TERRIBLE DISASTER DURING LAST NIGHT'S GALE

BOTH SIDES SCORING BY VICTORIES IN CHINA

(Canadian Press Despatch.)
 Peking, Nov. 29.—Hanyang has been occupied by the Imperial forces. Wu Hang has made a provisional capitulation and it is evident the Government is getting a strong hand in that part of Hupeh province, where a few weeks ago the rebels seemed to be in supreme control.
 Nanking, Nov. 29.—At an early hour this morning the rebel forces entered by the four gates of the city.

BLAMES SPARKS FOR THE FIRE

Mr. McMullin Makes Investigation for Report—City Council Enquired into Matter Last Night and Are Considering Evidence.

Government Agent McMullin stated this morning that beyond his own personal investigation into the circumstances of the Registry office fire, on which he will in course report, there will be no inquiry necessary. Mr. McMullin has been making exhaustive enquiry of all concerned and has formed the conclusion that the fire could not have originated from the heating apparatus, as half an hour before the outbreak there was only a very small fire in the furnace. This is vouched for by the janitor.

Mr. McMullin's own conviction is that sparks must have drifted under the building from the piles of burning roots on the cleared Bank of Commerce lots to windward across Fourth street. A photograph taken of the burning building and exhibited hand-colored by the Electric Studio today shows the conflagration to be most intense farther forward than the furnace room.

The City Council held an enquiry into the matter of the fire last night, in which particular attention was paid to the serious mistake of coupling hose onto a dry hydrant. No decision was come to last night, but the evidence taken is being considered by the Council.

THE NIGHT O' NIGHTS

Tomorrow Night is St. Andrew's Ball.

"Yestreen when to the trembling string, the dance gaed thro' the beichted ha'," sang Robbie Burns the day after one of dear old Scotland's far-famed romantic nights of dance and merrymaking. That quotation is for tomorrow. Tomorrow night is the St. Andrew Society dance in the McIntyre Hall. It promises to be a bright and festive assembly.

WILL BURY JOHN CRAWFORD OUT OF THE PUBLIC FUNDS

Investigation was continued regarding the death of John Crawford yesterday afternoon, evidence being given fully substantiating the fact that deceased was intoxicated. He had left the Grand Hotel unobserved after being put into his room to sober up. He had fallen down stairs at the Grand before being put in his room, and then had bled freely. The body will be interred by Hayner Bros. at city expense, as no relatives can be traced.

WON'T PASS RAILWAY PLANS

Judge Mabee This Morning Refused to Sanction G.T.P. Plans for Construction of Line to Mile 3 Westerly MEANS LOSS OF $400,000 SUBSIDY

Chairman of Railway Commission Says that the Construction of the Line is in Contravention of the Railway Act—Case Was Heard in Prince Rupert—Judgment May Mean the Saving of the Bays

Ottawa, Nov. 29.—Judge Mabee of the Railway Commission this morning refused Mr. D'Arcy Tate's application that the Railway Commission approve the company's plans for the construction of the line from Mile 0 at Prince Rupert, to Mile 3 westerly. The application was made at Prince Rupert during the sitting of the commission, and judgment was given today.

In his judgment Judge Mabee says that all that portion of the line constructed before January 1st, 1910, while the Commission had jurisdiction to approve of any line built there, is a contravention of the Railway Act.

Mr. Tate wanted the approval of the Railway Commission in order to secure from the Government a subsidy of $400,000 that had been promised.

SIGNALS FADED AWAY AT THREE O'CLOCK

U. S. Revenue Cutter Tahoma is Speeding to Her Assistance, But It Will be Ten O'clock Tonight Before She Will Reach the Scene of the Disaster—Feared That She Has Foundered in the Darkness—Was Well Known Craft

(By Dominion Government Wireless System)

At three o'clock this morning the wireless station at Triangle Island received an urgent message for help from the steamer Tees, of the C. P. R. fleet, which had struck a rock in Kyoquot Sound on the West coast of Vancouver Island, during the gale. No vessel was in sight and the wireless station was unable to pick up a vessel in the neighborhood.

The United States Revenue Cutter Tahoma was communicated with in the neighborhood of Cape Flattery, and she at once made all speed to reach the unfortunate vessel, but it will be ten o'clock tonight before she can be at the scene of the disaster.

While the wireless station was speaking, the signals from the distressed vessel faded away, before it was possible to obtain her exact position. Nothing has been heard of her since three o'clock this morning.

COSMOPOLITAN IN DICKENS

CHARLES DICKENS is still a "best seller." Publishers don't argue pro and con over his books—they just order a new load of paper, oil the presses, and let them speed on. And it has been over forty years since one morning when the yard was filled with sear, geraniums and the breath of syringa was heavy in the air the great author followed little Nell. Now that the centenary of his birth (February 7th, 1812) approaches, everybody is thinking of Dickens. We have secured several articles which will tell many things about him that have hitherto been unknown. In the January Cosmopolitan his son, Alfred Tennyson Dickens, will tell you some of his own personal recollections of the great novelist. Later, probably in February, Mary Angela Dickens, his granddaughter, will give an intimate view of Dickens as she remembers him. In fact, in these and other articles on Dickens which will follow—fully illustrated, of course—we shall aim to give you a more vivid picture than has yet been published of the human—the home—side of the great master, written by those who knew him best. Read the articles—they will surely arouse a new interest in the "best beloved" author in your library. Subscriptions to Cosmopolitan will be accepted until December 19th at the special low rate to Canada of $1.50. Cosmopolitan Agency, box 851, Winnipeg.

SPORTS

The expenses for the Vancouver team in the forthcoming bowling tournament at Los Angeles is being raised in a novel way. The expenses of the trip will be considerable and in order that only the very best talent in the city may be entered in the new league an entry fee of $10 will be required from each person selected to participate in the try-out games, which will give the sum of $300 as a nucleus of the expense fund. To this "Uncle Joe" Morris will add a personal donation of $100, and in other ways it is expected to raise a further $100. The sum total of $500 will be divided among the men journeying to Los Angeles, giving to each $100, a sufficiency to insure a pleasant trip south. As an added incentive to the best bowlers in the city to enter the contest, prizes of a considerable intrinsic value will be awarded to the members having the highest average, the highest individual score and the highest average for three games in a single night. In addition the Vancouver Bowling club will donate gold medals to the team winning the gonfalon in the race though the individual need not necessarily be the men selected for the trip to the Bowling Congress.

When Frank Schulte was 17 years of age his father offered him $1,000 to burn his baseball uniform and give up the game. Schulte Sr. has changed his mind about the game since "Wildfire" became one of its greatest exponents.

The New York Giants, second best baseball team in the world, started on Monday their trip to Cuba, where a series of twelve games with the best teams in the island. The team will return before the holidays. The trip is being managed by Frank G. Bancroft, while John J. McGraw will have charge of the players.
