TRAWLER STEAMER IS A DECIDED SUCCESS

SUCCESS FOR ALLIES ALONG ALL FRONTS

New Form Of Early Closing Bylaw Has Been Introduced

Early Closing Is Before The Council In A New Form

The question of early closing of stores in the city took on a changed aspect, when a draft of a brand new bylaw was presented at the council meeting last evening sponsored by Ald. McRae and Ald. McMeekin. This new bylaw, which was given its first reading, will come up for consideration on its merits at the next meeting, when it will be presented for the second reading. The evident intention of this is to leave the present early closing bylaw in operation and add to the closing so provided that "all shops * * * not included within Bylaw 261 and Bylaw 263."

On motion of Ald. Nelson, seconded by Ald. McRae, the proposed bylaw, after passing its first reading, was referred to the City Solicitor for report, the intention being to find whether the proposed measure comes within the law.

Ald. Casey had some objections to offer to the bylaw proposed and wanted information on it.

It was pointed out, however, that the consideration of it on its merits could well be laid over for the second reading.

Ald. McRae moved that the delegates from the Trades and Labor Council present should be heard, which was agreed to.

S. D. Macdonald said the delegation was present to be heard. It was not the intention of the members of the Trades and Labor organization to interfere with merchants in the transaction of their business. When the bylaw came up it was the intention to endeavor to have the hour of 10 o'clock set as the hour for closing on Saturday evenings. The only point that labor felt it had a right to speak on, was that as to the hours of labor.

Mr. Linzey as a representative of the Clerks' Union, wanted to urge from the interests of that body to pass the bylaw.

Geo. Kerr pointed out that from seven in the morning to 11 at night was a very long day. He believed it would be in the best interests of all to pass the bylaw.

The Mayor appreciated what had been said. The delegates were at an advantage over himself, inasmuch as they knew what was in the bylaw, while he did not until it was presented that night.

Ald. Casey wished to know from the delegation if they considered it necessary to close tobacco stores, confectioneries and some other goods in order to carry out the ends aimed at.

Mr. Macdonald said the delegates had but one end of the situation to deal with, and that was that affecting labor.

Ald. McMeekin said the proposed bylaw was intended to cover stores not now covered by the existing bylaws. They did not want to close the drug stores, because they could not,

BRITISH GAINED TERRITORY IN MESOPOTAMIA

Mesopotamia, Feb. 19.—The British advance was hundreds of yards in the Tigris district. Very severe casualties were inflicted on the enemy, as well as two thousand prisoners being taken. Immense quantities of war material was also captured, including twenty-five hundred rifles. The Turks only made half-hearted counter attacks which were easily repulsed.

FRENCH TROOPS HAVE MADE WAY AGAINST GERMANS

Paris, Feb. 19.—The French troops invaded and successfully held German trenches on the River Moselle. The situation is quiet on the French front, only patrol encounters being reported.

British Have Been Gaining More Ground

AT VARIOUS POINTS ALONG WESTERN FRONT GERMANS DEFEATED

Quite A Number Of Prisoners Were Also Taken In Encounters.

British Headquarters, France, Feb. 19.—Hundreds of Prussians were captured by the British in the Ancre region. Several companies of their best regiments were completely wiped out.

British Gains.

London, Feb. 19.—The British captured the German positions on a front of a mile and a-half northeast of Grandecourt. The enemy defences were penetrated to a depth of a thousand yards. Very large numbers of German dead were left on the ground. The British losses were comparatively small.

Germans Repulsed.

Northeast of Ploegstreet many dug-out and machine guns were destroyed as a result of British bombing operations. German raiding parties were repulsed with great losses in each instance to the west of Lens.

At La Basse the British effectively exploded several mines, doing great damage to the German defences.

Airships Active.

Aerial activity is going on unceasingly. One German aeroplane was brought down within our lines and was captured intact, while two others were shot down damaged very badly, showing the efficiency of British marksmanship. One British machine is missing.

ITALIAN ARMY WON VICTORY OVER ENEMY

Rome, Feb. 19.—Increased activity of the Italian reconnoitering parties resulted in several encounters in the mountain valley localities. There were considerable artillery activities on the Carso.

