THE ITALIANS ARE NOW WELL INTO CAMPAIGN

SMALL ENGAGEMENTS ON WESTERN BATTLE FRONT

RUSSIANS CONTINUE TO DRIVE BACK THE ENEMY

Spirited Fighting In Progress Near Frontier Of Italy and Austria

Rome, May 31.—On the Italian frontier, there has been a spirited attack by an alpine regiment. A section of our fortifications on the Lavosene plateau, repulsed the attack with heavy loss.

Near the northeast of Paneveggio, a hostile detachment began to entrench itself, but was forced to retire before our fire.

Football.

The following team will represent the Merchants in their game with the Regiment tonight. All players are requested to be on hand at Aeropolis Hill grounds at 7 p.m.

H. Smart, goal; J. Simpson and J. Currie, backs; R. Arthur, F. Cameron, J. Knowles, halves; L. Ives, J. Buchan, A. Kinghorn, A. M. Brighton, J. A. Hunter, forwards; reserves, D. Allan and J. M. Thomson.

Russians On Offensive In Eastern Front Capture Several Thousands

Petrograd, May 31.—An official report says:—"In the Shavli region the Germans continue to resist our offensive with violent fire, but the fighting in this district continues in our advantage.

"On the front between the River Pilica and the upper Vistula we captured 109 officers and 18,617 rank and file.

"In Galicia the battle on San River is developing in our favor. Our troops have successfully assumed the offensive. Last night we crossed the River Lubaczowka and occupied the village of Monasterzn, inflicting heavy losses upon the enemy.

"An offensive move by the enemy along the road from Jaroslau to Radymno in an easterly direction has been stopped by our fire.

"In the region beyond the Dniester all hostile attacks have been repulsed with great losses to the enmy. On Saturday night our troops assumed the offensive with great success on this front. We captured seven thousand prisoners. The enemy began a disorderly retreat.'

On the Carinthian frontier, small engagements have occurred.

To the east of Karfreit the enemy vainly attempted to climb the slopes of the Kern.

On the Vosthal frontier an artillery battle is raging. The attack was begun by our artillery.

Italian artillery has destroyed the armored fort of Lusernon, the Trentino fort, in the Austrian Tyrol. When the white flag was hoisted, the fort of Belvidoes turned its guns on Luserna. The summit of Veszana, and the village below, are occupied by the Italians.

Slight Progress Was Made By The Allies On Western Front

Paris, May 31.—An official report says:—"On the Yser front there has been an artillery engagement.

"In the region of North Arras we made progress.

"On the road from Souchez to Carency, we have taken possession of Malonmill of the German trenches, which extended from the mill to the sugar refinery. We took about fifty prisoners. "In the region of Labrynth having repulsed the German counter attacks, we have organized in positions gained from the enemy. The enemy delivered no infantry attack, but merely bombarded our front."

Angry Father: "What do you think? I've just had my baby boy christened 'Joffre Kitchener French,' and now the little beggar's gone and caught the 'German measles."

NEWS RECEIVED FROM THE SOLDIERS

THE LOCAL CONTINGENT ARE NOW SERVING WITH HIGHLAND BRIGADE

Interesting Information From Those Who Are At The Front.

Quite a number of letters were received yesterday from members of the First Contingent from here, who are at the front.

James Russell wrote George D. Tite, telling how the local men were faring. He says the company being now with the 16th Scottish Canadians wear the kilts, which is not objectionable to Mr. Russell. He lamented the fact that he could not tell all that he would like, but the censor would only knock it out if he did. He says the censorship while severe, is necessary. His letter states that the Germans are being crowded back.

Jack Dowling writes an interesting letter to his mother, which reads as follows:

Dear Mother and All:

We are now billeted quite a distance from the firing line, with the French farmers. We had quite an exciting week in the trenches for the first time. Of course, we were in the reserve trenches, but the reserve trenches are subject to a much heavier and more severe shell fire than the most forward trenches. We had the fortune to witness the uses

TWO LOCAL BOATS BROUGHT IN GOOD CATCHES YESTERDAY

Several Americans Had Smaller Catches To Land Here.

