AWAIT COMPLETION OF P. G. E. RAILWAY

Mr. J. A. Evans, of Clairmont, which is 450 miles north of Edmonton, is in Vancouver on business, and in an interview with a representative of the Province stated that the people of the Peace River country are eagerly awaiting the completion of the P. G. E. railway. He said :

"It is an unfortunate thing that the new Pacific Great Eastern railway has not been pushed along. We are looking forward to its completion; in fact the people are coming into that country on the strength largely of getting transportation facilities. We are obliged in the purchase of British Columbia lumber to pay enormous freights and to have it hauled over a very circuitous route in order to land it at Grande Prairie. The completion of the Pacific Great Eastern will be a great boon to the whole Peace River district and will mean that practically all the trade arising there will come to Vancouver.

"Land is being rapidly taken up," continued the northerner, "but there remains within a few miles of the railway and right along the proposed route of the Pacific Great Eastern in British Columbia hundreds of thousands of acres of farm lands which may be had for the staking and payment of the usual small homestead fee. The settlers who went in there four and five years ago have all made good and are prospering. They had to live the simple life, but now with the opening up of the railways they are reaping their reward. Opportunities on the British Columbia side of the line are similar to those which existed in our district before the Edmonton & Dunvegan road was built. And people who go into the Pouce Coupee will find themselves in clover when the Pacific Great Eastern railway has been completed throughout its entire length and trains are being operated from the coast to Grand Prairie and on over the McArthur line to Edmonton."

WHEAT WILL SOAR

Montreal, Aug. 23.—"I have come to the conclusion that if we have 165 million bushels of wheat this year in the three Canadian Northwest provinces, that is all that can be expected," said Jas. Carruthers, a prominent grain merchant who returned today from a five weeks' trip through the Canadian wheat belt and to the Pacific coast.

"There is no doubt that Manitoba will raise only about half the crop it did last year.

There should be a carry over of about 50,000,000 bushels of old wheat this year, and this will help to make up the deficiency."

In an address to the Epworth League and Baptist Young People's Union in Seattle recently, Mayor Hiram Gill stated that many of the supposedly "good people", among them a number who were regarded as prominent citizens, had gone into the "bootlegging" business. The profits which resulted from the illicit sale of liquor appeared to be so great that they could not withstand the temptation.

From the Ashcroft Journal of 20 years ago: The "Golden Cache" is situated 3,000 feet above sea level and about 1,600 feet above Cayoosh Creek. It crops out on the face of a precipice and is traceable for 2,500 feet. Assays running all the way from $300 to $3,600 to the ton have been made.

The schools in this district will re-open on Monday next. Miss Moscrop, of Vancouver, is the new teacher in Lillooet, while Miss Irma Street, of Chilliwack, will be in charge of the Seton Lake school, Mr. J. R. Fournier, having resigned in order to take the position of teacher in a school at Telegraph Creek.

The death occurred on Upper Deadman Creek, near Savona, on Tuesday, the 15th inst., of Jas. B. Uren. The late Mr. Uren came to the interior of the province in 1889, and was engaged in the blacksmithing business in Lillooet from 1900 to 1910. At that date he moved to Deadman Creek, where he took up farming and sheep raising, and remained there until the time of his death.

Loo Tung, also known as Charlie, a Chinaman who has lived in Lillooet for the past forty or fifty years, died on the P.G.E. train at Pemberton on Wednesday while being conveyed to the Vancouver General Hospital. The body will be brought back to town today, when a post mortem examination will be made to try and ascertain the cause of death. Deceased was about 65 years of age.

HIGHER PRICE FOR FLOUR

Don't be surprised if you have to pay a higher price for flour in the local stores this week. The price of wheat has increased practically all over the world and flour has risen in Vancouver $2.40 a barrel since May 1. In Montreal bread is selling at 9 cents for 24 ounces, although flour is cheaper owing to the lower freight rates. In Tacoma a 21-ounce loaf costs 10 cents.

REV. J. R. BUTLER MARRIED

A wedding was solemnized at the Metropolitan Methodist church in Victoria last week when Miss Elizabeth L. Baker, daughter of the Rev. H. R. Baker, of Victoria, was married to the Rev. John R. Butler, Methodist minister at Mission City, and formerly of Lillooet. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. Osborne, assisted by the brother of the bride. The couple left for a honeymoon trip to the south.

Hurley, of Lillooet, was married to Mr. Glen Cerrie Miller, telephone lineman on the P.G.E. railway. Rev. Dr. Fraser performed the ceremony, and the witnesses were Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Matthews and Miss Matthews, of Britannia Beach. The happy couple arrived in town on Wednesday evening and were given an enthusiastic welcome by their many friends.

A committee composed of Messrs. Wm. Spiller, E. C. Lunn, J. K. More, John Davis and Wm. Ritchie has charge of the arrangements, which is a guarantee that the affair will be a complete success. Mr. H. P. Horan is the chairman and P. LeBourdais sec'y-treas. The citizens of Lillooet by attending this concert and dance can help to give the boys a grand send-off and also enjoy a pleasant outing. Visitors from this part of the district will receive a hearty welcome.

RETURNED SOLDIERS AID COMMISSION

The meeting held in the court house on Wednesday evening to make arrangements to assist soldiers returning from the front was largely attended. Mr. J. Dunlop was voted to the chair and Mr. LeMare performed the duties of secretary,

A letter was read from Mr. J. H. Hill, Victoria, secretary of the Returned Soldiers Aid Commission advising the citizens of Lillooet to form a local committee to deal with the problems of securing positions and otherwise assisting soldiers who were recruited in this district.

