Trade With Russia Is Promising To Develop

It Is Announced From Ottawa That Line of Steamers From Prince Rupert To Valdivostock Is To Be Expected Very Soon

The agreement between the Russian Government and the C. P. R. for a through freight service between Canada and Russia, as announced officially in Petrograd, is but the first step towards a greatly increased trade between the two countries, says an Ottawa correspondent. The agreement encourages trade with Russia, by removing hinderances, hitherto in the way of importers and exporters.

The trade between Canada and Rusia, for the fiscal year ending March, 1913, was $2,066,734, or more than three times what it was in 1909. The increase in the last year is also known to be very substantial. In the year preceding the war nearly $2,000,000 worth of farm implements were exported from Canada to Russia.

The great trouble has been lack of transportation facilities. In 1913 out of $2,145,000 worth of exports sent to Russia no less than $2,017,560 worth went through the United States. While eighteen foreign ships brought 69,465 tons of merchandise from Russia to Canadian ports there was not one vessel that left a Canadian port bound for Russia.

The exports from Canada to Russia increased from $720,000 in 1909 to $2,145,000 in 1913, while the imports from Russia grew from $225,784 to $921,498 in the same period.

The opportunities for Canadian trade lie not only with the large centres, and populous districts of Russia in Europe, but also in Siberia, which was being rapidly developed before the war, and doubtless the policy will be resumed again. Immigrants from western Russia were pouring into Siberia at the rate of 600,000 a year. The Russian Government also contemplates an extensive railway development of Siberia.

Besides the farm implements, it is believed that there will be a big demand for all kinds of railroad supplies and many other things manufactured or produced in Canada.

Apart from the C. P. R. arrangement, it is expected that a line of steamers will before long be plying between Prince Rupert and Vladivostock. It is an interesteing fact that over 100 years ago numerous Russian trading posts were established on the north Pacific Coast.

Mr. Just, formerly Canadian trade commissioner at Hamburg, was sent after his six months' internment to Russia, where he is now touring the country and studying the possibilities of trade between Canada and Russia.

E. H. BEAZLEY PAID VISIT TO CITY

GENERAL MANAGER OF UNION STEAMSHIP COMPANY IS HERE

He Has Been Making A Tour Of The Northern Ports.

There returned to the city last night by the steamer Venture, E. H. Beazley, the General Manager of the Union Steamship Company. He is here to confer with John Bainsley, the local representative of the company.

He is making a tour of the northern ports of the coast visited by the company's steamers, looking into conditions and studying the ever changing needs of the country. He had no changes to announce in connection with the services, the conditions now prevailing being such as to forbid any extension of business.

ITALIANS ARE WAGING SUCCESSFUL WAR AGAINST ENEMY

Rome, June 15.—Italian artillery has exploded the Austrian ammunition depots at Corte and damaged the Austrian works at Cessassi. The bombardment of the Malberegette fortress resulted in the explosion.

The Austrians made an unsuccessful attempt to set the forest of Monfalcone on fire. The Italian Alpinists, in the Volla Alps, made an extensive capture of prisoners and booty.

Venizelos Won Greek Election

Athens, June 15.—The latest returns of the election show that the followers of the former Premier Venizelos won 193 seats in the Parliament. The government secured only 100 out of the 316 in the House. The remainder are Independents.

WOMEN FOUGHT A HARD FIGHT

A PAIR OF BLACK EYES PRESENTED IN COURT SHOWED HOW HARD OPPONENT STRUCK

Assailant Was Fined $20 And Costs For Her Part In Fray.

In the city police court yesterday morning the relative fighting abilities of Lena Silver and Alva O'Neill were considered by J. H. McMullin, stipendiary magistrate. Inasmuch as all the honors had been with the latter in a battle last week, the court decided to reverse the decision yesterday, and awarded the damages against her for $20 and costs.

The O'Neill woman was charged with assault when the court opened. To this Alex Manson, who appeared for her pleaded guilty and expressed his readiness to accepting a fine.

