W.A.McAdam Speaks To Princeton Board

"Britain must buy to eat and sell to live" declared W. A. McAdam, Agent-General for B. C. in London, England, in an address to the Princeton Board of Trade on Friday. Mr. McAdam and E. G. Rowebottom, Deputy Minister of Trade and Industry were honoured guests at a Board of Trade luncheon in the Travellers' Hall. P. W. Gregory, president of the Board introduced the speakers to the members of the Board. Mr. Rowebottom spoke highly of the work Mr. McAdam had done in London, especially during the war years.

Mr. McAdam said that at British Columbia House in London over 400 former B.C. prisoners of war out of 500 served by the B.C. House had personally called to express gratitude for help received while prisoners. Work done at B.C. House was divided into five departments, which were manned largely by volunteer help. These volunteers served without fee or reward.

He told of the operations of the cigarette fund, as the result of which 145 million cigarettes were distributed; the hospitality department which distributed 150,000 tickets to theatres and other events to men in the services; the prisoners of war branch which sent 300 cigarettes a month, and books, games and musical instruments to each B. C. prisoner. A news letter was also sent twice a month to each prisoner. This letter is being continued and will be distributed to the public throughout the United Kingdom.

Air Cadets Enjoy Camp at Davis Lake

Eighteen boys of the Royal Canadian Air Cadets, local squadron 217, are enjoying camp at Davis Lake, about 52 miles northwest of Princeton. Rev. P. J. Brownlee is camp supervisor, and Mrs. W. Powell is in charge of cooking arrangements. The camp will last ten days. Parades, drills, games, swimming, boating, shooting, lectures and general fun are the order of the day.

Helping to make such a camp possible the Model Transfer donated trucking services, and private citizens placed their cars at the party's disposal. Cash donations amounting to $120 were given by the Granby Co., Kelowna Exploration Co., Princeton Brewing Co., Penticton Sawmills, Sam Langford, J. Ewart, P. W. Gregory, DeMuth Lumber Co., J. Corrie, Princeton Billiard Hall, and the UMWA local 7875. The recent tag day netted $109, and this financed air flights for 26 boys. The Air Cadet Civilian Committee is still ready to receive donations.

Sunday will be visitors' day, and all who desire are welcome to visit and inspect the camp.

A. R. Eastcott is president of the local civilian committee, and C. J. Harman is secretary-treasurer.

Chaplains, with rank of Hon. F/Lt. are Rev. P. J. Brownlee (Protestant), and Rev. Father Franks (Roman Catholic). Commanding Officer is James Metzler; instructor, John Huey; F/-Sgt., Bill Kelly, and bandmaster, W. Q. Burton.

The local air cadets are under the sponsorship of the Canadian Legion, branch 56.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Bennett of Vancouver, and Mr. and Mrs. Allan Cutler, New Westminster, have been Princeton visitors this week, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McConnell. They are leaving today for the coast, going by way of U.S.A.

Mrs. Bertha M. Foss, formerly Mrs. Jim Snowden, who resided here 25 years ago in the house now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Broomfield, is visiting friends here: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. John Huey, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Avery and others. Mr. and Mrs. Foss have their home in Hydesville, California. Mr. Foss has several claims at Copper Mountain.

Bill Eddy Finds Meteorite (?)

Last week Bill Eddy brought in a small piece of iron which he thinks might be a part of a meteorite. It is 3 inches long, an inch and a half across and half an inch high. It is flat and pitted on the under side, and rounded on top, resembling a piece of slag.

Mr. Eddy found this curious piece about a hundred yards from the mouth of D'Arcy creek, lying near the surface.

Principal Alexander has returned from his holiday, and is already busy with preparations for school opening.

Community Shocked; Tragedy at Hedley

On Tuesday evening of last week a tragedy befell one of Hedley's well known families, when little Dorothy Spooner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Spooner was drowned in the Similkameen River.

