Lent 40 Days--Think it Out.

If you ask fifty persons how many days there are in Lent it is safe betting that they will all reply 40. Yes, and the very people who should be authorities on the subject will say so too. In this connection much amusement was caused this week in town. It is conceded that Easter Sunday falls on April 19th; the Church says so, the calendars corroborate it. Now, count back forty days, and if there are forty days in Lent you will perhaps be surprised to discover that the fortieth day is March 11th, and that that day is a Wednesday. The Church says Wednesday of this week, March 4, is Ash Wednesday, but in that respect the calendars say No. We have before us as we write a Liverpool and London and Globe Insurance Co. wall calendar for 1908, and there it is as plain as the nose on your face, in inch letters, "March 11th, Ash Wednesday."

Now, we will lay a slight shade of odds that there are only 40 days in Lent. Here is what Webster says: "LENT.—The time of fasting forty days before Easter."

What are you going to do about it? The present arrangement calls for 46 days. Who's right and who's wrong? Here we are presumably in the lenten period living on a stewed prune and salt cod diet, and people around us swearing that Lent does not begin until next Wednesday!

Then, again, the ladies hold their Leap Year Ball to-morrow night, and they are fearful lest the church members should deprive themselves of the good things of life a week too soon. We would not like to suggest a ground for doubt, but the ladies claim there is a doubt and they hope to get the benefit of it in the shape of a financial and social success. Specially printed dance programs and pencils will be provided, and for this occasion, the ladies will boss the entire function.

K. P.'s Defeat Rest of Town.

The game which was played on Friday night was a fast clean game of hockey, and it was greatly enjoyed. The teams met earlier in the week and a draw of 5-5 then resulted. On this occasion the lodge men scored twice to their opponent's once in the first half and five to four in the second, a total of seven to five. The line up:

K. of P.	Rest.
Jacobson goal	Angrignon
Byrnes point	Jost
J. A. McDonald cover	F. Campbell
Cook rover	Blumenauer
Kelly forwards	Brindle
Owens "	Harris
Tier "	C. McDonald

There being a spell of frost this week, the ice at the rink held out longer than was anticipated, and this led to the above teams again trying conclusions, the match taking place Wednesday. Once more the Fraternal won, the score being 4 to 2. Rev. Gifford played at point for the winners.

It has been suggested that a Marathon road race would be a great attraction for Victoria Day at New Denver, and we see no reason why the matter should not be taken up seriously and without delay by the Celebration committee. It would certainly prove a novel attraction and a big draw. The road between Silvertown and New Denver would prove an admirable course, and we suggest a run from Silvertown. So that a large number of spectators might witness the start and finish, it would be reasonable to line the competitors up at the Silvertown wharf in full view of the passengers upon the str. Slocan, which is heading for New Denver with a holiday crowd, and the signal to start the race might be given by the steamer's siren. The passengers would disembark at New Denver before the arrival of the runners who, we suggest, should make a double circuit of the football ground and finish at the Newmarket corner. There should be a good entry, as the Slocan holds a number of aspiring athletes. Perhaps some local sportsman will come forward and offer a trophy.

Burn air instead of money. Investigate and then decide to write us. You will make no mistake. Make your place attractive and please your customers. We can and will help you. Write R. M. Moore & Co., 365 Cordova Street, Vancouver, B.C., to tell you how.

Local and General.

Services will be conducted next Sabbath in the Methodist churches of Silvertown and New Denver at 11 a.m. and 7.30 p.m. respectively. Mr. Gifford's subject will be "The Spiritual Principle of the Atonement."

Three sleigh loads of merry dancers went over to Silvertown on Shrove Tuesday to attend the ball given in honor of the bride and groom, Mrs. and Mr. S. E. Watson.

Complaints have been received at this office that unexpired notices are being torn down at the post office.

It is generally conceded that New Denver has been living pretty fast the past few months, but it has not yet bitten off more than it can chew.

Nelson intermediates defeated Kaslo at hockey last week.

Lent is evidently not one of Hermann Clever's knockers. A car of prime steers arrived this week and another carload is on the way.

Service was held at the Anglican Church on Ash Wednesday.

A meeting of the Silvertown Progressive Association was held Wednesday.

