VARSITY WALKS OVER VICTORIA

Islanders Again Go Down Before Ternan's Toughs—Score is 26--3.

Varsity advanced a step nearer the now almost inevitable pla off with Vancouver, when the first iteen defeated the Victoria "Rep' eam last Saturday.

Victoria brought over lecidedly weak team, some of the est players, including "Boss" Joh and Pendry being unable to m the trip. The score of 26-3 wa herefore, scarcely surprising.

Varsity crossed Victor line in the first minute of the game t the visitors were able to save thout difficulty. For the next q ter of an hour Varsity pressed fai consistently but were unable to sc . Then for five minutes Victoria kep the game in their opponent's terri y. Varsity cleared and almost immediately went down the field for their first try. Ternan started the scoring run, passing to Buchanan who, in turn, gave the ball to Gunning, the latter crossing the line well out on the right wing. The kick failed. Four minutes later Cameron made an opening, Purdy continuing and Palmer completing the run with a try near the left corner flag. The kick again failed. Five minutes before half-time, Buchanan got the ball about thirty-five yards out and, after a fine run of about twenty yards, passed to Ramsell who scored between the posts. Cameron converted this try and the half-time score stood at 11-0.

A minute after the resumption of play Gunning again scored to the right of the posts. The kick was unsuccessful. A quarter of an hour later

SPENCER CUP CONTEST KEEN

One of the largest and most artistic of the trophies to be found in the case on the second floor is the "Chris Spencer Cup," for Women's Interclass Sports, donated by Mr. Spencer, one of the Governors of the University.

Basketball, Badminton, Swimming, and the Relay Race are the branches of sport in which the competition is taking place, and points are being given as follows: First place, 5 points; second, 3; and third, 1.

At present Arts '23 women are in the lead with a total score of 9 points, having won the Swimming, and obtained second place in the Badminton and third in the Basketball. Arts '25 stands second with an 8-point total, having won the Badminton and taken second place in the Basketball. Arts '24 is in third place with 7 points, being first in Basketball and third in both Badminton and Swimming.

These close scores indicate the nature of the competition, and the result of the Relay Race, which is to take place at the Men's Track Meet, March 14th, will be the deciding factor as to the proprietorship of the "Chris Spencer Cup," as well as the "Relay Cup" presented last year by the women of Arts '25.

Already the King Edward campus has been the scene of much practising. The Arts '25 team will be especially strong, for that year has still many of last year's victors with them and feel confident of future success. Arts '23, however, is making a strong bid for honours and may be seen constantly sprinting on the campus, with Doug Rae as coach. Arts '24 and Nursing are, as yet, unknown quantities. The Nursing team has already been out, but Arts '24 has not appear-

WESTMINSTER DOWNS VARSITY

The Varsity first soccer team took their second defeat of the season last Saturday at the hands of the lowly New Westminster eleven who emerged on the long end of a two to one score. The game was not productive of any good soccer, as the Moody Square grounds were covered with a thick layer of mud.

The fast stepping Varsity eleven were a disappointment to the fans as they were decidedly off form. A draw was a true indication of the run of play, the winners being decidedly lucky in getting by Mosher for the second counter. The suburbanites played a good game however and fully deserved their victory. The absence of Rex Cameron was felt on the losers line-up.

The first goal came after a few minutes of play when Prof. Lloyd sent in a shot from close quarters which the Westminster net-minder fumbled and Jock Lundie rushed the pigskin into the net. Shortly afterwards Mosher in an attempt to clear a fast shot from O'Brian lost his balance and carried the ball over the goal line and hence tied the score. Varsity had the edge in the first period.

On the resumption of play the Westminster squad forced the play and Crute and Baker the Varsity backs got into difficulties neither of them seemed to have the understanding that they generally have. The Varsity forward line left much to be desired in the way of team work. The efforts of the homesters were at length rewarded when Blair sent in a shot which twisted and caused Mosher to misjudge it. Varsity tried hard to make a comeback but were unable to penetrate their opponent's defence.

Phillips and Say starred for Varsity, whilst Wilkie and Blair played stellar football for the winners.

