

60 WALL STREET,
NEW YORK.

September 25, 1913.

James Goldie, Esq.,

Okanagan Centre, British Columbia, Canada.

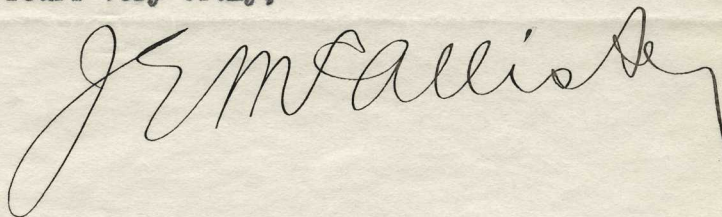

Dear Mr. Goldie:

I return you herewith the reports regarding prices and marketing of western fruit. It would appear that McIntosh Reds bring better prices than Jonothans.

I have a letter from Dorner stating that he expects to sail sometime between the 27th of this month or the first of October. I will not be able to tell until he gets here whether it will be possible for me to go west now. I could have done so all of this month but things have accumulated now so that at this time it <sup>may be</sup> ~~is~~ impossible to get the three weeks to make this trip. I will, however, let you know.

With best wishes.

Yours very truly,

Enclosures.