Col. W. B. Clayton At Canadian Club Luncheon Spoke On The War

The luncheon given by the Canadian Club yesterday in honor of Col. W. B. Clayton, Director General of the Canadian Dental Corps, was attended by eighty citizens, who enjoyed the excellent luncheon provided by the host and hostess at the Central Hotel. The excellence of the spread was remarked upon by all present. Bandsman Alex. Gray, of the 11th Battalion, who happened to be in the city, kindly gave his services as pianist during the luncheon hour.

Bishop Du Vernet, President of the Club presided, while on either side sat Col. Clayton, the guest of honor, and Col. Kirkpatrick, of the 11th Battalion, who with Major Bullock-Webster were invited to be present.

The bishop remarked upon the fact that the First Vice-President, Hon. William Manson, and the Second Vice-President, G. R. Naden, were both out of the city, while the Secretary, Mr. Heward, was unable to attend. He expressed the pleasure he had at having present Col. Kirkpatrick and Major Bullock-Webster, in addition to the guest of honor. The military bulked large at this time, he said, and rightly so. They were all proud of what Canada was doing in this war.

Col. Clayton, he said, could be introduced as a distinguished citizen of Prince Rupert, and not as a distinguished stranger. He referred to the fact that he had been a member of the city council and the first secretary of the Canadian Club, an office he filled most efficiently. He had left here a Captain, had come back a Major, and he was informed was informed, was now created a Lieut.-Col.

Col. Clayton was given a hearty reception on rising to speak. He explained that the title of Sidelights on the War, which he had given as one to designate his address, was as good as any other, but his address, he was afraid, would not contain much that was absolutely new.

It would be putting it mildly to say that he was gratified to receive an invitation to address a Canadian Club. He thanked them from the bottom of his heart for the kind invitation to address the Canadian Club of his home town.

From a military standpoint, the making of a dry canteen had been a great advantage. While he had not favored prohibition, yet if the agitation for it gave prohibition for the war it would be doing good.

The war had brought about many changes. Canadians could take but one stand on the war. He did not agree with many of the speeches used to recruit. He felt that any man who was in a position to serve should do so, and if he did not do so, he would regret it; his children and his children's children would also regret that they had an ancestor who did not take a part in this Imperial war. The splendid men of Canada needed no panegyric of his. The performances of the Canadians at the front were well known.

HOLLAND'S STAND IS AGAINST BOTH

WHY THE DUTCH ARE INCENSED AT BOTH BRITISH AND GERMANS

Shortage Of Food Supplies Is Part Of Reason For It.

"Holland bared its teeth to the belligerents on both sides so unexpectedly that the Dutch public was as much astonished as the remainder of the world," said a prominent neutral just returned from Amsterdam. This person, who enjoys exceptional opportunities of obtaining reliable information, stated that not only was the Dutch army mobilized, but actual maneouvers were held as if to repel forces, landing from the North Sea, in the neighborhood of Flushing. The mobilization was accomplished swiftly. Virtually every private motor car in the country was seized. While mobilization took place along the German frontier, maneouvres were held

PROMPT ACTION IN KILLING GRAFT

GOVERNMENT AT OTTAWA IS DETERMINED THAT THERE SHALL BE NO CROOKEDNESS

It Seems Well Nigh Impossible To Avoid Some Taking Place.

The Government has appointed Sir William Meredith and Mr. Justice Duff, of the Supreme Court of Canada, to investigate into fuse contracts placed by the Shell Committee in the United States and with which the name of Col. J. Wesley Allison is connected. This action shows the determination of the Government to discover the truth and to afford no protection for offenders. The Chief Justice is an uncompromising foe of corruption in public affairs, while Mr. Justice Duff is distinguished alike for ability and integrity. The one was a Conservative, the other a Liberal, and it is certain that the true character of the transactions to be investigated will be established

Varying Success In Fighting Which Took Place On French Front

Paris, April 8.—In Argonne there has been fighting at Fille Morte, where we exploded two small mines. At Hill 285 we occupied the southern side of the mine of the crater, created by the explosion of a German mine.

West of the Meuse the Germans renewed their attacks against our positions south and east of Haucourt. At the latter point the enemy found it impossible to dislodge us. We poured out a murderous fire which caused heavy losses. South of Haucourt the Germans succeeded in winning a footing at two small works, between Haucourt and Hill 287, which we had occupied.

