H. R. TAYLOR TO REPRESENT BOARD IN CONFERENCE ON REVISION OF PLANS

To consult with the provincial department of works architect, and Hon. W. A. McKenzie, member for the Similkameen on the matter of proposed alterations of the plans for the new Princeton hospital, H. R. Taylor was selected as representative of the local hospital board, and will visit the capital as soon as a meeting can be arranged.

The board hopes to be able to call for tenders in the very near future, and it is expected that work on Princeton's new hospital will be commenced about August 1. The board met in the court house Tuesday.

Obituary

MRS. FRANCES MATHESON

Princeton was shocked to awaken Tuesday morning to news of the death of Mrs. Frances Matheson Burr, for some months telephone agent here, and one of the best known of Princeton's younger residents.

After serious complications had set in Sunday the end was only a matter of time, but Princeton could not bring upon itself to accept this. However, the inevitable came to pass shortly after midnight.

The death of Mrs Matheson is something of a local tragedy, and it is generally accepted that it is a consequence of the Hotel Princeton fire, May 6.

Working under strained circumstances and unhealthy conditions, Mrs. Matheson took cold, coupled with throat infection. She returned to work but was not well and was soon confined to bed again. Pneumonia set in, and a blood clot on the brain gave her no chance.

Strong, healthy, of sunny disposition, and in the prime of life, Mrs. Matheson, by reason of her position, was known to almost everyone acquainted with Princeton, and was a favorite of all.

Born in Rossland July 4, 1900, she moved with her parents, Frank S. and Annie Burr, to Camborn, B.C., a few months later. The family came to Princeton in 1913 where he father followed his employment of blacksmith.

Several years ago shee took employment as telephone operator, and at the death of Mrs. Dewhurst, who, also, strange to say, was claimed by pneumonia, she was appointed agent.

Both parents are dead. Two brothers, Clifford, with the Consolidated at Trail, and Irvin George, at Pocatullo, near American Falls, Idaho, and one sister, Naomi (Mrs. G. A. Campbell) Seattle, survive, besides a nine-year-old son, George, better known as Sunny.

The funeral will be held Friday.

HEDLEY PIONEER DIED FRIDAY

Hedley and the Similkameen was robbed of another stalwart pioneer in the death at Hedley of Mr. James Neil, who was well known in the Kootenay and Boundary camps as well as locally. Death occurred Friday in Hedley General Hospital.

The late Mr. Neil was born in Rustico, near Charottetown, Prince Edward Island, in 1878. He came to Rossland in '97 and since that time he had worked in most of the mining camps in British Columbia. He was latterly employed at the Nickel Plate mine.

The deceased is survived by two brothers, Jack in Montana, and Herb of Copper Mountain, and four sisters, two of whom reside in Boston, Mass., two in Charlottetown.

The funeral, which was held Saturday, drew a large number of mourners to pay their last respects. Pallbearers, all intimate friends of the deceased, were Messrs. D. Thomas, P. Murray, P. Wright, G. Pettigrew, J. Hansen and G. Riddel.

Ambulance Field Day Is July 19

July 19 is the date set for the second annual field day of Princeton District Ambulance and Mine Safety Association, which will again be held at Pirnceton.

This date was set and preliminary arrangements made when representatives of the four amalgamated centers met at a session of the central board of the Princeton district association Sunday.

A whole day will be devoted to the exhibit this year. Last year the event was held in conjunction with the Dominion Day celebration, but the ambulance men feel that the atmosphere of a celebration is not congenial, and that the best interests will be served by making a separate event out of the demonstration.

Profiting by last year's experience, with the advantage of a year's organization, the sponsors are anticipating a big improvement in the day's program, and no detail will be overlooked.

Four centers are expected to compete, with possibly one or two outside entries. Junior events will again be prominent.

Questions will be set from Victoria, and is possible neutral doctors will handle the contest. Full details will be announced later.

LOCAL CENTER PLANS LAWN PARTY

"Happy Days Are Here Again" reports a contributor. Under the worthy auspices of Princeton Center St. John Ambulance Association a grand lawn basket social will be held on the spacious grounds of the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Huey in the latter part of June.

A strong committee has been appointed and arrangements are already well under way. They feel that their chief duty is to inspire in the general public a realization of the pleasure that await them in this unique event. The chief aim is to perform a service by giving the public an evening's wholesome entertainment which will be an unusual treat.

