THE PROSPECTOR.

BY RIC. A. FRASER.

A comparatively few years ago the States west of Rock mountains contained many abandoned mines, to which reference was then quite invariably made as unswerable proof that mining was a failure. Later, many of the abandoned properties, on the credit of rich ore which had been mined during their early history, and a belief that cheaper and deeper mining would make them pay, were reopened. Some of them have since become such remarkably successful enterprises that the reopening of an old abandoned mine of good repute as to old ore values is regarded as a safer proposition than the exploitation of a newly discovered prospect.

Much of the difficulty incident to a decision as to the advisability of reopening has been found in the imperfect records of old operations. Maps and surveys are more or less fragmentary and incomplete, and there is rarely anything of the nature of connected descriptive writing that is sufficiently inclusive to take the place of maps. Very often it will happen that there is nothing but the books of account and some boxes filled with the superintendent's letters.

In this journal recently appeared a paper illustrating practically how the letters of a mine superintendent can be dissected and rearranged to make an intelligible and satisfactory mine history. The system has been practically applied to reducing several thousand letters written through a period of thirty years' continuous operation of a large mine. Such maps as existed were unteliigible, but the history prepares from the letters made it possible to construct maps correctly, showing all the mine workings during the thirty year period. Very largely the stope blocks in the several levels were restored, so that both the character and value of the ore yield locally in the mine became known. It is suggested that the method illustrated can be profitably applied by the owners of old abandoned mines to assist in an expert examination of old records.—Mining & Scientific Press.

REPAIRING A SPECIALTY.

Read The Prospector $2 a year.

An American exchange says: When a mine has become forfeit by reason of failure to do assessment work annually, all the improvements are forfeited with it, and the mining claim being relocated the claimants have the right to the improvements. A mill would be an improvement that would become forfeit. If the mill which had been used in connection with the mine was built on a separate millsite location it would not become forfeit by failure to do assessment work on the mine, and could not be located or claimed with the mine. The mill on a millsite claim is the property of the builders till it is abandoned. The payment of taxes is evidence that it is not abandoned.

A newspaper man who cannot stand for the abuse and backcapping of the entire community, and non-support from men who do the most kicking and the least to help their town's criterion in the outside world, need not pitch his tent in the Kootenays. Abuse is but the barometer of the good a newspaper is doing. The more abuse by the disgrunted the more effective has been the work done.—Lardeau Eagle.

For the enlightenment of the miners and prospectors resident in West Lillooet, the full text of the Act amending the Mineral Act passed at the last session of the legislature is published in this issue of THE PROSPECTOR.

Ferry Charter Limits.

As some parties in Lillooet and along the Bridge river trail doubts the extracts from a letter published in THE PROSPECTOR some weeks ago relative to crossing fords within the limits of a ferry charter, the following is a copy of a letter which may throw some light on the question:

Attorney-General's Office,
Victoria, B. C., May 9th, 1901.

Mines Exploration Limited,
Hastings Street, Vancouver, B. C.

Sirs: I have the honour to acknowledge receipt of your communication of the 30th, ulto. asking whether Indians and others packing goods for hire have the right to cross the fords within the limits of a ferry charter.

Such charter does not confer any right upon the grantees to prevent persons from making use of fords on the river, or to demad tolls of those who make use of the fords instead of making use of the ferry. I have the honour to be, sir, your obedient servant,

H. A. MACLEAN,
Deputy Attorney-General.

REBATES TO PRE-EMPTORS.

During the last session of the legislature the provisions of the Land Act, dealing with rebates to pre-emptors of crown lands, were amended as follows:

"Pre-emptors of crown lands, whether in arrears in payment of installments of purchase money or not, who at the time of coming into force of this act have obtained certificate of improvement within twelve months thereafter, shall on conforming with the provisions of the Land Act, except as hereby altered, be entitled to obtain crown grants of their pre-emption claims upon completing payments of purchase money at the rate of seventy-five cents per acre, and crown grant fees, which payments may be made as follows: Twenty-five cents per acre on or before the 31st day of December, 1901; twenty-five cents per acre on or before the 30th day of June, 1902; and the remaining twenty-five cents per acre on or before the 31st day of December, 1902, and without any further payment of interest or arrears of interest."

