Programme Notes . . .

Arthur Broughton playing Mark the detective. The director of Laura has made a name for himself in his work with the North Vancouver Community Players. An accomplished actor, one of his most recent stage appearances was in Arms and the Man with the Everyman Theatre.

Norma Bloom-Edwards playing Bessie, will be remembered for her charming portrayal of Catherine Winslow in the Player's Club Alumni production of the Winslow Boy as well as for her performance in What Every Woman Knows and Berkley Square with the Player's Club.

Richard Massey, playing Shelby Carpenter, followed up Airforce Musical productions during the war, on his return to civilian life with his stage appearance in the Winslow Boy.

Thor Arngrim playing Danny. This versatile young actor has appeared in productions of the Little Theatre, Island Stock Company and in the Everyman Theatre Drama Festival winning play for B. C., Noah.

Lois Shaw playing Laura, adds to the laurels she has already won for her appearances in Player's Club productions, Aria da Capo, School for Scandal, Everyman's, Arms and the Man and for her portrayal of Alexandra in the Little Foxes.

Sally Phillips playing Mrs. Dorgan. We have heard her voice many times over the air and she adds to her active career in the Player's Club and the Player's Club Alumni with her present performance.

Allan Ainsworth playing Waldo. Has played leading roles in Dover Road, George and Margaret, at U.B.C.; Arms and the Man, with the St. John's Mummers, Oxford; The Importance of Being Earnest, with the Little Theatre, and the Winslow Boy, Player's Club Alumni production of last year.

The Women's Auxiliary to the Vancouver General Hospital

As the main objective of the Women's Auxiliary to the Vancouver General Hospital is to add to the care and welfare of the patients, most of the activities come under the broad heading of social service. Those which come within the scope of Community Chest and Council are financed by an annual grant from that agency. The others are entirely dependent upon the money-raising efforts of the Auxiliary.

Among the latter is the free library service to public ward patients. A wide selection of books and current magazines are circulated four days a week by means of a mobile library truck.

Recreational facilities of a suitable nature are provided for the psychiatric ward. Upkeep is also provided for a record-player which was donated by a women's service club in the city.

An ample supply of clothing is maintained for distribution to destitute patients on discharge from hospital.

The establishing and maintaining of an adequate library is our project for the new home for student nurses.

Artificial dentures, glasses, orthopaedic and surgical appliances are supplied to indigent patients or those in very low income brackets, upon request from the doctors on the staff of the Out-Patient Department, provided they are not eligible for help from any other agency.

Extra treats at holiday seasons such as Christmas and Easter are given the children's wards and patients in Heather Street Annex, Glen and Grandview Hospitals.

Compliments and Best Wishes to . . .

The University Women's Club . . .

The University Women's Club of Vancouver was founded in 1907 and has been active since that time. The purposes of the Club are to stimulate intellectual activity, to promote interest in, and express opinion, concerning public affairs, and to facilitate social intercourse and co-operation among university women. Any woman graduate of a recognized university is eligible for membership.

During the current club year fifteen Interest Groups are functioning. These cover a wide range of subjects—Art, Literature, French, German, Spanish, Music Appreciation, Play Reading, Interior Decorating, International Relations, Child Study, Red Cross Knitting, and Red Cross Sewing.

This year the Vancouver University Women's Club will provide two bursaries of $100 each for worthy women students at the University of British Columbia, and will contribute to the Scholarship Fund of the Canadian Federation of University Women which provides three scholarships for women university students totalling $2,800.00.

In addition the Club maintains membership in and gives support to the Vancouver Art Gallery, the Vancouver Symphony Society, the Community Arts Council, the Vancouver Film Council, the Friends of the Library Association, the United Nations Association, the Canadian Educational Association, the Vancouver Housing Association and the Vancouver Civic Theatre Society.
