BRIEF NEWS OF THE POLITICAL CAMPAIGN

Messrs. H. C. Brewster and M. A. Macdonald have reached Vancouver on their return from a tour of the upper country. The Vancouver campaign will be opened in earnest by both parties tonight. The Liberals will have a meeting, with Sir Charles H. Tupper as the main attraction, while Premier Bowser will deliver an address at the Empress theatre. He is said to be preparing an extended discussion of provincial affairs.

Conservatives of Victoria packed the old Victoria theatre to its fullest capacity Monday night and tendered to Premier Bowser and the four Victoria city candidates a rousing reception. The premier's speech was delivered with old-time fighting spirit and he held the large audience for nearly two hours. The four candidates, Hon. Alex. Stewart, Alderman Dilworth and Messrs. Tait and Haywood spoke briefly.

The final meeting of the Brewster-Macdonald tour was held at Vernon on Monday night. There was a large audience, but the hecklers were busy and the evening lacked nothing in entertainment for the listeners. Mr. Robt. Cassidy, an independent candidate in Vancouver, and Major the Rev. J. S. Henderson engaged in a short debate on prohibition.

Mr. A. McDonald, ex-M.P.P., the Conservative candidate in the Lillooet constituency, will be in Lillooet in the next few days. He has been visiting the upper part of the riding and has been well received by the electors.

H. C. Brewster, Liberal leader, addressed 500 people in Revelstoke on Aug. 26th. This was 70th meeting held by Mr. Brewster since leaving the coast a few weeks ago.

Mr. J. B. Bryson, the Liberal candidate in Lillooet riding, is on a campaign tour through the Bridge River district this week. He is accompanied by Mr. Dan Hurley.

Premier Bowser leaves Vancouver tomorrow on a short tour which will take in Lillooet, Kamloops, Chilliwack and New Westminster.

Ralph Smith, Liberal candidate in Vancouver, and Mr. Walters, candidate in Yale, addressed a large meeting in Lytton on Friday night last.

RED CROSS FUND

It is regretted that through an oversight two contributors to the Red Cross Fund on Aug. 4th last were not mentioned in last week's list. They are as follows: Paul Santini, for hire of hall for dance, etc., $5.00; Miss Ruddock, $3.00.

Zurich, Aug. 30.—There is consternation in Sofia, capital of Bulgaria, over the approach of Russian troops through the Dubrudja. Rumanian aeroplanes are reported to be directing the fire of artillery in the fighting between the Rumanians and the Austrians which is going on in all the mountain passes.

LOCAL ITEMS OF INTEREST

Mr. H. Thornber, of Victoria, is registered at the Excelsior hotel.

Premier Bowser and party will arrive in town from Lytton tomorrow evening about 6 o'clock.

For Exchange — Good saddle horse for yearling heifer. Apply at this office.

Mrs. A. W. A. Phair and children, who have been spending the summer months in Vancouver, returned to town on Friday evening last.

The open season for male deer, sheep and goat commenced this morning and lasts until Dec. 15. Grouse can be shot from Sept. 15 till Nov. 30.

Mrs. Susan Madison, mother of Mrs. Geo. R. Tinker, died on Saturday last and the funeral was held on Sunday afternoon. Deceased was 65 years of age.

The two-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Wing died on Wednesday and was buried the same day. Whooping cough was the cause of death.

Mr. J. F. Murray, of Vancouver, inspector of post offices, was in town this week on his annual visit. He reported everything in good order at the local office.

The very warm weather of the past week has been a great benefit to the bean crops in this district and the growers are now assured of a bountiful harvest.

Dr. Maker left on Wednesday evening on a professional trip to the Cariboo district. He was accompanied by Dr. H. O. Boynton, and will be away for about four weeks.

Mr. J. Dunlop, provincial assessor and collector for the Lillooet district, left this week on his annual assessment tour. He will be absent from town for about ten days.

Miss Marjorie Whitworth, of Vancouver, arrived at the Half-Way House on Sunday evening by auto from Lytton, and opened Foster's Bar school on Monday morning.

The body of Loo Tung, who died on the train while on his way to a Vancouver hospital, arrived in Lillooet on Friday evening and the funeral took place on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. H. R. Wade, of Los Angeles, wants to get a couple of bear cubs, and in a letter to The Prospector he says he will pay $15 each for them. Here is a chance for some of our hunters to make a little easy money.

Mr. J. M. Williams, manager of the McGillivray mountain copper mine, was in town on Saturday last and reports that a lot of development work is being done in that district. A new copper vein has been discovered that is from eight to forty feet in width and is said to be very rich.

Mr. C. E. Gooding, of Ashcroft, district superintendent of government telegraph and telephone lines, is registered at the Victoria hotel. He is on an inspection trip of the system in this district. Mr. Gooding is accompanied by his two daughters, who will spend a short time at Craig Lodge.