The little tot, who was to be four years old in February, accompanied her sister and chum to the swimming hole at the river in the late afternoon. When she disappeared, a thorough search was made for her, thinking she had perhaps wandered back up town to her home. When she couldn't be found it was thought that perhaps she may have fallen in the river, although no one had seen her do so. Ches McConnel found her body in the bottom of a deep hole after diving down to see if she could possibly be in the water. Repeated efforts of the rescuers to revive her proved in vain.

Left to survive her are two sisters, Helen and Rosemary, two brothers, Vernon and Roderick, and her parents.

Funeral services will be held at the Catholic Church on Friday morning at 10 a.m. Father Franks will conduct the services.

Burial will take place in the Hedley cemetery. The Princeton Mortuary will be in charge of arrangements.

Vernon Spooner, elder brother of the deceased arrived here from Vancouver to be with his parents.

New Parleys Arranged On Mine Strike

Negotiations to settle the strike of 2500 hardrock miners got underway at 2 p.m. Monday when representatives of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers (CIO) and Hedley Mascot Gold Mines meet in federal labor offices with Conciliator George Currie.

Harvey Murphy, union representative, said today it was his "opinion" that agreement reached with Hedley "will be applicable to all other gold mining companies now involved in the strike."

The union will negotiate later with Britannia Mining Company and "it is my opinion that its terms will apply to other copper operations involved."

The Monday meeting was agreed upon last week at a meeting of Mr. Murphy and C. H. Locke, K.C., operators' representative.

PAUL BUNYAN

SHOULD HAVE WRITTEN THIS

HAD Paul Bunyan, the legendary figure of woodlore, written this he would have used unrestrained language in asking the people of British Columbia to guard against forest fires!

Forest fires are not only dangerous and costly, but they deprive great areas of future yields of timber—timber which gives employment to thousands of workers, makes vast markets for British Columbia products, and supplies lumber for housing in these critical shortage days.

PREVENT FOREST FIRES

It is not enough that each individual give immediate warning when discovering fire in forest lands. Each person should ensure that precautions are observed when making a camp fire, lighting a match, or smoking a cigarette.

Free Chest X-Ray Here August 12-17

The travelling X-ray van will be here next Monday, and will be located outside the Oddfellows' Hall each day till Saturday, 17th. This will be an opportunity for all citizens to get a free chest X-ray, and will be a step in the long fight against the ravages of tuberculosis. Citizens have been notified of the time of their appointment, and are urged to be on time. If for any reason you cannot attend at the time notified you should endeavour to let the clinic know.

The grown-up persons think they are safe from T.B. The old belief that people, once they have passed 30, cannot develop the disease is false. No age is safe. T.B. may strike at any age.

Each year thousands of T.B. patients are returning to useful work, their disease arrested. A history of tuberculosis does not prevent a man from earning a livelihood.

You can fool yourself about T.B. by making believe that all is well. You can fool your doctor by withholding information. But, you cannot fool with T.B. You have a choice. Either you learn by costly experience or you learn by good advice. It is up to you. Get your chest X-ray now.

Fish and Game Men Review Work Done

The regular monthly meeting of the Princeton and District Fish, Game and Forest Protective Association was held in the Parish Hall on Monday night, G. M. Harman, vice-president, in the chair, and C. V. Prosser acting as secretary in the absence of A. S. Baillie, Jnr. Dr. W. T. Hall reported for the special committee appointed to consider and recommend best means of handling Works Committee finances, and after some discussion it was agreed that all moneys be placed in central fund, and cheques issued to Works Committee for estimates of work given.

Final reports of the Barrel Derby committee were receivcd, and the sum of $50 voted as a donation to the Princeton General Hospital. T. O. Lessard told in graphic fashion of the various projects under way.

Mr. Harman was asked to explore possibilities of an early visit by the members to the Oroville Fish and Game club, and make such arrangements as proved to be feasible. The next regular meeting night being a holiday, Labor Day, the September meeting will be postponed one week, to September 9th, the second Monday in the month.

Forest Fires Now Under Control

The season's most serious forest fire in this district was brought under control this week. It happened at Sunday Creek, 18 miles from Princeton on the road to Hope, and about a mile off the road in the direction of the river. About 80 acres were affected, and 23 men were engaged fighting the blaze. Lower temperatures of recent days have helped the fire fighters. The fire is under control and only sufficient men remain to act as guard.

