My dear Jim:

I have your letter of the 26th with the petition enclosed to run a road through Bellevue. You say you have already told Russell what you think about it -- What do you think? Personally, I can see that the value of the property will be greatly depreciated by being split up, unless it is ultimately sub-divided. If those who benefit by the road are willing to pay for this, it might be considered, but you might let me know what you said to Russell.

I am leaving to-night for St.Catharines for a few days.

Faithfully yours,