Halibut is coming into port freely now. Late last evening the James Carruthers of the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Company reached port. Her catch was in the neighborhood of 100,000 pounds.

The Borealis of the Atlin Fisheries brought 20,000 pounds.

In addition to these, there were three American boats in with good catches for their size. These were the Dolphin with 12,000 pounds, the Samson with 12,000 pounds, and the Dep with 8,000 poundse.

The Skandia which is operated by the company which is controlled by Capt. Johannsen, who was here a few days ago, called here with a good catch. She had 94,000 pounds, but was bound for Seattle. She called only to take on fresh supplies.

NEXT WEEK G.T.P. WILL PUT ON ITS IMPROVED SERVICE FROM HERE

The Three Trains A Week Each Way And Three Steamer Sailings Each Way Begin At End Of the Present Week---Palatial Steamers Will Make Short Stays In Port Under New Schedule--Trains Will Leave at 10.30 A.M.

W. C. C. Mehan, Generaal Superintendent of the G. T. P. returned Sunday by his private car, from a trip over his district which extends as far east as Edmonton. He is arranging now for the starting up of the new service over the line, which will bring a train from the east every second day, and one out of here on alternate days. Connection will be made here with the steamers for the south.

The first train under the new schedule will leave Winnipeg on Saturday, June 6. Under the new rule, the trains from the east will arrive at 6:15 in the evening. The days of arrival will be Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

The hour of leaving will be 10:30 in the forenoon. The trains will run east on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

Connection will be made quite c'osely with the steamers that are to go on a 30 hours schedule to Vancouver.

Commencing Monday, June 8, the Grand Trunk Pacific will make three trips each way weekly between Seattle, Vancouver and Prince Rupert. The steamers Prince Rupert and Prince George will make the runs. For the summer months the running time between Vancouver and Prince Rupert has been cut from 33 hours to 30 hours. This is the fastest time over this run made by any steamers. The boats will leave Vancouver at 12 midnight on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, arriving in Prince Rupert at 6:30 a.m. on Thursday, Saturday and Monday, respectively. Returning the boats will leave Prince Rupert on Thursday, Saturday and Tuesday at 10 a.m., and will arrive in Vancouver at 4 p.m. Friday, Sunday and Wednesday, respectively.

Under the new schedule schedule the boat which arrives in Prince Rupert on Monday, will proceed to Anyox, which is a seven hours' run north of Prince Rupert.

CANADIAN FACTORY IS MAKING NEW EXPLOSIVE

Manufacture Of Toluol Is Started For First Time In Canada At Sydney.

The manufacture of toluol, the new and powerful explosive, was begun for the first time in Canada, at the Dominion Steel Company's works at Sydney. This is two months earlier than was anticipated. It will soon be manufactured also at Sault Ste. Marie and elsewhere, and the value of the total output is expected to be very large.

The production of lead in Canada for the purpose of the war has now reached 60,000 tons. The proposal to refine copper in this country is still receiving consideration. It has been pointed out that the freight rates on copper matte shipped to the American refineries is $10 per ton, besides the duty. Then there is the freight charge and the duty on the refined copper shipped back to Canada. The establishing of a copper refinery in Canada would also serve as a regulator of foreign combines.

INDIAN MURDER TRIAL AT ASSIZES

HAZELTON CASE WILL COME BEFORE JURY FOR A SECOND TIME

Chief Minty Of Provincial Police Is Here Preparing For Trial.

At the Assizes sitting which opens here on June 16, the Hazelton murder will again come up for hearing. John May, the Indian charged with the murder of Bert Taylor, will for a second time face the judge and jury to answer the charge.

Chief Minty of the provincial police at Hazelton arrived in the city on Sunday. He has come here to do the preliminary work in connection with getting the evidence ready for the trial.

It will be remembered that May was found guilty at the last trial, but an appeal having been taken by Adair Carss, counsel for the prisoner, a new trial was ordered by the Court of Appeal. This trial will be held at the next Assize court.

Transient Photographers.

The photographers of the city wrote the City Council last night asking that transient photographers be required to pay a reasonable sum before being allowed to come in and do business in the city. This was referred to the licensing committee.