L. W. Patmore said that he did not appear in that, but would appear for the Silver woman, in an information laid on a more serious count.

Mr. Manson said that that ended it. This court would have to be disposed of. He contended that a second charge could not be laid until this one was disposed of.

Mr. Patmore had not know of this charge, but under the circumstances expressed his readiness to proceed with it and take evidence.

Mr. Manson said there was no need to take evidence, as they would be no farther on at the end. He thought that a fine of $20, the maximum one might be inflicted, it was evident that his client had had that much fun out of it.

Mr. Patmore contended that the brutal nature of the attack was such that it made it a case that was not one to be punished by a fine. It should be punished by imprisonment.

He wanted evidence called, and this was agreed to.

Dr. Cade testified that he had been called to Lena Silver's house. The place was in disorder, as though there had been a rumpus. That was about 2 or 3 o'clock in the morning. He saw Lena Silver about 8 or 9 o'clock. She had both eyes blackened, a bruise on the nose, a lump on the head and he enumerated about a dozen other bruises on the body. The bruises on the face had resulted from "a pretty heavy blow." The bruises were such as a man would inflict.

Lena Silver called as a witness described the assault. Alva O'Neill knocked her down and then proceeded to pound her, Rose Bloom came in and said to leave her alone, she was dead. Alva said "no I'm going to kill her. She must be killed tonight." Three men finally took her away. Witness had run out of the house as soon as she got free. She came up to the police station

Cross examined by Mr. Manson,

A HEAVY CROP OF STRAWBERRIES

NEARLY THREE THOUSAND CRATES TO COME FROM TERRACE

One Raiser At Breckenridge Will Have Three Hundred Himself.

There promises to be a heavy crop of strawberries locally this year. The first of the shipments will be reaching the city very soon now. George Little of Terrace, who is in the city, announces that at that point, Kitsumkalum Lakelse, and as far as Breckenridges there will be over two thousand crates sent to the local market this year. He would not be surprised if the number reaches nearer three thousand crates.

One producer at Breckenridges is making provision for 600 crates himself, and he may have still more than that. There has been a decided move made by the farmers in the valley this year to get the very best out of the plantations they have.

The fruit is of the very best quality. There has been sufficient rain during the season to produce a very good crop.

While the strawberry crop is good, the same applies to other productions of the valley. Farmers have been putting in as much as possible, and the season has been most favorable for production. The result is going to be a record making crop in all lines for the district.

IT IS CONTENDED THAT U. S. NAVY IS NOT READY

New York, June 15.—George Von Meyer, Secretary of the Navy, under President Taft, in urging navy reform, says that twelve of thirty-three battleships are unfit for service, that the submarines are crippled and that there is an insufficiency of destroyers.

He also claims that the Atlantic fleet is lacking 5,000 men and that the navy needs 18,000 additional men and a naval reserve of 50,000 men.

RUSSIANS MARCH OVER SOLID ROAD OF DEAD GERMANS

London, June 15.—The fiercest fighting of the war, as far as the Baltic provinces of Russia are concerned, occurred a few days ago in a battle for the mastery of the Dubysa River, according to the Post's Petrograd correspondent.

The river changed hands five times in one day, and at nightfall the stream was completely choked with the bodies of thousands of dead, so that a plank roadway for artillery was laid by the victorious Russians

Karlsruhe Bombarded From Air Ships As Retaliatory Measure

Paris, June 15.—In retaliation for the bombardment by the German enemy of open French and English towns, the order was given to bombard the capital of the Grand Duchy of Baden. Twenty-three aeroplanes set out accordingly for Karlsruhe and dropped 130 projectiles on objects which had been indicated to them, particularly the Chateau Arms manufactory, and the station.

A great number of fires broke out. A serious panic was observed in the station from which trains departed hastily.

The machines of the Allies were subjected to violent gun fire, but all returned except two.

MILL BAY FISH CANNERY LEASED

WILLIAM McPHERSON HAS TAKEN OVER THE WORKS THERE

The Cold Storage Plant Will Not Be Worked By Him.

