Germany Centring Her Operations In Carpathians Against Russian Foe

London, April 3.—Poland has almost dropped from sight in the war and in its place interest is all centred in the tremendous battle in the Carpathians. This is being continued, with no signs of any definite conclusion.

The Germans are withdrawing men from the Belgian front to strengthen the Austrian forces. Even the forces from the Yser lines are being drawn upon by Germany so serious is the situation felt to be on the eastern front.

All the Russian divisions that were besieging Przemyśl are now in the Carpathians.

GEORGE L. CLAYTON HAS FISH PLANT IN VIEW

He Will Probably Ask The City To Guarantee The Bonds For A Term Of Five Years—Says He Would Start Work On It In Thirty Days

George L. Clayton, who has just returned from the south, where he investigated the fishing business as it affects this place, states that he is now prepared to enter into the business on a large scale if there is sufficient inducement given locally to the proposition that he has in view. He has interested money in the construction of a plant that will take care of the supply of ice and will provide a market for all fish that comes.

His proposition is that the city shall guarantee the bonds on the investment. These would bear interest at 6 per cent, and the guarantee would extend over a period of five years. Of course, he realizes that to secure such a concession there would have to be some return and he proposes to guarantee ice at $3 a ton, the cold storage plant that would be which he believes would be of advantage in the inducing of the fishermen to come to this port to dispose of their fish. He would agree to begin work on a cold storage plant in thirty days if this concession were granted, he says. Mr. Clayton says that he believes there will be some trouble in getting the boats to leave trading in Seattle, owing to the fact that they have a market there and have become accustomed to dealing there. The city will have to hold out some inducement to get one at least of the companies to come here. If that were done then there would be a tendency to make this the home port for more of them.

Mr. Clayton's proposition is capitalized at about $250,000. Quite a part of this would be invested in the cold storage plant that would be directed.

ORATORIO PROVED A GREAT SUCCESS

EXCELLENT EASTER MUSIC RENDERED IN METHODIST CHURCH GOOD FRIDAY.

E. V. Ling as Conductor Showed Marked Ability in Training of Choir.

The rendering of the oratorio, The Crucifixion, in the Methodist Church on the evening of Good Friday proved a musical treat to those who embraced the opportunity of attending. The regular church choir had been augmented for the occasion and certainly this first attempt at such music in the city was such as to reflect the greatest credit upon those who took part as well as upon E. V. Ling, the conductor. The precision with which the whole was carried through places Mr. Ling in an enviable position as a musical conductor. It is to be hoped that this will not be the last occasion upon which he will undertake the training of local singers for such a treat for the public.

The oratorio was especially appropriate for the occasion. It is a pity that more were not present to hear its rendition. The music is the best and it was proved that local singers are not a whit inferior to those of any other place in the country in ability to handle this class of music. There are, it is safe to say, very few other places of the size of Prince Rupert that could have rendered the oratorio with as much credit as was done on Friday evening by the local singers, which is complimentary alike to those who took part and to the conductor.

The soloists for the evening were Melth Davies and C. D. Jones, and they took their parts without defect. In the chorus singing the attack (Continued on Page Four.)

Editor Journal:

I enclose you copy of a letter that the News refused to publish on account of its length. If you are not so hard pressed for space I would appreciate having this published.

Yours truly,

G. W. NICKERSON.

Dear Editor,—Judging from street talk, there is not a question but that the general opinion prevails in this town that the Daily News has made a number of false moves lately, and no one seems to check you up on any of them. No doubt you mean all right, and I believe if your mistakes are pointed out to you, that doubtless you will be better able to command more prestige for your paper, and save yourself from life membership in the "In-bad Club." I am not prone to writing letters to the papers, but I am compelled to show you, with the very best of feeling, where you are entirely wrong in the stand you have taken last evening editorially on the proposition submitted by the Cold Storage Company to the City Council. The fact is that your editorial is about as tactless as could be imagined, in the face of efforts to secure advantages for every man, woman and child in Prince Rupert, with yourself and the Daily News included. The negotiations leading to a lower price for ice and bait and for storage charges were not opened by the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Company. They can not, therefore, be held to be "out for the whole hog."

