Bulgaria Reservists Of Year 1912 Have Been Discharged

ROUMANIA MAY BE AT WAR ANY TIME

That Country Refuses To Allow German Supplies To Go Through.

London, Sept. 16.—The massing of Austrian and German armies on the Roumanian frontier has resulted in Roumania preparing for eventualities. The army is mobilized and all reservists have been called home.

The steadfast refusal by Roumania to allow the transportation of German military supplies through that country to Turkey has caused bitter animosity.

Petrograd, Sept. 16.—A despatch from Sofia states that the Bulgarian Government has discharged from the colors the levis of the 1912 class.

This action is taken as indicating that there has been a changed attitude on the part of Bulgaria in connection with the war. It is evidence that that country does not expect to go to war with the other Balkan States.

He was for some time engaged in the business of carpenter and contractor at Trail and later become customs officer ther. He moved to Kaslo in 1890 and resided there until his death. RUSSIA HAS CALLED TO COLORS RESERVISTS TO NUMBER OF ABOUT EIGHT MILLION MORE FROM RESERVES

TURKS ARE IN BAD WAY IN CONSTANTINOPLE

The City Is Said To Be On The Eve Of Surrender Unless Aid Comes Soon.

London, Sept. 16.—The German commander in Constantinople informs Berlin that, unless supplies arrive, the city cannot hold out after September 25.

The Ottoman Bank and other business has been transferred to the interior of Asia Minor. All the Turkish artillery is under control of the Germans for fear of a Turkish insurrection.

London, Sept. 16.—Stern battles are being fought from Riga in the north to the Rumanian border. In the north and the centre the Germans are advancing slowly, while in the south the Russians continue to drive the Austrians back.

Great importance has been attached to the decision to attach Russian reservists and territorials to the colors. This will give the Russians about 8,000,000 more men.

A Petrograd despatch said the Russians had made a great coup by a double flanking movement, under General Ivanoff, against the Teuton right wing in Poland, resulting in 20,000 being killed and wounded, and 13,000 being taken prisoners. There is great rejoicing in Petrograd.

The Teuton right wing is in retreat towards the Strypa River, with the Cossacks in pursuit. The battle is raging along a 220 mile front from the Pripot marshes to the Dniester.

Abolition of child labor by children under 14 years and of female labor in all branches of industrial life as in factories and workshops.

Abolition of property qualifications for all public offices.
