VOL. 4, NO. 3 LILLOOET, B. C., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1914. $2 PER YEAR

General News of Lillooet District

About four inches of snow fell during last night.

J. M. Mackinnon, of Vancouver, was visiting at the Fountain ranche this week, looking after his interests.

C. R. Crysdale of Cheakmus, was a visitor to town during the past week.

A bunch of Cowboys passed through town this week en route for Big Bar to round up the cattle for the winter.

Larry Keary returned yesterday from his extended hunting trip; he reports a good trip, and besides some smaller game, he brought in a fine large buck.

Harry O'Donaghey was in town this week, and had another novelty for the boys; this time it was in the form of a fountain pen.

Mr. A. E. Griffin, and party arrived in town Tuesday, from Vancouver by way of Pemberton Meadows. This is the first party to come right through by auto.

Mr. and Mrs. Bushby of Vancouver, who have been spending the past few weeks here, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kriege, returned home Sunday, after having spent a delightful holiday.

J. C. Fox, mining expert of Seattle, has just returned from the Anderson lake district, where he has been looking at some mineral claims owned by J. Mellott; he has expressed satisfaction with what he saw and intends to return in the spring, to inspect more thoroughly.

A somewhat laggard and procrastinating student one Sunday evening went to his instructor for aid in one of his studies, asking him if he thought it was wrong to study on Sunday. He was somewhat surprised to receive the reply:—

"If the master was justified in pulling the ass out of the ditch on the Sabbath, was not the ass justified in trying to get himself out

Miss N. Shelp, late hospital nurse here, left Sunday morning for the eastern states by way of Ashcroft. Miss Shelp, we understand, will first go to Edmonton, then to the States for the honeymoon. Quite a number of friends assembled to wish her good luck, and attached the usual symbols to the back of the car.

The Indian Enquiry Commission; M. White, Chairman; J. McKenna, S. Carmichael, J. P. Shaw, and D. H. McDowall, accompanied by H. Graham, local Indian Agent, have been busy for the past week, listening to the natives' complaints.

"Tyee" (Chief) Jimmy, who is the local chief, said he was confident that a big change was about to be made in the affairs of the Indians.

Mother, before the Sunday school visitors.

David, what was the text this morning?

David (who was in the middle of a North Canadian yarn) looked up and replied:—

Let me see. Oh, yes, "Many are cold, but few are frozen."

War Gleanings

The Australian cruiser Sydney was not damaged in her fight with the Emden off Cocos Island. The captain of the Sydney, said he had seen only thirty survivors of the 350 men supposed to have been on board the Emden. The cruiser was a veritable shamble. Four officers and twenty-four men were made prisoners.

London—The movement of retreat of the German army in Belgium continues, according to a telegram received by the Exchange Telegraph Company from its Rotterdam correspondent. Thirty-five thousand men and 100 guns have left Thielt in the direction of Ghent, and 48 wagon loads of munitions have left Bruges for the same destination.

Petrograd—The Austrian evacuation of the positions to the southeast of Lemberg, in South Galicia and in Bukowina, is reproted in Petrograd to be continuing. There are reports that the entire Austrian line from Stry to Czenowitz is gradually being abandoned.

London—A despatch to the Central News from Antwerp says "Trainload after trainload of German artillery is leaving the Lye Valley eastward in the direction of Ghent. The German army headquarters has been transferred to Alost." The town of Alost is 15 miles west of Brussells and 40 miles east of the fighting area around Dixmude.

London---It is announced officially that Carl Lody, alias Charles Englis, who was found guilty by court-martial on Nov. 2, of espionage, has been shot as a spy. When arrested he claim to be an American, but later confessed he was a German. He had lived in New York and Omaha. Lody met his death in the Tower of London after having been found guilty on charges of having communicated secrets to the enemy. Lody's execution was the first to take place in the Tower of London since 1700.

New York.—There is no doubt in the minds of Canadians of the result of the war; but should the British Empire fall, it would not affect any of us in Canada, for in that event we should all be dead and should know nothing about it, said Mr. A. L. Sifton, Prime Minister of Alberta, who was the guest of honor at a dinner of the Canadian Club here last night.

There is no sentiment of doubt that we must give every possible aid to carry it to a successful conclusion, he continued. It may be a matter of months, it may be a matter of years, but when the war is over Canada will be the gainer.

New York---A British fleet of many ships is searching the southern part of the North Atlantic Ocean and the Carribbean Sea, according to officials of the United Fruit steamer Tivives, which reported yetserday from the West Indies. In the Carribean and most of the way up from Kingston, I heard British warships talking by wireless, Captain McKay of the Tivives said, I judge that there was a large number of them and undoubtedly they are after the Karlsruhe.

Canoe Creek Association

On Monday November 9th the Annual meeting of the Canoe Creek Stockmen's Association was held at Canoe Creek. Some twenty members of the Association were present, Mr. L. C. Hannon taking the chair im the absence of Mr. Wynn-Johnson, Alkali Lake.

After the business of the Association was finished, the meeting was addressed by Assistant Forester R. E. Benedict of Victoria, who is making a thorough investigation of the grazing problem, in the interests of the British Columbia Government.

