DAWSON JUDGE TAKES STEP TO STOP GAMBLING

"OUR REGIMENT" SCORED QUITE A DECISIVE VICTORY

FIRST PRODUCTION OF THE PRINCE RUPERT AMATEUR DRAMATIC SOCIETY WAS A DISTINCT SUCCESS—PLAY WELL RECEIVED BY A PACKED HOUSE.

"Our Regiment" scored another gallant victory in the Empress Theatre last night, officered by members of the Prince Rupert Dramatic Society. It was the first engagement they had figured in, and all acquitted themselves well. Every seat in the theatre was filled, and the company were well received. The ladies received bouquets from the audience, and all received unstinted applause and appreciation.

The plot of the piece is a well-known one. Three male specimens of the genus chump, Capt. Fetherston and Guy Warrener of the Eighth Lancers, and Rev. John Talbot, curate of Mudborough, all college chums, fall in love with three winsome ladies at the house of Mr. Dobbinson, a retired merchant who detests soldiers. The guardian of the lady who is wooed by the curate detests clerics. After a chapter of amusing misfortunes everything gets straightened out by Providence, assisted by Mrs. Dobbinson, a strong-minded lady with a surplus of common sense and a henpecked husband.

Frank Ellis as the flighty curate, and Mr. W. R. Whitley as Captain Guy Warrener, a suave hunter for heiresses, figured in most of the fun-making, though all the characters were excellently taken. The ladies were all very charming, and the gowns exquisite. Mrs. P. I. Palmer took the part of the heiress Enid Thurston, Miss Mercer the part of Maud Ellaby, who inspired a fluttering in the curate's heart, and Mrs. Bullock-Webster the part of Olive Dobbinson. In the character part of Mrs. Dobbinson Miss Milligan did very good work.

Of the men in the play Mr. Irving Linnell took the part of Mr. Dobbinson and Mr. W. E. Fisher the part of Dobbinson's friend Ellaby. Mr. S. Harrison presented a martial figure as Captain Fetherston, who won the heiress and kept her in "our regiment." In the minor role of the servant Batters Mr. James Russell did some good humorous work. The presentation of the piece reflects very great credit upon Mr. Bullock-Webster, on whom the burden of production fell.

FIRST TRAIN TO ALBERNI OPENED NEW LINE TODAY

OPENING OF NEW VANCOUVER ISLAND LINE WILL MEAN A GREAT DEAL TO THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE TIMBER, FISH AND MINERAL RESOURCES.

Victoria, Dec. 21.—Amid general rejoicings the first train into Port Alberni steamed into that town today in five hours from Victoria. When the complete plans are carried out Alberni will be but four hours from Vancouver. The steamer connection to Nanaimo will take two hours, and from Nanaimo to Port Alberni another two hours. The line from Victoria passes through Nanaimo.

The linking up of the line across Vancouver Island to Alberni marks a great step in the development of Vancouver Island. Situated at the head of Barkley Sound Alberni has a magnificent harbor and fisheries and also taps a district exceedingly rich in timber, agricultural and mineral resources. The scenic beauty of the Alberni district, and its wonderful climate, have made it for some time a resort of those tourists who could afford to motor to Alberni over the mountain road in the Beaufort Range. As one of the richest and rarest spots in Comox-Atlin, and the whole Pacific Coast, the completion of the line to Alberni means a great deal to the development of the British Columbia coast.

DAWSON PUTS END TO GAMBLING

Judge McCauley and the Mounted Police Make a Clean-Up of the Entire Gambling Element in the Yukon Town

EVEN SPECTATORS WERE HEAVILY FINED

Principals in Addition to a Fine of $100 and Costs Each, Were Also Given Three Months' Jail Sentence—Capt. Horrigan of R.N.W.M.P. Tells Gamblers That the Game is Up, That Lid is on Tight and Will Remain On Dawson, Dec. 20.The roundup of gamblers in Dawson is now being pushed to a conclusion. The edict has gone forth that the games must cease here forever.

Six men charged with keeping common gambling houses and eleven charged with playing or looking on at gambling games in the houses run by the first six were before Judge McCaulay, who fined the proprietors $100 and costs and also sentenced each to three months' imprisonment at hard labor. However, the sentence of imprisonment was suspended during good behavior.

The Judge made it plain that if any come before him again on like charges they will be required to serve the three months laid down in connection with this offense.

Of the eleven spectators four were fined $20 and costs and the others $100 and costs, or given the option of two months in jail. They are paying.

The Judge made it plain that hereafter no fines will be extended. He declared that gambling must stop in Dawson for all time, and that he will do all in his power to see that those who attempt it are punished.

After the cases had been disposed of today Captain Horrigan, commanding officer of the Mounted Police, stated that the lid had been put on tight and will remain on. The gambling and loafing element, says the Captain, is detrimental to the community and those who will not work, but try to live off those who do earn their money by hard work may as well make up their minds that the game is up.