Of secondary importance, but equally worthy, the sponsors aim to interest the public in their work and, coincidently, to realize funds for the necessary operating expenses.

The program is well planned and vocal and instrumental numbers by talent which has not appeared before a Prince on audience for years; short addresses by the president and chairman of the oragnization, auction of baskets, community singing, and last but not least, dancing.

The voters' list in Princeton polling division has been compiled and is posted in the post office. Application for franchise in case of omission may be made to R. Pyper, Princeton East; T. J. Guinan, Princeton South; or A. C. MacKenzie, Princeton North. Opportunity will also be given at the court of appeal later.

Clerical preparations for the taking of the ballot July 28 are already proceeding. H. V. Craig of Kelowna has been appointed returning officer, and the district has been divided into 88 polling subdivisions.

For the purpose of compiling the lits of voters a system radically different from that employed in teh provincial elections will be carried out. Registrars appointed for each division will be responsible for compiling a list of voters, this to be made up from a tour of the district or from

GROTE STIRLING AND W. G. WILKINS WILL CONTEST SEAT IN FEDERAL ELECTION

True to tradition, there will be a federal contest in Yale. Grote Stirling, sitting member, and Conservative standard bearer, will be opposed by W. G. Wilkins of Penticton, in whom the Liberals are pinning their hopes where they have labored without success for many years.

Though no intimation has been made as to the zero hour for the local attack, the stage is all set for battle, and behind the lines the rival armies are mustering forces for the conflict.

LIBERALS HAVE SURPRISE

The element of surprise figured in the selection of Yale Liberals. It had been generally conceded that F. B. Cossitt, Vernon, defeated candidate in the last federal elections would be given first choice when he decided to enter the ring once more.

Several names, however, were forthcoming, these including Reeve G. A. B. Macdonald of Penticton; W. C. Kelly, prominent Summerland barrister; Dr. K. C. McDonald, Vernon former provincial secretary; Dr. G. L. Campbell, Kelowna, one of the most prominent of Okanagan Liberals. A prominent fruit grower was also urged to let his name stand.

In spite of the interest taken, there was no difference of opinion, and the matter did not come to a vote. One by one the other nominees withdrew, and on motion of Mr. Cossitt Mr. Wilkins' nomination was made unanimous.

TORIES IN CLOVER

Having only to paddle with the stream the Conservative nominating convention was a mere formality. Mr. Stirling's nomination was the only one before the convention. It was moved by J. M. Robinson, veteran campaigner of Naramata seconded by ex-reeve J. Kirkpatrick of Penticton, and enthusiastically carried.

A HOT BED

In the days of yore, when politics were politics, Penticton might have been a real hot bed Thursday night, for the rival partisans were going about their nominating duties simultaneously. As a matter of fact, however, proceedings were so orderly and ordinary that the opposing factions might have been meeting miles apart.

LIBERAL OFFICERS

Mr. Wilkins' campaign committee will include Dr. Campbell, W. C. Kelly and A. F. Cummings, the latter poll clerk in the last provincial election.

Officers of the Yale Liberal Association include Dr. K. C. Campbell, Kelowna, president; Kenneth McLaren, secretary, succeeding D. C. Tuck of Vernon, resigned.

Conservatives also had a vacancy to fill, W. F. Kennedy, former president, having resigned in view of his recent provincial appointment. Dr. R. B. White of Penticton was named president and Thomas Andrews secretary.

H. R. PLOMMER LEAVES GRANBY FOR COAL COMPANY

H. R. Plommer, well known official of the Granby Consolidated Mining, Smelting and Power Co., and treasurer at the head office in Vancouver, has resigned to become general manager of the Wellington Comox Agency Ltd., Vancouver sales organization for the Canadian Collieries Ltd., and Western Fuel Corporation, prominent Vancouver Island coal company.

Mr. Plommer has been connected with the coal industry, both in operating and merchandising, for many years. He was associated with the Nicola Valley Coal and Coke Co. at the Middlesboro colliery in 1906, and prior to that was with the Royal Bank.

In 1925 he succeeded Mr. Valentine Quinn as treasurer for the Granby Co., and during the last five years he has devoted considerable time to that company's colliery operation at Cassidy, V.I.