Mr. Benedict was accompanied by District Forester LeMare, and was invited by the Ranchers to spend some time among them, so as to give them an opportunity of shewing to him their grievances at first hand.

He left with Mr. Coster to look over the Big Bar and Crows Bar range, then crossing the river at Watson Bar, will proceed north over the French Bar, and Empire Valley ranges to the Gang Ranch, crossing the Fraser at Churn Creek, he will then inspect the Alkali Lake, Dog Creek, and Canoe Creek country.

Made In Germany

Adolph Gumpel writes to the New York Times: I have waited in vain till now for a real German to speak to the world. There have been a great number of missives from so-called representatives of my people who have been befogging the issue with all kinds of bigoted rot. The time has come for the truth to out—and out it will. I am a German by birth, have lived many years in the Fatherland, and know the spirit of the German people. The great majority of them are peace loving, They despise militarism and imperialism. The war party does not represent them. It represents, only a large number of fat politicians and military supply contractors. The present war was "made in Germany" by the Kaiser, aided by the war party. We Germans who have thought deeply about the European holocaust know and feel that we are in the wrong. We shudder at the crimes committed in the name of the German people by the war clique. We shudder to think of the odium our people must live down—of the explanations they will have to give shamefacedly to posterity. Why don't German-Americans admit they are wrong in the war? They know it, America knows it, Germany knows it, the World knows it. As yet no German has had the courage to rise up and tell the world the truth.—Western Call.

A detailed official account of the operations before Tsingtau has been made public. It is couched in modest terms but it shows that the storming of the German stronghold was characterized by the same recklessness and disregard of life that the Japanese soldiers evinced in the war with Russia.

We have been advised that the supply of Xmas Cards is running short—if you desire any order at once.

Annual Report of Lillooet Mining Division

(Report of Minister of Mines)

South Fork of Bridge River

For more than twenty years, placer-mining, both by sluicing and hydraulicking, has been carried on intermittently with varying results. An old Indian named "Hunter Jack" years ago took out quite considerable gold, and since then D. C. Hamilton has been working placer-ground by sluicing, with such success as must be deemed satisfactory to himself at least, because he works energetically every year and "pays his way" with gold-dust, much of which is in heavy particles and small nuggets.

Golden Dream Mining Company, has acquired twelve bench leases and two creek leases near the mouth of the river. The past summer this company has been doing preliminary work in an attempt to expose bed-rock. Two holes were sunk to bed-rock, which was exposed at a depth of 16 feet, but the non-arrival of a pump and gasoline engine retarded the work, and the operators, being driven out by water, left this part of the property to work on their Cadwallader creek holdings. This machinery was expected to arrive soon after my visit and Mr. Dam, the manager told me he had arranged to resume work as soon as possible.

Brown Hydraulic Mine,—This property, located at the Horse Shoe bend on the main Bridge river just below the junction with the North fork, I found was idle, and, I presume, abandoned by the Brown Company, because there were new stakes dated August, 1913, and some of the ditch and pipe were in ruins.

From this point I travelled the same trail as Mr. Robertson had in 1910, and found that his suggestion relative to changing the route to the head of Holbrook gulch srom the present one used via Rochelle creek to one via Big creek had not been followed neither had any work, apparently, been done on the old trail, which follows up Rochelle creek, a tributary of the North fork, to the summit, 7,000 feet elevation, between it and Porcupine creek: crosses this summit at about the same elevation; then drops down to Porcupine creek, and climbs again to the summit between it and Lewis creek, crossing that summit at about the same elevation as the first summit; then dropping down to the creek, crosses it and climbs again to about the same altitude, and after descending to Holbrook gulch climbs again to 7,000 feet.

If the Big creek route was adopted, all these summits would be avoided, because Holbrook gulch is a branch of Big creek, which empties into the North fork about ten miles above its mouth.

Take notice that Charles Menier of Meadow Lake, occupation rancher, intends to apply for permission to lease the following described land.

Commencing at a post planted about 20 chains north of the S.E. corner of Lot 2572, thence north 20 chains, thence east 20 chains more or less, thence north 20 chains, thence east 4 chains, thence south 4 chains, thence west 60 chains to point of commencement

Care Required in Storing Potatoes

Potatoes should be thoroughly dry and should be stored in a cool, well-ventilated cellar or storeroom which is perfectly dark. Do not pile the potatoes in heaps on the floor; slats should be nailed about one inch apart and four inches from the wall; a temporary floor should be laid about four inches above the permanent floor, with openings between the boards. This will allow the air to circulate through the pile. Large piles should have ventilators running them. These should be made of wood with slats on two sides for openings.

The temperature of the cellar or storehouse should be kept as nearly a possible at from 33 to 35 degrees. The cooler potatoes are kept without freezing, the better. If too warm, their value for seed is lessened, as they sprout too early.

Timber Sale X 280

Sealed Tenders will be received by the Minister of Lands not later than noon on the 17th day of November, 1914 for the purchase of Licence X 280, to cut 550 cords of cord wood, situateed on an area in, the vicinity of Lot 587, Cariboo District.
