Bowser Ordered Read Out Of His Office Over Indian Case

(Special to The Journal.)

Victoria, March 29.—The Kitsilano Reserve enquiry started this morning.

Hamilton Read, who with H. O. Alexander, put through the deal, gave evidence. He said that he had approached Premier Bowser on the subject early in 1913, asking him if the Government would buy from him if he got the reserve from the Indians.

The Premier, who was then Attorney-General, ordered him out of his office, declaring that the Government would not deal with any member of the firm of Bowser, Reid & Wallbridge or any employee. He told Read, who was in the employ of the legal firm, that Mr. Alexander had been handling the project.

Eventually Read and Alexander joined forces, as Read had in the meantime been working on his own initiative. The Government paid Alexander $300,000 for the reserve, and he bought the Indians out for $220,000. The reserve was at that time valued at between one and two million.

GERMANS DEFEATED BY THE ALLIES AT AVONCOURT WOOD

The Attack At Malancourt Failed With Heacy Losses.

Paris, March 29.—French troops made an atttack on Avoncourt Wood, west of the Meuse, where the German assault was made yesterday. The French carried a part of the works which the Germans had constructed.

The Germans made fierce counter attacks, but were driven back with heavy losses. They made no effort to recover the lost ground.

The recent German attack at Malancourt was made by a fresh division, which was thrown back with heavy losses.

ENEMY HAS BEEN ACTIVE AGAINST FORCES WITH ARTILLERY FIRE

Retaliatory Action Taken Against The Enemy's Positions.

London, March 29.—An official report says, that in spite of the heavy hostile fire, our infantry successfully held the ground gained at St. Eloi. Our artillery fire was very effective in reply to that of the enemy.

There has been hostile artillery, trench and mortar activity against our positions between Loos and Hulluch.

In front of Aix Nou Lette we retaliated by shelling the enemy positions.

How Dr. MacKay Broke With Government Over University

(Special to The Journal.)

Victoria, March 29.—The famous Dr. John MacKay letters were submitted to the Legislature today, and they do much to explain the animosity with which the principal of Westminster Hall has been attacking the Government, which he has described as a "GOD CURSED GOVERNMENT."

Wanted Presidency.

The letters show that at one time Dr. MacKay expected to be appointed President of the University of British Columbia. In his letters at that time, written to Hon. Dr. Young, and ex-Premier McBride, he spoke of the "METHODIST MACHINE, WHICH WAS AFTER SOMETHING, BUT THAT WAS A HABIT IT HAD."

He speaks also of the efforts of Dr. Vance, the Principal of the Anglican Theological Seminary in Vancouver, and F. C. Wade, in criticizing the method of the Government in proposing to make a selection of President. Dr. MacKay said in those letters, that he was having difficulty in his capacity, as prominent Vancouver educationalist in holding back this criticism and the "METHODIST MACHINE."

Land Taken Back For Arrears To Be Held For Soldiers

(Special to The Journal.)

Victoria, March 29.—It is understood that the Government will shortly bring down a bill giving land speculators, who are in arrears on payments due the Crown, six months in which to pay up, failing which the Government will probably take back the land sold them; allowing them the amount of land in proportion to the sums already paid the administration. The proposed act will, of course, not apply to bona fide settlers, who may be in arrears.

It is said that there is about nine million owing to the Government on land sales, and a large amount of this represents payments which are in arrears.

Announcement was made that the land to be taken back by the Crown for arrears of payments would be held for the returned soldiers.

