Paris, May 10.—Artillery fire is lessening at Verdun, while infantry fighting is entirely lacking. Feeble grenading has occurred at the Forest of Avocourt, south of Fort Douaumonth.

Germany Is Suffering.

London, May 10.—The Danish newspaper Ribestifts Tidende, after a month of investigation into conditions in Germany, announces that the belief is prevalent that Germany will be unable to continue the war after the end of 1916.

This newspaper states that the rations to German soldiers were reduced six weeks ago, and that desertions from the ranks are numerous, while Socialism is spreading amongst the troops. There is now a slackness in discipline in the ranks. The shortage of horses has forced the reduction of gun teams, but ammunition and arms are still produced in incredible quantities. Two Rhemish-Westphalian firms are producing steel by a very rapid process, without the use of wolfram.

Germany Still In Note Writing Admits Attacking Sussex

Washington, May 10.—Secretary Lansing has received a message from Ambassador Gerrard, giving notice that a new note on the Sussex case has been handed him and is on the way to Washington.

It has been indicated that the German Government now admits attacking the Sussex. She gives notice that the submarine commander responsible for it has been punished, and promises have been made for reparation.

T. P. Woodland, Who Fell At Front, Wrote Interesting Letter To Brother.

In a letter received by G. A. Woodland from his brother, T. P. Woodland, who fell a few days ago at the front, a former resident of Prince Rupert makes a strong appeal to Canadians to enlist. The letter was received here by Mr. Woodland just about the time of the death of the writer. It comes now as a sad reminder of his brother's service, but at the same time conveys the satisfaction to his friends that he gave his life willingly in a noble service and in a brave manner.

He tells in his letter that he had been stringing wire in the Engineer Regiment. The trenches were only about 400 yards from those of the Germans, he says. He stated that he had no regrets for entering the service, his only lament being that he did not leave sooner to do his bit. Every Canadian capable of getting away, he said, should join the colors.

As a probable forecast of his end, he said that the indications were that it would not be very long before they would get at the Huns. He indicated that he looked forward to this with

Liberal Crookedness In By-election Is Being Traced Closer Home As Investigation Before Committee Of Legislature Is Proceeded With

(Special to The Journal.)

Victoria, May 10.—Link by link the chain of evidence in the Vancouver by-election corruption case is being forged before the House Investigation Committee. This morning Mrs. Moore, keeper of the Robson Rooms, Vancouver, told the committee that a man named Herbert Pearce, who had been lodging at her establishment for several months, on the day of the by-election, Saturday, February 26, brought in a number of men and engaged two rooms for them to rest and smoke in.

It will be remembered that some of Seattle pluggers, when on the stand before the committee, told of hoving been taken to the Robson Rooms, where there was a sign before the door "BRITISH OWNED AND OPERATED."

Connecting With Higher-ups.

Then Howard Anderson, Chairman of the Liberal voters' list committee also gave testimony this morning. He said that Mr. Pearce worked for J. T. Scott, who was employed by the Provincial Liberal Association to do work in Vancouver for the by-election. M. A. Macdonald, the Liberal candidate, is President of the Provincial Association. Thus the trail apparently leads from Seattle pluggers to Pearce and then to Scott and perhaps on.

Anderson said that before the election, Scott brought him a list of 303 names of voters in Ward Four, and marked on list "NOT TO BE CHALLENGED." Anderson refused to accept the list unless Scott produced the committee which prepared it. Anderson and S. D. McTaggart, Chairman of Liberal scrutineers' committee had several stormy interviews with Scott over the crooked list.

Unchallenged Voting List.

On election day Scott issued instructions that in Ward Two no names were to be challenged after four o'clock on voters' lists between R. and W.

Dealing with this at the Liberal investigation by the Liberal candidates later on, Scott had weakly explained that half a dozen voters were coming in on the boat and he wanted them to get their ballots cast without being challenged.

Anderson admitted to the committee that the explanation did not seem reasonable, as it was not necessary to leave such a big section of the list open to provide for half a dozen voters. Anyway, McTaggart cancelled these instructions of Scott, Anderson said.

How List Was Prepared.

