

expecting you to turn up on the boat last night. Kendall has left me. I told him I did not care how soon he cleared out & he went I really could not stand him any longer. There will be his room ready for you whenever you feel disposed to run

Penticton
Sunday.

My dear Goldie
What the
demon has happened to you, I wrote you fully early last week & would you & so far have not had a line from
you. I was quite down. Bennett is anxious to know soon one way or the other as he has other investments in view.

Beautiful weather here
& the trees coming on fast the apricots at Munroon's are a sight
hope they wont get cut.
I am going you a ride

This afternoon the pony is feeling very fit just now & goes like blazes
he certainly looks well never saw him better.
Quite a little still doing in Real Estate, wonder when construction will begin.
If I dont have an answer to this will think you have left the country.
Yours etc. A. E. K.