There is a big "move on" at Silvertown. The post office is transferred to the McKinnon block; Mrs. Carey is contemplating going into more commodious premises for her grocery store; Fred. Liebscher, the tailor king, is doing the same.

T. H. Wilson was up from Silvertown Wednesday.

Mrs. Carey has purchased a half interest in the McKinnon block at Silvertown.

A three-act drama will be staged by New Denver amateurs on the 24th of May, after the big celebration. It is entitled "Tom Cobb," and all the best local talent is being pressed into service to produce it.

Anglican services next Sunday: St. Stephen's church, New Denver—Matins 11 a.m.; Union Church, Silvertown—Evensong 7.30. Special services will be held at New Denver during the holy season of Lent, each Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

The traffic returns for the past month at the C.P.R. wharf show a decided improvement.

Col. R. T. Lowery, the brilliant journalist of Lodge fame, has offered to contribute a specially written article of early Slocan days to our special number.

Mr. J. S. Cairns and son, who have been guests at Slocan of Mrs. J. A. Anderson, returned to their home in Carnduff.

Tom Barbour is lying in the hospital with several of his ribs fractured, as a result of some rock falling upon him whilst working at the Mountain Boomer.

Trading jackknives is now the leading industry at Three Forks.

Harold and Jimmy Baker, sons of Charles Baker, formerly manager at Bourne Bros.' New Denver store, came in on Wednesday from Vernon to visit Mrs. H. Aylwin and renew old acquaintances.

Mr. D. Brandon and Miss Clay visited the Standard mine last week.

Who'll buy? We will trade the whole Review paraphernalia for a $3000 ranch on Slocan lake.

Despite the severe snowstorm which raged at church time on Sunday evening last the Anglican church was very well attended, which goes to show that Denver Christians are fair and foul weather ones; or is it the popularity of the Missioner?

Enquiries as to Slocan fruit lands are being received from the old country.

We are printing 5,000 of our special edition of the Review, which will be a magnificent production. 500 of these will be sent to the reading rooms and public libraries of Great Britain. We shall be out gunning for ads. in a few weeks. We expect the business men of the Slocan to do their part handsomely.

It is up to the Nelson News to apologize for the "Tory" landslide in New Brunswick. Its a warning of what is to follow at the Dominion elections. Show! from a Grit majority in the New Brunswick house to a Tory majority of 22 is "going some." Pass the onions, Dansey; we fain would join you in tears.

NOTES FROM NAKUSP.

From our Correspondent.

On Tuesday evening last Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Jordan gave a children's fancy dress Ball in Abrie's Hall and it proved to be a very enjoyable affair. The costumes of the children were beautiful, and reflected great credit upon their mothers. The first part of the evening was given over to the children, and they gave an excellent exhibition of dancing. After the children had departed, the elder people were also entertained, dancing being the chief amusement. At twelve o'clock everybody sat down to a spread fit for a prince. The supper was, well, simply great. The people of Nakusp are indebted to Mr. and Mrs. Jordan for providing such a pleasant evening. The following is a list of the children and the characters they represented: Misses Katharine Bulger, Queen of the May; Flossie Edwards, Black Diamond; Doris Edwards, Little Lord Fauntleroy; Florence Jordan, Courtier of 18th century; Grace Jordan, Robin Hood; Willoughby Vandenberg, Folly; Katharine McDonald, Queen of the Forest; Dorothy Peep; Dorothy Abbie, Queen of the Fairies; Lily Benson, Flower Girl; Jean Glendinning, Red Cross Nurse; Rosie Hamling, Red Riding Hood; Ethel Woods, Sailor ladie; Pearl Ingram, Lady in White. Masters Wainwright Bulger, Jack Tar; Jimmie Curran, Jack Tar; Wyne Edwards, Swastika; George Jordan, Court lady of 18th century; Howel Jordan, King of Diamonds; Fritz Jordan, Fairy; Elwood Cowan, Gentleman of the 20th century; Vernon Woods, Sir Peter Teazel; Stanley Wood, Chef; Cecil Woods, Little Boy Blue; Chas. Vandeburgh, Little Boy Blue; William Vandeburgh, Clown; Robert Sutherland, Black Knight; Frank Sutherland, Clown; George Anthony, Clown.