Eventually it transpired that the list of 303 had been prepared by a man named Gosden, and was written

Vancouver Fish Company Has Decided To Operate Out Of Prince Rupert

The Prince Rupert fishing fleet was materially augmented yesterday by the arrival of three staunch vessels that are to make their home port here. They are the Pharaon, Tiderip and M. R. T., and are owned by the Ocean Foods Company Limited, of Vancouver, B. C.

Capt. C. R. Betts, the representative and principal owner of the concern, came north on the Pharaon and will remain here to superintend the outfitting of the boats for deep sea fishing. They will be supplied here with gurdys and other necessary equipment.

Capt. Betts came north on the Pharaon, the flag ship of the fleet, and the largest of the vessels.

Ottawa, May 10.—The Canadian Shell Committee organized in Sept., 1914, and buried in November, 1915, saved the British Government no less than $35,000,000, according to a remarkable statement filed by Mr. I. F. Hellmuth, K. C., at the session of the Royal Commission in the fuse inquiry. The statement is issued with the approval and endorsement of Gen. Bertram and other members of the shell committee. In brief the situation was: The British Government early in the war made a contract with four

Alaskan Salmon Is Now Arriving On Local Fish-Buying Market

The Roald arrived in port yesterday from Forrester Island, on the Alaskan coast, with 6,000 pounds of red spring salmon, which was picked up by P. J. Sandwick, buyer for the Cold Storage at 8 1-2 cents per pound. This was the first shipment of American salmon to reach here this year.

This is but another movement in connection with the fish business along the line of the centering of the trade in Prince Rupert.

Halibut receipts were somewhat light yesterday, the only arrivals being the Jim Ham, with 8,000 pounds; and the Hi Gill, with 13,000 pounds. These were sold to the Cold Storage at 6 1-8 cents, while the Nellie, which arrived on the previous day with 8,000, sold to the Pacific Fisheries at 6 1-4 cents.

COMPLIMENTARY TO THEIR SUPPORTERS.

"Several jail-bird and thug-witnesses from Seattle" is how the Liberal press now describes the men who came from Seattle to Vancouver on the occasion of the by-election and voted for the Liberal candidate. When the election was considered very doubtful in Vancouver, these men, on the understanding that they were to take care of the votes of over 300 absentees, were regarded as patriots by the Liberal organization. Now they are troublesome to that party and are being blackguarded by the men who profited by their crookedness.

SERVING THEIR COUNTRY.

"And believe me, yours truly will be among the first to be over the parapets." In these words T. P. Woodland, formerly of this city, describes, in all probability his end on the battlefield against German insolence. Thus, he likely died giving what is the greatest contribution a man can give to the service of his country. He went from here with the contingent that left under Major Clayton and Major McMordie, having formerly been employed at the drydock. He was only 21 years of age, but a readiness to serve under arms when the country calls seems characteristic of the family to which he belongs. His brother, G. A. Woodland, of this city, has served through South Africa, while other brothers are preparing to go to the front. Sympathy will go out to his brother here, but there is a keen satisfaction felt that he has done his part in true British fashion.

YOUTHFUL CHAPLIN'S AT THE WESTHOLME THEATRE

Tremendous Crowd Turned Out Last Night To See Them Perform.

The Westholme Theatre was packed to the doors last night, upon the occasion of the competition being staged by the management in the role of Charlie Chaplin. About a dozen Charlies entered the lists.

The attempts of the young boys were highly creditable and kept the house in roars of laughter. The deciding point proved difficult, being left to the audience to be settled according to applause. It was decided that between Willie Martin and Thomas Smith there was little or no difference and they divided the first and second prizes. For third place there was likewise trouble in reaching a conclusion, but it was finally decided, although the disguise was so perfect that the identity could not be learned.

be made until the full board is selected. It is a question whether Sir George, who is advisory in many capacities to the British Government on financial subjects, could be spared from Great Britain at the present time. If he could be obtained no better man could be found. There will also likely be on the board an American railway expert—the ablest available man.

MANY IN PRINCE RUPERT TRY SIMPLE MIXTURE

Many Prince Rupert people are surprised at the QUICK action of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka. This simple remedy acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel, removing such surprising foul matter that ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas. A few doses often relieve or prevent appendicitis. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. The INSTANT, easy action of Adler-i-ka is astonishing. C. H. Orme, Pioneer Druggist. g-c.

