LONDON SUFFERS FROM ANOTHER ZEPPELIN RAID

VIOLENT ARTILLERY ACTIONS ON WESTERN FRONT

The Foreign Minister Of France Resigns From Ill Health

French Keeping Back Enemy Along Western Front

Paris, Oct. 13.—Strong German forces have attacked the French lines around Souchez and Viny. Violent bombardments were made preceding infantry attacks. They were renewed from time to time, and desperately carried out. The Germans succeeded in penetrating some trenches, which were badly shattered by shells, but were repulsed everywhere else with heavy losses.

Britain is preparing for another big advance, and the French are making continued progress.

There is artillery fighting of great intensity between Somme and the Oise, near Andrehy and east of Rheims. The German batteries are active south of Tahure and east of Butte de Menil.

Care Of Wounded At Front Explained By A. Noble

There was a good attendance at the meeting held in St. Andrew's Hall last evening to hear A. Noble speak upon how the soldiers at the front fared in the matter of hospital attention. His address was an excellent one. The speaker gave the highest praise to the women workers of the Empire. Major McMullin presided, and in a brief speech introduced Mr. Noble.

Mr. Noble said that the boys at the front all appreciated what was being done for them at the front. To the ladies of Canada and to the ladies of the Empire was due the fact that no soldiers had ever served under better conditions as far as comforts were concerned. In France, as they went along, there were booths kept up by voluntary offerings in the way of hot coffee and other comforts. These were served at every stop. These things went to show that every one's heart was in the fight. It was a just cause.

The speaker said that he had never seen a case of infection. This was due to the use of iodine, which was served out to everyone as a package of first aid.

He told of his own experience in getting away from the field to the dressing station. He was able to get away himself. Examined there, he was given a little attention and then sent to a hospital, where he was attended to. From that they were hurried along to hospitals where they were kept until they were able to get to the base hospital. In the case of the Canadian it was in Rouen. He paid a compliment to the nurses that were there from Canada. They were a credit to the country. They did everything for the men under their care, looking after them as a mother. He instanced a case where the nurse dissatisfied with the way the eggs and toast were served, she looked after it herself.

Lincoln Hospital, where he convalescend in England, had been a school. The attention given them there was all that could be desired. Strangers went on the street and took them in for tea. Autos drove up daily and took the patients out into the country for an airing.

He told how everyone helped in the war. The villages would give eggs and other supplies, which were carried free. The work being done for the wounded was none too much. This could be understood where out of 823 men that went over with the battalion, in which Prince Rupert was represented, 626 men were killed or wounded in about two months.

All day long the artillery kept up its fire. At night the work was done. The men were burying the dead, carrying munitions and rations. A man came out of the trenches after four or five days there shattered in nerves and requiring practically a new outfit. There was therefore need for all kinds of supplies.

Mr. Noble quoted the words of Gen. Alderson's, which was read to them in the hospital—and which he praised the Canadians for what they had done. Words like these meant something from a man of the record of Gen. Alderson.

It was said that less than 5 per cent. of the men that got to a hospital in this war died of their wounds. With this so, how much less would it be were men trained in first aid, such as the Red Cross Society gave. He referred to the fact that the society was sending its contributions to the front. He thought they should make a good showing.

Major McMullin tendered a vote of thanks to Mr. Noble on behalf of those present. He said he had never listened to a more interesting address.

A collection was taken up, when the sum of $33 was collected.

This, the chairman said it had been decided, should be turned over to Mr. Noble to purchase what he thought would best serve the soldiers at the front.

Mr. Noble expressed his thanks for the way they remembered the men at the front. He said that from experience, he felt that cigarettes best met the needs of the men after food and necessaries. When men were tired out in the trenches from loss of sleep, and when they had to meet the fearful stench from the dead bodies on the debated ground between the trenches, a cigarette was a most valuable friend. He proposed to devote the money to that purpose.

ACKNOWLEDGES SKEENA'S GIFT

MINISTER OF MILITIA SENDS THANKS TO MRS. WILLIAMS

The Donation For Machine Gun Fund Was Much Appreciated.

A letter has been received by Mrs. J. T. Chauner Williams acknowledging the receipt of the donation made from the Skeena River canneries and Port Essington, towards the machine gun fund. The minister of militia's letter is self explanatory. It is as follows:

Minister's office,

A number of these machine guns have been ordered by the Canadian Government, and upon delivery, one will be allotted for the purpose desired by you, that is, as a gift to one of the British Columbia battalions.

Your draft has been endorsed by me and forwarded to Sir Robert Borden, Premier Minister of Canada

On behalf of the Government of the Dominion of Canada I desire to thank you, and through you, the people of Port Essington and the Skeena River canneries for their generous gift.

OLD ESTABLISHED BUSINESS CHANGES HANDS

J. D. McLeod Has Sold Out To J. A. Kirkpatrick.

A change has taken place in the business of the city, by which the gent's clothing store of J. D. McLeod will pass into the hands of J. A. Kirkpatrick. Mr. McLeod has sold out his Third Avenue buisness to Mr. Kirkpatrick. The latter has taken possession of the stock and will dispose of it as quickly as possible.

It is not the intention of the new proprietor to continue the two stores. He will sell out the stock in the Third Avenue store and continue his present business.

A. Noble, an experienced salesman, well known to business here is in charge of the stock on Third Avenue, and will doubtless dispose of it in a short time.

Mr. McLeod, who is one of the earliest business men of Prince Rupert, intends to visit Alice Arm where he will look into the mining prospects there.

Ottawa, Oct. 13.—C. A. Masten, K. C., of Toronto, has been appointed to the Supreme Court of Ontario in succession to Mr. Justice Teetzel who has retired.

London, Oct. 13.—Zeppelin airships made another raid over London today, dropping bombs. Eight persons it is declared have been killed and about thirty-four injured. The material damage is said to have been small.

A few fires resulted from the bomb dropping, but these were quickly put out by the fire brigade.

The Admiralty will issue a statement when the particulars are available. It is impossible at present to say what the loss has been. No public buildings have been injured.

The figures of the casualties will be reported at midnight.

Theophile del Casse Resigned Post Of Foreign Minister

STATEMENT OF BRITISH MINISTER TO CONSTANTINOPLE

King Constantine, of Greece, was told plainly by British Minister Elliott during the audience granted him last Thursday, says a Rome despatch, that Great Britain and France were determined to push through the military expedition now being landed at Saloniki. The Athens correspondent of the Giornale D'Italia says the views of the Quadruple Entente Government were explained to the Greek ruler in very energetic terms by the British diplomat.

ANGLO-FRENCH LOAN.

That the Anglo-French loan is intended to assist in the easy transaction of international business and as such aids the United States as well as the European borrowers, is borne out an all hands. Reports that persons in England have been attempting to subscribe to the Anglo-French loan being raised in the United States, on account of the fact that the interest yield is higher than that on British domestic clearings, elicited the following statement from the government:

"The treasury point out that it is very undesirable in the public interest that persons or firms in the United Kingdom subscribe to or purchase the forthcoming Anglo-French loan in America. The main purpose of the loan is to give support to the American exchanges. Remittances from the United Kingdom for the purpose either of subscribing to or purchasing the loan or of replacing funds already in America which may be employed for such subscription or purchase would have the effect of defeating the object.

"Holders of the loan who reside in the United Kingdom will be liable to an income tax on the dividends as in the case of income from other securities abroad, and dealings in the loan will not be permitted upon any stock exchange in the United Kingdom."
