MINING MEN ON MOVE TOWARD CAMPS IN LIMELIGHT

MINES AND MINING

Col. Robert Stevenson left last Monday in answer to an urgent telegram to meet prominent mining men at Vancouver now making a trip through the province. He will try to induce them to come to Princeton, if possible, for the purpose of showing them some of the abundant reources of the Similkameen.

Ralph S. G. Stokes, representing the Canadian Mining and Exploration Company, limited, of 43 Exchange Place, New York, arrived in Princeton last Saturday. He came to meet the geologists and Mr. Camsell and visit with them tht various camps and prospects. His disappointment was great when he learned that the trip of the geologists had been cancelled. After consulting years of the Star's files he decided that the country was well worth investigating without the geologists and in company with E. F. Voigt visited Voigt Camp and Copper Mountain. From here he goes to Alaska to report on certain properties there before hard winter weather sets in. He will reserve time tc pay a second visit here as soon as possible. The Canadian Mining and Exploration Company is one of the strongest financial and investing companies in America, among its directors being such men as Sir Edmund Walke , P. A. Rockefeller, Sir William MacKenzic, Sir E. B. Osler, J. R. DeLamar, etc.

S. C. McLean, of the geological department, Ottawa, is establishing triangulation points in Princeton district, for the purpose of making a detailed mineral map of the country later on. Mr. Camsell is expected here in a week or two to proceed with his regular geological work.

J. Knudson and H. B. Mausette have returned from their Iceland spar deposit at Ashnola and brought some samples. Besides the splendid qualities of this spar for the manufacture of cement it is used for glazing highgrades of earthenware and porcelain. Iceland spar in a pure state is worth $6 per pound.

P. W. Gregory, P. L. S., is making a large map of Copper Mountain, Voigt Camp and Kennedy Mountain.

J. L. Retallack. mining investor, visited Voigt Camp, Copper Mountain, Whipsaw camp and Leadville. His time was very limited as he had an engagement in Vancouver. He is collecting a lot of mining data, maps and general iuformation to be used as the basis of investment.

Among the changes reported in the reorganization of the Columbia Coal & Coke Co., Coalmont, are the retirement of Director W. L. Parish and Manager G. L. Fraser. It is said that work will be carried on toward making the mine an errly producer of coal and coke.

RAILWAY POINTS.

President J. J. Warren and Chief Engineer McCullough of the Kettle Valley were on last Monday's train going to Coalmont.

The Burns and Stevens survey parties are still locating line between Asper Grove and Fivemile creek.

The railway commission has ordered V. V. & E. officials to push the work of construction with more energy. More men are being put on the job.

One hundred men are now employed as carpenters and bridge framers in the Kettle Valley yards at Carmi.

The steel gang on the Kettle Valley line have now reached a point fifteen miles beyond Carmi.

It is estimated that $500,000 will be disbursed in wages at Hope in connection with the construction of the railway in Coquihalla pass.

A stone no bigger than a man's head rolled off the embankment onto the V. V. & E. track just as the daily train was passing on Saturday a mile below Princeton and caused a smashup that will cost the railway about $200. Brakeman Silvernail was severely bruised and shaken up but is recovering nicely at his home Oroville. Two flat cars and the cowcatcher were damaged. The wreckage delayed the train some twelve hours and some of the mail matter was hung up until Monday forenoon.

J. H. Kennedy, chief of construction on the V. V. & E., was in town Wednesday accompanied by L. M. Hale and Supt. McDougall.

OBITUARY.

The passing away of Mrs. J. Gersing yesterday afternoon removes one whom to know was a pleasure. Always kindly and cheerful, though suffering from a snpposedly incurable complaint, she made many friends. She was a native of Stockholm, Sweeden, and had a sister, Mrs. Anderson, here. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. J. A Gillam and was largely attended. Star voices very general sympathy for the bereaved husband and sister.

Born—On Friday 22nd inst., the wife of R. H. Carmichael, Keremeos, of a daughter.

TOWN AND DISTRICT

The Princess moving picture show has been running under difficulties, the engine acting in a manner that would provoke profanity in a saint. It will run lovely on trial in the day but when required to do its nocturnal stunt it gets nasty and bucks occasionally. It is not unlikely that the trouble has now been overcome and this popular amusement again drawing full houses.

From a source which can be relied upon and authoritative a great danger to young boys exists in the gathering of empty bottles. Temptation to steal them is always present when the bottles are found on back premises, stair landings, etc., and the drink habit may be easily formed in young boys from sippings in bottles. In th ir eagerness to obtain bottles boys have been observed loitering in the company of drinkers in secluded places ready to snatch the empties, Our informant points out these real dangers for the boys' sakes, leaving the matter entirely with the parents to remedy.

