FISHING SCHOONER HAD A THRILLING EXPERIENCE

Monastir The Stronghold Of Macedonia Has Been Taken

Public Meeting Called To Aid In Recruiting For Navy

Mayor McCaffery has called a meeting of citizens to be held in the City Hall for the purpose of appointing a committee to assist in recruiting for the Royal Navy. The meeting will be addressed by Lieut. Chorley and Lieut. Julian, who are here recruiting, and Captain Luxmore may also speak. A large attendance of citizens is requested.

Fishing Schooner Had Thrilling Experience Off The Queen Charlottes

The little fishing schooner Director, Capt. Saranio, with a crew of three has just got back to port after a month's absence. Her delay was due to a most exciting experience and one which threatened to wreck her. Friends of the captain and crew had in fact practically given the boat up for lost, although for the sake of the immediate relatives they did not so express themselves.

The fact that the crew comprises only three is enough to show that the schooner was tooo small to be expected to weather very rough conditions. Yet she drifted out to the open sea with her engines not working and with her sailks torn to shreds.

Capt. Saranio is a first-class navigator and to that may be attributed the fact that the Director came back to port. He has had an experience he does not wish to repeat.

The Director was fishing off the west coast of the Queen Charlottes, which for so small a schooner is rather exposed waters for this season of the year. A storm came up and the engines broke down. The crew drifted out 130 miles to sea and when the sails were hoisted in an effort to get back a storm tore them to shreds, leaving the boat again at the mercy of the waves.

Fortunately they had a second set of sails, and with these they finally beat their way back and home to port.

Capt. Saranio came to Prince Rupert this year from Ketchikan and has made this his home port since. His safe return is the matter of hearty congratulations.

BRITISH NATION IS ADMONISHED TO PRAY

The Success Of Arms Is Connected With Religious Revival.

Londoners were surprised last Thursday morning to observe the walls all over the city covered with huge official posters exhorting Englishmen to pray daily for their country, for their sailors and their soldiers. Admiral Beatty's words are displayed prominently: "Until a religious revival takes place at home, so long will the war continue."

They are followed by Gen. Sir Wm. Robertson's message: "A serious determination on the part of the nation to seek Divine help would undoubtedly furnish valuable help to our soldiers and sailors."

The poster ends with the following words printed in large type: "Will you join those who, every day at noon, and at the family prayers at home, pray for our country, our sailors and our soldiers?"

CANADIANS ARE STILL DRIVING ENEMY AT ANCRE

London, Nov. 20.—The Canadians and British are continuing their drive along the Ancre and yesterday advanced one mile on a three-mile front in their sector. They now occupy the outskirts of Grandcourt to the north of Thiepval.

The Germans put up a stubborn resistance and it was only after severe fighting that victory was gained. Eight hundred prisoners were taken in this movement by the Canadians and British.

CAPT. KIRKPATRICK'S COMFORTING WORDS

LOCAL OFFICER OF THE 102nd BATTALION WROTE PARENTS OF YOUNG MAN KILLED

Letter Received By Captain Copp Respecting His Son's Acts Of Bravery.

A letter appeared in the Vancouver World written by Capt. J. A. Kirkpatrick of this city, written to Captain Copp of Vancouver, relative to the death of his son, Lieut. Pearson in action. This young officer was killed in the same engagement in which Capt. Carss met his end. The letter of Capt. Kirkpatrick is as follows:

Application for the probate of the will of the late Lieutenant Pearson Copp, son of Captain and Mrs. Copp of this city, who was killed in France on October 23, will be made on Monday. The splendid esteem and love in which the gallant young men is held was shown in a number of letters which will be filed as proof of death in connection with the application. One from Capt. J. A. Kirkpatrick, and another from Lieut.-Col. Warden are of particular interest. They are addressed to Capt. Copp, and read as follows:

"You have no doubt been officially advised of the death of your dear boy 'Tommy.' He was killed in action in front of the first line of trenches during the terrible engagement in which we lost five other officers and about thirty men killed.

"You have every reason to be very proud of the fact that you and his dear mother reared such a boy, as I believe he was the best loved officer in the whole battalion, as well as the finest looking officer we had in the division.

"He was down at the base the day before the battalion went into the action and I am pleased to say he took his last dinner before going into the trenches with myself and several other officers and he was the life of the party with his genial smile and kindly manner distributing cigarettes, candy, etc., among the boys, as he always was.

"His men loved him, as he was always so kind with them and looked after their welfare and comfort in every way possible, and when they marched in from duty he always went to their mess room to see that his company got its proper share, and that they were as comforable as circumstances would permit, before he thought of himself.

"The men of his company would not consent to have his body buried in the spot where he fell, but got the consent of the colonel and carried it for miles on a stretcher under heavy shell fire all the time, and at the continued risk of their own lives. They said it was the least thing they could do for so gallant an officer. We buried him in town yesterday, and all the officers, including the

JUDGMENT WAS RESERVED IN CASE

IN BURNS VS. JOHNSON MR. JUSTICE MORRISON POSTPONED DECISION

Dispute Over Land At Prince George Occupied Court All Day.