ANOTHER WRIT AGAINST CITY

E. C. Latrace Files Document in Relation to Action to Recover $500 Damages from the City for Delays.

Another writ has been issued against the city. The claim this time is for $500 damages, the action being raised by E. C. Latrace, who was contractor for plank roadways. Registrar Burritt filed the writ yesterday afternoon, and it has been served on the city in time for tonight's Council meeting.

An impression exists in certain circles that the present Council clique, responsible for the fighting of the contractors' cases, are going to appeal against the judgment of Mr. Justice Clements. No definite ground for the rumor is obtainable yet from City Hall sources.

Today a picturesque wedding ceremony took place in the Three Star Hotel on Fraser street, the bride being Miss Evica Wukocratovich and the bridegroom Mr. Nick Rocovich. The bride is a pretty young Austrian girl and the bridegroom a finely built Montenegrin.

The betrothal and handing over of the ring took place last Sunday and the bridegroom and sixty stalwart friends marched to the home of the bride on Fifth avenue this forenoon with the Slavonian and Canadian flags at the head of the procession. They escorted the bride to the hotel, where dancing, feasting and lively singing of national songs was kept up until late. Bride and bridegroom took hearty share in the dancing, the bride wearing her white dress, veil and floral wreath.

RUPERT'S SHARE SHOULD BE BIG

Government Spent $11,000,000 Last Year Developing Harbors. Vancouver and Victoria Shared Largely.

Over $11,000,000 was the sum spent by the Dominion Government during the past year in developing harbors on the Canadian coast. Ten years ago only $4,000,000 was spent, and twenty years ago only $2,000,000, approximately. Harbor buildings, such as the quarantine and marine stations at Prince Rupert, come into the estimates, also all work such as deepening rivers and estuaraies, etc. Vancouver and Victoria cam ein for a goodly share of the developing going, and the port of Toronto also received attention. A growing share in this expenditure will be due to rising Prince Rupert in future years.

SECTION TWO BRIDGE

Two Novel Plans are Proposed ofr Dividing the Cost.

The committee of section two ratepayers, composed of S. P. McMordie, Dr. Kergin, R. A. White, W. A. Ferguson, M. Albert and J. A. Hilditch, who are to go into the cost of platting and rough grading the section will also consider the question of a high level bridge to that section.

Wm. Manson, M.P.P., has suggested distributing the cost of this bridge in three, amongst the Government, the G.T.P. and the city. An idea which comes in for considerable consideration is that of W. J. Alder, who suggested that the distribution be into four, the three parties named, and the owners of section two lots.

THE G. T. P. AND THE HAZELTON TOWNSITES.

The strong attitude taken by Chairman Mabee in regard to the Hazelton townsites will do a great deal to clear the country of doubtful townsite propositions, and create confidence in the electors. All who know Judge Mabee personally felt quite sure that the action of the railway company in forcing a sale of the South Hazelton property as the official Hazelton townsite before the change had been sanctioned by the Railway Commission would be visited with dire wrath. The Chairman of the Railway Board is the strongest man in Canada. His magnificent physique, and voice like the rumblings of thunder, only dimly betoken the great spirit of the man.

An eminent member of the Ontario bar voiced regrets to the writer when "Jim" Mabee left the bar for the bench. Many judges expressed their regret later when their "learned brother Mabee" left the bench after a brief but masterly period to become Chairman Mabee of the Railway Commission. But those who knew the precautions which Mr. Justice Mabee took to ensure absolute freedom of hand in his new position felt sure that he saw in the chairmanship of the Railway Commission an opportunity to serve the people of Canada in a way for which he was, in a singular sense, pre-eminently fitted.

The general public rather misunderstood Mr. Justice Morrison's action in dismissing the injunction for which Mr. Robert Kelly had applied on behalf of the owners of New Hazelton. It was not because he thought Mr. Kelly had no just claim for an injunction. On the contrary, he told him that he had done the right thing in applying for an injunction, as showing that he had done all he could to stop the sale. "But," he argued, "if I grant an injunction I must take the view that the Railway Board will be influenced by any sales that the defendants may make previous to their sitting. I cannot make any such assumption."

Mr. Kelly's action was really in the interests of the railway company as well as in the interests of the investing public. Had the injunction been granted it would have saved the company from the heavy expense of advertising and conducting the sale, and also from the charge of bad faith to the public. It would also have saved the company from the excoriation of the Chairman of the Railway Commission.

The outcome of the incident should give satisfaction to all who desire the progress of the Pacific Coast. Confidence is necessary if capital or immigration is to come. If the railway company has no respect for its promises, it is a measure of satisfaction to know that the Railway Board is prepared to see that the company does not lightly step out of its obligations to the public.

. . . . ITEMS OF . . . . SPORT!

MIKE GIBBONS' RISE

The Story of a Welterweight Who Is on the Road to Fame.

Six weeks ago local sporting men had never heard of Mike Gibbons, the wonderful St. Paul welterweight, who is probably the greatest boxer in the world, although only 20 years old.

Gibbons, with a St. Paul sporting man who furnished a railroad ticket, started for New York a month ago. The young boxer had won several bouts in the Northwest, including two from Jimmy Clabby, and believing that he might earn some good money here, he made the journey without a flourish of trumpets.

