Dear Mr. Hewer

Now that Gerald has been with you for a couple of months you will perhaps have had time to size him up & see what sort of stuff he is made of - I hope the boy is doing his duty properly & is giving you satisfaction in every respect. I feel quite sure he will want to do his very level best. He writes happily & appears to have settled down all right, he mentions the pleasure it gives him to have the privilege of a talk with you now & again & I hope you find he talks an intelligent interest in all he is brought into contact with; a very