ORATORS ADDRESS AUDIENCE

Gold Medal Awarded To Japanese Freshman; Silver to Lloyd Wheeler.

The last meeting of the Men's Literary Society proved to be a fruitful scource of attraction, the occasion being the annual Oratorical Contest.

The six contestants were: P. M. Barr, S. Kobe, S. Plummer, G. B. Riddehough, A. L. Wheeler and J. C. Wilcox. The subjects dealt with covered a wide range of subjects and held the interest of the audience throughout. The splendid and earnest discourse of a Japanese student of the first year, S. Kobe, made the awarding of the gold medal prize an easy matter. Mr. Kobe handled his subject, "East is East and West is West," with considerable ability and telling effect. Mr. Wheeler of Arts '24 was awarded the silver medal, symbolic of second place in the contest.

The judges of the contest were Professors Larsen, Clarke and Christie. While the judges were conferring, musical selections were rendered by Miss Reid, Miss Bolton and Mr. Southon.

VIOLATIONS OF DISCIPLINE

President Richards Appeals To Students' Instincts of Fair Play.

"Glass is expensive this year and the caution money of the innocent is paying for the windows broken by the guilty," said a wise freshman in the hall yesterday.

President A. E. Richards wishes to draw the attention of the student body to the fact that it is only fair to our fellow students to report any damage we do. He points out that it is a serious and expensive offense to purposely break the windows, especially since the campaign.

Mr. Dallas, the bursar, is willing to co-operate with the students who desire to play catch on the "campus" and will have the windows covered in zones where the ball is desired to be thrown. However, he justly feels that purposely throwing a snowball through a window is hardly a manly sport, especially when the damage is paid for by our friends.

Noise in the halls is another topic that the faculty wishes to bring to the foreground. Freshmen and others, taking lectures in rooms X, Y, Z are requested to "park further away from the doors of these rooms" until the occupants are dismissed.

A CORRECTION.

In last week's issue of the Ubyssey it was stated that the students contributed $100 to the European Student Relief as the result of the tag day. $40 was the amount raised by the tag day together with $20 gained from the concert given in Mount Pleasant Methodist Church.

SENIOR CLASS EXECUTIVE

At a class meeting held on Tuesday, Arts '23 elected a permanent executive as follows: Honorary president, Dean Coleman; President, Hunter Lewis; Vice-president, Annie Anderson; Secretary, Miss Grace Smith and Treasurer, Mr. Claude Campbell.

SENIORS TO HOLD HIKE.

The Arts seniors will journey to the north shore on Saturday and proceed to Seymour Creek. "Catch the one o'clock ferry; men bring fruit and women bring cake or sandwiches," says Mr. Claude Campbell, the president of the class, who in conjunction with Miss Osterhout and Mr. Gordon Kirkpatrick is acting as the convenor of the committee in charge.

VALEDICTORY GIFT OF ARTS '23.

The valedictory gift of Arts '23 will take the form of books and prints on Art which are to be donated to the Library, according to the decision of the class at a meeting held this week.

The selection of these works of Art will be entrusted to a committee consisting of the Honorary President of Arts '23, Dean Coleman; the permanent President, Mr. Hunter Lewis; and the heads of the department most concerned, namely, Dr. Sedgewick, Dr. Ashton and Dr. Eastman.

The collection will include reproductions of the best paintings, a few fundamental works on the study and appreciation of painting and engravings suitable for framing.

The presentation will take place at the first class re-union held after graduation.

VARSITY VS. VICTORIA

Buchanan touched down for the fifth try of the game. This was not converted.

Five minutes later came the prettiest piece of work in the match. From a scrum on Victoria's twenty-five line the ball went out to Buchanan and then to Palmer. The latter made some ground; Buchanan came inside again, took Palmer's pass and then returned the ball to him a few yards from the line. Varsity's speedy wing three-quarter made the try near the corner flag and it was not converted. A minute afterwards Cameron fake passed and, making an opening, started Ternan away. The Varsity captain, after making a big gain, passed to Buchanan who scored near the posts, the kick being again unsuccessful. Victoria now made their most determined attack of the period and, after pressing for two minutes, scored at the end of a loose rush, but did not get the kick. No further points were added by either team until two minutes before time when Penwill made the last three points of the game on a pass from Ternan.