Going straight to the Polo Athletic Club Gibbons saw Manager Newman. "I've come here to box some of your best boys," said Gibbons. "All I want is a chance."

Newman, though he never had seen or heard of the St. Paul wonder, promptly dug up several rough and ready boxers who train at the club and introduced them to Gibbons. In a few minutes the gloves were put on and Gibbons in his shirt sleeves proceeded to slam his opponents all around the gymnasium. Two young men were knocked down and another received a "blue eye" in less time than it takes to tell it. Newman's eyes fairly popped out of his head as he saw Gibbons move about the floor space. He had seen all of the great boxers during 30 years past, yet Gibbons seemed better than any of them.

"I'll give you a match with a fellow named Sherman, a former battle shipsailor," said Newman. "He'll meet you in a week."

Gibbons was delighted, and when he met Sherman sporting men wondered what he was like. In four rounds Gibbons displayed remarkable skill and finally knocked Sherman out. Newman told him he could have a match with Willie Lewis at the Fairmont A. C.. Gibbons outclassed Lewis in a ten-round bout so easily that ring followers were astonished. For that victory he received only $500, which, he said, was big money.

Then came his clean-cut triumph over Walter Coffey at the Fairmont A. C. last week, for which he pocketed a trifle more than $900. But the money was nothing compared to the reputation he established as a superb boxer and probably the best welterweight in the profession.

The remarkable feature of Gibbons' ability is the fact that he combines boxing skill with hard hitting.

Abe Attell, the featherweight champion, also a great boxer, after watching Gibbons trim Coffey last week, said:

"Gibbons has a head. He is one of the foxiest men I've ever seen. One of the secrets of his success is the way he makes the other fellow miss. He doesn't jump away so far that his opponent misses him by a yard, for that would be discouraging. He avoids blows by so small a margin that his antagonist constantly believes he can land if he keeps on trying. His feinting is a treat, his footwork is marvelous, and when he starts a punch he doesn't miss. He has a wonderful pair of eyes and is a quick thinker. Just say for me that Gibbons is a wonder."

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

CHRISTMAS FOR BABIES.

A Few Hints on the Difficult Art of Choosing Presents.

Everyone who loves a baby—and everyone does—will take pleasure in buying something dainty for the little tot's Christmas. There are innumerable pretty articles for them which are reasonable in price.

When usefulness and daintiness can be combined it is a double triumph for the creator of merchandise. Under this head we find many articles offered in the shops. For instance, a pair of crochet slippers in pinks and blues would be acceptable after the walking age. Lovely little bootees, hand knitted, some high and some low cut, and the soft sole kind shoes are sold in white, tan, black, pink and blue.

If there is danger of the baby spilling out or a mother is afraid of it, one can buy a satin carriage strap to which is attached an indestructable doll, a whistle, a rattle and a ring which will keep the baby busy and awake.

Ribbon armlets sometimes save the baby's temper, for no normal baby likes to scratch his nose with a lot of dress and sleeve over its hand.

A safety pin holder is made of two pieces of satin ribbon an inch wide, on the ends of which are white rings. These rings hold safety pins of several sizes. The ribbons are decorated by hand and attached to a bow at the top.

The celluloid toilet sets come delicately painted in small flowers, of five pieces, comb, brush, soap box, powder box and rattle. Each article can be bought separately, making a nice gift.

Baby muffs are made of white bearskin with a small head on them, and are in eiderdown or fur trimmed.

WON'T WED FOR $5,000,000

C. F. Corbin of Connecticut Provokes Young Marriageables by Declining Father's Request.

Merriden, Conn., Dec. 20.—Unless Charles F. Corbin, son of the late Phillip Corbin, head of the American Hardware Company, marries or becomes engaged before next Saturday he will lose a considerable part of his share in the final settlement of his father's $5,000,000 estate.

Mr. Corbin is not really in need of the money which his father held out as a lure to the matrimonial noose and marriageable young women throughout the state regard his indifference as most provoking. In reply to a flood of inquiries he only says:

"I am not married; I don't expect to be married before Saturday and, in fact, I don't expect to be married at all. The financial reward is not sufficient for me to take the chance."

CANDY FOR CHRISTMAS.

A Good Recipe for Making Chocolate Fudge.

Two cups granulated sugar, 1 cup milk or water, 2 ounces chocolate (grated) or 3 tablespoons cocoa, one-eighth teaspoon cream of tartar or one-fourth cup of corn syrup, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 teaspoon vanilla.

1. Method: Put sugar, cream of tartar, chocolate, butter and water in a saucepan; stir until dissolved.

2. Cook until it makes a soft ball when dropped from a spoon into cold water.

3. Add vanilla, after mixture has slightly cooled.

4. When the candy is done beat until thick enough to spread o na buttered pan or platter.

5. Cut in squares when cool.

Note—When testing candy for the "soft ball" stage remove saucepan of hot syrup from the fire each time the test is made. This is to prevent further cooking while testing if the candy is done.

A big reduction has also been made in raincoats and ladies' and children's coats.
