Thallheimer-Leyland

A quiet wedding on interest was solemnized in St. Paul's United Church on Thursday, 15th September, when Clara, eldest daughter of Mrs. Alice Leyland, became the bride of George William Thallheimer, both of Princeton.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle. Mr. James Taylor. The official witnesses were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dixon. Rev. J. C. Goodfellow officiated.

After a reception the bride and groom left for a honeymoon in Washington points, and on return will take up residence in Princeton. Mr. Thallheimer is part owner of the Princeton Tulameen colliery.

Young—Geary

An unsuspected romance blossomed in Vancouver Thursday, 8th September, when Agnes Geary of that city became the bride of Wesley William (Wes) Young, well known Princeton confirmed bachelor. Rev. Mr. Davidson officiated at a quiet ceremony, attended by relatives and immediate friends. Witnesses were Miss Mae Geary, sister of the bride, and Mr. George Prezeau. Mr. and Mrs. Young quietly came to Princeton to enter their new estate, to be greeted by many felicitations. They will shortly take up residence in their new home on the Allison Addition.

Glennie—Cole

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Glennie, Princeton Thursday evening, 15th September, when Kathleen (Kathie), third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Cole of Blakeburn became the bride of Walter George Glennie, son of Mr. George Glennie. Sweet peas and gladioli decorated the rooms and a three-tier wedding cake centered the bridal table. Rev. J. C. Goodfellow performed the ceremony and during the signing of the register Mrs. A. Rintoul sang "I Love You Truly"

The bride entered the room on the arm of her father, wearing a tailored suit of flecked blue, and white satin blouse. Her hat, a veiled model. was of navy felt, and matching accessories completed her costume. Her bouquet was of sweet peas and fern. Her only ornament was a dress pin in the form of a cluster of thistles, sent to her on her wedding day by her grandmoher ("Grannie" Cole) from Scotland.

The bride was attended by her sister Helen, who wore a dress of rust colored taffeta silk with v-shaped neckline and puffed sleeves with hat to match. She carried a bouquet of sweet peas and gladioli. The groom was attended by Mr. Walter A. Taulbut, brother-in-law of the bride.

At the reception which followed Mrs. Cole and Mrs. George Glennie received the guests, the former wearing black silk crepe with cut velvet, the latter maroon taffeta silk. Both wore corsages of violets.

The only out of town guest was an aunt of the bride, sister of Mrs. Cole. Mrs. James Wheat of Vancouver, who wore a navy printed silk chiffon dress, with corsage of roses.

The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful pearl on amber dressing set, the bride's gift to the groom a gold chain, and the groom's gift to the bridesmaid a sterling silver bracelet.

After a short honeymoon trip to Okanagan points the popular young couple took up residence in their new home on the Allison Addition where they have the best wishes of their many friends.