The game, though rather scrappy, was interesting to watch on account of the large number of three-quarter runs. Ramsell and Buchanan did fine work and Ternan was in good form. A new arrangement was tried in this game, Carlisle acting as wing forward and putting the ball into the scrum.

"My body is in the valley," sings one of our younger poets, "but my soul is among the mountain tops."

Apparently one of these sad cases of a poet being unable to keep body and soul together.—Life.

FACULTY IDEAS ON CRAMMABLE COURSES

That crammability is not the criterion by which the student chooses his course is the opinion of the members of the faculty who were interviewed on this subject.

The concensus of opinion among the professors was that the average student was attending the University with some definite object in view and that this fact was borne out by examination papers which have generally shown readings other than those definitely assigned from text-books.

"A professor, using only the text-books of the course, without the assignment of outside references encourages cramming," according to Prof. Soward of the History Department. "There is a greater tendency to cram in the first year than in the other years; this probably results from the fact that certain subjects are compulsory, and of course such subjects are often found to be 'obscure, technical, and laborious,'" smilingly continued Mr. Soward.

Dr. Marshall, of the Chemistry Department, was of the opinion that subjects which some students find tiresome and difficult to understand, other students may find interesting and comparatively easy. "It is the student who comes to the University with the idea of having a "good time" who naturally "picks out" a course which is eminently crammable. "Forunately such students are in the minority," continued Dr. Marshall.

That almost any course lends itself to the cramming methods was the opinion of Dr. Sedgewick, who considered that it was entirely a matter of the student's sense of the seriousness of his work as to whether the effort should be consistantly distributed through the term.

Miss Bollert, the Dean of Women, felt that it was largely a matter of character "Crammability depends rather on the student than upon the subject studied," said Miss Bollert.

GOVERNORS' CUP NOTES.

The race for the Governors' Cup goes merrily on. Last week in the Soccer, Science '23 took a hard fought game from Arts '25 2—0, while Agriculture and Arts '26 battled twenty minutes' overtime to a goal-less draw.

Following is the summary to date:

Basketball.

Science '24	4	points
Arts '26	3	"
Arts '25	2	"
Science '25	1	"

Tug-of-War.

Science '24	4	points
Science '25	3	"
Agriculture	2	"
Science '26	1	"

Swimming.

Arts '25	4	points
Science '23	3	"
Arts '26	2	"
Agriculture	1	"

Relay.

Agriculture	4	points
Science '23	3	"
Arts '25	2	"
Science '25	1	"

The standing of the various classes is, therefore:

Science '24	8	points
Arts '25	8	"
Agriculture	7	"
Science '23	6	"
Science '25	5	"
Arts '26	5	"
Science '26	1	"
Arts '24	0	"
Arts '23	0	"

With the Rugby, Soccer, and Track Meet yet to be decided, the result is still in doubt. Science '23 is favored to cop the Soccer and the Rugby, and are also known to have several good track men, as also have Agriculture. Arts '25, too, has a fairly good representation, and is sure of making some points in both codes of football.

Hot Stuff To-night at Boxing Tournament.

Tonight will find Varsity mitt-wielders at St. George's Church Gym entering the final round for the Varsity Boxing Championships. The tournament will also be an inter-class affair and the fighters have the chance not only of winning honors for themselves, but also of copping points for their class.

Great Enthusiasm Shown.

Much enthusiasm has been aroused in boxing circles this year, and the club has had a very successful year. The idea to combine inter-class competition and the Varsity Championships was a good one, and thus every class was encouraged to put up a champion or would be champion. The preliminaries which have been run off in the last two or three weeks have been productive of some good boxing and judging from the class shown in several bouts. the finals this year promise some excellent milling.

Entries In Finals.

As a result of further eliminations held by the boxing club during last week, the fighters in the finals tomorrow night will be:—(1) Over 165, Greggor and Rae; (2) Under 165, Gunning and Hyslop; (3) Under 155, McLane and Davidson; (4) Under 145, Rex Cameron and Morris; (5) Under 135, Kidston and Demidoff; (6) Under 125, Ellis and Brown.