WANT DRYDOCK WORKING

The following resolution was adopted at the meeting of citizens held in the Empress Theatre last evening:

RESOLVED by the citizens of Prince Rupert in mass meeting assembled:

That whereas the Government of the Dominion of Canada enabled the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company to construct a drydock at the City of Prince Rupert as per agreement in that regard in the interests of the public good:

And whereas there seems to be undue delay in getting the plant into operation, although it has generally been understood that the plant has been in a position to do business for many months now:

And whereas, many millions of dollars are being expended throughout the Empire in many plants of less capacity than the one now located in the City of Prince Rupert, both for the manufacture of munitions and the construction of ships:

And whereas, the City of Prince Rupert is especially well situated for the carrying on of trade and commerce with the Orient and with our ally Russia:

And Whereas, our ally Russia has been in urgent need of munitions of war, and the City of Prince Rupert is singularly well situated to supply her:

And whereas, railroads to the south appear to be blocked with huge shipments consigned to our ally Russia, whereas, no goods for this trade are passing over the Government aided road, the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway through this port:

And whereas, in spite of a general depression, the situation in Eastern Canada has been greatly ameliorated through the supplying of munitions of war and the extra demand for many lines of goods to Great Britain and her Allies:

And whereas, Prince Rupert and Prince Rupert district have been generous in the supply of men, money and other contributions to patriotic necessities:

And whereas, the City of Prince Rupert and the district of Prince Rupert have received no benefit from

Citizens Discussed Drydock Situation At Public Meeting

There was a good turnout of citizens last evening in the Empress Theatre to discuss the Drydock question. There was a general feeling that nothing should be left undone to urge that the dock be started as quickly as possible. The difficulties facing the G. T. P. in the matter were acknowledged, and no animosity towards anyone or any company expressed. Action was sought. A resolution, which is found in another column, was passed and forwarded by night letter to Ottawa. When it was proposed, that perhaps a delegation should go to Ottawa to back it up, General Superintendent Mehan, of the G. T. P., said, "To show that my heart is in the right place, I will grant a pass as far as Winnipeg, which is as far as my jurisdiction extends, and will recommend trans-

STATE INSURANCE LIKELY IN NEW COMPENSATION ACT

(Special to The Journal.)

Victoria, March 29.—The proposed new Workmen's Compensation Act is likely to contain a scheme for state insurance, which has so far been vigorously opposed by insurance companies. It is understood that the committee enquiring into the subject recommends that the board administering the Act make an annual proportionate tax on all employers of labor, the board making payments direct to the workmen in case of injury.

This, it is believed, will be fairest alike to employers and employees.

OUR NATURAL FAILINGS.

The meeting of citizens last night took a stand pronouncedly upon the advisability of starting the drydock going. Unfortunately that will not start the wheels of industry there. The men that assembled there at the meeting are not to be blamed for that. They have done what they could do. We are suffering from the war conditions that could not be forseen, and also, we believe, from national traits that are brought into bold relief by hostilities.

Under rules that would suggest themselves, one would think, to the most superficial student of matters connected with the preservation of a nation, there would be nothing required for the carrying on of the war bought outside of the Empire, in all its scattered parts, until the fullest capacity of the country had been taxed to its fullest extent. We would not find the United States deriving the benefits that she is until the resources of Canada had been fully exhausted in these lines, such as the manufacture of munitions, and the providing of food stuffs, clothing and equipment. That is not because there is any quarrel with the United States in the matter, but the Empire should derive the fullest benefits first. This is not the case, however. It would appear that the United States gets the first orders, while Canada comes after that.

This is not a new principle to be followed. It is not confined to war times neither. It is not limited to any one part of the Empire, but is peculiar to the nation to which we belong. Were it otherwise, every place in Canada that could produce war material would be working. The drydock here would be running full b'ast in some capacity or other. The C. P. R. and the G. T. P. would not be able to handle the traffic offering. But, it is not so. The Britisher will buy where he sees fit. By the time the war ends, mistakes may be righted. In the meantime, the Britisher claims the right to do as he always has done in war time, blunder along until he gets on the right course.

In times of peace Germany set a great example in the line of protecting her own trade. In time of war, thanks to the British navy, she cannot do otherwise. The British people should learn to foster all trade and commerce possible, within the bounds of that Empire. They have not yet learned to do it, and this applies from the very centre in London down to the smallest communities throughout the Empire. If it were followed, Prince Rupert's drydock and the natural resources possessed here would be in demand, and the city prosperous. But, the United States is prospering instead, from the returns from the war supplies.

portation for the remainder of the way."

The meeting was presided over by Mayor McCaffery, while R. Moore was appointed Secretary of the meeting.