MORE LOCAL MEN AMONG WOUNDED

ADDITIONAL NAMES IN THE CASUALTY LISTS RECEIVED

The Sixteenth Canadian Highlanders Being Watched By Residents.

In the latest casualty lists now to hand from the front, there are additional members of the local contingent that have been wounded in the fighting. The list shows that R. W. Entwistle, who was for some time identified here with a real estate office, representing Queen Charlotte property has been wounded.

Another one that has been wounded is Joseph de Mayer, who went from here. He was a Belgian by birth, and many will remember a speech he was called upon to make at the smoker before he left the city. He said then in broken English, that he was glad to go to avenge the wrongs done his native land, and was especially proud to be permitted to go under the Union Jack.

The local contingent which is now with the Canadian Scottish, is connected with the 16th Battalion.

Charles Thorn, who was employed in the Kaien hardware is also numbered among those wounded with Major Peck and Capt. Donald Moore.

GERMANS AND OTHERS.

President Woodrow Wilson has heard a good deal from his German fellow citizens, but not much from the Italians. He has been threatened with the German vote as though the vote of Russian and British born were of no consequence, while the vote of Americans born in Italy has not been discussed as an element in the case. It is worth while to consider the strength of these respective contributions to United States citizenship. When the last census was taken there were in the United States 2,501,181 persons of German birth. In the three years following, 94,178 settlers arrived from Germany, or hardly enough to offset the death rate, so that the number of German birth is still about two and a half million.

Of British birth in the census year there were 2,572,123, exclusive of 1,196,070 born in Canada. Since then Great Britain has sent to the United States over 400,000 settlers, and Canada about 250,000, Canada receiving in exchange a larger number than she gave. In the United States there are today at least fifty per cent. more persons born British subjects than those born Germans.

In 1910 there were in the United States 1,723,421 persons of Russian birth. Since then over 900,000 have been received, so that today Russians and Germans are nearly equal.

The number of Italians births in 1910 was 1,343,070, and the immigration from Italy since 1910 has been considerably over 800,000, so Italian-Americans are not far behind Germans in their voting power.

There are nearly as many Austra-Hungarians as Germans in the United States. The number in 1910 was 1,670,000, and 800,000 have arrived since.

If the President thought it worth while to count votes, including French, Belgians and Servians, he would find the poll of the foreign born two to one against Germany.

R. I. B. WARTON SLEEPS BESIDE YSER CANAL

Major Peck Has Written To His Former Law Partner W. E. Fisher After Visiting The Grave.

A letter received yesterday by W. E. Fisher from Major Peck, contains direct information relative to the resting place of his former law partner, R. I. B. Warton. Major Peck had visited the grave which was marked by his comrades with a cross and his name on the cross. In that way it was in contrast with most of the graves of those who had fallen.

He says it is about a mile nort of Ypres, and on the eastern bank of the canal. The men of the engineers corps to which Mr. Warton belonged, had a great respect for him the letter says.

Major Peck mentioned little outside of the account of his visit to the grave of his former friend in this city. He made mention, however, of the fact that when he wrote all the Prince Rupert men were in good form. Major Gibson and Mr. Baxter were mentioned as doing excellently.

PROTECTING FORESTS BY EDUCATION

HON. W. R. ROSS HAS INTRODUCED NEW DEPARTURE

Moving Pictures Are Used In Effort To Educate People.

An interesting departure has been made under the direction of the Hon. W. R. Ross to make our people realize the great importance of the lumber industry and the necessity of protecting the forest resources of British Columbia from damage by fire.

Moving pictures have nowadays an educational power, only second to that of the press itself. Hence, last year a number of the motion-picture theatres in the province were supplied with a set of slides to be used in the intervals between the ordinary films, the pictures bearing the following legends, each supported by a typical forest scene:—

"One moment please! While waiting, resolve to be careful with fire in the woods."

"Only six trees (shown in picture,) but their manufacture into lumber employed 100 men for one day. Put your fires out."

"$400,000 reward! Is what the lumber industry of the Pacific Northwest pays the community daily for labor, supplies, etc. You share it. Be careful with fire in the woods. The road to prosperity lies through the forests; don't burn them up!"