On Tuesday evening, March 3rd, the annual meeting of the Dramatic Club was held. The following officers were elected: Pres., Thos. Abrie; Vice-Pres., Mrs. F. W. Jordan; Sec'y., R. H. Baird; Treas., D. T. Bulger; Stage-manager, R. Abbie. The report of the Treasurer showed the club to be in a flourishing condition. After the business was over, the Bachelors entertained the members to a supper.

A quiet wedding took place here last week when Miss Polly Ruelston was united to Mr. Geo Chittenden. The young couple left for a trip to the coast. On their return they will reside in Nelson.

Mr. Jas. Abbie, who has spent the winter here, returned last week to Milestone, Sask.

Arrowhead Dramatic Club are arranging to play the Chimney Corner here next week.

DISOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP. Notice is hereby given that the co-partnership heretofore subsisting between the undersigned as Lumber Manufacturers under the firm name of the New Denver Lumber Co., at New Denver, B.C., has been this day dissolved by mutual consent. The business will hereafter be carried on by Lewis Scala. All outstanding accounts due the old firm are to be paid to the said Lewis Scala, and all debts of old firm will be paid by him.

Was a Splendid Concert.

By T. W. Stirling, Kelowna, B.C., before the Northwest Fruit Growers' Association.

"The best concert given in Sandon for a long time," is how one gentleman spoke of the Methodist Church concert of February 28. Probably no one will dissent from this verdict. The program was so uniformly good that it is difficult to particularize, but the piano and violin solos of Mrs. Rankine and Mr. Nicholson are deserving of special notice. Mrs. Rankine's rendering of the "Morceau Caracteristique," was greatly enjoyed. Mr. Nicholson played Irish and Scotch airs and Wieniawski's "Legend" with a delicacy of phrasing and interpretative taste rarely found among amateur violinists. On Sunday evening he assisted in a service of song at the Methodist church, and his sympathetic appreciation of the spirit and motive of sacred music again made him very effective.

Our Fruit Growers' Column.

APPLE TREE PRUNING.

By T. W. Stirling, Kelowna, B.C., before the Northwest Fruit Growers' Association.

But certain varieties of trees, for instance the Northern Spy, have shoots which almost invariably spring from the stem at an acute angle. In such cases it cannot be expected that shoots will be found to satisfy the third condition mentioned above. It is well then to use a spreader to cause the shoot to grow in the desired direction.

CUTTING BACK. Having selected the shoots which are to remain, and removed the others, cutting them off close up to the stem, it is necessary to cut them back. It will be observed that the buds on the upper end of a wood shoot are better developed than those near to the base. The object in view is to give the leader the start and to have it kept ahead of the rest, therefore do not cut it back too much. Cut it amongst these buds towards the upper end, perhaps one third of the length down from the tip.

In regard to the side branches, these are weak and one or two are strong, these latter perhaps nearly as strong as the leader. It is they which require to be watched or they will start racing for supremacy with the leader. Put them in their right place right away. Cut them back to within three buds or so of the stem. The buds here will be very much backward and by the time they have been forced into growth the leader will have shoots several inches in length, and there is no fear that the side branches will catch up.

NEXT YEAR. The following year the process will be much the same. The leader will be treated practically as was the whole tree the year before. The lower tier of branches will probably have made two or more shoots. Almost invariably one will be enough to leave and that should be cut back towards the extremity or about one-third from the tip. The next year will be time enough for these side branches to have side shoots.

THIRD SPRING. The next year will be a repetition of the first and second except that their will be an additional tier of branches to prune. The treatment of this lower tier, this year, will be somewhat similar in principle to that of the leader the first year. The cutting of the preceding year will probably have resulted in two or three strong shoots growing from the end and one or two weaker shoots growing further in on it. Of the strong shoots at the end but one should be left and that cut back as before, about one-third; of the others one or two may be left as there is room or not.

After this, if all has gone right, as it will have done with a normal well-growing tree handled as suggested, the tree may be considered to be formed and it is usually unnecessary to continue cutting back the leading shoots.

The leader will be firmly established and the tree will tend to keep the form in which it has been trained. Subsequent shaping will simply consist of thinning out superfluous shoots and branches, keeping a balance between all side boughs.

The idea to keep in view is to give the leader the preference when cutting out; that is, if a shoot from the centre is crowding a shoot from a side bough it is the latter that must give away.