ADDRESSES SCHOOL ON GOOD CITIZENSHIP FRIDAY

D. B. Brankin, superintendent of the Boys' Industrial School at New Westminster spoke to pupils at Princeton, Allenby and Copper Mt. schools Friday on citizenship. The work of his institution was to reclaim boys, and to build character. Boys were not really bad, except in few cases, but generally followed some impulse, and some circumstance played its part.

KLA-HOW-YA!

of the Similkameen will foregather at Princeton July first for a monster celebration in keeping with the tradition of the good old days.

Princeton is on her mettle for this celebration, for July 1 is "her day". She acts her best and shows her best for her valley friends, and visitors. Princeton hospitality has a wide reputation.

THIS YEAR

It is hoped to make the event bigger and better than ever. It can be done by wholehearted and united effort by the citizens of Princeton. A committee can only do so much but if the day is to be a real success, Princeton must become "celebration minded."

The goodwill of the surrounding towns is the most valuable possession Princeton can have.

WILL DISCUSS PLANS AT MEETING SATURDAY

Stock Men May Object on Account Of Grazing Possibilities

Unusual importance is attached to Saturday's session of the provincial grazing commission in the court house, when it is likely the citizens will be asked to select between a grazing land and a natural park for an important section of the divide along the Hope Mountains.

Overtures were made some time ago by local men interested in the natural beauty of this section, and in the tourist potentialiiies, to have a park reserve established comprising an area of approximately 300,000 acres between the Dewdney trail, most northerly of routes across the Hope Mountains and the Cleveland survey, the most southerly, and also bounded by the Skagit River and 23 Mountain.

The suggestion met with considerable favorably, and it is known that the member for the Similkameen, who is also a cabinet minister, is favorably inclined.

Negotiations have been started to have the provincial government definitely establish this park reserve.

MAY WANT FOR RANGE LAND

Interests, however, may conflict. Stock raising promises to become a very important industry, and the Hope ranges are already very popular among cattlemen during the summer. They may be expected to oppose any move to reserve actual or potential range land.

Advocates of the park plan, however, do not seen any genuine conflict between the two proposals. They point out that there is an abundance of grass land, and that the area stretching northwards from the old Hope (Dewdney) trail is even better suited to grazing purposes, while the natural beauty of the triangle in question makes it far too valuable to be dedicated to mere stock raising.

The matter will likely be foremost Saturday when a regular sitting of the commission is scheduled. Following is a wire from M. A. Grainger, one of the most enthusiastic boosters for the Similkameen, who is taking a great interest in the park proposal:

"Public hearing Saturday by Chief Forester Caverhill regarding grazing on crown lands gives important opportunity for vigorous presentation of Princeton's views regarding park matter."

A petition will shortly be circulated, it is announced, and support of citizens throughout the valley will be subscribed in the interests of the park proposal.

WHOLEHEARTED ENTHUSIAST

Mr. Grainger showed that he was a wholehearted enthusiast when he recently wrote the Board of Trade, strongly urging support of the park plan, and contributing $25.00 to help along the promotional work.

Both Local Cases Fail At Vernon

Acquittal was granted at the Vernon spring assizes in both cases concerning the Similkameen, one of attempted murder, one of manslaughter.

Thomas White, Princeton, was found not guilty of an attempt to murder Guy Dyk, mine official, at the cookhouse of the Nine Mile mine, December 17 last. The jury brought in a similar verdict in the charge of assault, also laid against the accused.

William Longley, Kelowna, was relieved of the responsibility for the death on May 25, near Hedley, of Charlie Yakumtikum, aged Indian of Chopaka. The case did not get past the grand jury.

When White took an axe with the intention of breaking some kindling, his antagonists, no doubt expecting some such display jumped to the conclusion that he meant to use it against them. They consequently manhandled him. As a result White was stunned and infuriated, according to the reasoning of the defense attorney and his subsequent actions are easily understood.

The accused, who was a cook, was dismissed and he left the premises and went to Princeton to get a house for his wife and seven children. Returning he found his wife had been ordered not to have any part in the operations in the cook house. He entered the building and took the axe

Looking It Over

[Our own and other people's views.]

WHY BRING THAT UP

The dry ones on the other side tell us another industry is likely to go out of business. It is the drink cure Leslie Keeley's contribution to science was a bichloride of gold preparation which cured men of the drink habit. Somebody is always taking the joy out of life. Now there are no drunkards in the United States, and they can't have any more fun curing them, either. Mal soit qui mal y pense.