Work on the Hope-Princeton section of the transprovincial road has been ordered to stop tomorrow, Aug. 30, on the Hope end at Silver creek. Five miles have been graded out of 34 to build from Hope. Of the 34 to build from Princeton about 15 miles have been graded and cleared. It is not known when work will stop at the Princeton end. Money is tight.

Next Monday, Sept. 1, is Labor Day and a lawful holiday. The celebration in Hedley is sure to be well patronized.

J. A. Freeman has proven the adaptability of the soil and climate at his suburban home to grow very fine vegetables and small fruits in abundance. Cur umbers, marrow, citrons, French beans, sugar beet, sunberry, broad beans, celery all grow to perfection. Flowers flourish in beautiful profusion and a certain wealth of color, among them being asters, English lavender, mignonette, phlox Drummondii, sweet sultan and sweet peas. Mr. and Mrs. Freeman are enthusiastic gardeners and their experimentations will be of general interest and value.

THE WIDE WORLD.

The British Parliament was prorogued on the 15th, and will not reconvene until February next unless something extraordinary happens.

Turkey now defies the big powers and will keep her claws tightly around Adrianople.

The horrors of war were appaling in the Balkans, where orgies, massacres and rapine characterized the Bulgarian soldiery.

An important change in the U. S. parcel post service went into effect August 15th, increasing the weight of packages that may be sent short distances, and decreasing the rates on packages delivered within a few miles of the post office where they are mailed. Previously the weight limit has been eleven pounds, but hereafter the post office department will carry packages that weigh as high as twenty pounds for delivery in the second zone.

Mr. Lloyd George, during a speech on the finance bill in the House of Commons, gave grave warning to Europe in the course of a passionate attack upon the development of armaments. The nations, he declared, were scaring one another to death, and in no country was there a party which dared face the unpopularity of making a change or accepting the responsibility of undertaking a reduction.

The result of the census made in Italy in 1911 has just been published by the government. It shows a total population of 34,681,387 and illiterates constitute 38 per cent of it. The region that gives the smallest per centage of illiterates is Piedmont, with 11 per cent., while the maximum is reached by Calabria, with 70 per cent.

Italy will take part in the Panama-Pacific exposition and has appropriated two million lire for the purpose. Great Britain thus far has declined to take part.

It is estimated that fifty thousand persons are out of employment in Berlin, Germany.

During the fiscal year 1912-13 Vancouver received 71,062 boxes of butter from Auckland, New Zealand.

By making the circuit of the world in 35 days 21 hours and 35 minutes, J. H. Mears, representing the New York Evening Sun, has reduced the record by nearly four days below that made by A. Jaeger-Schmit in 1911. This meritorious achievement was greatly assisted by the hearty co-operation of the various transportation companies, who by means of special trains endeavored to reduce delays due to unavoidable accidents

R. H. Carmichael, manager of the Bank of Commerce, Keremeos, was in town Saturday and reports progress in the oldest settlement in the valley. Fruit and farm products are a fair crop this year. His little daughter sent a sample of two dozen peaches to one of the Star staff, which for beauty and flavor cannot be beaten. Several of this bunch of beauties weighed one pound and others turned the scales at eight, nine and ten ounces. Lucious, delicious, Keremeos peaches.

ASSISTANCE WELL PLACED

The province of Alberta is taking liberal measures to provide the highest type of agriculturist for tilling its rich, broad acres. Intensified farming is necessary to preserve the productive qualities of the soil, for if only wheat and other grains are grown the soil will soon deteriorate. Mixed farming is the system which replenishes the soil and provides those necessary articles of food such as beef, pork, mutton, poultry, butter and eggs. Not only does mixed or intensified farming replenish the soil but it must fill the purse with money which now goes to other countries for food supplies. It is to stay this outflow of money and impoverishment of the soil that the neighbor province of Alberta is about to provide free teaching in the art of mixed farming.

British Columbia might well profit from the example set by Alberta. No other province consumes foreign and outside food products to the extent per capita that B. C. does. Whatever steps may be taken to stop the drain will be well repaid in increased wealth and thrift. In this connection the thought is presented that a portable college or school giving practical demonstrations of the adaptability of wet and dry, cool and hot, lowland and highland districts, would answer all purposes. The college being portable a new district could be selected each growing season, thus covering the varying climates and soil peculiarities of the productive portions of the province.

What is thus skeletonized with reference to agriculture may with equal merit be applied to mining. Owing to the physical structure of this province mining will constitute its backbone, be the main resource upon which other and allied industries will depend. Only the fringe of mining has been touched so far. Enough is known, however, to warrant the expenditure of public money in further encouragement of private enterprise and the establishment of a mining school for the education of men and women in those technical branches requisite for discovery and extraction of minerals. In some countries the government provides free assays for prospectors and tuition in mining at and even below cost. In Australia portable assay kits are given in charge of competent assayers who travel about the country affording valuable information to anyone having likely samples. In the Similkameen there are thousands of promising samples found in near and remote corners which should be tested but owing to the expense of time and money are thrown aside. Prospectors in the hills, not those of the armchair variety, are deserving of every reasonable assistance and encouragement and it is doubtful if a more practical way could be devised than in the manner described. Our governments bonus, subsidize, protect and grant special privileges to big railway and mining corporations and professional bodies: why not bonus and legislate a little for the honest farmer and the poor prospector?