HIGH WATER.

The few days of extremely hot weather at the beginning of the week brought the Fraser to a very high point, only 8 inches below high water mark of last year, and a foot and a half higher than that of '99. At present the river is gradually falling but three or four days warm weather will make it interesting for people living along the lower Fraser. There is yet a tremendous amount of snow on the mountains which under a repititon of last weeks' hot weather will bring the river above the '94 mark.

BEND'OR, IDA MAY AND COUNTLESS

Have Been Bonded to a New York Syndicate. Payments to be made Within Eighteen Months, First Due on the 25th of June, the Amount Being $125,000. Extensive Development Will be Started Shortly and Stamps Increased to Forty.

Mr. J. M. Mackinnon who has been in New York for some weeks returned to Vancouver Tuesday morning having completed the deal for the Bend'Or Mines.

"The pyoperties I have bonded include the Bend'Or group, the Ida May group and the Countless," said Mr. Mackinnon in answer to an enquiry by a Province representative, "all of which are controlled by the Bend'Or syndicate. The property covers 365.6 acres, the different claims being the Little Joe, Woodbine fraction, Delighted, White Crow, Mable fraction, Bend'Or fraction, Ida May, Mary fraction, Trio, Countless and Kitchener.

The properties are bonded for eighteen months for $750,000, the first payment of which, $125,000 in amount is to be made on June 25th next."

Continuing Mr. Mackinnon made a frank statement concerning the details of the transaction, and while not at liberty to give for publication at this juncture the names of the people with whom he is dealing, it may be definitely stated that they control many millions of dollars. This, by the way, is their first venture in British Columbia, and it turns out well their further investment in mining properties here is a certainty.

The deal was completed by Mr. Mackinnon with the New York people on the exhaustive report on the properties by Mr. Wm. Brewer, who accompanied Mr. Mackinnon east and personally explained all details concerning the country. The New York capitalists will send their own experts out at once, and the well known richness of the entire group is sufficient guarantee that the report will be entirely favorable.

The terms of the transaction provide for the payment of $375,000 in cash. The The first payment of $125,000 as has been stated, will be made on June 25th next, similar amounts being due on December 26th of this year and on June 25, 1902. The balance of the purchase money, $375,000, is payable either in cash on or before December 26th, 1002, or, at the option of the purchasers, in lieu of cash they may deliver 25 per cent. of the capital stock of a company which is to be formed to operate the mines.

"The people with whom I am dealing will go to work on no small scale," said Mr. Mackinnon. "They intend to sink 500 feet in three places and open up the property in a thorough manner. A forty stamp mill will be set up as soon the development justifies it and that under the circumstances stated cannot be very long."

Committed Suicide.

Bresci, the assassin of the late King Humbert, of Italy, has committed suicide at the penitentiary of Santo Stefano. Bresci recently had been suffering from extreme excitement, declared to be from extreme excitement, declared to be from remorse. Tuesday night he made a rope from his blankets and strangled himself. On the wall of Bresci's cell the word "vengeance" was scratched with his bloody thumb nail. Bresci's violence last week culminated in his attacking a jailor in consequence of which he was placed in a straight jacket. Later the prisoner feigned docility in order to secure an opportunity to commit suicide, which he accomplished by hanging himself with an improvised rope attached to the ceiling. In the earlier days of his imprisonment Bresci resented orders to keep silent and threatened to kill himself.