During the season there have been 22 fires reported. Most of these were quickly brought under control.

WEDDINGS

LOCKHART — BOULIER

On Saturday evening, August 3rd, at 7 p.m. St. Peter's Rectory was the scene of a pretty wedding, when Miss Joy Boulier, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Boulier, of Princeton, B.C., became the bride of Mr. Samuel Lockhart, youngest son of Mrs. S. Lockhart and the late Mr. Lockhart, of Princeton, Rev. Father Franks officiating.

Entering on the arm of her father, the bride was charming in a floor length dress of white net over satin and wore a chappel veil caught from a becoming headdress. In her arms she carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. Her only jewellery was a double string of pearls, a gift from the groom.

The bridesmaid, Miss Joyce Schisler, chose a floor length gown of yellow net over satin, with a matching shoulder length veil, with bouquet of sweet peas and snapdragons. Mr. W. Forsyth supported the groom.

Following the ceremony a reception for fifty guests was held at the home of the bride's parents.

For receiving, Mrs. Boulier, mother of the bride, chose an afternoon dress of canary yellow with becoming white hat and matching accessories; her corsage was pink and white carnations. Mrs. Lockhart, mother of the groom, chose an afternoon dress of figured carded silk, black hat and matching accessories. Her corsage was also of pink and white carnations.

A beautiful hand made table cloth graced the table that held the three tier wedding cake which was flanked by tall tapers in silver candle holders. Local flowers added beauty to the rooms.

Mr. Doug. Stuart proposed a toast to the bride and Father Franks wished the newly-weds God speed. After the buffet supper was served, Miss Susie Allison played selections on the accordion.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. M. Noble and Mrs. C. Hobson, both aunts of the bride; Mrs. W. Brown and Miss Ruby Lockhart, sisters of the groom; Mr. K. Dearing, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Taylor, all of Vancouver; Mr. John Lockhart, brother of the groom, of Alberta; Mr. and Mrs. J. Ross and Mrs. Violet Lewis of Oliver; Mr. and Mrs. J. Baldwin of New Westminster.

The bridal couple left for Kamloops, where they are spending their honeymoon. On their return they will make their home at Aspen Grove.

The Keremeos-Cawston Board of Trade is looking for a piece of land on the south side of the Similkameen to be used as a dumping ground.

Hope For Early Strike Settlement

There is some hope that a settlement in the dispute between the hard rock miners and operators may be reached at an early date. It may be that the wish is father to the thought, but the wish is shared by all concerned. Operators are anxious that work be resumed with the least possible delay. Strikers are tired of holidays without pay, even though a number of them have found temporary employment elsewhere. Merchants look for the note of certainty that accompanies steady employment.

The hope of settlement is inspired by the knowledge that representaties of the two sides are getting together, and discussing matters. With a measure of give and take on both sides it should not be impossible to discover some formula acceptable to all parties concerned. It seems that the time has come when nothing is to be gained by either side postponing discussions. The general feeling is that the sooner an understanding is reached the better it will be.

B.C. Agent-General In London, England

"Britain must buy to eat and sell to live." So said W. A. McAdam, Agent-General for B.C. in London, England, in the course of an interesting and informative address at a Board of Trade luncheon held on Friday. Mr. McAdam was here on a fact-finding trip, and is anxious to acquaint himself with every part of the province. He left the impression of a very general and capable ambassador of good will, and all who listened to him felt that British Columbia affairs in the Old Land were in good hands.

People of this valley have not forgotten how Mr. McAdam assisted in the work of the Elks Smoke Fund. It was largely through the work of our Agent-General in London that the cigarettes sent overseas were so efficiently distributed.

Some years ago the writer sent a letter to The British Weekly asking for information relative to the life of Rev. John Hall, who was the first Presbyterian minister in Canada west of Manitoba. The letter was brought to the attention of Mr. McAdam, and he went to no end of trouble to get the desired information. This is only one example of how the Agent-General seeks to be of service in any way that presents itself.