The slides were sent out under instructions from the Minister of Lands with a letter explaining the need for the co-operation of the theatre proprietors in order to reach a large body of the public inaccessible by any other means. The result was entirely satisfactory, both theatres and patrons expressing their appreciation.

This year the idea was extended every motion-picture theatre in British Columbia receiving a set, the subjects being more direct in their appeals, as is shown by the inscriptions:—

1. "Wage earners and merchants! The lumber industry already employs over half the wage earners in British Columbia, and distributes over 20 million dollars annually for labor and supplies—make it permanent by protecting the Forests from fire, (view shown of export sawmill with shipping).

2. "Taxpayers! Forests pay into British Columbia Treasury 2 1-2 million dollars annually. Prevent fires, and keep your taxes down, (logging scene)."

3. "Hunters and Fishermen! Green forests afford shelter for game, and clear water for fish. Help keep them green, (Forest Guard in canoe on patrol)."

In utilizing the motion picture theatre on the lines described, a powerful agency has been recognized for reaching the general public. The posters displayed along the roads, and in the neighborhood of logging camps and sawmills are familiar to many, while the woodsmen and other followers of the open air life are reminded of the necessity for care with fire every time they use a Forest Branch whetstone.

The general public with its plans for holiday-camps, picnics and the like, will also be reminded of the fire danger, and will undoubtedly respond as good citizens and shareholders in the prosperity of the province.

Take notice that Thomas P. O'Farrell, of Vancouver, B.C. miner, intends to apply to the Minister of Lands for a license to prospect for coal and pretoleum on the following described lands: Commencing at a post situated two and a half miles east and two miles north of the south west corner of lot 2451, thence south 80 chains, thence west 80 chains, thence north 80 chains, thence east 80 chains to point of commencement.

of the Germn asphyxiating gases, but our men have become accustomed to a certain extent, in combating it, and of course, it worked to a disadvantage to the enemy. They fire this gas in shells and it bursts just ahead of our lines. It is a greasy, greenish-yellow, and is not transparent. The Germans follow up behind it, and as soon as it lifts they charge. But in this instance, our men and also the French stuck to their machine guns. When the gas lifted on came the Germans in massed formation, but our machine guns opened fire and mowed them down like hay. When the Germans stopped, the British and French charged themselves, retaking their own trench and two German trenches. The French have a much more deadly gas, called turpenite, which I believe they are going to use. So much the better if they do.

I am now in the quartermaster's stores at the base and will not be in the trenches so much; and 'Im not over-anxious to be in the trenches any more than is necessary, because it's pretty hard on a man's nerves. I would also like to tell you not to believe in half this paper talk. We get papers and I have read the description of the battles we were in, and it was nothing short of a fairy tale. It looks to me that the papers like to overdo things, and for your own sake, don't take any notice of them.

Sergeant Godenrath asks me to send his best regards, and to say that Mrs. Godenrath has received an appointment, and is now in Ottawa. Major Gibson and the rest of the boys also send their best regards.

England did not appeal to me very much, but I have not given up the hope of seeking its pleasures yet. I did not see very much of it while I was there, but I intend to see more. I have seen more of France in two weeks than I saw of England in seven weeks. Its quaint and ancient customs unknown to Western Canada appeal to me; for instance, the farmhouse where we billeted was built in 1714 and it still has its big fireplace, its cobbled floors, its big treadmill turned by dogs—and I can say they are the sort of things that appeal to a Westerner. When a man leaves here for Canada, they say the call of the wanderlust is in him, and he has gone to that country that calls men (men, in its true sense) and it seems funny to hear them, but, without any exaggeration, Canada does need sturdy ones, or at least, the best. I hardly think the common city folk of England or France would find it an easy job to make a good living in the Wild and Wooly West, as they call it.

We are quite interested in the aeroplanes. Their part in this war is no little bit, and we had quite a good chance to study their operations while in the trenches. Very seldom you will see a fight between them, because the Taube always runs away, because he knows he cannot scare our men.

Captain Brown, who is quartermaster in our battalion, is the man who used to be in partnership with Flexman in the furniture business, and you will also remember he was at one time our scout master. He says he is glad to have at least two of his old corps with him at the front. I am in his stores.