The Supreme Court was occupied all day yesterday with the case of Burns vs. Johnson. The argument was all concluded before adjournment at 5 o'clock, but Mr. Justice Morrison reserved his judgment.

The case was one involving a half interest in a block of land at Prince George, through which the G. T. P. has a right-of-way, for which $4,056 was paid. The plaintiff, R. M. Burns of Telkwa, was formerly a partner of the defendant, Al. Johnson, formerly in an hotel at South Fort George. They had bought a half interest in a pre-emption held by George Stiles. This was before the railway went through and the deal remained uncompleted for years. The dispute was as to whether the plaintiff had really any interest remaining in the land and whether he was entitled to a part of the sum paid for the right-of-way by the railway company. L. W. Patmore appeared for the plaintiff, while T. Shoebotham of Vancouver, appeared as counsel for the defendant.

Evidence was put in to show that the land had not been crown granted when it was agreed to take it

According to evidence for discovery, Johnson, the defendant said he wanted nothing more to do with the property. He considered himself out of it.

A survey which was finally made showed that there were 40 acres instead of 160 in the block.

W. H. Wesley, a real estate broker of Prince George ,testified to the land being worth $100 an acre for speculation purposes. He bought it in reality in November 1912 for $4,000, but Steers never made delivery to him.

Mr. Shoebotham argued that the deal under the act was illegal. It was contrary to the regulations to sell a pre-emption. The only sale that was legal was the one consummated after the land was crown granted, in which Johnson figured.

Mr. Patmore quoted from Chief Justice Hunter to show that the making of an agrement to sell was legitimate. It could not be put into execution until after the crown grant was given. He argued that there had been an evident attempt to pinch Burns out.

His Lordship reserved judgment in the case.

Monastir Has Fallen To Allies Without Final Severe Struggle

London, Nov. 20.—Monastir has been captured. This came as a surprise, for although it was known that the Allied forces were nearing the walls of the stronghold it was doubtful if they would come into possession of the Macedonian citadel without severe fighting.

The capture of Monastir is regarded in official circles as being of immense political significance. Besides having a tremendous effect on the morale of the Teutonic Allies in the Balkans, coming, as it does, along with the great British drive on the Ancre, it is believed that it will have a demoralising effect upon the people of Germany as well as on their armies on other fronts.

Monastir has already been established as the new capital of Serbia, and, at the occupation of the city, the Serbian Crown Prince marched through the streets at the head of the Serbian army.

The Germans and Bulgarians were decisively defeated in a fierce conflict in a snowstorm.

On the eastern section of the Macedonian front the British have made a further advance and the Teutonic Allies are now in disorderly retreat to the north.

WARNING RESPECTING FIRE HAZARDS

The Approach Of Christmas Increases The Danger From That Source.

E. F. Gunther, Superintnedent of Insurance at Victoria, has sent out the following advice in a timely bulletin:

At the approach of the Christmas season a word of warning may be given in regard to the hazards of Christmas decorations and entertainments. It is customary to decorate homes, stores, churches, and schools. Decorations take fire readily and spread fire rapidly. The dangers can be avoided by carefulness in the selection and arrangement of material and by watchfulness. Carelessness

CULTIVATION OF FLAX.

"The possibilities of producing flax for fibre in Canada has been proven to be very considerable. It would seem wise, therefore, to do anything possible to encourage the growth of this industry in districts suited thereto at this time, when unusually high prices will serve as an impetus to its development and extension." So writes the Director of Dominion Experimental Farms, while the Dominion botanist speaks of "enchanted interest in an industry for which there certainly is a wide scope in suitable localities in the Dominion of Canada." Both these remarks were promoted by the publication of Bulletin No. 28, Second Series Experimental Farm at Ottawa, entitled "Flax for Fibre; Its Cultivations and Handling," written by J. Adams, M. A., Assistant Dominion Botanist, who for years was associated with the flax industry in Ireland. The cultivation of flax, as Mr. Adams says, is antiquity. Every biblical student will recall that in the account of the destruction wrought by hail in Egypt it is written that "the barley was in the ear and the flax was boiled." Flax is grown in Canada to some extent, but not, judging by statements of authorities, to the extent that the demand, the price, usefulness, and he soil and climatic conditions warrant. Mr. Adams in his bulletin, which can be had free by application to the Publication Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, describes the plant in all its particulars, tells of the soil and climate required, and sets forth with illuminative drawings and with minuteness of detail all that is required in its cultivation and harvesting. He also shows that in two years flax has doubled in price.

WARNING RESPECTING FIRE.

may cause loss of life as well as of property.