As a matter of fact the City Council requested of the Cold Storage Company a proposition as to just what inducements would be expected of the city in order to be able to accomplish the following objects:

1. To sell ice at a price of $3 per ton.
2. To sell bait at $15 per ton.
3. To freeze fish and carry it in storage for one month at one-half cent per pound, and one-eighth cent (Continued on Page Two.)

Military Observers From United States Have Been Withdrawn

The Dacia Incident.

If the Dacia had been captured by a British warship, we should have seen Mr. Breitung, the supposed owner of the steamer, faithful to the instructions he has received, clamoring against Great Britain being hostile to United States commerce, and receiving the support of the press controlled by the Germans of America. Happily, for Britain and Canada, the fishers in troubled waters have failed in their miserable attempts to spread the conflagration of war—too vast already—at a time when the United States, Great Britain and Canada are celebrating a century of peace.—From La Presse.

Washington, April 3.—All military observers with the German armies have been withdrawn by the government. The state department refuses to give any reason save that their work has been completed.

It is, however, an open secret that the reason is the feeling as to the way the German officers count the position taken by the United States in the war.

THE TRADES AND LABOR COUNCIL ENDORSE NEWTON

At Meeting Held Last Evening The Delegates Unanimously Decided To Support Ex-Mayor In His Candidature Next Week

At a meeting of the Trades and Labor Council held last evening the question of the mayoralty contest was considered, when it was unanimously decided to endorse ex-Mayor Newton. The support of the organization was pledged to him in his candidature.

The following resolution was the one carried at the meeting:

"Be it resolved that in view of the support rendered the trades unionist and working class movement in the city of Prince Rupert the Trades and Labor Council do hereby endorse the candidature of ex-Mayor Newton as mayor of the city of Prince Rupert and pledge its support to secure his re-election."

No Council Meeting Held

A special meeting of the City Council was called for last evening at 7 o'clock at the City Hall by the acting mayor, Ald. McClymont, for the purpose of considering the resignation that had been handed to the city clerk by Ald. McClymont. There was not considered to be a quorum present at 7:30, and Clerk Woods thereupon declared the meeting adjourned until 8 o'clock Tuesday evening in accordance with his interpretation of the procedure bylaw. There were present Ald. McClymont, Ald. Montgomery, Ald. Beveridge, and Ald. Edge. The city solicitor, Fred Peters, was also present, in addition to the City Clerk, together with a representative of The Journal, while D. O. Kayser constituted the audience. As the aldermen dispersed, the city solicitor, remarking upon the absence of several members of the Council, stated that this would only result in a further expenditure of money for another election.

THE MAYORALTY

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE CITY OF PRINCE RUPERT:

Ladies and Gentlemen,—Having consented to again become a candidate for the office of Mayor, I would appreciate a renewal of the confidence which you have reposed in me in the past, after having returned to you that confidence directly it became hinted that I may have transgressed the strict letter of the law. In the past I strove to conscientiously serve you, and should you see fit to again honor me with a renewal of your confidence, I pledge you a continuance of that policy.

Yours, etc.,

S. M. NEWTON.

STRONG ON PLATFORMS.

The Liberals are going to have a lot of platform timber for sale by the time the election is over. For years that party has been reaching out for every vote that the leaders thought could be captured, with the result that a very formidable collection of planks was brought together to constitute a platform. But this has now, while the election campaign is on, been modified in some respects by the advent of Rev. Dr. MacKay of Vancouver into the political field. While the Rev. Dr. MacKay could not see his way clear to enter the field in the Liberal cause without a fusion of many other bodies with himself as leader, he submitted a platform which he contended should be adopted if he were to lend his support to the party. The Liberals thereupon adopted this platform of Dr. MacKay's as it stood. This is now described by the local Liberal organ as a supplementary platform. Presumably this is supplementary platform No. 1. That party is open to take over any number of supplementary platforms provided there appears to be votes obtainable by so doing.