SYNOPSIS OF COAL MINING REGULATIONS.

Coal mining right of the Dominion in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, the Yukon Territory, the Northwest Territories and a portion of the Province of British Columbia, may be leased for a term of twenty-one years at an annual rental of $1 per acre. Not more than 2,560 acres will be leased to one applicant.

Applications for a lease must be made by the applicant in person to the Agent or Sub-Agent of the district in which the rights applied for are situated.

In surveyed territory the land must be described by sections, or legal subdivisions of sections, and in unsurveyed territory the tract applied for shall be staked out by the applicant himself.

Each application must be accompanied by a fee of $5, which will be refunded if the rights applied for are not available, but not otherwise. A royalty shall be paid on the merchantable output of the mine at the rate of five cents per ton.

The person operating the mine shall furnish the Agent with sworn returns accounting for the full quantity of merchantable coal mined and pay the royalty thereon. If the coal mining rights are not being operated, such returns should be furnished at least once a year.

The lease will include the coal mining rights only; but the lessee may be permitted to purchase whatever available surface rights may be considered necessary for the working of the mine at the rate of $10 per acre.

For full information application should be made to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, or to any Agent or Sub-Agent of Dominion Lands.

CAREERS OF MEN EXECUTED FOLLOWING IRISH REBELLION

Patrick H. Pearse, "the Provisional President of Ireland," was about 34 years of age, and was known in Ireland as a leading student of Gaelic literature. He was a barrister by profession, but devoted most of his time to literary and educational pursuits. For some time he was editor of the Gaelic Journal in Dublin and later founded St. Endas School, which he conducted up to the time of the Sinn Fein rebellion. He was unmarried. Pearse had many friends in the United States, where he lectured on Irish ideals and Gaelic literature, the proceeds of his lectures going to the support of his school. Pearse was of English descent, but was born in Dublin.

James Connolly lived for several years in New York, where he was active as a Socialist and labor agitator. He returned to Ireland about five years ago, to aid in organizing the Irish Labor party. Connolly was about 50 years of age, and was self-educated. He was the author of a book entitled "Labor in Irish History," published in Dublin, and was editor of a labor paper in that city called The Irish Worker. He was the father of eight children, all of whom survive him, as well as his wife.

Thomas MacDonagh was a close associate of Pearses' and a highly educated man. He was for some time assistant professor of English literature in the National University of Ireland, but resigned to become assistant to Pearse in St. Endas School.

Thomas J. Clarke was one of the leaders in the Fenian conspiracy of the early eighties. He was arrested and sentenced to life imprisonment, but was released after serving fourteen years. He returned to Dublin, where he opened a tobacco store. Clarke married the daughter of Mayor John Daly, of Limerick, another of the Fenian leaders. He is survived by his wife and four boys.

NO REGISTRATION.

the Senate, Hon. Senator Lougheed, the Government leader, stated that the Government at the present time does not contemplate any system of registration.

The debate was introduced by Senator Mason (Conservative), Toronto, who called the attention of the Senate to the unsatisfactory results attending the present methods of recruiting in Canada. The supply of men who are eligible and who are willing to enlist is fast becoming exhausted, and of the men who are offering themselves for enlistment a large proportion are rejected for physical reasons, thus entailing much unnecessary trouble and expense. He said it was apparent that a very large number of men of military age and who can be spared, without interfering with industries essential to the progress and welfare of the country, and according to the assistance Canada is expected to render in the successful prosecution of the war, are not enlisting, and are plainly shirking their duty in this great emergency.

He inquired, what, if any, steps the Government is taking or is contemplating to remedy this existing evil by adopting some system of registration.

OLD SHELL COMMITTEE.

Canadian manufacturers to supply complete shells to the war office, and prices set forth in a schedule attached to the contract. The first order for 200,000 shells was followed by others until the total value of the orders placed with the Canadian Shell Committee or to be technically correct with four manufacturing members of the committee reached the enormous sum of $345,000,000. The committee then proceeded to get prices on component parts of shells, with the result that it was about to place contracts under which it secured complete shells at an aggregate cost something in excess of $300,000,000.