War Brides

Already a number of war brides have arrived in Similkameen. They have come from England, Scotland and Ireland, and parts of the Continent. Others are on their way, and will arrive shortly. People of this valley should do what they can to make these newcomers feel at home in our midst. They cannot but feel strange in a new land, with new faces to greet them at every turn. They don't know us. We don't know them. They have much to learn, and perhaps something to teach. A friendly welcome will help to make them feel at home in the new land to which they have come.

The war has done much to bind together the peoples of the English-speaking world. Dangers faced and overcome have deepened the sense of unity without which our real contribution to this modern world cannot be made. Our insight has been deepened, and our horizons have been broadened. We know today, as Wendel Willkie said so often, that we must have one world, or no world. We must live together in peace and friendship, or else life will revert to the pattern of the dark ages, when every man's hand was set against his neighbour, and every man did that which was right in his own eyes.

The presence in Canada of war brides from overseas will help to strengthen the ties that bind us to other parts of the Empire. It will help to maintain what is best in the old traditions, and at the same time give body to dreams of the future which we hope to realize. War brides have a part to play in shaping the future of Canada. They, too, must become one of us. Only in this way can the Canada of tomorrow become strong and self-reliant. By all means, let us welcome to our midst the war brides who come here from overseas.

Good Pictures At Capitol Theatre

Within recent months there have been some really high class pictures at the Princeton Capitol Theatre. One of the best was "A Song to Remember." Mr. Towriss is to be commended for getting such pictures to be shown here. There may be an element of risk in bringing high priced pictures to Princeton, but the public want the best, and we believe that box returns will be measured by public satisfaction.

There is a great art in selecting the available pictures which will please patrons. This is a gift that grows with practice. Experience makes perfect. A good picture is a work of art.

Of course, it must not be forgotten that there are many tastes to be considered, and all must have a measure of satisfaction. Pictures are for enjoyment, entertainment, education and culture. The only kind we are not keen about is the straight propaganda picture. Fortunately these are few, and they do not come here often.

You Remember Too

Thinking, as I sometimes do,
Of a journey once, with you,
Sixteen years ago, and plus—
Though it seems not so to us;
When, with pack and on Shanks Mare,
We climbed into alpine air:
Old Hope Pass! But at the crest
Puny pride shrunk in each breast,—
Humbled at the manitude
Of wild nature in the nude:
Other summits, vaster, steeper,
Towered above us; chasms deeper
Than the hollows we had crossed
Yawned below, with waters tossed
Into whiteness, into froth:
We were brothers to the moth!
And the glaciers in the blaze
Of soft sunshine formed a haze
And an iridescent air.
Then with pack, and on Shanks Mare,
On we plodded, westward ho;
Half a week, or more, to go:
Crossed the streams on shakey bridges,
Then along the Skagit ridges
To the rhododendron woods,
Blooming in the vast solitudes.
Camp-fire next, by the Sumallo,
Bodies tired but souls of swallow:
One more day to go, and then
Storied Hope—and common men.
Pleasant retrospections all;
But since then, as you recall,
Sixteen years have gone to grief:
Time is such a sly old thief!

Ration Book No. 6

With distribution of Ration Book No. 6 planned for September 9th to September 16th, the local ration boards throughout Canada are beginning their organization work.

The need for another ration book was emphasized by Donald Gordon, chairman of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, who said:

"As long as human beings in so many countries of the world are starving or near starvation, it is unthinkable that Canadians should refuse to do their share in helping out; should refuse to limit themselves just a little in the use of the bountiful supply with which this country is blessed; or in that limitation, should refuse to share equally the things that we have for ourselves. The Government of Canada sincerely wishes to help less fortunate people, and therefore has decided to continue rationing in this country, and for that reason I appeal to Canadians everywhere to help out in answer to a world crying for help! We cannot let that cry go unheeded!"

Prideaux Receives Another Letter

Due to a snoring affliction or habit which Prideaux broadcasts during the small hours of the night, he agreed with Mrs. Prideaux they should travel from Princeton to Vancouver in a stateroom; therefore, tried to make the necessary reservation through his C.P.R. friends.

