Dear Mr Soldie! —

Yrs letter of Nov. 6th was received ~~yrs~~ enclosing the Calculated output for the seasons crop and yrs estimate of what we would receive also expenditure. I have delayed replying as from yrs letter I judged yr would be away for at least a month.

Thanks very much for the two boxes of Delicious which D.B. Dick notified me were here and I presume yr arranged to send forward. I took no chances but went down to the car myself and got them and in addition to the pleasure they have members have special advantages instead of the reverse. This is human nature and you cannot change it.

I'm sure you have enjoyed your trip and hope to hear how you got along and found things on your return.

Best wishes for a merry Christmas and Happy New Year to you all.

Yours faithfully
J. W. Allister

given us at home I have made as good use of them as I could in the way of propaganda.

I saw Mr Hembling at the Associated exhibit at the Winter Fair and had quite an extensive talk with him on the matter of marketing. He seems to have considerable sound sense but has no practical solution to offer.

As long as the supporters of the associated are going to be worse off and receive less than outsiders I dont see how the associated can be made to go.

One cannot perpetually induce the members to hold the umbrella for the outsider and if the Associated is to live it must be a desirable institution to get into and it's
