James Goldie, Esq.,

Vernon, 19 October 1912.

Okanagan Centre.

Dear Goldie,

I shall be leaving on my holidays in a couple of weeks. Could you give me any idea of what the Company will do regarding their business? Of course, my being away will make no difference but I would like to have the matter in shape before I leave if possible. From what advices I have received I should judge Mr. McAllister saw our Head Office immediately after receipt of your letter, but you will have heard from him by this time.

Yours truly,

A. J. Corbett
