DREDGE

DISCOVERY OF SOUESITE

During the process of cleaning up on the Iowa Lillooet Dredge, a quantity of heavy sand was obtained, having a grayish color and metallic lustre.

Mr. F. Soues of Clinton, one of the oldest Gold Commissioners in the Province, who has always exerted himself in everything appertaining to the mining industry, forwarded a sample to Dr. Hoffman of the Geological Survey Department, for examination and analysis.

Dr. Hoffman has reported as follows,— The sand consists essentially of small grains of an iron-nickel alloy, some glistening scales of platinum, some grains of iridosmine, a few particles of native gold, as well as a small quantity of magnetic oxide of iron, titanite iron quartz, garnets in the following proportions:—

Iron nickel alloy	47
Platinum	43
Other minerals	10
Total	100

The iron-nickel alloy, which is of a faint yellowish-gray color, with a sub-metallic luster, is strongly magnetic; on analysis gave over 75 per cent of nickel.

There are only 2 cases known where a mineral of similar composition has been found:— (1)

PEMBERTON.

A good many land seekers are coming in, by Harrison and by Lillooet. Land cancelled and reverting to the Government can be bought, outright, at $5 per acre here. Actual construction on Owl Creek Salmon Hatchery began last week. The sawmill is on its venturesome way to Lillooet. Good grub at the contractor's boarding camp. Mr. Currie and other enterprising ranchers find ready sale for surplus produce, although most of the eatabilities come from the Royal City. Eggs are two bits.

The V. W. & Y. surveyors are slowly working our way.

Old Timer of Pemberton Portage, says a porcupine of 300 lbs weight was killed recently, 1862. It reminds me of a Chinaman who captured one, and was towing it through town, when a store keeper says, Take ten dollars for him, John? Chink was sure he had a treasure, and it took every trader in town all afternoon to refuse it. At last he returned to the first man, reluctantly willing to make $10. Mr. Ross said, I never buy porcupines when it's raining.— This was in B. C. mind you,—but I see you do not believe it.

in Awatua Bay, N. Z., where it is found associated with gold, platinum, tin, chrome-iron ore, etc.

(2) on the Elvo, in Piedmont, Italy, associated with gold, etc.

Dr. Hoffman graciously proposes that this new mineral shall be known as "Sonesite," after Mr. Sones, who drew attention to it; and he also suggests that the Dredge Co. should save their tailings, which they are doing.

Quite apart from the iron-nickel alloy, which must be valuable, seeing the constantly increasing demand for nickel,—these sands should be very valuable, platinum being worth in the neighborhood of $20 an ounce, and the demand for this metal for electrical and chemical purposes is growing all the time.

Mr. C. Phair, Lillooet, recently forwarded a larger sample to Mr. Sones, for examination and report.

If miners working on the creeks would save their sands, and forward for examination, it might lead to interesting, and possibly valuable discoveries; and the discoverer would have his name handed down to posterity along with that of F. Sones and others who have done something for the public benefit.

LADY COLEBROOKE.

Where She Got the Crest That Was "So Full of Significance."

Here's a good story told about Lady Colebrooke, that prominent Englishwoman who visited this country last winter. Lady Colebrooke is of the well known Paget family. Lord Colebrooke's ancestors are equally aristocratic, and the Colebrooke crest is a rampant lion, three doves over the head and a wolf couchant above all. It is an elaborate affair. When Lady Colebrooke was dining out with one of the opulent hostesses of Long Island she glanced casually at the dinner service, every bit of which was duly embossed with a crest. She was accustomed to heraldic china and did not at once inspect the design minutely. Later in the evening, to her great surprise, she became aware that the Colebrooke crest was upon all of her hostesses' dinner service. "Where did you get this crest?" she exclaimed impulsively. The hostess replied unconcernedly: "Isn't it a pretty one? I picked it out when we furnished this house. It was the prettiest I could find, and those dear little doves, I think, are so full of significance." Lady Colebrooke murmured sadly, "So full of significance."

Could Not Lace His Own Boots

Back was so bad with kidney disease—Cured by three boxes of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

MR. SOLOMON POIRIER, Caplin River, Bonaventure Co., Que., writes: "For two years I suffered a great deal from pains in the back and kidney disease. I tried many remedies, but with little benefit. Last fall I was so bad with backache and kidney pains that I could not lace my own boots."