He received another reply, and one paragraph reads as follows:

"Your letter July 26th, received, and glad to hear you expect to be here August 11th and will meet the train. I quite agree with Mrs. Prideaux that you should have a stateroom, but seeing there are only two staterooms on the train, I have arranged to put a stock car on for yourself, and Mrs. Prideaux will very likely be able to get a lower berth."

Prideaux considers the above real service and says we are lucky in the Similkameen valley to have both the C.P.R., also cattle and sheep breeders, making stock cars available for those who may require them. He also hopes that this information will be a tip to others.

Canada Kelp Company Limited has, through its subsidiary, acquired the largest sheltered bed of Macrocystis pyrifera kelp on the Canadian Pacific Coast. The are of the beds on the inside passage of the northeast end of Vancouver Island is approximately 14 miles by one-half mile. It contains at least 150 tons per acre of wet kelp which may be harvested four times per year. This bed will permit the expansion of full line of kelp products, including stock and poultry meal. The Company owns one of the best equipped commercial laboratores in Western Canada.

The Company owns three islands in the heart of the kelp beds, upon which the plant is to be located. These can be served by regular steamship service, can be reached by deep sea shipping and in fact are ideally suited to production and any subsequent expansion decided on.

This Macrocystis kelp supplies mineral food elements wholly adapted for assimilation by the body, both human and livestock. It has long been part of the diet of the Orient and other countries.

The Company is going into immediate production, processing KELPAK tablets and KELPAK stock and poultry meal. Later, many other products are to be manufactured as well. For the early future the Company has considered the manufacture of algin, the compound having such wide uses in the processing of food, ice cream, cakes, bread, etc. The Company owns the formulae which have wide use and great popularity now in the U.S.A.

The proceeds of this issue will be used to increase processing facilities for sale under the Company's brand name "KELPAK." American and European markets are open for quantity production of KELPAK meal, KELPAK tablets and algin compound, in addition to the Canadian market, which is constantly growing.

The asset position of the Company shows approximately 2.5 times the preferred stock outstanding. The indicated earning power is estimated at three times dividend requirements. It is the intention of the Company to set aside a proportion of the net earnings as determined by the Directors for the retirement of the Preferred Shares.

(Complete information will be furnished on request.)

We offer the 5½% Cumulative Redeemable Preference Shares.

Price—$50.00 Per Share

Each share of the Preference Stock carries a bonus of 5 shares of the vendors' common stock—par value $1.00.

Coalminers' Strike Not Likely Here

Delegates to a special wage convention of District 18 of the United Mine Workers of America, held at Calgary, were addressed by John L. Lewis early this week. No new wage demands have been revealed yet, but committees have been set up to meet with operators and discuss new working agreements.

Contracts covering 1800 B.C. mine workers are due to run until next year but may be reopened under certain conditions.

One local miner, when asked about the situation here, said that there would be no more strikes in Princeton for a long time.

J. R. Pyper and W. Harknett of Kamloops are business visitors here.

THREE Los Angeles visitors, staying at the Riverside Auto Cabins, went to Square Lake last week, and caught an 8½ lb. trout. It was 28½ inches long, and 14 inches in girth.

This big, round fish, taken out of Square Lake, must have been fed on FIVE ROSES Flour.

It is good to see the children enjoying themselves in the Star Park these days. With lots of healthy exercise out of doors, and a plentiful supply of FIVE ROSES flour at home, they cannot help growing up into fine specimens of manhood and womanhood.

We sell FIVE ROSES FLOUR.

Disabled Workers

Workers with physical disabilities need not be handicaps, either to themselves or their employers, points out the Industrial Hygiene division of the Department of National Health and Welfare. The division states: "If a man or woman is correctly placed in a job, such a worker may have an even better record of safety, attendance and production than the average of workers without disability." Surveys on this continent have proven this.

FAMILY ALLOWANCES

Those in receipt of Family Allowance cheques are asked by the Department of National Health and Welfare to keep regional allowance officials advisd on changes of address.