As we go to press we learn that Revs. Chalmers and Gifford have arranged to exchange pulpits next Sunday. The latter therefore goes to Sandon.

Robt. I. Kirkwood was up from Slocan Wednesday.

Masquerade Carnival.

The New Denver rink presented a gay appearance last Saturday night, the occasion being the last carnival of the season. There was a good sized crowd of masqueraders, mostly gents; the small attendance of ladies in costume being due, no doubt, to events of this kind coming rather too close together to allow of costumes being prepared. Music was supplied by the St. James' orchestra under the conductorship of Mr. M. McLean, which was a decided attraction. The prizes were awarded as follows:

Gents: King Henry VIII...H. Woolley Boys'...Tramp...David Hyde Girls'...Spanish Dancer...Marie Murray

No award was made in the ladies' competition.

Watson-Cleverley.

Mr. Saml. E. Watson, the well-known mining man of Silvertown, was happily married to Miss Alice Mary Cleverley, also of Silvertown, at St. Saviour's church, Nelson, on Tuesday, 3rd inst. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. H. Graham. The happy couple returned to Silvertown on Tuesday and a ball was given in their honor same night. This paper waits congratulations to the bride and groom.

Mrs. J. M. Cameron, wife of trainmaster Cameron of Nelson, and late conductor on the N. & S. branch, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. Lowe.

The tenth Annual Ball of the Sandon Miners' Union Hospital will be given in the Miners' Union Hall, Sandon, on March 16th. If the sale of tickets is sufficient, a special train will take the lake crowd up. Tickets, including supper, $2.00. Ladies free.

Deal Made on Local Sawmill

Lewis Scala, who until recently held a one-third interest in the New Denver Lumber Co., secured complete control this week by purchasing the remaining interests held by Messrs. J. W. Corey and A. Owens.

The new firm will continue to trade under the old title, and will be ready to put the mill in operation in a few weeks. Financially it will make a splendid start, and improvements are to be made from time to time.

It is the owner's ambition to establish the reputation for himself of being a manufacturer of high-class lumber, and in this connection will be following the principle of the old firm. We understand enough logs are in the boom to keep the mill running at full capacity all summer.

Editor, Slocan Mining Review.

Dear Sir,—Great amusement has been caused among the "English colonists at Alamo" by the perusal of a portion of last week's Review. When the paragraph referred to was read out even that relic of antiquity, the Alamo mule (not an English colonist) was heard to chuckle.

The "English colonists" are unable to imagine the origin of the 21st birthday and other notions of the editor, though the first is possibly explained by a slight verbal inaccuracy of our venerable friend, Mr. Pemberton. For the rest we have always been taught to believe in a close relationship between printers and devils, though we were not aware that the latter were of the "blue" variety. Yours, etc.,

RED DEVILS.

[What have we done? We wrote up a happy evening's entertainment from data supplied by the villains themselves, and now they try to discredit us. The boys should come down from the high altitude. If I could get out too bad.]

Rebekahs Ball A Success.

The grand ball given by the Rebekahs at Slocan City on Friday last was admitted by all present to have been the best held in town this season. The Oddfellows' Hall which has recently been enlarged and greatly improved was the venue, and the floor was in nice condition. It being a Leap Year ball the ladies took the lead and also served a bounteous repast. The music was supplied by Mrs. Parker, piano, and G. R. Northey, clarinet. The piano recently installed by the I.O.O.F. was used for the first time.

The quarters for the new subscription library will be at the Government office. At a public meeting held on Tuesday last to elect a new fire committee for the next twelve months, Messrs. Jacobson, Angrignon and Williamson were appointed.

The matter of street lighting has been taken up by the citizens in a manner that is praiseworthy. By their combined subscriptions, as many as twenty street lamps are now assured. Of course there are one or two "usuals" who have shown their lack of public spirit in so important a feature, but it is to be regretted that they cannot be plucked from their own small world and dropped into a sphere of harmony and usefulness.

Wm. Davidson, ex-M.L.A. for the Slocan in the British Columbia house, has been unanimously nominated Socialist candidate to contest this Division in the forthcoming Dominion election. The nomination was made at a convention held at Nelson on Tuesday last, at which delegates from Michel, Fernie, Cranbrook, Moyie, Kaslo, Sandon, Revelstoke, Rossland and Ymir were present. The candidate made a lengthy speech.