Southeast of Methincourt there has been a continuation of the fighting with hand grenades in the communicating trenches, on the road between Bethincourt and Chattancourt, which resulted in an advantage for us.

BRITISH SUCCESSES IN EAST AFRICA ARE ANNOUNCED

London, April 8.—A British success reported, includes the capture of more than four hundred men in East Africa.

POLICE COMMISSIONERS FAVOR A REDUCTION

Chief Asked To Dispense With One Man On The Force.

The Police Commissioners met yesterday afternoon in the Mayor's office to consider matters affecting the force. The most of the time was taken up with routine matters, including the passing of the accounts.

The question of a reduction in the staff was brought up, when it was decided to ask the chief to dispense with one man.

Ald. Nelson said it looked as if it were going to be quiet during the summer. The mining excitement would draw all the men that could get away into the hills. If there was a change in conditions, which they all hoped for, the present force could be kept on. He thought they should give notice to dispense with one man.

Commissioner Moxley said he did not like dispensing with any one. Any he had spoken to did not favor cutting down the force. It was felt that it was a wise thing to have an efficient police force. There were many trains and boats coming in and a sharp look-out should be kept. He was against the reduction. He said he did not, of course, know what the city's needs financially were.

The Mayor would have preferred to have had to increase the staffs rather than decrease them. He felt it was justifiable to reduce the force.

Ald. Nelson said he hoped that before the notice was up that the situation might have changed, so that there would not be the need of a reduction. Under the present conditions it was not wise to do other than give notice.

The motion carried.

President Wilson Has Decided Upon More Belligerent Attitude Towards Germany With Respect To The Attacks On Merchantmen

Washington, April 8.—President Wilson has decided that Germany must absolutely pledge and show that pledge will be observed, not to countenance any further attacks upon unarmed belligerent and neutral merchantment, or diplomatic relations between the two nations will be broken off.

Action to this effect will probably be taken at Tuesday's Cabinet meeting. In administration circles it is understood that the President plans sharp action in line with this decision.

Denial Made By Germany.

London, April 8.—Germany states that the steamer Palembang was not sunk by a German submarine, as none was in the vicinity at the time the ship foundered.

A similar reply is en route to Washington in regard to the Channel steamer Sussex, in which several United States citizens lost their lives.

British Steamers Sunk.

The British steamer Chatalla, of 5,000 tons, has been torpedoed, and the steamers Braunton and Clyde have been sunk by coming into contact with mines.

French Liner Shelled.

The French liner Colbert was shelled in the Mediterranean by a submarine, but escaped from her enemy because of her superior speed.

Norwegian Loss.

The Norwegian steamer Arena has been torpedoed without warning.

Holland has called out her 1917 reserves as part of her scheme of preparedness.

MONEY SAVED TO FUR HOLDER BY SHIPPING HERE

About Twenty Per Cent. Was Gained By Patronizing Prince Rupert Market.

The importance of the Prince Rupert fur market was shown yesterday when in a consignment of about $500 worth, an advance of well on to $100 was given by W. Goldbloom to one man over what was offered him in the south. The market here is becoming more and more important every day, and fur buying will soon be one of the stable industries here.

In time there will be added to that the working up of furs on the ground here, and Prince Rupert should become an important place for manufactured furs.

CANADA'S TRADE RETURNS FOR LAST YEAR GOOD

Fiscal Situation At End Of Financial Year Showed Up Well.

The fiscal year 1915-16 ended on March 31 with a growing revenue and expanding trade for Canada. The total receipts for the past fiscal year will be approximately $174,000,000.

When Sir Thomas White introduced his war budget last year, it was estimated that without additional taxation measures, the revenue would for the year just ending be only $120,000,000. Sir Thomas proposed certain tariff increases and a system of special taxes by which he estimated to increase the revenue to at least $150,000,000. His opponents claimed that his proposals would decrease the revenue. The result has been a complete justification of the Finance Minister's judgment. The revenue has exceeded even the Finance Minister's estimate.

Customs returns for March show another remarkable increase. For this month the customs revenue is over $10,000,000 as compared with $7,300,000 for March of last year. The customs revenue for the fiscal year ending March 31 is $103,000,000, while for the year 1914-15 it was $78,000,000, an increase of $25,000,000 due to Sir Thomas White's revenue measures and our expanding trade.

COPPER STILL SOARING.