In British Columbia a miners' inch of water is still an indefinite quantity says the Mining & Scientific Press. It is described as the amount that will pass through an orifice ½ inch wide, 2 inches high, 2 inches thick, with 7 inches above the top of the orifice, and every additional inch shall mean as much as shall pass through the orifice extended horizontally ½ inch. It has been suggested that the definition be changed and made the same as now designated by law in several of the western States.

H. Fowler amalgamator at the Anderson Lake Mines was in town for a day this week and returned Friday morning accompanied by John Marshall and A. A. Brett.

MINERAL ACT AMENDMENT.

His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia, enacts as follows:

1. This Act may be cited ast the "Mineral Act Amendment Act, 1901."

2. Section 4 of the "Mineral Act Amendment Act, 1899," is hereby repealed, and the following substituted therefor:

"4. In case any person should allow his free miner's certificate to expire he may, at any time within six months from the date of such expiration, obtain from the proper officer upon the payment of a fee of fifteen dollars, a special free miner's certificate. Such special certificate shall have the effect or reviving the title of the person to whom it is issued to all mineral claims which such person owned at the time of the lapse of his former certificate, except such as under the provisions of the "Mineral Act" and amending Acts had become the property of some other person at or before the time of the issue of such special certificate, and shall also operate as a free miner's certificate until midnight of the thirty-first day of May next after its issue. In the case of a joint stock company, the fee for such special certificate shall be three hundred dollars.

Such certificate shall be in the following form:

"BRITISH COLUMBIA.

"SPECIAL FREE MINER'S CERTIFICATE.

"[Not transferable.]

No.

"This is to certify that , or has paid me the sum of [fifteen or three hundred as the case may be] dollars, and is entitled to all the rights and privileges of a free miner from midnight of the [here insert the date of the day immediately preceding the date of issue of certificate] day of , A.D. 19 , until midnight of the thirty-first day of May, A.D., 19 .

"This special certificate, so far only as such title depends upon such person having a free miner's certificate, shall have the effect of reviving the title of the person to whom it is issued to all mining properties which such persons owned at the time of the lapse of his former certificate, except such as have become the property of some other person.

Issued at the day of A. D. 19 .

Signature of the officer issuing same.

2. Section 141 of the Mineral Act is hereby repealed, and the following substituted therefor:

141. Affidavits and declarations required under the provisions of this Act shall be made before one of the following officials having jurisdiction in the Province of British Columbia, or the part thereof where such affidavits or declarations may be sworn or made, that is to say: Supreme or County Court Judge, Registrar of a Court of Record, Gold Commissioner, Mining Recorder, Stipendiary Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Notary Public or Commissioner for taking Affidavits."

4. This Act shall not come into force until the first day of July, A. D. 1901.

D. Johnson an Ashcroft contractor was in town this week and secured a contract from Mr. W. W. Brown on the North Fork.

Rev. J. H. Wright returned last week from a quick trip into Bridge river, Mr. Wright was much impressed with that section of the district.

The following residents of Lillooet are doing duty at the Clinton assize: Messrs. John Dunlop, P. Santini, E. S. Peters, R. J. Atkins and C. D. Wray.

A vacant house was occupied Thursday morning and the question is who owns the property. Verily, the town of Lillooet has some peculiar people.

Liquid air as an explosive has been tested. Prepared somewhat as dynamite is, by saturating an absorbent, its explosive effect is about the same as dynamite, but volatization is so rapid when exposed to the air that the use of it is not practical.

E. C. Killen of the public works department, will hereafter have the superintendence and control of all the bridge and road work in the province in his charge. This was formerly looked after by F. C. Gamble, engineer of the department, but it is thought the appointment of Mr. Killeen will result in more general satisfaction.

The method of working the frozen claims in the Yukon valley is by steam thawers. A small boiler is generally used, from which the steam is passed through rubber hose, to the ends of which pointed steel tubes about four feet in length are affixed. The latter are driven into the frozen gravel and steam is forced through them for six or eight hours. They are then withdrawn and the thawed material removed.
