Princeton, center for coal, ore, and placer mining.

SIMILKAMEEN STAR

Poor, honest laborers are God's nobility—Laborare est orare.

Lying between Princeton and Steamboat is large tract of virgin mineral ground—easy access, fish, fowl, vegetables; food for man or horse.

We hear the tread of pioneers,
Of cities yet to be;
The first low wash of waves where soon
Shall roll the human sea.

FIRE'S DEADLY WORK

Princeton Hotel Burned, Causing One Death and Heavy Loss.

Fire Brigade Makes Good; Waterworks' First Trial Answers Every Demand.

Not since March 1st, 1904, when the first Tulameen hotel and the A. E Howse Co's store were burned to the ground has there been so large a fire as occurred Sunday morning, when the Princeton hotel, owned by Jas. Wallace, was destroyed The fire had gained considerable headway when the alarm was rung on the bell, a big black volume of smoke rolling up, indicating that it was well beyond the incipient stage. Its earlier discovery and probable quenching may be accounted for by the fact that it started in the quietest hour of the twenty-four, between three and four in the morning.

One Life Lost.

It was with difficulty that guests of the house were aroused, some escaping with only a suit of clothes, and one unfortunate man lost his life. At the inquest held on the remains he was identified as Yoza Djekovic of Grasic, Horvatsko, Austria, familiarly known as 'Joe, the Austrian.' It was in evidence that he had been assisted to his room about midnight and a verdict returned in accordance with the facts, exonerating all from blame. The inquest was conducted by Dr. McCaffery, the jurors being Kirkpatrick, Murdoch, McDougall, Summers, Semerad, Wilson.

Put Up Splendid Fight.

Although the fire brigade and citizen helpers fought the flames inch by inch with inadequate apparatus it was soon evident that the fire was beyond control in the doomed hotel and all effort was bent toward saving the adjoining Great Northern hotel and the Thomas block. Blankets were hung along the exposed walls while two streams of water from hose without nozzles played on the walls aflame. The heat was terrific and the salvage of the Great Northern seemed hopeless for a time, although the firemen and the waterworks answered every call made upon them. An attempt to blow up a small log building next the Great Northern proved abortive, but the tide of fortune had already turned and the firemen operating from the roof of the hotel were victorious in their combat with the hungering flames.

Loss is Heavy.

The burning of the Princeton hotel removes one of the oldest landmarks, it being the first hotel in town. It cost in the early days, when labor and material were high priced, about $10,000 and was insured for $4,500. Much of the stock and furnishings were saved. It is understood the hotel will be rebuilt as soon as adjustment of insurance loss is made.

Considerable damage was done to the Great Northern, which is covered by insurance. The intervening street put the Thomas block on the confines of the danger zone, and as there was no wind it was comparatively safe.

No one knows the immediate origin of the fire but all indications favor the theory that it was accidental and started in a cupboard where candles were kept for the convenience of guests. When first discovered the fire had enveloped the main stairway causing persons to seek other means of exit by sliding down verandah posts, jumping or taking the backstairs

Procrastination is Thief.

This fire is another warning for citizens to be prepared with hose, nozzles and other apparatus for efficient fire fighting. Fire Chief Campbell has repeatedly warned citizens of the necessity for a properly organized and equipped fire brigade. He has given unsparingly of his mature experience as a fireman and his services were always valuable in leading and directing attacks upon the fiery element during the years past. It was and is his aim to have the fire brigade uptodate in every respect. Now that the town has a waterworks system which has so recently given proof of its capacity to meet all demands it would be folly to further pursue a policy of neglect or indifference.

Notes.

The charred remains of the Princeton hotel will soon give place to a new structure.

Some of the vanguard of firefighters suffered severe burns, cuts and bruises, and all are recovering nicely.

Geo. Freeman injured his foot severely jumping from a window and Mike Gaynor had his face badly burned saving their lives.

The ladies were there in force and by their presence inciteed the laddies to feats of agility.

'Is there a man among you to help up here?' shouted the chief in megaphonic tones from the top of a building to a bunch below—they all responded some.

Too bad the nozzles did not arrive as ordered, with the hose.

Some pretty work done and close calls for the firefighters—all honor to those who know their duty and do it.

