaper to look like the News—at a distance.

FRED A. CLARKE RETURNS TODAY

Young Man Honorably Acquitted from the Serious Charge of Forgery will Remain in Rupert.

Frederick V. Clark, the young Prince Rupert, and who was honorably acquitted at Vancouver recently of the charge of forgery laid against him, returned to the city by the G. T. P. steamer Prince Albert this morning. Mr. Clark is naturally relieved at the result of the trial. His acquittal was the result of the closest possible investigation of the handwriting on the post office money order he was supposed to have forged in the name of his friend Charles Wormald, and stringent examination and cross examination under which he answered all questions unswervingly.

In his charge to the jury Mr. Justice Murphy drew attention to the straightforward demeanour of the accused under examination, and to his undoubtedly first rate character and reputation up to the time of his accusation. Counsel had shown how easy it might be to find similarities in handwriting by different persons. If the jury thought Clark guilty they would be branding him one of the worst types of criminal, a man who would forge the name of his friend. The young man's unblemished record did not seem to bear this out.

After twenty minutes consideration of the evidence, using strong magnifying glasses upon the documents produced in connection with the case the jury returned their verdict, honorable acquitting Clark. Mr. Clark will remain in Prince Rupert where he has many friends.

Mike Donlin says that he has quit play-acting for good and in the future will give all of his time to ball playing.

The Detroit club has secured waivers on Leftfielder Davy Jones and Catcher Charlie Schmidt. It has not been definitely stated what disposition will be made of the veterans, but it is intimated they will go to the American Association.

The share of the players from the five games in the world's series last fall was $79,071.93. Of this amount the Philadelphia players earned $2,062.79 each, and the Chicago players $1,375.16 each. Looks like close to $3,000 for the lucky winners this year.

There will be hockey in New York during the coming winter, and the same league will play in the St. Nicholas rink. The boxing club that had leased the rink was not able to make it a financial success, and the property will revert to its original uses in November.

Bruce Ridpath, the crack hockeyist and canoeist, has secured at big expense a reel of moving picture films showing his remarkable stunts in the water with a canoe and will exhibit them through out Canada during the fall and winter.

At the recent Braemar Gathering the most important athletic meet held in Scotland in the year, both on account of the quality of the program and the fact that it is always attended by Royalty, tossing the caber, a feat calling for more strength and agility probably than any other, was won this year by Alexander McIntosh, a man of 63. It was a bonny sight to see this apparently old man, as far as his age, long white hair, and beard were concerned, enter the lists against the cream of Scotland's heavyweight athletes, and defeat them all with consummate ease. This is but another corroboration of the fact that athletics, when properly practised and persevered in, preserve one's physical powers to quite an advanced age.

At the finish of the Q. O. R. matches an interesting shoot-off was witnessed for the Dominion revolver championship gold medal. Todd and Rutherford tied this year at Ottawa, as they did the previous year, and a remarkable thing was that this year, as in the year before, they tied again in the shoot-off, and it was then decided by a single shot, Rutherford making a bull's eye, while Todd was a little low. The medal has been held by members of the Toronto Revolver Club for the past five years, Lieut. Jefferys winning it five years ago. Todd won it for the two following years in succession, while Rutherford secured it for the last two years. The latter is also a member of the Bisley rifle team for 1912.

Fight fans are incensed over the decision given Monte Attel at the end of his ten-round fight with Johnny Daly. By a burst of speed in the final rounds Daly hurt Attel's eye and had him groggy. After the fight, when Attel offered to shake hands, Daly tried to whip him with bare fists. A near-riot ensued.

Royal Dog Lover
Princess Mary is very fond of dogs and when the quartermen of North Wales presented her brother, the Prince of Wales, with a Welsh terrier, Gwen, in commemoration of his investiture, she immediately adopted it. She is seldom seen on her early morning walks without a dog and her brother is willing that she should oversee his dog in her kennels.

The two houses of the Icelandic Parliament have unanimously given the vote to every woman over twenty-five years of age. They have also given women full equality before the law and the right of holding any office in the State.

THE COSY CORNER

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

HIS TASTE

Why a Girl's Sweetheart Often Likes Her Best in Her Oldest Dress.

"I was much amused the other day," says Ruth Cameron, "when I asked another girl who was showing me her trousseau, which 'himself' liked the best, and she answered indignantly, 'I'm ashamed to tell you. He's perfectly ridiculous about it. He insists he likes THIS the best.' 'THIS' was a simple, inexpensive blue gingham morning gown with a dainty little sailor collar of ham-burg. The gown cost perhaps two dollars for the material and represented very little work, but it was made on fine simple lines—it was exquisitely fresh and dainty and it was out of a style and color which became her perfectly.

"Judged by standards of expense and effort, it was a decidedly inferior thing.

"But the man did not judge that way. He judged by the standard of actual effectiveness and beauty, by the actual pleasure he received from looking at the gown. The little blue morning gown was undoubtedly more genuinely effective than the elaborate steel crepe meteor, or the wonderfully embroidered green and black marquisette, and he was wise enough to know it.