There will be a special meeting of the Board of Directors of the Hospital at the City Hall at 8 o'clock this evening.

Roosevelt Praises What Canada Is Doing In The War

Under the heading "The Lesson Canada Teaches Us," Colonel Theodore Roosevelt continues his campaign for preparedness in the March number of the Metropolitan Magazine.

"Let our people," he urges, "profit by Canada's example, and by the teaching of our own patriots. We are proud of the great past of our land. We can not afford to have the country, which ought to be and can be made the example for the free peoples of the world, turned into the greatest of the yellow nations."

Reviewing the expenditures of men and money by Canada, equal, he asserts, to the raising of an army of 5,000,000 men and the expenditure of $1,000,000,000 by the United States, Colonel Roosevelt holds that Canada, having made good her words by deeds, is entitled to a respectful hearing when it comes to the making of a world peace.

After Spanish War.

"We ourselves," says he, "were for a decade after the Spanish war able to take a real and leading part in movements for international peace, and we widened the area in which order, liberty and the peace of justice obtained. We were able so to act because we were, at the time, strong in material strength, and above all strengthened in temper of soul and in clearness of vision; and because we were scrupulously careful to keep our promises, to co-relate our deeds with our words; and because we refused to embark on the sea of making utterly impossible and unworthy promises which could not possibly be kept, and which, in the event of crisis, it would be damaging and dishonorable to keep, and yet only less damaging and dishonorable to break.

Contemptible Greatness.

No nation ever yet achieved greatness through ease and absence of effort; and although material prosperity is an absolutely essential foundation, the lack of which renders hopeless any attempt to raise a worthy superstructure, yet, by itself, and to the exclusion of all else, material prosperity, no matter how abounding, means, at the very utmost, a kind of bastard greatness, more contemptible than any other kind. The flag that commands the respect of other nations and inspires among its own followers the high passion of loyalty must float over a land where there is well-distributed

Trawling Proving A Success In Waters Off This Port

The success of trawling as a means of taking deep sea fish seems to be assured here. This system has been in vogue in the North Sea for many years and has been found a most profitable means of gathering in the harvest of the seas. It would appear as if Hecate Straits will lend itself to a similar condition.

The Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Company has ventured into the field here, and with evident success. The James Carruthers of the company's fleet, has been equipped for that work and is now making regular trips to the grounds. Yesterday the vessel came back with 60,000 pounds, which is regarded as a good catch for the four or five days she was out.

The fish gathered in by the trawl are of many varieties. A large proportion of them are soles and similar fish, including flounders. Lemon soles, the best variety, are quite numerous. These are very valuable fish and are so regarded in the European market. The soles taken here are said to be exactly similar to those found in the North Sea, the catch of which sells very high. These valuable fish are being frozen and shipped to the markets that await it.

Among other valuable fish taken is the whiting, which is being split and smoked at the Cold Storage. In this form, as prepared under W. Cummings, who is in charge of the smoking, the fish can scarcely be distinguished in taste from prime finnan haddie. This is a delicious type of fish, fit for any Epicurian.

The grey cod is gathered in in the trawl also and is being smoked in the same way as the whiting.

From the indications the trawling business would appear to promise big things for those who enter it. For years the banks of the North Sea have been fished and refished. There is said to be no sign of depletion there in the number of fish.

MAGAZINES FOR LIBRARY WILL BE GOT EARLY

At the council meeting last night it was decided to purchase the magazines necessary for the reading room so that they would all be delivered as soon as they came into the city for sale.

At the meeting last week the lowest tender was that of Ormes' Ltd., the sum being $125 for all the papers and magazines. It was represented by Ald. Montgomery that the magazines sometimes were as much as three weeks behind the time when they were first offered for sale on the newstands. It was explained that this was due to the fact that the publishers mailed those furnished by subscription later than those sent out for sale. It was decided to award the contract to the lowest tenderer last week on condition the delivery was made as early as the magazines went on the newsstands.

It was found that the prices had been submitted on the basis of what the magazines could be furnished at

COUNTRY BEFORE PARTY.