MOTHER, SAVE YOUR CHILD

"Jungle dancing to be feature of Paris Exhibition in 1931," says a current despatch. 'Picturesque native rites (not so good) and exotic dancing by tribesmen (and maybe women) from the wilds in Africa (wow!). How much the fare to Paris, Mr. Bernard?

Which reminds us that they are always kicking. The sober ones of a few years ago used to say modern dancers were lazy anyhow. Dancing in the good old days of Queen Vic was exercise. And now when dancing is exercise, it's not; it's brazen. Oh well, you have to see Paris.

JUST JAW BONE

The human jaw is hrinking—startling announcement by a contemporary scientist. Slowly but surely man is becoming "rabbit-mouthed" and effeminate in facial features.

The reasons are two: first, not enough exercise; and second, wrong kind of food.

We wonder.

In these days of women's rights, and conventions, and chewing gum, he would be bo'd to deny the human jaw exercise.

And as for food; it is said the present generation is eating too much bread and potatoes. But if they only would eat bread and potatoes. The bitter fact is that nine out of ten ask for lobster salad, and we think of the price, and sigh.

NO IFS OR BUTS

What ever the faults of Premier King, no one can say that he does not take himself seriously. Though the curtain —it may be a pall—of an election hangs over the stage, he still appoints senators and manipulates cabinet positions.

The Prime Minister, states a press despatch Saturday, said that after the elections he will reorganize his cabinet more extensively. Now Mr. Bennett may be somewhat surprised at Mr. King's presumption, or what's the good of an election? Anyway, a good optimist is better than a bum pessimist.

BUSINESS GOOD SI

How, or why, is business? After months of threatening we started out on a circulation crusade this week. In one afternoon, and right at our door, we picked up thirty-two subs.

Of course, you can argue that any way you want; and any way will please us. You may say we've been lazy, or e'se it wouldn't be so easy to pick up new subs; and we second the motion.

But then you have the fact that our circulation has catupulted from 750 to nearly 1200 in a comparatively few months.

No, we're not suggesting it's brains, or that the paper gets them on its merits, but you have our confession that we have been lazy. As a matter of fact, we don't care greatly what the reason is. You can pick your own.

The reception on the first lap was, well, passable, and we're hoping for due improvement as we carry on. Coalmont, Blakeburn, Tulameen, Copper Mt., Allenby, Hedley, Keremeos and Cawston will surely knock Princeton's record cold. We don't mind if they do. And we're only half through with Princeton.

We've only been striking a fifty-fifty bargain, and the response is fifty-fifty. We could be a lot busier, and never notice it. But we could be worse. It's a funny thing how water always seeks its own level; how you get just about as much back from an effort as you put in.

Messrs. E. E. Burr and S. R. Gibson journeyed to aVncouver to take in the start of the Alaska Caravan, and followed the voyagers as far as Hope. Both are enthusiastic about the results that will be forthcoming. Mr. Gibson has volunteered to contribute an article.

M. Y. AIVAZOFF MAY TAKE INTEREST IN HOUSING

M. Y. Aivazoff, president of the Tulameen Coal Mines Ltd. and a leading Vancouver industrialist, has plans for the erection of several houses in Princeton, it was learned after Mr. Aivazoff's visit to the Similkameen at the week-end.

"I will be back next week," he stated, and hope to be able to arrange a start on some houses to relieve the housing situation."

The Directory Was Hung on the Hook

A Vancouver family reported that when they responded to the ring of their telephone they could get no answer. A telephone repairman was sent to the house to investigate. A look at the instrument revealed the cause of the trouble. The telephone directory had been hung on the receiver hook.

Although a member of the household would lift the receiver, as usual, in answering the telephone, the weight of the directory would hold the hook in place, and the result was the same as though the call was unanswered. Removal of the directory remedied the situation.

Why don't auto drivers slow down and blow their horns going around sharp turns. Most drivers slow down on a smooth level stretch of road, but when they come to a sharp turn they speed up and if they happen to meet a car they slam on the brakes, and if they don't hit one another they miss by inches. It is good for the tire manufacturer and the garage only. On all sharp turns there should be a sign up, "Here is where fools become angels."