MR. POIRIER. "Reading about Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, I sent for five boxes, and had only used three of these boxes when I was completely cured. My wife has also used these pills for constipation, and has found them perfectly satisfactory. I am glad of this opportunity of making known to the public the great benefit I have obtained from Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills." LYTTON NOTES

Archdeacon Small will take a well-earned vacation in the old lands across the Atlantic. Mr. Ruddock of the Grange and two sons took a little camping trip on the hillside and encountered a large panther at the usual auspicious moment, for the panther, as the gun was not handy.

Walter Baillie accompanied a couple of Spokane land seekers on a trip to Chilcotin. They went by Pavilion Mountain and Kelly Lake. They stuck pretty close to the road, and went as far as the town of Hanceville. Did not bring back any land, & lost 5 horses, one at the big slide. An American tied it to a tree on the side hill, & the horse did the rest.

Mrs. McTaggart, wife of the watchman at Cisco Tunnel, was buried at Lytton. The funeral was largely attended.

The 24th was celebrated, by a pic-nic, at Boutannie Lake, 10 miles out.

Frank Stevenson has been laid up with rheumatism.

George, the Butcher is not very well, and Mrs. Johnny Rebagliati is ill.

We have been wondering about a new $30,000 dredge to be built, papers say, near Lillooet, not far from forks of Thompson and Fraser.—Of course, it is quite plain, it means Foster's Bar.

Old Soldier Couldn't Sleep

Heart pains and headaches almost drove him wild—Cramps in stomach and limbs.

The strong point in favor of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is the fact that it makes thorough and lasting cures, and by building up the system, removing the cause of the disease.

Mr. JAMES WESLEY WEAVER, a veteran of the Fenian raid, Port Dalhousie, Ont., writes: "For years I was afflicted with nervousness and dreaded insomnia, so that I never knew for three years what a full hour's sleep was, never more than dozing for a few minutes at a time. Heart pains and headaches almost drove me wild. I had spells of weakness and cramps in stomach and limbs.

"Though I tried several doctors, it was money uselessly spent. Finally Dr. Chase's Nerve Food was brought to me and eight boxes cured me. It is simply wonderful what benefit I have obtained from this treatment." You can be certain that every dose of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is of benefit to you, forming new rich blood and new nerve force. 50 cts. a box, at all dealers, or Edmundson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

LOCAL

A real live survey party was camped at the lake, Monday and Tuesday. Not the railway locators, however. A. C. Ross, P. L. S. came up from Vancouver to survey the Lancet, Gordon, Mansfield and Mt. Pleasant mineral claims, owned by J. H. Purdy and Three Doctors, McKeown Poole and Hart; and situated on McGillivray creek close to the Brett stamp mill. Mr. Ross will return to Lillooet in about two weeks, or less.

Mr. Sharp, will be the new minister for Ashcroft and Lillooet. Mr. Laidley is busy packing up for Sidney an important mission station 15 miles from Victoria.

Sounds strange to speak of a field for missionary work so near our beautiful capital: but this is a funny B. C. Mr. Laidley will preach morning and evening next Sunday, here. The Presbyterians, Congregationalists and Methodists are working for unity and at Ashcroft the two preachers will change off, and thus secure encouraging audiences each Sunday. Mr. Sharpe will reside at Ashcroft unless we can get in and persuade him that this is a more desirable place to live.

MAGISTRATE'S COURT.

The Provincial Constable, Alex. C. Minty, charged James Brett with supplying liquor to Hunter Jack. S. Gibbs J. P. and E. S. Peters, J. P. tried the case. The first witness called was A. B. Comstock, night bartender at Eagleson's hotel,—Sold a bottle of gin to Jim, for $1.50 on the 15th between 7 and 10 p.m. He had been drinking considerable, as everybody knows. The bottle in court, which Jack threw in the lake, and the constable recovered, is the same brand. Wm. Jack, sworn; Tyee Jimmy interpreting. Repeated exactly as at inquest and added that Jack while sober stated Jim Brett got the gin for him, and Wm. Spallumcheen was present.