The most important development in the copper market since Great Britain on December 22 last, purchased a block of 60,000 tons of the metal is the announcement that leading producers have in two days sold nearly 100,000,000 pounds of copper, and have in hand urgent inquiries for an additional 100,000,000 pounds for delivery during the second half of 1916. It is estimated that sales so far this week aggregate a total of close to 150,000,000 pounds. Copper producers believe the present buying movement will develop into one of the largest in the history of the industry.

The French Government paid 27 cents, or about $27,000,000, for the copper just bought, and the sales constitutes the second largest on record. Large sales are being consummated at the established prices of the large producers; 27 1-2 cents for June, 27 1-4 for July, and 27 cents beyond. It is understood several large contracts were rejected on bids of 1-4 below market.

The difficulty now before the copper and selling agencies is how to protect their home customers and keep the price down to 27, for it is believed that any increased demand in this country will put the price above 30 cents.

COL. W. B. CLAYTON

lantic, the Col. told of the scene when a British cruiser came along to the troop ship, which had 2,300 men on board, with pre-emptory orders to extinguish all lights. He told in graphic language of the torpedo destroyers arrival as they neared the British coasts, and the security that was inspired by that presence.

The Col. became quite eloquent as he described the feelings aroused when he was informed that about 4 o'clock the next morning the shores of England would be in sight. It was his first glimpse of the land which he had learned to love and respect for its contribution to history. He got up at 3:30 to catch the first glimpse, but was doomed to disappointment, as a heavy fog had settled down. For two hours they lay with the fog over them. It was an anxious time, for they did not know when a submarine might get its work in, under such favorable conditions. The torpedo kept in touch with her whistle, circling about. But the fog lifted as quickly as it fell, and they saw close about them four of these little black destroyers livid with British tars on the look-out for trouble. They got a picture of the power of the Empire on the sea.

The speaker described graphically the reception in England as they landed in Devon. They were cheered wherever they went, and no people can cheer like the Britishers. Col. Clayton paid a high compliment to the nation, as exemplified in the scenes that meet one in the Old Land. The care taken of dumb animals and the immense power at organizing for defense, and for warfare all stamped that nation as second to none.

He said, before concluding, that he could not sit down without referring to France. The French people had found themselves. They were the greatest people in this war. It was in reality a nation in arms. The men were all serving with the colors. The women were doing all the work of peace. They were driving the drays and loading and unloading them. There seemed to be no work they were not able to do. You would see women plowing in the field with her children following, he said. They would have to make detours at times to avoid the excavations made by a shell. They were so accustomed to these that they paid little attention.

The battle grounds of the fathers of today were the play-grounds of the children of France the next day. It was the most wonderful spirit that prevailed in France—a spirit of victory. The spirit of Napoleon was abroad. The people adored General Joffre, and well they might, for he was a most wonderful leader.

The Col. was thanked upon taking his seat by the Bishop for his address.

MANY IN PRINCE RUPERT TRY SIMPLE MIXTURE

Many Prince Rupert people are surprised at the QUICK action of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka. This simple remedy acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel, removing such surprising foul matter that ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas. A few doses often relieve or prevent appendicitis. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. The INSTANT, easy action of Adler-i-ka is astonishing. C. H. Orme, Pioneer Druggist. g-6.

PROMPT ACTION

before the country, so says the Toronto News, and adds:

Grafting from Government contracts in wartime is not a new activity. Neither is it confined to Canada. George W. Stevens, in his book, "With Kitchener to Khartoum," said a few things about shoddy boots which burned the thick skin of some English contractors. The record of the Crimean War, the American War, the Boer Wars supplies plenty of evidence to show that Patriotism is no deterrent to a scoundrel. There is no testimony to prove that crookedness is a Conservative monopoly, or that during a Liberal administration thieves are frightened away. Let us be fair to both parties. Let us admit that the elder brethern of our political houses are honest, decent business men, doing their best to administer the trust committed to them.

Why do they not stop the Graft? may be a reasonable question. It demands a reasonable answer. Can the managers of a departmental store prevent all shop-lifting? Consider the business of the Dominion Government in peace time. The Postmaster-General decides the general policy of the department. His subordinates carry it out. When we come to a crooked clerk abstracting money from a letter do we blame the Minister? We might if he refused to prosecute the man. But if the Minister requires a strict investigation, and limits that inquiry in no way, his skirts are clear. In his work he must trust to the honesty of his officials. So must every other minister heading a department. So must the Government as a whole.

