WERE WE SIDETRACKED?

OH, WE GUESS NOT!

A delegation appointed by the citizens of Lillooet went over the new route proposed by the P. and G. E., in company with Chief Engineer Callaghan and were unanimous in their approval of the station site and route as laid out by the engineers. From the plans as shown to the delegation, the depot will be located less than one mile from the center of town on Cayoosh Creek.

This is an ideal location for the depot and yards and more suitable than the former one chosen near the suspension bridge and is nearly three-quarters of a mile nearer the heart of the town.

The railway, instead of side tracking Lillooet, are putting their line in a much more advantageous position than was at first supposed.

In an interview Mr. Callaghan said: "It is not the intention of the road to sidetrack your town or to make it a flag station, but their intention is to put in a station that will be a credit to any town on the line. On the new site they have much more room for warehouses and yards, besides giving the road a much better grade than could be obtained by going along the north bank of the Fraser."

Following is the opinions of several of Lillooet's representative business men:

Samuel Gibbs—"Although the people of Lillooet were quite justified in raising a strong protest against the high handed proceedings of the railroad company in breaking their pledges given as to the location of a station site, at or near the town. I, for my own part, am delighted that the station will be nearly a mile from the town. A station at or near town might have some advantages, but I think they are more than counterbalanced by the disadvantages. The noise and dirt would be unbearable. The future of our town is assured anyhow, and as a beautiful residential and business site it is unequalled in the Province. The ample water we possess for all the purposes of electricity, power and irrigation purposes will, when brought into use, convert our town and the suburban flats adjacent into a vertible garden of Eden.

Mark Eagleson—The station site chosen by the company suits me. From the reports given out by the Vancouver World was under the impression that the road would not come within fifteen miles of the town, but was greatly enlightened when I talked to the chief engineer. It seems that the Vancouver World could do better if they would vertheir the news appearing in their columns, instead of taking snap judgement, as in this case. In my opinion the new site beats the old one and instead of being side tracked we are right in the lime "light."

N. Dupres—In my opinion the station site could not be better. The present location is much better than the former one, The railroad people are showing a very decided inclination to make Lillooet a thriving little city, instead of putting it on the

TO FORT GEORGE IN TWO YEARS

Important announcements regarding the Pacific Great Eastern Railway have been made within the past few days. Premier McBride stated last Thursday that he had been assured by Mr. Stewart that the line would be completed to Fort George in two years. It has also been announced that the railway company have been given legislative authority to slightly vary its route from Newport The surveys of the company's engineers have proved that some variations are necessary for the purpose of carrying the construction work to completion with greatest speed and economy.

Between four and five thousand men will be employed between here and Newport. The completion of the 450 miles of road will be a highly creditable railroad feat.

WARNING

After the first of May it will be necessary to obtain a permit to burn slashings and clearings. The forest act also requires that all slashings endangering property must be burned before the closed season, May the first.

DIED

Last Saturday, Charles Edward, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Retasket.

Road Superintendent Jas. Bell left for Bridge River Tuesday to inspect the work on the South Fork bridge.

LOCAL NOTES

District Forester W. Haylmore returned Wednesday from an inspection trip of the P. G. E. right of way.

Considerable ice is reported at the far end of Anderson Lake. This is a decided exception to the general rule.

D. A. Manson is busily engaged clearing his preemption.

Walt Sebring is down from his ranch on Bridge River.

J. Baird and Mose Crittenden are down from the North Fork.

Resident Engineer W. J. Kearns resigned his position with the P. G. E., and will leave shortly for the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Boile and Mr. and Mrs. Gasper and family, of Empire Valley, now located on Hat Creek, are in town to attend the Masquerade Ball.

Thos. Newell, of Lytton, was in town Tuesday.

AMONG THE RAILROADERS

Assistant Engineer Simpson, who has been working with his party on the Long Portage, arrived in Lillooet last Saturday, The boys were naturally glad to get back to town, and after a brief stay, during which they all seemed to be having a good time among their many friends, Mr. Simpson has located his new camp about a mile and a half below town, at the foot of the Big Bluffs. They will be working in this locality for some time.

Chief Engineer Callaghan, of the P. G. E. Ry., accompanied by Messrs. Martin Welch and Pete Salvas, arrived in town from Lytton Monday. Mr. Kellahan was on an inspection trip.

Jas. Capp who has a contract on Anderson Lake, passed through town Tuesday on his way to the coast.

Angus Stewart, who is superintending the building of wharves and warehouses for P. Welch and Co., was in town Sunday.

Jack Tyler, engineer on J. A. Welch's launch Hester, paid a flying visit to town Wednesday.

Engineer Graham came down from the Short Portage Tuesday.

"Miss" By Heck Eklund, J. A. Welch's official milk maid has resigned her position.

For prompt and efficient freight service see Charles McCaffery, Lillooet, B. C.

THE NEWSPAPER GUY

I find a man pushing his way through the lines
Of the cops where the work of the fire fiend shines,
"The chief" I enquired—bnt a fireman replies,
"I guess not that's one of those newspaper guys."
I see a man walk through the doors of a show
Where great throngs are blocked by the sign "S. R. O,"
Is this man the star that no ticket he buys?
"Star nothing, he's one of those newspaper guys."
I see a man start on the trail of a crook
And he scorns the police, but he brings him to book.
"Sherlock Holmes," I enquire someone scornfully cries;
"Sherlock h—l!" he's one of those newspaper guys."
And some day I'll pass by the great gates of gold
And a man will pass through unquestioned and bold.
"A saint?" I'll ask, and Old Peter'll reply:
"No, he carries a pass, he's a newspaper guy."

ACHIEVEMENTS

Its fun to fight when you know you are right and your heart is in it too,
Though the fray be long and the foe be strong and the comrades you have be few,
Though the battle he t but brings defeat and weariness makes you reel,
There's joy in life that can know such strife and the glory and thrill you feel!
When the wise ones pant that you simply can't, it's fun for a fighting man
To laugh and try with a daring eye, and prove to the world he can.
And if you stick till your heart is sick and lose when the game is done,
It's fun to know that the weary foe paid dearly for what they won.
It's fuu to dare in the heart of despair, when the last lone chance seems gone,
And to see hope rise in the angry skies like a promise of early dawn;
For victory's sweet when it crown's defeat, and you learn this much is true;
It's fun to fight when you know you're right rnd your heart is in it too.

F. E. Jensen arrived from Anderson Lake Thursday night.

Engineer J. D. Downton returned Wednesday from the coast.

Mark Eagleson has returned from Vancouver and reports a very pleasant trip.

Jack Calhane, of Lytton, is a business visitor in town.

Bert G tt is in town from his ranch on the upper Fraser.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

"Say, did you see that chromo in the blue dress?" asked the man standing next to him at the dance

"Yes," replied the one addressed with interest.

"Let me give you a tip. She's a lemon. She walked all over my feet. Don't try to dance with her."

"I'm not likely to. You see she's my wife.

A little chap was offered a chance to spend a week in the country, but refused. Coaxing, pleading and telling of untold wonders, alike brought from him nothing but the ultimatum "No country for me." "But why not?" someone asked finally.

"Because," he responded, "down there they have threshing machines and its bad enough here where its done by hand."

The Author—You can't appreciate my work. You never wrote a book yourself.

The Critic—No, and I never laid an egg, but I'm a better judge of an omelet than any hen in the country. —London Opinion.

Teacher—Bobby, give me an example of the word "damper."

Bobby, after a moment's thought—Paw says maw is too damper ticular about his feet being wiped.