S. M. Newton contended that they had come here and invested largely on the strength of what the G. T. P. and the Governments of British Columbia and the Dominion had promised. Their expectations had not been realized. It would be absurd to do anything to embarrass the G. T. P. at a critical time like this. He felt that the G. T. P. should be able to do something in connection with bringing about activity at the drydock.

He suggested that, in connection with the resolution, that had been read, that copies be sent also to the Imperial authorities and the Government at Victoria. He felt the citizens should throw every energy behind the requests made.

They were not present to find fault or to make trouble for the G. T. P. They were there to protest.

T. D .Pattullo being called upon, read the resolution, with which, he said, he had something to do with its framing.

Ald. Casey seconded the resolution.

D. W. Morrissey had expected to hear from the General Superintendent of the G. T. P. on this subject. He hoped later to hear from him. He had been led to take steps towards calling a public meeting by reports which made one believe that this drydock was something of a white elephant. He apologized, if that was necessary, for having had a part in entering into an agreement with the G. T. P., for a reduction in the taxation. But when that was done the G. T. P. promised a drydock, a fourteen storey hotel, a station and a round house.

He wished to see courtesy to every official of the G. T. P. He wanted to see the company made to live up to its contract. He would circulate a petition throughout the city for that purpose.

General Superintendent Mehan was called upon. He said he attended in order to do anything that he could to assist the citizens of Prince Rupert. He had nothing to say against this resolution. The G. T. P. and its officials had no desire to deceive the people of Prince Rupert. It was an unfortunate time, financially, for the company and the citizens. This was not a time for a weak heart. The people of Prince Rupert were noted for the zeal with which they faced everything. They were regarded as the bravest in the world in that line.

A voice, "Hello Dick McBride."

Mr. Mehan said he made no pretentions to anything in a political line.

Ald. Casey asked if the drydock was in a position to enter into contracts for manufacturing munitions.

Mr. Mehan said, that with some slight additions to the plant it could be made available for manufacturing munitions. When Mr. Donnelly went east, he was going to endeavor to get such contract. He did not hear of it.

In reply to a question, Mr. Mehan said that when Mr. Pillisbury went south some months ago to investigate the chances of getting business, it was at the instance of himself (Mr. Mehan). He went to see if something could not be obtained for here, when ready.

An effort was made to get all the work possible.

V. Cole thought the G. T. P. was either trying to force the Government to take over the drydock or the company would take it over itself by June.

Mr. Mehan said that Mr. Cole seemed to have inside information that he did not have. He wanted to get some information.

The resolution on being put carried.

The Mayor felt that, with the resolution carried, the drydock was started. He could even see the men with their pails coming up over the hill from there.

Alex. Prudhomme felt that the resolution should be presented in person at Ottawa. It was of sufficient importance for that.

Ald. Casey asked if Mr. Mehan would furnish transportation, whereupon the General Superintendent made the offer mentioned previously.

WANT DRYDOCK WORKING.

the direct supplying of the Empire or her allies, either with munitions of war or other supplies, such as has occurred in Eastern Canada, and such as has occurred in lesser measure in cities to the south of us in British Columbia, in spite of the fact that we are particularly well equipped with a transcontinental railroad second to none on the continent, and with a drydock capable both of manufacturing munitions of war and of building ships of many classes, including submarines, protective and merchant ships and fishing craft:

And whereas, it is of great importance that Canada should at once take steps looking to the building of merchant ships to be in a position to take care of marine business at the close of the war:

And whereas, Government aided works should be of the first to receive such work as is given out:

And whereas, it is reported that a credit of from seventy-five to one hundred million dollars is being arranged in Canada for the Imperial Government, and contracts for the manufacture of munitions of war are to be given out during the next two months:

NOW THEREFORE, it is the urgent request of the citizens of Prince Rupert that the Government of Canada and the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company shall take such steps as are necessary to ensure the immediate use of the drydock at Prince Rupert, either for the manufacture of munitions of war or the building of shipping craft or both:

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the citizens of Prince Rupert in presenting this request for immediate action, do so as forcefully as possible, in order that the people of Northern British Columbia, while contributing men and money for the maintainence of our common heritage, may meantime, also with other portions of Canada, share in the benefits accruing therefrom:

And be it further resolved, that a copy of this resolution be sent to the Right Honorable Sir Robert Borden, Prime Minister of Canada, the President of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company, the Right Honorable Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the leader of His Majesty's Loyal Opposition in Canada, and to H. S. Clements, Esq., M. P., for Comox-Atlin.