Blakeburn's Win Settles Spring Football Race

PRINCETON RUNS RIOT IN SECOND HALF AGAINST COPPER MOUNTAIN

Practically decided two weeks ago when Blakeburn defeated Princeton on the latter's ground, the championship of the Similkameen Football League, spring section, and the Wagenhauser cup, was actually decided Sunday when Blakeburn defeated a strong Hedley team 3-0 on the latter's ground. Blakeburn thus maintain their proud record of champions since football was organized in the valley three years ago. In that time they have won every honor at stake.

Giving a whirlwind second half display, Princeton wound up their league schedule in a blaze of glory, inflicting the heaviest defeat of the season on Copper Mt., 6-1, at Princeton. Ordinarily, Sunday's fixtures would have brought he season to a close, but it has been an unorthadox year, and there are still two games to play, both at Blakeburn, and concerning Hedley and Copper Mt. Only third place is at stake.

PRINCETON SERVE UP FIREWORKS

A goal down at half time, Princeton served up the most startling spasm of goal scoring yet seen in the valley when they rattled on six counters inside twenty minues at the Race Track Sunday.

Actually outplayed in the first half by the strongest team that has represented Copper Mountain this season, Princeton uncorked wonderful form after the interval, and simply overran the Copper Mt. defense.

Bontain's three goals brought him up to a tie with Dixon for the leadership, though with two games to play the latter wil likely win out. A fourth shot by Bontain also found the net, but would have missed had not Thompson turned it in.

Aspin's marker, his first to date, was a great drive from nearly forty yards out, and it started Princeton's goal scoring epidemic.

Rossi contributed a splendid goal when he shot from near the flag, the ball screwing into the net and quite deceiving Moore, who, despite the large score, played a good game. Nelson had a well taken goal for Copper Mt.

A feature was the refereeing of McVeigh, for whom partisans of both teams had nothing but praise.

COPPER MT.: Moore; Foster and Thmopson; Jones, Loberg and Wilson; Beardmore, Nelson, Parker, Hibbert and Kelly.

PRINCETON: Bloor; Dodd and Rintoul; Cowden, Aspin and Davidson; Jones, Ryder, Bontain, Sampson and Rossi.

Referee—McVeigh.

BLAKEBURN IN FINE FORM

Even the presence of their strongest team of the season could not save Hedley from a home defeat at the hands of the league champions.

Blakeburn's display was a fine one, and the work of the forwards was the best this season. Outstanding was the wing combination of Hunter and Smith. It is reported hat they gave the finest display of wing play ever seen in the valley.

Blakeburn got one goal before the interval, and had an edge throughout, though the game never lacked interest. Dixon had two markers, making his total eight for four games, and Nesbitt had the third.

Hedley had a good chance to break their luck when Bell handled inside the penalty area. Lyons took the kick but Craig pulled off a fine save.

BLAKEBURN: Craig; Bell and McIntosh; Rae, Brown and White; Hunter, Smith, Dixon, Nesbitt and Purss.

HEDLEY: Corrigan; Sampson and d'Easum; Lyons, Burt and Pearce; G. Thomas, O'Rouke, Richards, Luxon and Trudgian.

Referee—Richards.

STRONG ELEVENS PICKED FOR TOMORROW'S GAME

Loberg and Foster to Play in Red and White in Benefit Game

What is considered to be one of the strongest teams Princeton could select will take the field Friday night to meet Blakeburn in what is billed as a benefit game, but which is being viewed in a much more important light.

Loberg considered by many, peer of center half backs in the league, and a former Danish International, and Foster, both of Copper Mt., will line up in the red and white defense, and otherwise the team will be at full strength. The only uncetrainy is the selection of McVeigh or Rossi. If the former is fit, he will play.

Bloor; Foster and Rintoul; Cowden, Loberg and Davidson; Jones, Ryder, Bontain, McVeigh or Rossi, Aspin.

This is the team selected for the battle, which is looked on by both clubs as a test affair.

Blakeburn again annexed league honors somewhat easily, Princeton failing to make a very good stand against the champions. They are not at all satisfied however, that they did themselves justice, and Blakeburn are ready to admit that Princeton are the likeliest lot in the valley to give them a good run. They simply laugh off the threat of defeat, however.