The cannery at Mill Bay on the Naas, has been leased it is reported. This cannery which has hitherto been under the control of Henry Dayle, has been leased to William McPherson it is said. The latter will carry on the business of canning there, the plant being an excellently equipped one.

The cold storage plant there will be kept in operation to take care of the fish now stored there, until these are disposed of. There will be no attempt to operate the cold storage for new business, however.

WHAT WAR DEMANDS FROM INDUSTRIAL WORLD

The Allies Require Great Quantities Of Munitions And Guns In Present War.

The following interesting facts are taken from the New York American Machinist:

"A French engineer reports that he has seen car-load after car-load of rifles going back from the fighting-front in France for repairs, and has said that it is estimated that every soldier actively engaged will require ten rifles a year. Of course, many of those returned are repaired and sent back into service. Records from the manoeuvers of some of our state militia show a loss of 10 per cent. of the rifles issued during a ten or twelve days' encampment. If the loss is as great as this in a few days of training, what must it be in weeks

A SILENT VICTORY.

Canada has good reason to appreciate the silent efficiency of the British navy. Despite the terrors of the German submarine campaign, the thousands of Canadian soldiers who have left this country for Europe have reached England and, subsequently, the continent, in safety.

In a celebrated speech delivered in London a few years ago, Admiral Lord Fisher, late First Sea Lord of the British Admiralty, declared that not a British soldier could go to fight anywhere outside the British Isles excepting a British sailor carried him there on his back. The picturesque phrase made a deep impression. The war has proved the truth of it; and in a larger sense, has made the truth much more impressive.

By reason of the effective control of the seas established by the British navy, reservists of the allied countries have been carried to Europe by thousands from all parts of the world. On the other hand, enemy reservists have been kept away. No estimate is available of the actual numbers concerned; but it must be true that the Allies have gained a huge army of trained men in this way, while on the other hand, the enemy has failed to realize on its effective strength.

In a desperate conflict such as this one, every ounce of the national strength is called into service. This fact intensifies the service the navy has performed in putting out of action a very large army of the enemy's forces in a bloodless, silent victory, while adding a larger army to the soldiery of our own and allied countries in the field.

British sailors have "carried on their backs" a large percentage of the men fighting Germany today. And not a single transport, as yet, has been lost. Those inclined to criticize the navy for its failure to win victories are not to be accused of taking thought.

WOMEN FOUGHT.

witness was asked if she had not had a lot of trouble at different times.

Witness said it was none of his business.

After repeating the question with a similar reply, witness was ordered by the court to answer.

Witness said she was "picked on." She was called a stool pigeon by others.

Witness was asked if she had defied the police officers and refused to go inside. Had she not gone to the Immgration officers and tried to get women put out of the city.

Witness denied this, but Mr. Manson said he would take the word of those who told him, rather than that of witness.

Mr. Manson asked if the trouble did not arise over Alva O'Neill saying that witness had rolled a man for $15, and said she was Alva O'Neill.

The witness broke into a storm of explanation and denials, until stopped by the magistrate, who fined the accused $20 and costs.

Is Business Slow?

It probably serves you right

You are not letting the public know what you have

That is the Solution

That manufacturers should increase their advertising appropriations during a period of business depression and curtail during the years of prosperity, was the opinion advanced by Roger Babson, the financial and business statistician, at a meeting of the Technical Publicity Association, held in New York.

"Directors of your company regard advertising as a luxury to be cut down when business is poor," said Mr. Babson. "They give you orders what to do rather than you giving them orders.

"If you solved this advertising problem in a scientific way you would tell them what to do, the same as their lawyers and their bankers tell them.

"In a year of prosperity they are willing to give you a big advertising appropriation, and when the reaction comes they cut down to almost nothing. Take the big appropriation in the fat years and salt it away for use in the lean years.

"If you all did this the business of the country would move along more evenly; the business boom would be less, and the reaction, the area of business depression, smaller."

NOTICE OF CANCELLATION OF RESERVE.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Reserve existing on Detention Island by reason of a Notice published in the British Columbia Gazette on the 30th of May, 1912, is hereby cancelled.