WANT CANNERIES OPENED TO ALL

RESOLUTION PROPOSED BY G. W. MORROW PASSED AT CITIZENS MEETING LAST NIGHT

The Skeena, It Is Contended, Should Not Be Held By Monopolists.

At the public meeting last evening, after the drydock subject had been disposed of, G .W. Morrow introduced two other questions, that of boat connection direct with the mining camps and the removing of all monopolies with respect to salmon canneries.

The Mayor said, that as they had the drydock going, he thought Mr. Morrow might be allowed to bring these subjects up.

Mr. Morrow felt that the time had come when Prince Rupert should, by the aid of the council, the Governments and any other bodies, get a boat to give connection with the mining camps that were springing up. It would be necessary to have the rates as low as possible.

Another question that was of vital importance to the City of Prince Rupert, was the fishing business. How much of the receipts from the cannery business came to Prince Rupert? The cannery combine was the same as it had been for years. The time had come when they must have a little independence. The cannery business was the greatest combine, protected by both governments.

He proposed to send a resolution on the subject to the Parliament at Victoria. Mr. Brewster, the leader of the Opposition, who was an old canneryman, and Mr. Parker Williams. The latter, he felt, would be glad to bring it up, if the other two leaders would not.

F. S. Wright seconded the resolution.

Ald. Montgomery fully endorsed the resolution, which favored throwing the rivers open to all for the erection of canneries.

S. M. Newton said he would support this if Mr. Morrow would add to it, that the Provincial Government be urged to grant a cannery at Haysport.

Mr. Morrow explained that that was covered in the resolution. He did not want to specify any cannery, as he sought to wipe out all monopoly.

The resolution carried, and as the crowd passed out Mr. Newton moved along the lines of granting Haysport, but the crowd had left before the point was reached.

HOW DR. MACKAY.

Would Not Tamely Submit.

Eventually he ascertained that Dr. Westbrook was to be appointed, upon which he wrote to Premier McBride stating that he did not propose "TAMELY TO SUBMIT TO SUCH TREATMENT."

Was Never Promised.

The Government claims that Dr. MacKay was never promised the position, but along with other educationists, was asked if he would be free to accept if it was offered.

Following the appointment of Dr. Westbrook, Dr. MacKay commenced his open attacks upon the administration, to which, previously to this, according to his correspondence, he had been most friendly indeed.

Eye Troubles Corrected

Mr. Bulger has had over ten years experience in sight testing and fitting glasses, and last mid-summer took a post graduate course, which included the latest discoveries in the science of optometry or eye measuring. One of the most important is dynamic skiametry. The new method of Prof. A. J. Cross, of New York, in which the eye is measured by a beam of reflected light and any error is recorded.

But we do not simply rely on one method; each eye is tested separately, in three different ways, besides trying the muscular balance, together and the nervous acuteness.

We use the new drugless methods, no drops in the eye and no heavy frame resting on your face; ours swings from the wall by a bracket.

"The Reliable Plumber," Prince Rupert, B. C.,

I have great pleasure in certifying to the excellent hot water and heating system that you installed in our parsonage, and that after six months of operation through the winter months it has given every satisfaction.

The system heats a thirty gallon tank of water to boiling temperature in one hour after the fire has been started; it in no way interferes with the oven for baking purposes. In addition to this, the wall radiator which you placed in dining-room and connected with the range boiler has given us splendid satisfaction, supplying us with ample heating throughout the winter, saving us the cost of a stove and fuel.

I most heartily testify to the satisfaction and efficiency of your system and gladly recommend it.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) (Rev.) J. F. DIMMICK.
