Dear Sir:-I am writing the Washington people in regard to the order of trees, furnished you by the Coldstream, people. I myself know nothing about the matter, further than that the Coldstream Estate Co. bought some trees of the Washington Nursery Co. Now where this stock went the books of the Washington Nursery Co will not show as we only knew the Coldstream Estate Co. in the deal. As I told you before I spoke to Mr. Binns the book keeper at the Coldstream, and he said that the Newtons came from Tim Kelly of Waputka Washington. If it can be shown to the Washington people that the stock of Newtons came from them, I am sure that they will do what is right in the matter. Wishing you success with this years planting I am,

Yours truly,

W. T. Jones