SYNOPSIS OF COAL MINING REGULATIONS.

Coal mining rights of the Dominion in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, the Yukon Territory, the Northwest Territories and a portion of the Province of British Columbia, may be leased for a term of twenty-one years at an annual rental of $1 per acre. Not more than 2,560 acres will be leased to one applicant.

Applications for a lease must be made by the applicant in person to the Agent or Sub-Agent of the district in which the rights applied for are situated.

In surveyed territory the land must be described by sections, or legal subdivisions of sections, and in unsurveyed territory the tract applied for shall be staked out by the applicant himself.

Each application must be accompanied by a fee of $5, which will be refunded if the rights applied for are not available, but not otherwise. A royalty shall be paid on the merchantable output of the mine at the rate of five cents per ton.

The person operating the mine shall furnish the Agent with sworn returns accounting for the full quantity of merchantable coal mined and pay the royalty thereon. If the coal mining rights are not being operated, such returns should be furnished at least once a year.

The lease will include the coal mining rights only; but the lessee may be permitted to purchase whatever available surface rights may be considered necessary for the working of the mine at the rate of $10 per acre.

For full information application should be made to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, or to any Agent or Sub-Agent of Dominion Lands.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy Minister of the Interior.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cartwright has returned from Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. Tate M. Robertson of Vancouver, arrived in the city last evening. Mr. Roberston represents Evans, Coleman & Evans. He is a brother of Judge Robertson, who has been appointed for the judicial district at Prince George, and who held court here a few weeks ago on his way to the interior town.

RUSSIAN MARCH.

across a solid bridge of bodies, the correspondent says.

The Dubysa, although wide, is so shallow that it can be crossed on foot at some places. The Russians and Germans met at a ford half a mile wide, north of Rossijeny, where they fought all day in the water.

There were several bayonet charges in mid-stream and all who fell, even though they were only slightly wounded, were drowned. Troops on both sides in their attacks and counter-attacks late in the day advanced over the bodies of the dead.

WHAT WAR DEMANDS.

of active fighting?

"Turning to shells for the larger guns, it is said that the French fired one hundred and fifty thousand 75-millimeter shells in the Battle of the Marne. Their 75-millimeter guns can shoot sixteen shells per minute, and there are guns which have records of having shot 2,000 shells in a single day. At the first of this year, the French Government was just completing its equipment to produce 200,000 explosive shells per day. A plant now under construction in Paris is to have a capacity of fifteen thousand 75-millimeter shrapnel-shells per day. At the rate mentioned, eight of the French 75-millimeter guns could fire all the shells produced by a factory employing say 4,000 to 5,000 men.

"These figures apply solely to ammunition and do not hint at the enormous supplies of other materials that an army needs.

"When measured in labor-hours, these figures are astounding and beyond our mental realization. But they give us a hint as to the tremendous strain upon the manufacturing equipment of the countries now producing war material. They also show the sound sense behind the action of the last United States Congress authorizing the development by the war department of a corps of civilian engineers, a part of whose duties will be the production of ammunition and war material, if this country ever faces war."

BRITISH PENSION PLAN IS A VERY COSTLY ONE

Will Cost The Government Of The British Isles The Sum Of $1,725,000,000.

The new British pension plan will cost the government nearly $1,725,000,000 before the last pensioner dies, according to actuaries employed by the non-partisan committee which prepared the plan at the order of the House of Commons.

The maximum expenditure the first year, the committee reports, will be about $280,000,000; and the cost during the first year after the war will reach $65,000,000. These figures are based on an army of three million men, a two years' war, and ten per cent. of deaths, with twelve per cent. of disablement.

It even exceeds the entire revenue producing capacity of all Europe, including belligerents and neutrals, by over three billion dollars.

SWISS WAR TAX APPROVED.

Berne, Switzerland, via Paris, June, 15.—A referendum of the Swiss nation has approved, by a vote of 435,000 against 26,000 of special war taxation yielding about 60,000,000 francs ($12,000,000).