LIBERAL CROOKEDNESS.

by another man named Peterson, both said to be Vancouver longshoremen, who were working for Scott as the longshoremen's committee. Anderson, while he was "SITTING ON" the list checked it over and found that two-thirds of the names were those of absentees.

H. C. Brewster, in questioning the Liberal witness this morning, tried to bring out a point, that while there might have been something "phoney" about Scott's list and his instructions in Ward Two, nevertheless, owing to the action taken by Anderson and McTaggart, no harm was done, and the Liberals started at once on their house cleaning.

Might Have Other Lists.

Ernest Miller pointed out that there was nothing yet to indicate that Scott did not have other lists for other wards besides Ward Four, and took them behind Anderson's back as soon as he refused the first one.

Evidence of Seattle pluggers, who apparently voted in a good many wards in Vancouver, would appear to indicate that something of the sort took place.

The committee will have Scott on the stand in a day or two.

Suggestions for Successful ADVERTISING

The Best Time To Use Advertising Space

While the successful advertiser makes all times his own, their must of necessity be occasions when there are special advantages in presenting live facts about your goods to the public.

Advantages In Strenuous Times

Did it ever occur to you that in times when money is specially "tight" that the average buyer, and especially the thrifty housewife makes it a point to buy where the best can be got for the money expended? Have you an advantage to offer? Your advertising it will give you far better results than when times are better.

Buying Values Are Investigated

The value of money is appreciated now. Values count and are investigated by the public. This is the time to get full results from those who have good values to offer the public in any line of consumption.

Eye Troubles Corrected

Mr. Bulger has had over ten years experience in sight testing and fitting glasses, and last mid-summer took a post graduate course, which included the latest discoveries in the science of optometry or eye measuring. One of the most important is dynamic skiametry. The new method of Prof. A. J. Cross, of New York, in which the eye is measured by a beam of reflected light and any error is recorded.

But we do not simply rely on one method; each eye is tested separately, in three different ways, besides trying the muscular balance, together and the nervous acuteness.

We use the new drugless methods, no drops in the eye and no heavy frame resting on your face; ours swings from the wall by a bracket.

"The Reliable Plumber," Prince Rupert, B. C.,

I have great pleasure in certifying to the excellent hot water and heating system that you installed in our parsonage, and that after six months of operation through the winter months it has given every satisfaction.

The system heats a thirty gallon tank of water to boiling temperature in one hour after the fire has been started; it in no way interferes with the oven for baking purposes. In addition to this, the wall radiator which you placed in dining-room and connected with the range boiler has given us splendid satisfaction, supplying us with ample heating throughout the winter, saving us the cost of a stove and fuel.

I most heartily testify to the satisfaction and efficiency of your system and gladly recommend it.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) (Rev.) J. F. DIMMICK.

Production and Thrift

CANADA'S CALL FOR SERVICE AT HOME

Produce More and Save More

The Empire needs food. If you are not in the fighting line you may be in the producing line. Labour is limited—all the more reason to do more than ever before. Grow food for the men who are fighting for you. The Allies need all the food that you can produce. Every little helps. You are responsible for your own work. If you cannot produce as much as you would like, produce all you can. Work with the right spirit. Put fighting energy into your effort and produce now when it counts. The more you produce the more you can save. Producing and saving are war-service.

Make Your Labour Efficient

In war-time do not waste time and energy on unimportant and unprofitable work. Economize labour. Put off unproductive work till after the war, and, if possible, help in producing something needed now. Let us not waste labour. Canada needs it all. If possible help to feed the Allies. Make your backyard a productive garden. Cultivate it with a will. Make your labour count for as much as possible.

Do Not Waste Materials

There should be no waste in war-time. Canada could pay the annual interest on her war expenditure out of what we waste on our farms, in our factories, in our homes. Every pound of food saved from waste is as good as a pound of increased production. The way for a nation to save is for every individual to save. France is strong to-day because of thrift in time of peace. The men and women of Great Britain are not only "doing" but are learning to "do without."

Spend Your Money Wisely

Practise economy in the home by eliminating luxuries. Wasting our dollars here weakens our strength at the Front. Your savings will help Canada to finance the war. Save your money for the next Dominion War issue. There can be no better investment.