The game is creating keen interest, and is sure to be a needle affair. Blakeburn's selection is not known but there is no doubt they will bring their very best, and it is not likely to differ much from Craig; McIntosh and Bell; Rae, Brown and White; Hunter, Smith, Lewis, Dixon and Nesbitt.

IS BENEFIT GAME

In view of the club rivalry, it becomes almost necessary to point out the auspices of this meeting, which is in aid of Constable Frank Hatherill, who joined the great majority—that is, the football players who are through—when he was crocked in the opening league game at Coalmont. Frank was a member of the Princeton team, and proved himself a fine sort. His injury kept him off work and ran up a big hospital bill. The game will be followed by a dance, and for the sake of good sport, it is to be sincerely hoped that both will be well patronized.

STARLIGHT

Close-ups With Ye Sports Ed.

Hedley stretched a concession still farther Sunday when they included three Penticton player (including Jimmy Burt reputedly a Scottish ex-first division star) in their lineup. The rule of course calls for nine days residence in the Princeton assessment district. Rules don't mean much in the S.F.L. this year. Legaly, points are not counted if a game report is not filed forty-eight hours after a game. Of the ten games played only four reports have been sent in. Even with registration of players, a point so bitterly fought over, there is no adherance to rule. Several regular players are not even signed! And one club does not take the trouble to get a man's signature; the secretary just forges it. Registration fees are in some cases owing as far back as the first week of the season, and one club has not yet paid a single fee.

We told you so. We were able to announce last week that Foster and Loberg would wear the red and white against Blakeburn. Now we're telling you there be a new face or two in the Copper Mountain team before long.

There is a chap in Princeton who is creating some tall interest by his ability as a runner. Report has it that he paced a mare, in his work clothes and boots (that man, not the mare) and did the half mile circuit in about 2.30. Which is good. If such is so (or maybe it is so is such) we'd like to interest ourselves in arranging a public demonstration.

Glasgow Rangers are still to be defeated and are running through the professional opposition of the Eastern States much as they ran through the league season in Caledonia. Their conquerors of the 1929 cup final, however, are not finding matters so rosy. Kilmarnock is a good average league team. It would be a better criterion of our standing in soccer if the average team had made the tour rather than the wizards of Ibroz, who, on their day, could beat almist anyone by a hefty score.

Frank Wykoff may look us up again soon, we are told. We promise you right now if Frank hits Princeton again this year we'll outdo even our daring of last year, and have him run for you undre more auspicious circumstances. Come on, Frank.

Doctors — and reporters — differ. That was the dig the editor of the joke department of our college clarion got at us when we were sports editor for the noise. We were writing up, in glowing terms, a 57-0 defeat by the Washington University team of U.B.C. in the day when the Canadian code was just being broken in at 'Varsity. We interpreted the importance even of a heavy defeat. Our Washington contemporary gave the game about three lines, and said that U.B.C. was whitewashed by a junior frosh team. And our colleague rubbed it in.

Last week there was a ball game at Hedley. Reporting the game Hedley say they beat a combined Keremeos-Cawston team. Cawston says it was a Keremeos team; and Keremeos says it was a Cawston team. We wonder who would have adopted the boys if the score had been the other way round?

Princeton Golf Club report that they were able to withstand the attack on their treasury by the interior championship without declaring bankruptcy or appealing for public support. In other words they admit the big enterprise was handled with the usual Golf Club efficiency.

Shades of Tex Rickard and Jack Dempsey (if any)! It's Charlie Pitt again. It was whispered by a bird that Charlie chased all the way up to the Hope road camp (theoretically) and buttonholed Venice Antagliozo Stetcher Lewis Schulli; offered him a fat wad and buttonholed him for a main event on Tuesday night's mauling card at the hill. And Venice took him up. Now Charlie, how could you!

SIMILKAMEEN HOCKEY STARS TAKE DEPARTURE

Two more hockey stars have left the Similkameen in Larry O'Grady and Jack Hutton. Larry is known wherever hockey a played in the west, and "the old fox" played a big part in Copper Mountain's ascendency. Hutton, one of Larry's finds, played for Calgary junior Canadians, and in his first season in senior hockey though still a lad, showed all the ear marks of a real comer.

Tommy Craigen went out to the coast some weeks ago, adn Sewell, another Allenby player, has also departed. Larne Campbell and Hogg re of course at the coast, but may be back for the hockey season.

