FIRST BRITISH TRANSPORT SUNK IN AEGEAN SEA

ARTILLERY FIGHTING IS REPORTED FROM VOSGES

TEXAS SUFFERED VERY SEVERLY FROM STORMS

The First British Transport Lost During The War

London, Aug. 17.—The British transport Royal Edward has been sunk in the Aegean Sea by a German submarine. Six hundred were saved out of over fifteen hundred aboard her.

The men aboard wer reinforcements for the 29th division, which has been on the Gallipoli Peninsula since the first landing of British troops there.

The Royal Edward, which was owned by the Canadian Northern Railway, was built at Glasgow in 1908. She was used between Canada and Bristol as a passenger and mail boat, and was of 11,117 tons register.

Before being purchased by the C. N. R. she was named the Cairo, and was engaged in tourist traffic between Alexandria and Marseilles.

Miss Wait, of the Vancouver World, is spending a holiday in the city.

Galveston And Other Texan Cities Suffer From Severe Storm

Dallas, Texas, Aug. 17.—No definite news of the loss of life at Galveston, as a result of the severe tropical storm has been received. A wireless message states that boats are taking persons from buildings and the streets to a United States transport. The tropical hurricane extended its devastion inland. Communication is impossible with several cities in the southwest of Texas.

All buildings on the waterfront of Galveston have been ruined. Vessels caught in the harbor suffered severely. Some of these were destroyed, while others were badly damaged. Giant waves carried the large and small craft far beyond the usual beach boundaires.

San Juan Company Buying

It is reported that a new fish buying company has decided to operate here. This is the San Juan Company, of Seattle, one of the largest buyers of halibut on this coast.

GROWING GOOD TOBACCO CROP

IN KITSUMKALUM VALLEY THERE ARE FINE SHOWINGS OF THIS PLANT

Evidently The Climate Is Well Adapted For Its Production.

Reports from the Kitsumkalum Valley indicate that tobacco can be grown quite readily there. A visitor to that section, recently reported that both R. Braun and Fred Kohler had very luxuriant crops of this plant.

The leaves were as long as four and a half feet, while they measured 7 inches across. This visitor did not know anything of the quality, but he feels that the crops can be grown readily.

Mrs. E. Kaufman and family has gone to Seattle to join Mr. Kaufman there. They expect to return to the city a little later.

CITY MAY SUE FOR TAXES DUE

IN A FEW INSTANCES THIS COURSE WILL BE TAKEN TO COLLECT

Action Will Be Taken In Cases Where It Is Necessary Only.

At the meeting of the council last evening the question of suing under the act for taxes on certain high-priced lots in the the heart of the city came up. It was explained by the city solicitor that the power was given to sue. There were cases of lands being held in the centre of the city, where there was still due to the government a very considerable sum. It would be inadvisable to put these up to a tax sale, as the city would then have to take over the equity that was not held by the nominal owner. There were not many cases that came under the head referred to. In these cases the owners could well pay the taxes, living outside the city.

Artillery Fighting Is Again Reported On The Western Front

Paris, Aug. 17.—An official report says:—"Artillery fighting in which there are no notable incidents occurred on the larger part of the front in the Vosges. We violently shelled the German positions in the region of Linge on the ridge between Gondernach and Landersbach.

"On the latter point our infantry made an attack and secured a footing on the ridge. They entrenched themselves.

"A German counter attack failed."

LEO FRANKS CARRIED FROM PRISON BY MOB AND KILLED

Marietta, Ga., Aug. 17.—A mob of 25 masked men overpowered the warden and guards at the prison and carried Leo Franks in an auto to a spot two miles east of the city. After riddling his body with bullets, they strung it up on a tree near the grave of Mary Phagan, the girl he was sup-

Rich Ore Reported At Georgia River Mines

The Properties Of C, H. Dickie Promise Excellently According To Reports Received In The City From The Claims

Reports have been received from the Georgia River Mining Company property near Stewart, which indicates that the showing is even better than at first expected. This is the property in which C. H. Dickie, of Duncan, is interested. Mr. Dickie was called by telegraph message to the property, going through here about a week ago.

Upon arrival at the property, it is reported he found it better than he had been led to believe it was. The showing is most gratifying. The gold values are said to run as high as $1,500 or $1.600 a ton.

This property is situated on Georgia River, about thirteen miles south of Stewart. Mr. Dickie is deeply interested, and will spend some time there it is expected.

The work is being done about 4,000 feet above sea level, but close to tide water. Mr. Dickie will decide upon a line of action while there.

Mrs. A. Davidson, wife of the general agent of the G. T. P., has returned to the city.

WITNESS POSITIVELY IDENTIFIED JAPANESE WHO KILLED PITMAN

Robert Angus At The Preliminary Hearing Of Charges Against The Japanese From Port Essington Testified That Wagano The Cook Was The Guilty One---Evidence Was Taken Yesterday Before Stipendary Magistrate J. H. McMullin

Yesterday J. H. McMullin, Stipendary Magistrate, began the preliminary hearing of the charges of murder preferred against three Japanese from Port Essington. The three Japanese are Kameda, Nagana and Chara, who are alleged to have been guilty of the crime of killing John Pitman on the night of July 30, at the Oriental restaurant in Port Essington. The hearing is a slow one, in consequence of the fact that only one of the accused men is represented by counsel. This is Kameda, who is represented by Fred Peters, K. C. All the depositions have to be interpreted to the other prisoners, which makes long delays. S. Tominaga is acting as interpreter. Chief Gammon, of the provincial police, is conducting the case for the Crown. It will take several days to complete the hearing.