With the Liberals now it is a case of anything for power. The party will gulp at anything. The difficulty is that the public know the record of the party and know that it is not in accord with the platform.

A HEAVY TASK.

A British official estimate of the strength of Germany's available trained and untrained men was given to the House of Commons recently by the Under Secretary of War. The grand total of Germans available for service is placed at 9,898,000. The trained rank and file including reserve and landwehr number 3,302,000; the trained land-sturm, 623,000; one year volunteers, 85,000, and non-com. officers of peace establishment, 82,000, making a total trained strength of 4,102,000. Of the balance, the partially trained Ersatz reserve and land-sturm number 5,683,000. This estimate indicates the task of the allies, since Germany is bound to bring every available man into the field.

4. To freeze bait and carry in storage for one month at $5 per ton and one-twentieth cent for every month thereafter.

These prices, with the exception of ice, are less than those prevailing at any other port on the coast. On the other hand, various other commodities necessary to the trade will be found higher in price in Prince Rupert than in other ports, and the committee of which I was a member, calculated that if the lower prices as above listed, could be secured it would equalize the higher prices on other articles, and thus make a common low average for everything necessary to the fishing trade in Prince Rupert.

The Canadian Fish & Cold Storage

age Company in reply to the city stated that in consideration of the city supplying them with electric power at one-eighth of a cent, they would be enabled to set a price of $3 per ton for ice, but they maintained that the other rates were reasonable under their present schedule.

There is nothing in this reply to call for such editorial remarks as the Daily News last evening contained. So far as we know, their letter was by no means final; it was simply a preliminary note and leaves the question open to further negotiations.

The Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Company must always bear in mind the interests of their stockholders, of course, but I know that the men attached to the company are reasonable and fair business men. This company is worth more to the welfare and prosperity of Prince Rupert than any other single asset, save the Grand Trunk, and our misfortune is that we do not have a number of enterprises going and with a large payroll established of equal amount to theirs.

Allow me to indicate roughly what the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Company has done for Prince Rupert, and then you can judge whether or not my statement is correct.

This company built a plant here costing probably $300,000, a cannery in which about $100,000 is invested, and I think that their fishing fleet, etc., would stand them $500,000, making nearly $1,000,000 as the total investment. I have had personal business transactions with them for the past three years, and have always found them to be fair. They buy fish of all comers, and at times it happens that when they are the only company a fisherman can look to to buy his catch they never try to take an unfair advantage. At present the company probably distributes $25,000 a month to the fishermen on their boats, and employees at their plant, which will be increased later in the season to perhaps double that amount when the cannery is opened. They buy locally all supplies that they can consistently, and have a decided inclination to favor Prince Rupert, and to boost in every way for the town.

On the other hand, the large cannery industry, located on the Skeena River, which is contiguous to Prince Rupert, the trade of which naturally belongs to this city, does absolutely nothing to favor this port. On the contrary, I believe that practically all of the trade of the Skeena Canneries is centered in the southern cities. Efforts that have been made to secure the Skeena River business for Prince Rupert have been treated with contempt. This is stated to show to you the difference between the treatment accorded to us by the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Company and our neighboring cannery companies.

The Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Company are pioneers in Prince Rupert, and are doing a pioneer's work. Thus far, I dare say, the stockholders have not received any returns, and until this or other investments in this locality can be made to pay, it can not be readily interested in any other industrial undertakings.

In conclusion, I wish to say that if free power, free water, and no taxation were given to the company and a cash bonus on top of that, it would be the best investment that Prince Rupert could make.

I believe that the question interests every citizen in Prince Rupert, and I believe that every citizen is willing to do his share towards assisting the development and progress of our city, and it is only natural that the company should look out for its own interests. Personally, I feel that their demands are not unreasonable as a basis for further negotiations.

Apologizing for taking up so much of your space, I am,

Yours very truly,

O. H. NICKERSON.

One Point of View.