In a Toronto address, Dr. Michael Clark, M. P., for Red Deer, declared that he would support any government that had for its object the prosecution of the war. This Liberal member also declared: "I am behind the Borden Government as long as it is aligned with Great Britain in exerting every effort to win the war." Dr. Clark is no one of the opposition who have found no other patriotic duty than sniping at the Borden Government. Before the Canadian Club he touched indirectly on the Borden war programme and the Dorchester by-election, although he made no definite application to either, when he said:

"Canada has, in my judgment, done exceedingly well in the war. It is a pity a Canadian should be found anywhere to ask, in view of the accomplishments, if we are going to bankrupt ourselves for England. Such a spectacle is one really more for pity than indignation. The person who is trembling about the third stamp on a letter when civilization itself is on trial, is fighting in fact for its very existence, fails to rise to the privilege of citizenship in the greatest empire the world has ever seen."

Concluding, he said: "Such a Canadian fails to see that so far from Canadians bankrupting themselves for England, the heart of the empire in the indomitable little islsands of Great Britain and Ireland, is going far in a spirit of absolute unselfishness to spend her last for the world's freedom."

THE DENTAL CORPS.

It is gratifying to residents of Prince Rupert to know that so many of the men who left here to serve with the troops in various capacities are making names for themselves. Among others who have "made good" appears the name of Col. W. B. Clayton, who is now Director General of the Dental Corps. Sir Robert Borden in the House of Commons made a reference to the work that this branch of the service was performing. He said: "the Canadian Dental Service, I am informed by the authorities of the Department of Militia and Defence, has made it possible for about fifty thousand Canadians to pass the examination and to enter military service who otherwise might have been unable—probably would have been unable—to do so. Canada was one of the first countries in the world to establish this service, and the results which have been obtained are eminently satisfactory in every way." The scheme of organization in this service, it is gratifying to know, was worked out by Col. Clayton of this city.

material well-being, but, what is even more important, where there have also been developed the stern and lofty virtues of resolute and adventurous valor, of trained prowess, of readiness for self-sacrifice, of power to render service, and of determined and unshakable patriotism.

Canada's Virtues.

These are the virtues which, during the last two years and a-half Canada has pre-eminently shown. She has passed through one of those times which sift out the strong and the worthy from the weak and unworthy. She has stood the test. She has proved her possession of those qualities that mark a people of masterful ability, able to shape their own destinies and to hold their own in the rough world of actual life.

"There never has been finer work done under the old volunteer system than by Canada; and the way in which Canada and her sister overseas commonwealths have sprung to the defense of the Empire is something absolutely new in history, and sets a mark in farsighted patriotism and in high-minded ability to sacrifice present ease and safety for a vast and permanent future good, which will not soon be passed by any nation."

"Canada can now speak for a world peace and be entitled to a respectful hearing; because her deeds have made good her words."

Production and Thrift

CANADA'S CALL FOR SERVICE AT HOME

Produce More and Save More

The Empire needs food. If you are not in the fighting line you may be in the producing line. Labour is limited—all the more reason to do more than ever before. Grow food for the men who are fighting for you. The Allies need all the food that you can produce. Every little helps. You are responsible for your own work. If you cannot produce as much as you would like, produce all you can. Work with the right spirit. Put fighting energy into your effort and produce now when it counts. The more you produce the more you can save. Producing and saving are war-service.

Make Your Labour Efficient

In war-time do not waste time and energy on unimportant and unprofitable work. Economize labour. Put off unproductive work till after the war, and, if possible, help in producing something needed now. Let us not waste labour. Canada needs it all. If possible help to feed the Allies. Make your backyard a productive garden. Cultivate it with a will. Make your labour count for as much as possible.

Do Not Waste Materials

There should be no waste in war-time. Canada could pay the annual interest on her war expenditure out of what we waste on our farms, in our factories, in our homes. Every pound of food saved from waste is as good as a pound of increased production. The way for a nation to save is for every individual to save. France is strong to-day because of thrift in time of peace. The men and women of Great Britain are not only "doing" but are learning to "do without."

Spend Your Money Wisely

Practise economy in the home by eliminating luxuries. Wasting our dollars here weakens our strength at the Front. Your savings will help Canada to finance the war. Save your money for the next Dominion War issue. There can be no better investment.