Yesterday the most direct evidence that was given, was that of Robt. Angus, who swore that it was Nagano who did the act.

Identified Man.

Robt. Angus gave evidence very similar to that given at the coroner's inquest the night before. He identified Nagano who committed the crime. Witness, Murphy and Pitman were eating in the cafe at 11.10. Carlson called for some soup. Ohara gave him the soup. Later he saw Kameda and Ohara taking Carlson up in a corner and starting to beat him. Witness remarked they did all right for Carlson had not paid for the soup.

Carlson ran out of the cafe. About three minutes afterwards two Japanese brought him back. He had some blood on his nose and around his mouth. Witness told the Japs they had gone far enough. He had just said this when Ohara struck him, (witness), over the eye. He saw Kameda with a crutch striking at Carlson.

Cry of Murder.

Carlson ran out and witness followed him outside. Someone said "They are murdering me." Witness went back to the door and saw Murphy lying down in a corner. Nagano was in the opposite corner with Pitman. He did not pay much attention to them.

Witness picked up saucers and started throwing them at Kameda and Ohara, who were with Murphy.

Fatal Wound.

Pitman and Murphy went out and witness followed them. Nagano came out after him and pasesd him, following Pitman to the bottotm of the steps. At the foot of the steps Pitman turned as though to grab Nagano. He saw something glitter in Nagano's hand like a knife. Pitman then said "Bob I'm stabbed." Witness said, "Run." The cook, Nagano, then turned round on witness. He dodged under the cooks arm twice, but was stabbed in the head coming back. Witness then ran down the street after Pitman towards the pool room. He pasesd Pitman, who dropped right at his heels. He saw no one else at the time.

Found Dead Body.

Witness ran and got his partner, Gus Schorneck, who was in bed. They came back and found Pitman lying dead. Tommy Darve and another man came along with Murphy on a truck. They put Pitman on the same truck and took him on to the hospital.

Cross-examined by Mr. Peters, witness said Kameda had nothing to do with the restaurant as far as he knew. He had no doubt the stab Pitman got at the foot of the steps was the one that caused his death. It was not Kameda that stabbed him; it was the cook.

Officer's Evidence.

Robert V. Leese, provincial officer, testified that he had been called from his room to the Oriental cafe. He found Murphy lying outside. His face was covered with blood. Witness sent for a truck and had him moved to the hospital. He arrested Nagano at the same time. Kameda and Ohara were in the cafe at the time of the arrest. Angus and two other white men were there also. They picked up the body of Pitman on the way, which they took to the hospital. After putting Nagano in jail he went back and arrested Ohara and Kameda. There was blood on their clothes. Ohara had a sweater on. There were blood stains about the cafe on panels near the floor, and also on the floor. He found three cloths that had apparently been used to wipe blood off with.

It was 288 feet 8 inches from the door of the cafe to where the body was found. Murphy was lying 21 feet 1 inch from the door. He traced blood stains from the cafe to where Pitman fell. It was apparent he was stabbed at the cafe. There were no blood stains from the door to where Murphy was found. He was bleeding when found.

WITNESS POSITIVELY.

Ohara Called Him.

Ohara, the Japanese awakened him and told him to come down there was a fight in the cafe. He did not tell him anyone was killed or wounded. The first he knew of the killing was when he found the body of Pitman on the walk. He arrested Nagano because he was in the cafe.

Cross-examined.

In reply to Mr. Peters, witness said there was no one in the police station that night. He had heard that Kameda went to the police station and had no reason to doubt that.

Lacey, a shoe repairer, whose place was opposite the point where the body was found, came over after they picked it up. Miss Goa, who lived next door came also.

After witness came back, he asked Lacey about the case. He said he did not know anything of what had happened. He had heard someone running past. He had seen Kameda coming from the direction of the pool room, which was the same way as from the police station. He saw Pitman's body lying there at the time.

Witness said he could not say that it was Kameda or someone else who went to the police station to call the police, as he was not there.

Theory of Defense.

Mr. Peters contended that the steps heard were those of Pitman, who dropped down 280 feet from the door of the restaurant; that Kameda had gone to the police station earlier and arrived back just as Lacey came there.

Witness knew witness Figi Mota, who lived next to Lacey's repair shop. He did not see him that night. He had not spoken to him about this matter.

The hearing was adjourned until this morning.

Halibut Rerched High Figure

With little fish offering, the price of halibut has gone up. Yesterday there was but one independent boat in with fish. This was the Idaho, with 30,000 pounds on board. As high as 5 1-4 cents a pound was offered, but the captain withheld from selling until today.

posed to have murdered.

All the wires in the district were cut before the attack was made. Franks told the mob that he would go willingly, as he was not afraid to die, but that he was innocent of the murder.

He was released from the hospital the previous day, on his recovery from the attack made upon him by the convict Green. Mrs. Frank, who was fighting for her husband's liberty, collapsed on receipt of the news of the assassination.

The council decided that discretion should be given the city treasurer in this matter. A resolution covering this was accordingly passed.