Just before we left the trenches to come into billets, I came across the grave of Warton, of Fisher & Warton. He was killed by a big shell while his corps was constructing a bridge across a canal.

We have quite a time figuring out the money over here. They use English, French, and Belgian coins, and when they haand your three different kinds of coin in about a franc of change it takes a little figuring; but we manage to get along, all right. I can speak enough of French now to get anything I want at a store. I studied it in England and it certainly comes in handy. I will be a French - Scotch - English - Canadian when I get back—after fighting in France, wearing kilts, training in England, and born in Canada. It's certainly some combination. They say a man goes through seven stages of life while on earth. Well, if you know anybody who wants to go through them quick, you send them over here—they will go through em, all right.

You have my address in my first letter. We are the 16th Battalion, Canadian - Scottish, 3rd Brigade, France (No. 1 Co.). I have had no mail while over here and I am waiting anxiously.

Well, I think I will close. Hoping to hear soon,

Your loving son,

JACK.

In London, we read from the Daily Mail, classes are being organized to teach women "how to do the grocery trade." This looks like retaliation.—Punch.

SPLENDID FOR PLUMBERS

The sale of Product No. 99 is strictly confined to the high-class supply houses. Its cost of manufacture is therefore not affected by Dept. or "price cutting store" influence that so often drives manufacturers to the use of inferior chemicals and processes. Nor is the dealer allowed to reduce the retail price under penalty of having his supply terminated.

A POWERFUL SOLVENT FOR

CLOGGED UP DRAIN PIPES

"99" destroys accumulations of lint, paper, cloths, hair, slime, grease, vegetables, soap, fruit and many others. It is harmless to fines plumbing.

DON'T ARGUE DON'T PUT OFF TEST IT

This preparation has been so generally successful in clearing drains that it is bought over and over again by those who have tried it, but inasmuch as no on can know the actual condition existing within a pipe, it is absolutely impossible for the manufacturer or the dealer to guarantee the result.

SYNOPSIS OF COAL MINING REGULATIONS.

Coal mining rights of the Dominion in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, the Yukon Territory, the Northwest Territories and a portion of the Province of British Columbia, may be leased for a term of twenty-one years at an annual rental of $1 per acre. Not more than 2,560 acres will be leased to one applicant.

Applications for a lease must be made by the applicant in person to the Agent or Sub-Agent of the district in which the rights applied for are situated.

In surveyed territory the land must be described by sections, or legal subdivisions of sections, and in unsurveyed territory the tract applied for shall be staked out by the applicant himself.

Each application must be accompanied by a fee of $5, which will be refunded if the rights applied for are not available, but not otherwise. A royalty shall be paid on the merchantable output of the mine at the rate of five cents per ton.

The person operating the mine shall furnish the Agent with sworn returns accounting for the full quantity of merchantable coal mined and pay the royalty thereon. If the coal mining rights are not being operated, such returns should be furnished at least once a year.

The lease will include the coal mining rights only; but the lessee may be permitted to purchase whatever available surface rights may be considered necessary for the working of the mine at the rate of $10 per acre.

For full information application should be made to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, or to any Agent or Sub-Agent of Dominion Lands.

BARBERS PETITION FOR CLOSING BYLAW

THOSE CONCERNED ARE RECOMMENDED TO CIRCULATE A NEW PETITION

The One Presented To The Council Was Not Sufficient To Act Upon.

At the council meeting last evening, a deputation from the barbers was present to back up the petition from the proprietors of barber shops, asking for a bylaw governing the hours for keeping shops open. A etition from the barbeprs asked for the bylaw, the hours being plaaced at from 8 in the morning to 7 in the evening, with 8 to 10:30 as the hours for Saturdays, and the days preceding holidays.

Two, Jack Moore and a Japanese barber asked to have their names struck off the petition, owing to misunderstaning it. The Japanese, however, was present with the deputation to consent to his name staying on, having again had it explained to him.

The city clerk explained that there were 12 shops in the city and 10 had signed the petition. There was some dispute as to the ownership of the Cozy Barber Shop.

The city solicitor advised the barbers to get the whole thing in shape by having a new petition signed by them.