Mr. Frank Brewer, owner of the Ida May gold mine and some adjoining claims in the Bridge River district, was a visitor in Lillooet this week. Mr. Brewer, who was accompanied by Messrs. J. D. Parkin and W. F. Bickel, of Seattle, just returned from an inspection to his properties.

C. L. Marchant, who was drum major with the First Canadian Pioneers, was in Lillooet this week. Mr. Marchant has recently returned from the front, where he was wounded. He is now employed by the P.G.E. Railway Company and has charge of the pumping stations between Squamish and Clinton. He was formerly a member of Dan Godfrey's famous band.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Mackinnon and children, of Vancouver, accompanied by Mrs. B. L. Johnson and son, spent Wednesday night in Lillooet and left the next morning on a short visit to Mr. Mackinnon's ranch at the Fountain. Mrs. Johnson is the wife of Commander Johnson, who recently distinguished himself in the big naval engagement in the North Sea.

Lillooet citizens were treated to a wonderful display last Saturday night, when the Aurora Borealis, commonly known as the "Northern Lights," was distinctly visible. The sight was one which will long be remembered. Telegraph wires in Vancouver were tied up by the phenomenon for about twenty minutes during the time the lights were most brilliant.

Dr. Christie and Messrs. W. Adams and P. B. Lewis attended a farewell smoker at Clinton on Tuesday night in honour of the members of the overseas battalions who are leaving in a short time from that district for the front. Several patriotic speeches were made and an enjoyable time was spent. The concert on Monday evening was also very successful. Capt. J. T. Robinson and party from Kamloops attended and added very materially to an interesting programme of speeches and music.

DR. CHRISTIE ENLISTS

Dr. H. A. Christie, a well known and highly respected resident of Lillooet, has been appointed to the Army Medical Corps, with the rank of lieutenant, and leaves for the training depot at Vernon on Sunday next. The doctor expects to spend a short time there before being transferred to an army hospital near the firing line. Lieut. Christie has the best wishes of his many friends in Lillooet, and is assured of a hearty welcome on his return.

P. G. E. FRUIT RATES

The following rates on fruit are now in force between Lillooet and Vancouver:

Express.—11-2 cents per lb., with a minimum of 35 cents.

Freight.—Car load lots, 34 cents per 100 lbs. Less than car load lots, 40 cents per 100 lbs., with a minimum of 70 cents.

Less than car load lots carried on ordinary trains and arrive in Vancouver on date of shipment.

There is also reduced rate on vegetables.

KING CONSTANTINE FLEES COUNTRY

London, Aug. 31.—The British press representative at Saloniki sends a report which is current there that King Constantine of Greece has fled to Larissa, in Thessally, to take refuge, with a guard of three hundred Uhlans.

Bucharest, Aug. 29.—Rumanian troops have made progress in their crossing of the Austro-Hungarian frontier and have reached a village east of Kronstadt. More than 750 prisoners already have been taken.

PRESENTED WITH CHEQUE

On Saturday evening last Messrs. Wm. Adams and J. Dunlop, on behalf of a number of friends, presented Mr. Percy LeMare, secretary-treasuer of the war fund, with an honorarium in the shape of a handsome cheque for his services in carrying out the duties of his honorary position. Mr. LeMare has worked hard and earnestly as secretary-treasurer of the various funds and his many friends thought it only right that he should be rewarded in some way for his services. The duties of his office as district forester take up most of his time, but he is always ready and willing to work early and late in the cause nearest to his heart.

Mr. LeMare wishes to thank all those kind friends for this mark of esteem and appreciation of his share of a work which he had always considered to be his bounden duty.

SIR CHARLES HIBBERT TUPPER.

Either Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper has deteriorated as a speaker since he delivered his famous speeches on the mal-administration of the Yukon in 1899 or his mind is befogged and obsessed with his personal dislike of Sir Richard McBride and P m-ier Bowser.

In 1899 Sir Charles was definite, clear, trenchant and forceful. In 1916 he is turgid and verbose, and sometimes, almost pointless.

In 1899 he revealed with startling emphasis the inner-most details of the grafting operations of the Wade-Walsh-Fawcett gang of free-booters in the Yukon. In 1916 he confines himself to generalities which do not glitter, which by having been repeated too often without corroboration have lost their point and even the flavor of the Tupper style of oratory.

He makes sweeping charges against the Bowser and Mc-Bride governments, but he does not bring to the proof a single jot of evidence. He accuses them of varied and manifold crimes, but he does not refer to a single case in point. As a lawyer of eminence Sir Charles should try to make his charges more convincing by giving particulars. In a law suit he could be commanded by the court to give particulars, failing which his action would be dismissed. Now, why shouldn't Sir Charles produce the particulars in his charges against the government just as he produced them with such damning wealth of detail, the particulars in his charges against F. C. Wade in 1899.