Mr. J. R. McIntyre expressed the opinion that the people likely to take the most interest in this work are the fathers and relatives of the soldiers and suggested that they head the committee. His suggestion was agreed to. He also objected to the word "aid" in the name of the commission, but no one present was able to think of a word that would be more suitable.

On motion of Mr. W. Adams, seconded by Mr. R. Webster, Mr. S. Gibbs was elected permanent chairman, and the following men were appointed to the committee, with power to add to their number : Messrs. Burkholder, Eagleson, Phair, Foster, Craig, Copeland, Means, Moule, Carson, Hambrook, Duguid, Adams, Prosser, Webster, Bridge, McIntyre, Cran, Parsons, Russell, Morrison, Bellamy, Baldwin, Dunlop, Asselstine, Hurley, LeMare.

The next meeting will be held at the call of the chairman,

BRIDGE RIVER NOTES

(From a Correspondent.)

This country is undergoing quite a change. The majority of the kickers have kicked themselves out of this part, and the rest of the old-timers are very busy kicking out the real yellow metal.

The Pioneer people are running night and day shifts and everything seems to be working smoothly.

The Coronation mill is running in high grade ore.

Mr. B. J. Perry and Mr. and Mrs. Cathcart left for the coast on Saturday morning.

Under the efficient management of Mr. A. F. Noel, the Lorne mill has been running continuously 24 hours a day, with exceedingly good results.

Mr. M. R. Eagleson has changed the appearance of his home on Cadwallader creek. Mark seems to think it is one of the finest places to spend the summer months. He has a showing of fine milling ore a short distance from his house.

The Golden Dream Mining Co. are increasing their force of men, as is also Mr. D. C. Paxton.

It will be a surprise to most people when they read the government report at the end of the year and learn the amount of gold that has been shipped out of the Bridge River district.

A SANE SABBATH.

The wise man said: "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom." There will surely be a great readjustment of social conditions after the war. People are ready for changes now who would not have patience to hear them mentioned two years ago. We are told by one who was listening that a statement was made from a pulpit in New Westminster about two months ago that prepares the way for many things. The clergyman was not a resident, but a missionary who travelled much and had his finger fairly well on the religious pulse of the world. He opened his discourse thus: "My Christian friends, there is no longer any quarrel between Christian churches of different creeds. The struggle today is between Christianity and Infidelity, between Belief and Unbelief." What a glorious message, though long delayed. May we hope that these words will speed round and round the world, gathering strength as they go.

Because of divergent views heretofore among Christian denominations as to how the Sabbath should be kept, Christian influence has been only slightly felt in shaping the conduct of the masses in many places, such, for instance, as the United States. Invoking the law to enforce a moral idea has never proved successful. This is seldom done except in places where the idea has considerable support, and it seems to us that even in such places a course of education on moral lines would have better results. To try to enforce by law a strict observance of the Sabbath in communities where the religious sentiment is so weak as to command no respect is a suicidal policy.

The masses are becoming more estranged day by day from the leaders of religious thought for the simple reason that they consider those leaders are not in touch or feeling with their temporal asperations. To regain their confidence those leaders will have to show that they sympathize with the working classes and the poor, who consider themselves entitled to some enjoyments and pleasures of life as well as the rich. Here is a chance to regain lost ground. Let the leaders of religious life get together and see if they cannot formulate a plan that will be acceptable to God and yet allow such pleasures and recreations as the toiler may need to counterbalance the daily strain of labour.

TPE PACIFIC GREAT EASTERN RAILWAY.

Attacks on the government in connection with the Pacific Great Eastern railway are based upon a technicality. The question is whether the McBride government should have released, for construction purposes, certain proceeds of the company's guaranteed bonds, which lay in the bank about two years ago. The Liberals contend the money should not have been released because the contractors had not raised sufficient funds to complete the road to Prince George.

The government points to favorable results as evidence that the McBride government followed the only businesslike course that was open. At the time the question arose only 15 miles had been built. The consequences of releasing the money are that the railway is in operation for 170 miles and producing revenue and that a large part of the work to Prince George has been completed. Employment was given to 7,000 men when unemployment was at the breadline stage at the coast, the province saved over $2,000,000 it would have been called upon to pay in interest and provincial credit was preserved. The total expenditure from guaranteed bonds is $18,000,000, and Foley, Welch & Stewart have personally put $9,000,000 into the undertaking. There was everything to lose by leaving the money idle in the bank. A great deal has been gained by releasing it – Nelson News.

CANADIAN PRISONERS ARE BADLY CARED FOR

Ottawa, Aug. 22.—The following letter to the Ottawa Women's Canadian Club from an exchanged prisoner, now in Switzerland, shows how urgent it is to keep up work of relief.

"Nothing can describe the kind of food we have been getting since last January," he writes. "Instead of rice and peas, we were given musty barley and one loaf of bread for every ten men—bread which was made of potatoes, bran and birch sawdust. We also had a sort of porridge which we called reinforced con crete. It was just like eating sand. They used to give us flour made of corn and acorns, and instead of meat, cod in the last stage, herrings and a kind of blood pudding which we called 'Verdun Patty.'

"The last days I spent in prison we each had only two potatoes, often rotten, and a few carrots floating in hot water.

"Had it not been for the parcels sent us we would have been dead long ago."