'I could have saved that building if the nozzles had been here.'—Chief Campbell.

'On with the dance'—St. Patrick's Day.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

Steamboat Trail Open in About Month—Farewell to Old Winter.

Citizens Astir Over Question of Improved Fire Apparatus and Elect Officers.

Geo. Allison and Tim Griffin start in a day or so for Steamboat with a toboggan and snowshoes.

St. Patrick's Day in the morning—green carnations at Carle's.

Dick Fitzgerald is down from the higher altitudes and reports the snow going rapidly. At Deerlicks the trail is in danger of being washed out and at Powdercamp the snow is gone.

L. W. Shatford, M.P.P., is expected at Penticton Friday and is coming west.

J. R. Campbell leaves for the coast and Ft. George on Monday where he has established a branch drug store. As a progressive merchant and citizen he will be missed, most of his time being devoted to the northern business. Star joins with many others in wishing him prosperity.

Rev. A. E. Bruce will conduct service morning and evening next Sunday.

The party who swiped the axe at the hall door of the Big Store is known and will kindly return it.

Many friends here will be pleased to know that Mr. and Mrs. Marlow are being quite comfortably settled in a new residence which the Bank of Commerce is building for them, also a new bank edifice for the manager at Salmonarm.

The latest in clocks at Joudry's; runs 400 days without winding; see them.

Ride a bike? Oh yes, fascinating pleasure and healthy. Call at White's.

Victor Voigt and Geo. Aldous have sold two claims at Steamboat on a bond proposition receiving $3000 cash.

Two weeks from next Sunday A. McIvor, Presbyterian student, is expected to take up the work so well begun by Mr. Mills, who is leaving to resume study at Westminster college. Services as usual next Sunday by Mr. Mills.

J. F. Coats, engineer for the Princeton Collieries Co., arrived from Spokane today.

A successful 'sociai tea' and sale of Easter gifts took place at Mrs. Holden's yesterday.

Constable Ewart, on behalf of the government, gave the burned man, Djekovic, decent burial, Rev. A. E. Bruce, officiating. Funeral from French's undertaking department.

'We, the undersigned, beg to offer our hearty thanks to the fire brigade and all citizens who worked so faithfully to save our property during the recent fire: J. Wallace, P. Swanson. C. V. Semerad, A. L. White, Wm. Thomas.'—Com.

Three patients in the hospital and will all come through.

USEFUL MAP OF DISTRICT.

C. M. Snowden has drawn a large map of the district from information which he has gained in his exploratory travels and from notes made on the spot. He probably knows the upper Similkameen better than most prospectors and hunters, his duties as game warden taking him to remote parts of the district, and as guide to parties he has become familiar with all the trails, camping grounds, crossings and passes. The information imparted by the map will be of interest to all who intend going to Steamboat or to any of the outlying mining camps.

IMPORTANT PUBLIC MEETING.

A public meeting will be held on Wednesday evening, March 22nd, at 8 o'clock in the court house to hear the report of the board of trustees of the Princeton general hospital, to elect trustees for the coming year, and to deal with any other business in connection with the affairs of the hospital which may be presented. A large attendance is requested. J. D. Andras, Hon. Sec.

BETTER FIRE PROTECTION.

There was a good turnout of citizens last night to discuss the best means of fire protection and to elect a new fire chief, vice J. R. Campbell, resigned. E. Waterman presided and J. D. Andras was secretary. J. Gellatly was elected chief for a year and W. A. Davis subchief, they to select the members of the fire brigade. The chairman stated that the agent of the hose manufacturers had made useful suggestions regarding fire protection resulting in the purchase by the A. E. Howse Co. of 500 feet of best quality hose costing $650. A subscription list had been passed around but as yet no money had been paid in. The necessaries of the brigade were discussed, the Chief being requested to furnish a list of them at next meeting. Vote of thanks was tendered the A. E. Howse Co. for their public spirited action in securing the hose for the town and a committee was appointed to make suitable recognition of Mr. Campbell's meritorious services. The meeting delegated full control of the fire bell to chief Gellatly. Superintendent Hall stated that a supply of water sufficient to maintain two streams in full play for 5 hours could always be depended upon. The meeting adjourned to Thursday at same time and place.