"I wish more women could judge clothes by this standard. 'And do you know, I think, a great many men—especially the worth while ones—do.

"Women do not realise this. They fret and fume and tire themselves out to win men's admiration by extensive and costly and elaborate wardrobes, while the simple and inexpensive, but becoming thing, means just as much, or vastly more to him.

"What Jane Austen said a hundred years ago is as true today as it was then. 'I would be mortifying to the feelings of many ladies, could they understand how little the best of men is affected by what is costly or new in their attire, how little moved by the texture of the muslin, how unsuspensible of peculiar tenderness towards the sprigged, the spotted, the mull or the jackcoat. Woman is fine for her own satisfaction alone.'"

ABOUT SLEEVES

Kimono Sleeves Will Certainly Last Out the Season and More.

That the kimono sleeve has every intention of surviving the change of season is evident. Even among the best of the imported models one finds it, and the domestic models unhesitatingly confess allegiance to it, but long sleeves are a feature of some of the most successful frock and blouse models, and it seems safe to prophesy that the ultra-modish woman of the winter will choose long sleeves for her daytime frock.

The frill falling over the hand is a feature of the newest and most modish lingerie blouses, long-sleeved, of course, and of many other blouses and bodices as well. This feeling for the long sleeve is as yet confined chiefly to imported models, and among the cheaper costume blouses and frocks one seldom sees a long sleeve, but there will probably be a change later if the foreign influence makes itself clearly felt, and the long sleeve is once more accepted by the fashionable folk.

THE NEW NECKWEAR

Very Dainty Fashions Reign Now for Pretty Necks

New neckwear, keeping pace with other revivals, asserts itself in short, broad, plaited frills of black, white, and grey mousseline de soie. This frill, exactly like those of long ago, is divided into unequal portions, the narrower left for the top, by a ribbon twisted through the middle and then used to tie it together in front or at the back, as one prefers, although these frills soon lose their freshness and beauty, they are becoming and add just the amount of warmth necessary with the prevailing fashion of unlined guimpes and stock collars. They are especially welcome to the woman who still clings to the round, collarless neck. Occasionally one sees these plaited frills tied with long velvet ribbons that reach below the waist line. Short-necked boas of black ostrich feathers are smartly tied with a beige ribbon rosette to match in color the parasol or the feathers of the hat. Rich royal blue is particularly desirable in this connection.

There is nothing prettier than hemstitched white marquisette for collars and cuffs. For winter gowns and blouses it is charming, and is seen on many new models. One can make a set in an hour or two at home. The cost is insignificant and the effect charming. For those in mourning, white marquisette accessories are very pretty on blouses of chiffon or crepe, or on serge frocks.

Some Arguments Against Woman Suffrage

Women would forsake their children to vote.

They would not vote at all.

Their political antagonism to their husbands would destroy the family.

They would vote as their husbands vote.

They now hold a superior position.

They are and should be subordinate.

They are not equipped to teach.

Their chief duty is to train their children's minds.

They should become experts in government before seeking the franchise.

They should leave the study of political problems to their husbands.

They are now accorded equal opportunities to earn their livings.

They ought not to compete with men in the rude world of business.

They are not fitted for holding office.

They are now permitted to serve on local bodies.

They should be satisfied with the existing enlightened government.

Politics is a mire of corruption.

They cannot understand or appreciate economics.

Their business is to manage the household and safeguard the expenditures.

They are too ignorant to vote.

They are too wise to want to vote.

ELECTRIC HOTEL IS THE LATEST

Current Does Everything Except to Pay One's Bill—You Have to Do That Yourself.

The interesting news comes from Paris that a hotel will be built there in which all the domestic service will be performed by electricity. If the promoters of the scheme keep their promises, everything will be done by electricity except the guests' payment of their bills. Even then they can give the cashier a shock by refusing to pay.

There will be no waiters, no bellhops, no coat boys, no chambermaids, and consequently no tips. If a guest arrives home at 3 a.m. all he will have to do is to touch a button, which will turn an electric sun, and then he can say to his wife:

"My dear, you're really getting lazy. Look at me. I'm up and dressed."

If he feels that he needs a cocktail he can touch another button. One touch brings a martini, two whisky, three a Manhattan, four vermouth, five an ambulance. In answer, a dumb-waiter rises through the floor either to bring the desired bracer, or, when need be, to lower the guest to the ambulance.

The hotel promoters lay much stress on the fact that all their waiters are dumb. In place of the ordinary Swiss, who only stand and wait, instead of running and serving, there will be automatons run by electricity, and guaranteed not to spill soup down your back or creamed asparagus in your lap. The dining table will be decorated with flowers raised by inter-sive electrical culture in both winter and summer, for there will be no seasons in this hotel; push a button and you're warmer than when you see another fellow walking with the "only dear one on earth;" push another button and you're colder than when the other fellow frigidly asks, "What the devil are you doing here?"

One of the features of the hotel will be an electric orchestra, in which all kinds of stringed instruments will apparently play of their own accord. The inventor, a Frenchman named Giorgio Knap, who has spent years experimenting with the various devices, asserts that they are now absolutely perfect, and has formed a company under the name "Société des Hôtels Electriques" for the purpose of building electric hotels in every big city throughout the world.