Conditions for a mining school at Princeton cannot be excelled. Here are coal, ore and placers, and a field of varied mineral resources which we venture to say cannot be duplicated in extent or variety in any one part of the world. Some recognition of this fact should be taken by the federal and provincial ministers of mines. The idea is progressive, in practice increased revenues and growing population.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The rumor originating from interested and opposing outside districts that the transprovincial road would not be completed via Princeton and Hope mountains is one without a shred of foundation. A direct route to the coast and one which will give access to a rich mineral, timber and grazing section is under construction now and cannot be changed. It is the route sanctioned by the government and emphatically endorsed by the Minister of public works. Change that route to please Vernon, Kamloops and Merritt! Ridiculous! Look at a map and see the zigzag route that would be necessary to touch these places and cross the province. The present route is good enough for the Similkameen; if it is changed one hairbreadth out of its natural and proper course there will be one of the biggest, highest kicks ever recorded on the pages of profane history. Now!

The armament craze is still as 'insensate' as ever. How long will the nation impoverish its people in huge military preparations, ready to spring at its neighbor as a wild animal leaps at its prey? The navy building folly of two big nations should cease before the treasuries are empty.

It is time the Mexican civil war was regulated by game laws.

DRILLING CONTEST

EDITOR STAR—Sir: Considerable indignation has been caused on Copper mountain by the rules governing the rock drilling contest at Hedley Labor Day celebration. By these rules they exclude the Copper mountain team from that contest and the general opinion here is that that was the object. The team here have been practising with a set of steel used by a Hedley team at the Princeton first of July celebration, on the good faith that they were eligible in any contest. They cannot now get another set of steel in time so have been obliged to drop out of the contest.

Not being an expert on such matters I cannot vouch for it, but am of the opinion that as a general rule in rock drilling contests a set of steel is bona fide, provided the finishing drill is ⅞ inch on the bit. Hedley has lost nothing through previous contests with Copper mountain and could well afford to let them enter for this one.

Some amusement was caused here by the article which appeared in the Hedley Gazette on the challenge contest of July 12th. We were not aware that hammer concussion and water soakage had the effect on the rock which the author of that article so learnedly explained. Hedley won that contest through sheer bull luck as any one who has seen the two teams in action knows. Trusting you will find room in your valued paper for this, I am,

Sincerely yours
D. CLARK

AN UNTRUTHFUL EDITORIAL

Star has been requested to give the following publication so that the public may be corrected of any false impressions made by the article quoted. A newspaper ought to be very guarded in its comments regarding financial conditions during these times of stringency:

'Moose Jaw, Sask., July 29.— The City Council has passed a resolution unanimously condemning a local paper, The Evening Times, for its front page editorial on the financial conditions of the city

In part, the resolution reads as follows: "That this Council desires to place on record its strong disapproval on the article published recently, owing to its gross misstatements of local conditions, wherein the credit of the city and its business men is impugned, and that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Board of Trade with the request that support be given this motion with a view to restoring confidence in the city which has been seriously impaired by the publication aforesaid."

'Moose Jaw Sask., July 29.—Mayor Pascoe emphatically denies the report published in a local paper announcing that the city's bankers have refused to accept cheques drawn by the city. "Any inconvenience that has been experienced in connection with the city'y financial arrangements has been caused by our inability to dispose of the city's debentures," said the Mayor.'

Robins—Jogue found a surprise awaiting him when he got home last night.
Dyer—What was it?
Robins—His wife was asleep—Judge.

'I consider it very remarkable, madame, that your husband lived as long as he did.' 'Yes, sir; but you see, we lived away out there in the wilderness, where we couldn't get a doctor.'

'So you claim that you were not exceeding the speed limits as the officer alleges?' said the judge looking at the chauffeur severely.

'On my honor, sir, I was not,' answered the prisoner. 'I wasn't going as fast as a Democratic tariff bill in the Senate.—Buffalo Express.

There was a man
Of history sad
Whose every plan
Went to the bad.
He did not drink,
He did not swear
Nor slyly wink
At sirens fair.
Ideals high
He would reveal,
He could not lie,
He could not steal.
His worth, you'd vow
Was something strong
And yet, somehow,
His luck went wrong.
The hoped-for bliss
He'd never clutch.
His fault was this;
He talked too much.

'Is the man your sister is goin' to marry rich?'
'Naw; every time the marriage is mentioned pa says. 'Poor man!'