Don't put cotton beneath the Christmas tree to represnt snow; use mineral wool or asbestos. Don't use celluloid ornaments in decorating. Don't allow children to light candles on a tree, or touch the tree. Clothing is frequently set on fire by permitting this. Don't leave matches where children can get them and undertake to light candles. Don't remove gifts from the tree while candles are lighted. It is safer not to put gifts on the tree. Watch the tree. Be present for emergencies.

It is careless to tamper with electric wiring to produce displays; to hang inflammable material where it touches or may be pushed or blown against stove-pipes, steam-pipes, lamps, gas, or electric lights; to allow paper and rubbish to accumulate owing to pressure of business; to allow smoking where there are flimsy decorations.

WATER NOTICE.

Take notice that G. R. Naden Company Limited, whose address is Prince Rupert, British Columbia, will apply for a licence to take and use 300 cubic feet per second, and to store 40,000 acre feet of water out of Kum-ea-lon River which flows northwesterly and drains into Kum-ea-lon Inlet. The storage dam will be located at the natural outlet of Lake Katherine. The capacity of the reservoir to be created is about 1,280 acres, and it will flood about 200 acres of land. The water will be diverted from the stream at a point about at the storage dam and will be used for power purposes upon the land described as below. This notice was posted on the ground on the 4th day of October, 1916. A copy of this notice and an application pursuant thereto and to the "Water Act 1914" will be filed in the office of the Water Recorder at Prince Rupert, British Columbia. Objections to the application may be filed with the said Water Recorder or with the Comptroller of Water Rights, Parliament Buildings, Victoria, British Columbia, within thirty days after the first appearance of this notice in a local newspaper. The territory within which the powers in respect of the undertaking are to be exercised is Prince Rupert, British Columbia, and vicinity and along the transmission line between the Power Station and Prince Rupert, British Columbia. The date of the first publication of this notice is November 17th 1916.

Production and Thrift

"CANADA from her abundance can help supply the Empire's needs, and this must be a comforting thought for those upon whom the heavy burden of directing the Empire's affairs has been laid. Gain or no gain the course before the farmers of Canada is as clear as it was last year—they must produce abundantly in order to meet the demands that may be made, and I believe this to be especially true in regard to live stock, the world's supply of which must be particularly affected in this vast struggle. Stress and strain may yet be in store for us all before this tragic conflict is over, but not one of us doubts the issue, and Canadians will do their duty in the highest sense of that great word."—HON. MARTIN BURRELL, Minister of Agriculture.

"MODERN war is made by resources, by money, by foodstuffs, as well as by men and by munitions. While war is our first business, it is the imperative duty of every man in Canada to produce all that he can, to work doubly hard while our soldiers are in the trenches, in order that the resources of the country may not only be conserved, but increased, for the great struggle that lies before us. 'Work and Save' is a good motto for War-time."—SIR THOMAS WHITE, Minister of Finance.

THE CALL OF EMPIRE COMES AGAIN IN 1916

TO CANADIAN FARMERS, DAIRYMEN, FRUIT GROWERS, GARDENERS

WHAT IS NEEDED? THESE IN PARTICULAR—

WHEAT, OATS, HAY,
BEEF, PORK, BACON,
CHEESE, EGGS, BUTTER, POULTRY,
CANNED FRUITS, FRUIT JAMS,
SUGAR, HONEY, WOOL, FLAX FIBRE,
BEANS, PEAS, DRIED VEGETABLES

We must feed ourselves, feed our soldiers, and help feed the Allies. The need is greater in 1916 than it was in 1915. The difficulties are greater, the task is heavier, the need is more urgent, the call to patriotism is louder—therefore be thrifty and produce to the limit.

"THE AGRICULTURAL WAR BOOK FOR 1916" is now in the press. To be had from The Publications Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

MINING MAN WENT NORTH ON STEAMER YESTERDAY

On board the Princess Sophia, northbound yesterday, was W. Price of Seattle, the well known mining man. He is on his way to Juneau and will stop off here on his way south.

Mr. Price had a mining property under bond at Pacific, from which he made considerable shipments of ore. He is giving up the proposition.

colonel, who returned all the way from front, attended.

"My best desire would be fulfilled if when my time comes I will be able to die with as clear a conscience as that of your dear boy. Our colonel requested me to tender you his sympathy in your great loss and to say that he will write you the first opportunity he has as he was a particular favorite.

"I am enclosing his pocket knife and his shoulder straps which were handed to me, also a cuff link, which was in a package which arrived for him just after his death, and which we took the liberty of opening and distributing among his men. The package also contained a lead pencil marked from 'Dad,' which I also am returning. If it were not for the fact that all the officers of his company were either killed or wounded they would write to you.

"Again expressing my sincere sympathy with you in your great loss, and trusting you will find consolation in the fact that you have given up a son so worthy and lovable and that he died doing his duty for his loved country and that when the war is over there will be no name which can be mentioned that did its part better than that of Thomas Pearson Copp."
