SPECIAL AGENT
119 BOARD OF TRADE BUILDING

C/W.

Montreal, Que. May 8th. 1909.

James Goldie, Esq.,

Penticton, B. C.

Dear Jim:

I was very much pleased indeed to receive your letter dated the 18th, ult. with photo, No doubt the picture is a good one of you, but so small that it is almost impossible to recognize your features. The bungalow is a little d[illegible] and the only suggestion that I could make is to see a l[illegible]ttle Mrs. "Jim" on the verandah to complete the picture.

Regarding your insurance policy I am glad you have written me, because certainly you are not now a commercial traveler and your policy will have to be amended to read correctly and for this purpose, I am sending you a new application form, which I would thank you to fill out and return to me, being particular to answer questions G. & H. explicitly, as the rates, as you know, for accident and sickness insurance, are based on a man's occupation. You have omitted to tell me in your letter what sort of work you are now doing, and it is therefore impossible for me to advise you in the matter. Although a change of occupation would not void the policy it is better to have a clear understanding, and your policy properly worded. If you engage in an occupation of a more hazardous nature than that of a commercial traveler and meet with an accident, your claim would necessarily have to be pro rated.

Now about the Cambridge Society, I have not as yet had an opportunity of learning anything about this investment but will make a few quiet enquiries and write you in due course. Your friend Mr. Manley has been sick, and recuperated at some health resort in the States, but I understand he has returned to town and I will therefore endeavour to learn something from that source.

I am sorry you did not see my brother the Doctor when in Vancouver, but should you find yourself anywhere near there this summer be sure and look him up, because my father, mother and sister Amelia are spending the summer with him and who I am sure will be delighted to see you. When in Vancouver, ring up the Doctor's home and ask for the old gentleman. He will be tickled to pieces.

With very kindest regards, and hoping to hear from you soon regarding your present occupation, I remain

Sincerely yours,

Anson S. Campbell