Without the surveyor, cities in B. C. simply wouldn't happen. So the cities that do happen keep their surveyors fit. Following is the month's supply for a survey party on municipal work for Prince Rupert at Woodworth Lake: 1 sack potatoes, 1 sack cabbage, 1 sack carrots, 1 sack turnips, 1 sack onions, 1 sack parsnips, 2 sacks flour, 1 case eggs, 50 lbs. rolled oats, 10 lbs. buckwheat, 20 lbs. cornmeal, 15 lbs. tea, 15 lbs. coffee, 1 case tomatoes, 15 lbs. dried apples, 15 lbs. apricots, 1 case canned peaches, 50 lbs. fresh meat every week, 10 lbs. split peas, 1 small cheese, 10 lbs. macaroni, 25 lbs. navy beans, 10 lbs. lima beans, 4 hams, 100 lbs. white sugar, 2 cases cream, 1 gal. molasses, 2 gallons syrup, 1 case yeast cakes, 10 lbs. baking powder, 1 lbs. baking soda, 1 can cinnamon, 1 can each allspice, cloves, nutmeg, ginger, mace, pastry spice and red pepper, 10 lbs. salt, 50 lbs. compound of lard and beef fat, one quart vinegar, one large tin, mustard, one case assorted jams, one case pickles, 1 case pumpkin, one small bottle Mapeline, one bottle lemon flavor, one bottle vanilla, half a gallon Worcester sauce.

PRETTY WEDDING HELD

Miss Hester Kergin Became Bride of Mr. J. C. Halsey on Saturday.

At the home of Dr. Kergin at eight p.m. on Saturday evening a charming wedding ceremony was held, the bride being Miss Hester Kergin, and the groom Mr. J. C. Halsey of this city. Rev. Charles Sing officiated, and the bride was given away by Dr. Kergin, her brother. The bride wore a very pretty gown of Queen satin with a cream chiffon overdress and delicate lace veil with wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a beautiful bouquet of roses. Her bridesmaid, Miss MacMaster, wore a dainty dress of pink and carried a bouquet of roses. Little Fred Kergin acted as a charming little ring-bearer, and Mr. J. Thomson was groomsmen.

The rooms were tastefully decorated with carnations, pinks, and a profusion of similar flowers and a bright reception followed the ceremony at which about thirty of the friends of bride and bridegroom were present. Many handsome gifts were received by the young couple who left by the Camosun yesterday morning for their honeymoon trip. They will return to reside in Prince Rupert, in the cottage lately occupied by Mr. Benson on Fifth avenue near McBride street. Both bride and bridegroom are very popular in Rupert.

AT THE THEATRE

Williams Co. Present "Ole Olsen" to crowded House Saturday—An Amusing Success.

"Ole Olsen" as staged on Saturday night by the Dave Williams Stock Company drew a full house, latecomers to the non-booked seats being even compelled to content themselves with standing room only, and the reserved seats being filled.

Again the company did excellently giving enjoyment unstintingly to the audience. It was interesting to note the number of re-bookings evident. Nearly everyone who saw the first plays put on by the company booked again for their latest performance.

"Ole Olsen" as a comedy gives Mr. Williams his opportunity all through to show his humorous gifts and talent as an actor in the part of the kind and ingenious Swede of the title role. Miss Marguerite Doyle too had specially good chances to demonstrate again to Prince Rupert that she is a comedienne of winsome ways and sparkling talent. The part of "Genie Dimple" suits her to perfection. Miss Ora Wolff had a part to suit her excellently in that of "Mrs. Flannigan," Byron Aldenn as "Dr. Shingle" was most amusing, and George Sweatman in the role of "Jeff Bassett" did his work capably. As "Paul Jorden" Mr. S. Van Dyke with little to do did that little just right, and Miss Pinkie Mullaly in the role of "Mrs. Jorden" acted with taste and restraint relieving the frankly funny phases of the play with touches of pathos. Master Willie played all there was to play in "Little Phillip" very well.

Specialties were introduced most successfully during the acts by Mr. George Sweatman in humorous songs, Mr. Arthur Cyril in Scotch songs and a parol dance which proved a roof-raiser, and Miss Marguerite Doyle with fetching songs. Altogether "Ole Olsen" upheld the company's already good reputation and tonight's performance of King's Evidence will be pleasurably anticipated.

KING'S EVIDENCE

Williams Dramatic Company Have a Strong Play for Tonight.

"King's Evidence" is the bill for tonight at the Empress, and is one of the best comedy bills the Williams Company put on. There is a plot, a good one, and there is comedy enough to satisfy every one. There is sensational action and climaxes enough to warm the blood of the most seasoned theatre goer.

It would have been impossible for the company to put on this play if it were not for the kindness of Mrs. Bryon Casley in allowing her little daughter Lottie to play the child's part. It is a sweet, quaint, child's part to which little Lottie Casley will do full justice. Mr. Dave Williams as "Isaacs the Jew" has a chance to show his ability as a comedian, a chance which he makes the very most of and the whole company are well cast.