Certain Calgary officers with the Canadian contingent at Salisbury Plain have written to friends in this city urging that some of the women's organizations undertake to send a large supply of socks to the Canadian Tommies on the Plain. The Herald rises to object. If the women of Calgary have any time to knit more socks for soldiers, or money with which to buy them, they should go where they are most needed—to the British Tommies on the firing line. The Canadian soldiers are being paid more than four times as much as their British army brothers, with all found, and are located where it is easily possible to spend some of their pay on extra socks.—Calgary Herald.

SUSPECTED SPIES ARRESTED ON TRIP

PRIVATE FROM VANCOUVER BELIEVED TO HAVE SIGNALLED FROM MISSANABIE.

Were Within Thirty Miles of German Submarine It Is Now Reported.

Letters and cards are now coming freely from Shorncliffe, where the 30th Battalion of Canadians is stationed at present. With that battalion is the contingent that left here under the command of Col. Peck of the 68th. As captain of the company and as officer in charge of the first train that carried the troops from the Pacific to Halifax he was warmly congratulated. As a result of his soldierly conduct and efficiency he was promoted to the rank of Major before leaving Canada for England.

Word received from some of those who composed the local half company conveys the information that the run into Queenstown was reported to have been made for the purpose of keeping out of the way of possible submarines.

It is reported that a submarine from the German navy was sighted within thirty miles from the troop ships, but the cruisers that were conveying these succeeded in driving it off. On the last night of the run to Queenstown the troop ships made their best speed with all lights out. They were not allowed to light a match even on the decks. Two were arrested, charged, it is said in some of the letters received, with being spies. One of them was a private from Vancouver and the other was a passenger on board. It was said that they were trying to signal from their port holes.

On the final run from Queenstown to Liverpool the troop ships sailed by night. They ran at full speed with destroyers acting as convoys and sweeping the seas in all directions as they proceeded.

was always with precision, the company answering the baton of the conductor as well as could have been asked for. The quartette, God So Loved the World, rendered by Mrs. J. Lewis, Miss Tallander, C. D. Jones and A. L. Harris, was a treat.

J. S. Eason, the organist of the church, added materially to the rendition in his capacity as organist. Following the oratorio a short sacred concert was given. This included choruses by the choir. Mr. Eason rendered Chopin's Nocturne on the pipe organ. Mrs. Lewis in, Out of the Depths, was heard to advantage. She is one of the newer singers to Prince Rupert and her appearance in future will be very welcome. Mrs. J. Scott's rich contralto voice was heard in, He Was Despoiled. Mrs. Scott is always given a most hearty reception here, but it is doubtful if she has been heard to better advantage than she was on Friday evening. J. E. Davey, another of the city's well trained singers, was very much enjoyed by all present.

SYNOPSIS OF COAL MINING REGULATIONS.

Coal mining rights of the Dominion in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, the Yukon Territory, the Northwest Territories and a portion of the Province of British Columbia, may be leased for a term of twenty-one years at an annual rental of $1 per acre. Not more than 2,500 acres will be leased to one applicant.

Applications for a lease must be made by the applicant in person to the Agent or Sub-Agent of the district in which the rights applied for are situated.

In surveyed territory the land must be described by sections, or legal subdivisions of sections, and in unsurveyed territory the tract applied for shall be staked out by the applicant himself.

Each application must be accompanied by a fee of $5, which will be refunded if the rights applied for are not available, but not otherwise. A royalty shall be paid on the merchantable output of the mine at the rate of five cents per ton.

The person operating the mine shall furnish the Agent with sworn returns accounting for the full quantity of merchantable coal mined and pay the royalty thereon. If the coal mining rights are not being operated, such returns should be furnished at least once a year.

The lease will include the coal mining rights only; but the lessee may be permitted to purchase whatever available surface rights may be considered necessary for the working of the mine at the rate of $10 per acre.

For full information application should be made to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, or to any Agent or Sub-Agent of Dominion Lands.