Surely the country and the great party to which he claims to owe allegiance have a right to expect something better from a Tupper than the disgruntled wailings of a man who has quarrelled on personal grounds with his party leaders in this province. Sir Charles has not enhanced his reputation by his attitude to his leaders in British Columbia. On the contrary he has laid himself open to the charge, which many Conservatives believe, that he wanted to be the whole thing in the party himself and because the leaders did not kow-tow to him, he broke with them. This is the net result to Sir Charles himself, of his course. —J.P.'s Weekly.

Mr. Joseph Martin, who is back in Vancouver from London, says he will run as a Liberal candidate in Cariboo for the Dominion House in the next election, and that is one of the reasons why he has come over. Just whether he will continue his representation in the British parliament he has not yet decided, but he has made up his mind for the Dominion, he declared.

Speaking about the taking of the votes of soldiers in England, Mr. Martin has this to say of Sir Richard McBride: "Sir Richard, and let me say that I want to give him credit, has put the whole thing in the hands of some of the most responsible solicitors in England, and there will be no monkeying with the ballots as far as he is concerned."

Rev. Mr. Dawson, of the Anglican Church, who claims that he was once a Conservative, was chairman at the Liberal meeting at Lytton last Friday night, and advised the audience to oppose the Conservative candidate because of the unsatisfactory result of an interview with the Government over the irrigation system and a few other trivial matters. If the reverend gentleman has any surplus energy going to waste he might use some of it in an endeavour to build up the Church in this district instead of meddling in politics.

"That the press of Vancouver was as well qualified to be called a prostitute as any of the fallen women who live their lives in dens of vice and sell their virtue for a price," was the assertion made in very emphatic terms by Rev. Ernest Thomas, pastor of Wesley church last Sunday night. It is now up to the Vancouver police to get busy and run the nasty newspaper men out of town. We are going to miss the latest war news when the big dailies go out of business, but no doubt Mr. Macfarlane, the local telegraph man, will oblige us with a bulletin once in a while, at least until such time as The Prospector is able to make arrangements to get the news by leased wire direct from the front.

LILLOOET, - BRITISH COLUMBIA

B. C. PROHIBITION ACT STEADILY LOSING GROUND

Some of the Reasons Why the Act is Not Meeting With Public Favor.

Wherever the B.C. Prohibition Act has been discussed or studied, the measure has steadily lost in favor since the latter part of May, when it was formally passed by the Legislature without one word from any member of the House in favor of the general principle or the details of the Act.

The reason for this condition of affairs is that the Act is, on its face, of such a counterfeit nature, and its terms so absolutely contradictory to the general meaning of the word "Prohibition", that the public has come to see that the Act will not accomplish the ends sought for by the real Prohibitionists, and that, on the other hand, the passage of the measure would really be detrimental to the best interests of the province from any standpoint.

The parties who are promoting the fight against the passage of the Act are following out a line of campaign which is unique on this continent. Anti-Prohibition campaigns are generally waged on the broad question of the advantage or the disadvantage of Prohibition. In British Columbia the Anti-Prohibition organization throws entirely to one side all the facts and figures usually used in Prohibition campaigns, and simply asks the electors of the province to "Read the Act".

Let the reader glance over a few of the principles enunciated in the Prohibition Act and see why the passage of the measure would not be for the advantage of the province.

1. THE ACT DOES NOT PROHIBIT, although it is called a Prohibition Act, it provides for the expenditure of just as much money for liquor by the citizens of British Columbia as is now the case, and also permits this liquor to be consumed within the province. Clause 57 is a "Wide open" section, as it permits any citizen to import liquor from any point outside the province, the orders being placed for any amount and as frequently as the person may desire, all this being done without any control by the authorities. Under this clause a man may place a standing order for a flask of whisky per day, or a barrel of beer per week, and have delivery of such shipments made regularly to him, just as long as he pays the bills.

2. THE ACT WILL SEND ENORMOUS AMOUNTS OF MONEY OUT OF THE PROVINCE. Clause 57 provides, as noted above, for "wide open" importation of liquor. The Prohibition legislation of Washington and Oregon provides for the importation of limited amounts of liquor, only one such permit for each month to be granted to any one individual. Even with this limited importation enormous amounts of money are now being daily sent for liquor from these states to California. If this is the case where limited importation only is allowed, what would be the case in British Columbia, where the right to import is absolutely unlimited, unrestricted and uncontrolled?

