Mr Royal Fiske

Dear Sir

Our

advices from Bray Bro. on the matter of your acceptance are so singular we write direct to you in reply. The circumstances of the paying part due is our misfortune, until presented & properly appreciating the cause of delay until then we certainly fail to discern why we should wait longer for assisting as surety and then advancing our money free of charge in paying for Goods had in which we had no interest whatever. But for your acceptance it could not occupy the present position which unpaid it is at our cost. Please regard

The Matter as it really is without any agency of ours & without Profit Part or prospection of plan Bray Bro. in funds at not Calls Then the 18th Inst at which time We have used in the prospectus based on their report when it first went down that You would be back on or about the 5th Inst.
— We simply regret it was not then at Maturity, but not being it certainly did not accrue for non payment after.
I leave Cash at Bray Bro. for Day of Payment & Cheque & much oblige us. — We are so pressed Consequent on the Times We ask it Strictly reply We are Dear Sir