Taylor Again Wins Golf Club's Monthly Medal

Close Contests Mark Ladies' Competition

Continuing his greatly improved play, H. R. Taylor won another honor over the Princeton links Sunday when he annexed the monthly medal. His gross score was 101, handicap 30, net 71.

Ernie Grey, who finished second, actually shot the best round, making a 91, but his handicap was just half of that conceded Mr. Taylor.

TRIPLE TIE

A triple tie resulted when Princeton ladies engaged for the monthly spoon this week, Mrs. V. G. Field, Mrs. E. C. Lansing and Mrs. J. A. Brown finishing equal. Mrs. Brown won the playoff

SECOND HONOR

It was the second consecutive honor for Mrs. Brown, who defeated Mrs. A. Sorenson in a playoff for the spoon, breaking a tie made in last month's tourney.

PLAY TODAY

Mrs. Field meets Mrs. Lansing in the playoff for the honors in the ladies' tournament. They finished equal in the regular competition.

COLQUHOUN WINS

J. Colquhoun won the Incola cup, representing the Penticton club championship, for the third successive year in an interesting final against T. M. Syer. He won 4 and 3.

EDMONTON GRADS TO PLAY IN KELOWNA AUG. 4

The famous Edmonton Grads, most colorful of all basketball teams, and easily the outstanding girls' aggregation in sport history, are to appear in Kelowna August 4 and 5 for exhibition games. Their visit is sure to prove a real attraction.

In spite of the unfortunate date, the Grads are a team well worth going miles to see.

Officially world champions, they are unable to defend their honor, their place being taken by the Varsity team, who lost the Canadian title to the famous Edmonton squad.

Holder of the Canadian, American-Canadian, and European titles, the Grads were officially awarded the world title by the international congress at Paris in 1928.

HOLES IN ONE

Ernie Grey, a member of the Princeton Golf Club, entered the golfers' portal of fame when he sunk his tee shot on the first hole for a 177 yard putt last week.

Three holes-in-one have been made on the Princeton course. Dr. Lee Smith had the first also on the first and Miss A. Knowlton made one on he seventh, also a short hole. In addition, W. B. Ewart, a member of the Princeton club, scored a hole-in-one on the Merritt course.

HEDLEY WINS TWO BALL GAMES AT FIRST ATTEMPT

Hedley came into the picture as a baseball threat when they made their debut against lower valley rivals last week and clicked in two games, against Penticton, and a Keremeos team strengthened by the inclusion of one or two Cawston men.

At Cawston Thursday the gold miners engaged in a wild and woolly exhibition, and errors played a big part in the scoring of thirty-six runs.

At Hedley on Sunday the game was of a very different nature. It was tight ball all the way, the winners especially turning in a good game. Lang and Wainwright formed the Cawston contingent.

Hedley is now looking for bigger and better teams reports "Rule Book" Thomas. R. E. Baxter and H. Pierce handled the affair to the satisfaction of all.

CAWSTON PLAYS SUNDAY

On Sunday Cawston entertains the Yellow Lake Road Camp boys who last week lost the argument to Keremeos. A good game is expected to result.

BATTER UP

PENTICTON.—Fore once Penticton failed to win a ball game when they visited Penticton and were held to a tie in a slugging contest in which 32 runs were scored. Nineteen errors were made. Penticton saved their record by a ninth inning rally which netted three runs.

PUTTS

MINING MAN MOVES

Pick up your bed and walk, was the admonition of old, but Mr. J. G. Biggs, district inspector of mines, prefers an auto to walking, but brings his bed just the same.

For some time Mr. Biggs has been trying to figure out how he could move his headquarters to Princeton to which the center of his mining district has shifted, with new development. He has a nice home in Merritt, and it is known he tried considered building at his own expense here.

However, matters must be getting warm, for, if reports are true, J. G. loaded a bed on his car and a spare blanket and writing desk to boot—when he made his last trip.

PRINCETON DEPARTMENTAL STORE STAGE GIGANTIC SALE

Commencing Saturday, June 21st, the Princeton Departmental Stores, open their doors to a store-wide sale.

Mr. Wagenhauser states that this sale is the most ambitious effort in the direction of "special sales" ever attempted by the Departmental Stores. The entire brand new stock, in fact every item in every department is reduced in price to such an extent that a record sale is practically assured.