3. THE ACT IS CLASS LEGISLATION. The importation clause makes it easy for the man with money to get liquor, and the Act means absolutely nothing to him. The workingman or man of moderate means, accustomed to buy his beer by the glass, is the man who has not the means to import liquor in quantity, and the Act would indirectly deprive him of something he desires to enjoy. The Act is class legislation also, in that it provides that a man who is a boarder or a lodger cannot have liquor in his possession, and, further, that liquor may not be kept in a house where there are boarders, where more than three lodgers are kept, or where the rooms occupied are in the same building as a store or business premises. Provisions such as the above strike at the workman or the man of moderate means and are class legislation, pure and simple.

4. THE ACT IS UN-BRITISH. It provides that a constable may, at any hour of the day or night, forcibly enter the private home of any citizen on the mere suspicion that he has liquor in his possession. Having entered, the constable may break into any room of the house, pry open any chest, etc., in his search for liquor. Another clause of the Act permits "sneak" informers to state to a constable their suspicion that a man has liquor in his possession. The constable lays an information in his own name, and the name of the informer will never be disclosed. Again, should liquor be found in a man's possession, he is deemed guilty of violating the Act until he has proved that he came into possession of the liquor legally. All these phases of the Act are distinctly opposed to British traditions and customs.

5. THE PASSAGE OF THE ACT WILL CAUSE GREAT UNEMPLOYMENT. The licensed liquor industry in British Columbia directly employs nearly four thousand men, upon whom there are depending for support over six thousand persons. All these will be thrown out of work should the Act pass. The Act also indirectly means a decrease of business in very many allied trades, which now derive a part of their prosperity because of the business coming from licensed premises.

6. THE ACT INCREASES TAXATION. At present every city, municipality and, in the un-organized districts, provincial authorities, derive a revenue for the licensing of the liquor trade. If the Prohibition Act passes, this source of revenue will be entirely eliminated, and the decrease must be made up by general taxes, which means an increase in the tax rate.

The above brief outline, covering a few clauses of the Act, should cause every reader to read this Act thoroughly before Sept. 14th, in order that he may understand the real provisions which it contains.

This referendum question is not one which should be voted upon because the mere say-so of this, that, or the other person, no matter who they be, or what their position. Let the elector "READ THE ACT" and "VOTE NO". —Advt.

PROVINCIAL AND GENERAL NEWS

Prosecuting Attorney Alfred H. Lundin has prosecuted in 199 liquor cases in Seattle since Jan. 1.

J. D. Kearns, a prominent Vancouver Catholic, has been appointed to take the soldiers' vote in that city.

Ben Dick, a night-watchman, was killed on the C.N.R. track near Boston Bar last week. He was hit by a train.

The members of Christ church, Vancouver, are making vigorous efforts to retain the services of their pastor, Major the Rev. C.C. Owen, who is at the battle front.

Fourteen soldiers arrived in Vancouver from the front this week, either wounded or rendered unfit for further service by illness. All of them appeared to be in good form, notwithstanding their wounds.

Senator F. T. Frost died suddenly at his home in Smith's Falls on Aug. 25th, aged 73 years. He was head of the firm of Frost & Wood, manufacturers of agricultural implements, and was a Liberal in politics.

Patrick Calhoun, grandson of the famous statesman, and prominently identified with the San Francisco street car system a few years ago, testified in a receivership proceeding that five dollars was the only tangible asset remaining of a fortune of $14,000,000 possessed by him five years ago. He blames the San Francisco earthquake for his losses.

Thos. William O'Brien, a noted Klondike pioneer, is dead. He once owned claim number 1 on Eldorado, out of which he took $250,000. He built the Klondike Mines railway, Klondike ferries and trails and was the owner for years of breweries, steamboat lines and large utilities.

Captain Adolphus Peele, who has lived in New Westminster since 1870, and at one time owned a drug store there, died on Saturday afternoon last. He crossed the Isthmus of Panama in 1862. He always acted as returning officer at election, and went over to Vancouver to conduct the first election there. He was a great rifle shot.

Having been in custody for five weeks and with no release in sight, the jurors who are hearing the case against the ex-ministers in Winnipeg, wrote to the presiding judge expressing their anxiety and their desire that he would take such steps as were in his power "to bring the case to a conclusion." The jurymen said the length of the trial was causing much anxiety, and added that many of them were suffering serious financial loss.

EVERY FARM SHOULD HAVE

A house which is adequate to the needs of the family.

A barn that looks good to the neighbours who pass by and feels pretty good to the stock that pass into it.

A few shade trees that hide some of the hot sun and hard winds, but none of the beauty of the place.

A cow that is worth her weight in butter and is not for sale.

A bunch of hens which do a lot of cackling and laying and the rest of the time are scratching for themselves and their owner.

A well that never runs dry and a family horse that never runs shy.

A garden which has something growing in it besides weeds.