Wm. Spallumcheen, called.—On the evening in question, the 15th, was with Hunter Jack near the Ohina store when Jim Brett approached, and Jack went to meet him. After talking they came and sat down with William. Jim agreed to get liquor and Jack gave him 1.50. Jim says, Go and wait at the English church which they did. In 5 minutes he came and gave Jack a bottle of gin wrapped in paper.

Dan Osman, Indian living at the lake stated he saw Brett and Hunter Jack together on the 14th (which is probably a mistake.) Jack and his son slept at the house of the witness on the night of the 15th. Jack said he forgot his knapsack at a Chinaman's.

J. H. S. Rowbottom, camping at the Lake, was sworn:— Was visited by Brett, who said Hunter Jack was dead. Wanted to leave for the mountains, but not suspiciously anxious to go.

C. D. Wray, called. Was foreman on Coroner's jury and reviewed the circumstances.

The magistrates decided to impose a fine of $100 and costs or four months.

DEATH OF HUNTER JACK.

Last week, just as we were ready to print, news came of the death of Hunter Jack, and the first accounts were considerably twisted. The facts are as follows,— Constable Minty, along with 5 Indians, went to 8-mile point, on Seton Lake, to inquire into the circumstances in connection with the death of Hunter Jack, as he was commonly styled; and truly a very becoming name, as he was physically a good specimen of the race, and ranked as a first class big-game hunter. He made his living trapping and hunting in the vicinity of Bridge River. There is evidence that his death was no doubt caused by imbibing too freely. (to wit: Gin.) as Jack and his son started up the lake well supplied with Kuyper's Extra, and drank excessively until 8-mile point was reached. By this time, both were so drunk that to make a landing on shore became imperative. The father was tumbling about in the canoe, striking his head time and again on the edge, as shown by bloody marks. The son perceiving the predicament Jack was in, assisted him as well as he could to the beach, made a fire, and went for assistance. In the interval poor old Hunter Jack succumbed, and his death may no doubt be safely attributed to the terrible spree which he had.

CORONER'S INQUEST.

Tyee Jimmy drove the Jury to Seton Lake to view the body. They were as follows:—Wray (foreman) Abercrombie, Uren, McDonald, McArthur and Johnson. The doctor, constable, coroner and others went up. The evidence was taken at the Court House. Mr. Deshields was sworn as interpreter. William, the son of the dead Jack Tashpola, sworn;— He and his father left Lillooet Monday evening, stopping at Dunlop's store to buy some goods, which William packed to the lake, but Jack returned to town. This was about 8.30 p. m. He returned at 1 a. m, and they slept together at the lake. At 9 they paddled a little way to some booms near the saw mill, where Jack got a knapsack from shore, which he said contained apples and oranges. But at 4-mile point he got a bottle of gin out of it. It was full and sealed. They had a glass and both drank as often as desired until a little past Inyas' place, when Jack was sinzing and getting very drunk. They went to shore, and Jack tried to stand up and fell down a great many times in the stern of the canoe, as William held the bow. The lake was rough. After a fall Jack lay still, and the son waded out and got his father by the arm-pits, and dragged him to the beach; through the water. His shirt got bloody from his father's head. Jack revived and asked for gin; he drank the remainder, about one fifth of a bottle, and threw the bottle in the lake. Then became very cold, so the son built a fire, and went to Benjamin's place about two miles, for help. He got there at 8.30 p. Got warm for half an hour and returned alone. His father was dead. He was not breathing, so he straightened him, wrapped a blanket around him and went to Benjamin's. In the morning both came to town to tell Alexander who told Tyee Jimmy. Cross-examined;— He did not come for doctor, when Jack got sick, because drunk himself. The body was not changed in position. Before returning to town from Dunlops Jack gave his money to William all but $2 which he took to Lillooet.

Benjamin called. Corroborated William. Did not come or send help, as he had been taking medicine and was not strong. Benjamin was censured by Coroner Phair for his inaction.

Dr. Clarke;— Examined the body, found scalp wounds, not serious, no injury to the bone. During last 2 years had treated Jack for heart trouble, and some time ago Jack said he would come and get something for his heart soon. Probably the exposure, liquor and excitement proved too much for that already laboring organ.

Mr. Minty stated the body was lying in a very unsheltered place about 5 feet from the water.

The verdict of the Jury is that Jack Tashpola died from excessive drinking and exposure.

He was about 70.

His brother from 22-Mile was at the Inquest.