The object of the sale is to reduce the vast stock by one-half, several departments being considerably overstock.

The store will remain open evenings all next week for the convenience of out of town shoppers.

to make kindling and make tea. The axe was seized from him, and he was assaulted by two men while two women had a part in attempting to overawe him. After the axe was taken from him he went to the bedroom and got his rifle. This was also wrested from him and the attempted murder and assault charge resulted.

Against the evidence of six crown witnesses, three of whom stated they were in the kitchen, three in the dining room, who saw in White's actions intent to murder, the defense urged a misinterpretation of White's actions, in the handling of an axe, and showed that in consequence his handling of the rilfe had been justified.

T. B. Hooper, counsel, claimed that White was acting within his rights in resenting intrusion on the place where he lived and of which he was in possession as tenant. His Lordship said the action of White in getting the axe to make a fire was a reasonable explanation and that after he had been assaulted by younger and more powerful men, he could not be blamed for his attempt to defend himself and his property. There was no difficulty in finding that the man had provocation.

William Longley, Kelowna, charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of Charlie Yakumtikum, eighty-year-old Indian, near Sterling Creek about 1 p.m. May 25, was freed by the grand jury's failure to bring in a true bill at the Vernon assizes. Thus closed the incident of this traffic fatality.

Evidence adduced showed that Yakumtikum was practically blind. He was on the wrong side of the road when Longley's car rounded a bend, and collided with the Indian's horse, there being no opportunity to avoid a collision.

WHY PEOPLE SUFFER FROM PAINFUL FEET

"Why do so many people suffer today from foot troubles?" This question was asked today of C. V. Prosser.

"Undoubtedly," said Mr. Prosser "the hard pavements have had much to do with producing broken down arches, extreme tiredness, burning sensations, painful heels, corns, callouses and similar foot discomforts. On the other hand, poorly fitting shoes have contributed largely to bring about these conditions."

Mr. Prosser, who has studied foot correction under the direction of Dr. Wm. M. Scholl, the nationally known foot authority, says regardless of the cause, there is a remedy for every foot trouble.

In this connection he made the interesting assertion that Dr. Scholl has perfected an appliance or remedy for every foot trouble, and that his method of foot correction was scientific, accurate and absolutely dependable. No special shoes were necessary, for with the proper appliance correctly fitted, any shoe, he declared, could be made an anatomical shoe.

"Foot Comfort Week is going to be a revelation to many people who never dreamed there was such a thing as relief from their foot troubles," said Mr. Prosser. "It has been proven that if the bones of the foot are properly supported, as they are with Dr. Scholl's Appliances, in shoes that fit, they gradually resume their normal position and function in a way that not only provides comfort but maintains the neat, stylish appearance of the shoe."

Mr. Prosser said Foot Comfort Week was the time for everybody to be good to their feet. **

FIRE BRIGADE WORKING HARD FOR JULY 1 EVENT

A worth while demonstration is promised by Princeton's volunteer fire department when they make their official debut with a demonstration in connection with the July 1 celebration.

Training three nights a week, the brigade is producing wonderful results, and some remarkable performances have been turned in.

Coupling contests, wet tests, and ladder work will comprise the display. All members of the brigade are showing real skill in making and breaking hose. The remarkable time of 46 seconds was set Wednesday by George Schisler. It is understood the Kelowna record for this event (three lengths and nozzle, making and breaking) is 54 seconds. Several members have bettered this mark, and the brigade average is very good. Likely members of the coupling teams are Dave Muir, Lawrence LaValley, Ted Burr, Len Watt, Chief Pease, Bill Garrison, George Schisler, Mike Oreskovich, Dave Taylor, Harry Timms, Glen Wick.

Two man coupling teams are also making good time.

The ladder contest is the most spectacular, from a spectator's point of view. The follower on climbs the ladder and descends, touching every rung. George Schisler is credited with a mark of twelve seconds, though this is hard to believe. Other likely members of the team Lawrence LaValley, Dave Muir, Mike Oreskovich and Dave Taylor, have marks of fourteen, and have shown real agility. The last named is almost definitely out through a leg injury.

The brigade made wet tests Monday evening, ravelling from the fire tower to the Cosmopolitan store, thence to the Similkameen Hotel side, and finally Bank of Commerce corner. The best time for making the trip and getting water in two hoses