The war came. Instantly the work of every department was multiplied indefinitely. From minister to messenger, every official was driven to the limit of human endurance. If a close supervision of detail was impossible in peace, how much less was it possible in war? Consider the difficulties. We had to make an inadequate militia office in a war office. We had to rais 300,000 men, clothe them for the summer and winter, feed them well, train officers to lead them, establish training camps for summer and winter, transporat them from Vancouver, Winnipeg, Toronto, to the sea-board and across the Atlantic. We had to buy horses innumerable, acquire motors in endless variety, do everything necessary to make our men efficient and worthy. Besides that, we had to conserve our metal resources, esthablish new industries, stimulate agricultural production and look for new markets for our products. The financial administration alone of the war has been a colossal undertaking. Add to the legitimate work of the Government the establishment of purchasing boards for Great Britain, France and Russia, and consider the unparalleled opportunities for thieving which occasion offered.

No previous government in the history of Canada has had such an enormous task. No previous Government has acted with the decisiveness of the Borden administration in the punishment of wrong-doing. The appointment of a commission, unfettered in every way, led to the discovery of delinquencies, and resulted in the exclusion of two government supporters from Parliament. Up to this time the position of the administration could not be successfully attacked. Now it is said that Col. Allison has grafted over a million dollars from the Treasury, and that the Minister of Militia had guilt knowledge of his action. Damaging evidence against Allison has already been heard by the Public Accounts Committee, and so far he has declined to face an examination. That very fact is disquieting. By his continued absence he invites suspicion.

The Minister of Militia unquestionably is absent from Canada at the wrong time. But he is emphatic in his denial of any improper action. He is entitled to be heard in his own defense, and a suspension of judgment on the part of the country may well be asked until he returns to Canada. Meanwhile the temper of the Government and of the Government supporters, as it has always been, is to lay hands on the men who would betray the Empire at the time of its peril and to compel restitution of the "thirty pieces of silver"—the price of her that was valued.

HOLLAND'S STAND

only along the seacoast. To add to the excitement the Germans massed men and guns along the Belgo-Dutch frontier near Antwerp as if in preparation to repel an invasion from that direction.

The returned neutral is convinced that the demonstration was aimed against Germany as much as England. He stated that irritation in Holland against all belligerents had become so pronounced that there was a sullen feeling of hostility toward both Germany and Great Britain, which was becoming general throughout the country.

On account of the British blockade Holland is experiencing shortage of food to such an extent that an American commission to the relief of Belgium has been asked to loan some of its food supply to certain districts. The Dutch Government has determined that food shall be transported to Holland in vessels commandeered with any limitation fixed by agreement with The Netherlands Overseas Trust.

This food will be shipped in the name of the Dutch Government, which will regard any attempts to interfere with it as an unfriendly act. Many importers who have been excluded from the operations of the Netherlands Overseas Trust are so embittered by the ruin of their businesses, which are on the black list, that they stand ready to offer the Government substantial support in any steps it may take to end the food blockade.

The feeling of hostility against Germany is equally pronounced. The Dutch believe the German Government has engaged in a deliberate campaign against Dutch shipping. Dutch warships are now patrolling the North Sea trade routes, sweeping away or shooting mines.

Eye Troubles Corrected

Mr. Bulger has had over ten years experience in sight testing and fitting glasses, and last mid-summer took a post graduate course, which included the latest discoveries in the science of optometry or eye measuring. One of the most important is dynamic skiametry. The new method of Prof. A. J. Cross, of New York, in which the eye is measured by a beam of reflected light and any error is recorded.

But we do not simply rely on one method; each eye is tested separately, in three different ways, besides trying the muscular balance, together and the nervous acuteness.

We use the new drugless methods, no drops in the eye and no heavy frame resting on your face; ours swings from the wall by a bracket.

MR. HARRY HANSON, "The Reliable Plumber," Prince Rupert, B. C., Prince Rupert, B. C., April 9, 1914.

I have great pleasure in certifying to the excellent hot water and heating system that you installed in our parsonage, and that after six months of operation through the winter months it has given every satisfaction.

The system heats a thirty gallon tank of water to boiling temperature in one hour after the fire has been started; it in no way interferes with the oven for baking purposes. In addition to this, the wall radiator which you placed in dining-room and connected with the range boiler has given us splendid satisfaction, supplying us with ample heating throughout the winter, saving us the cost of a stove and fuel.

I most heartily testify to the satisfaction and efficiency of your system and gladly recommend it.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) (Rev.) J. F. DIMMICK.
