Dear Jim:

I suppose you will have thought that I have forgotten all about you and your request for information about the Cambridge Society. I made very careful enquiries, and as your brother George had written me to forward him the information, I wrote him at length, a letter, which I presume is hardly necessary for me to duplicate, now. Young Christmas tells me that things are moving along nicely with this Society and that you will either get a dividend in a very short time, or he will be able to dispose of your stock at a premium, should you wish to sell, and promised to send George a statement of the Company's affairs after the annual meeting, which was to take place this month. In a nutshell, this is the sum and substance of letter which I wrote George.

Now about insurance, I think you might write George and ask him to return me your Policy so that we can have it corrected, in order that you will be fully covered. If we can describe you as as Orchard Proprietor, supervising duties only, it will just cost $1.00 per thousand extra a year, and I recommend your paying the slight difference in premium, as it will be in your own interests should you have a claim. I might add that we have at present insured with our
