

to think I slept through them all going out — It was all I could do to resist jumping off at Beaumont for I didn't feel till then that I was really on my way home — I told you of the threatened ~~farewell~~ farewell at Vancouver. — Well they all came to the station but I was saved the "Parted on the shore" — That would have been too much — Pat is working about thirty miles east of here so will be in again for Sunday so I will likely leave for St. Paul Monday night — I'm sure there are any letters — 2005 Marshall Ave. St. Paul will find me after visiting in Spring 1911

Dear Jim — You see when I am at last — just got in about an hour ago — Pat and Victor were at the station to meet me and I was glad to see them for I expected no one The trip was great and I never thought of being ill whether it was the pleasant company or fresh air so both I can't say — Isn't the mountains perfect? And