BADMINTON NOTES.

Play in the first club tournament of the Varsity Badminton Club took place last Monday and in most divisions progress was made as far as the finals. Results of the tournament so far are:—

Woodman and Isobel Russell beat Beecher Weld and Helen Tatlow (15-9) (18-17); Bill Argue and Harriet Haines beat Frank Marrion and Jessie Caspell (15-10) (16-18) (15-12).

Ladies Doubles.

Finalists in the Men's Doubles are Cantelon and Offord and Woodman and Weld.

THIRD DIVISION SOCCER

Varsity Seconds last Saturday won a hard fought language war from the Chinese Students at Heather Park by the score of 3-2. Four different languages were in operation at different stages of the game including English, French, Chinese and Profane. The game was featured by the lingoed directions offered by the Chinese supporters, which were out in great force. Not to be outdone, Varsity representatives came back with a French lingo and held the wide-eyed Chinese speechless. This is only one instance of the value of higher education.

The game was good in spots and both sides played fair football. At times, however, the play was allowed to lag. Varsity had numerous chances to score but muffed time and time again.

Varsity Swimmers Lose To Public Schools.

In one of the closest meets ever run off at Chalmers Tank, Varsity lost out to the Public Schools by the narrow margin of 1 point. The final score 40-41 illustrates the fine competition displayed.

Varsity had the edge in the men's events, while the Schools had the ladies' events their own way. The outstanding performance of the evening was the plunge, when Stewartson went the length of the tank.

In the 50 yard event a competitor must finish within one second of the winner to gain two points. If they are within two seconds of the winner, they obtain one point. For the 100 yard events the ratio is that of two and four seconds, while in the 220 yard events the ratio is four and eight seconds.

Following is the summary of events, with points obtained in each event by each competitor:

Plunge, women—Miss Dye, Schools, 3; Miss Sinton and Miss Holmes, Varsity, tied for second, 1½ points each. Distance, 45 feet.

Plunge, men—Stewardson, Varsity, 3; Gale, Schools, 2. Distance, 50 feet.

50 yards, free style, women—Maisie Lyons, Schools, 3; Mary Chapman, Varsity, 0. Time, 36 seconds.

50 yards, free style, men—McDonald, Varsity, 3; Hammond, Schools, 0. Time, 32 seconds.

Fancy diving, men—Penwill, Varsity, 3; Newcombe, Varsity, 2; Spray, Schools, 1.

Fancy diving, women—Lillian Broadfoot, Schools, 3; Maisie Lyons, Schools, 2; Mary Chapman, Varsity, 1.

100 yards, breast stroke, men—Jones, Varsity, 3; Baker, Schools, 0. Time, 1 min., 27 seconds.

100 yards, breast stroke, women—Sylvia Thrupp, Varsity, 3; Maisie Lyons, Varsity, 0.

50 yards, back stroke, women—M. Margetson, Schools, 3; Mary Chapman, Varsity, 0.

100 yards, free style, men—R. McKechnie, Schools, 3; Penwill, Varsity, 2. Time, 69 seconds.

220 yards, women—Daisy Prentice, Schools, 3; Sylvia Thrupp, Varsity, 0. Time, 4 mins., 11 seconds.

220 yards, men—R. McKechnie, Schools, 3; Stewardson, Varsity, 2. Time, 3 mins., 36 4-5 seconds.

Relay race, women—Won by Public Schools team composed of Misses Dye, Prentice, Lyons and Margetson, 8 points; Varsity team, composed of Misses Sinton, Chapman, McKechnie and Peters, 4 points. Time, 1 min., 33 3-5 seconds.

Relay race, men—Won by Varsity team composed of Penwill, McDonald, McVittie and Stewardson, 8 points; Schools team composed of McKechnie, Hammond, McInnes and Gale, 4 points. Time, 1 min., 15 seconds.

NOVELTY BASKETBALL.

Next Thursday, March 8, at the Normal Gym, Varsity basketball enthusiasts will have an opportunity of once again glimpsing the fast-stepping profs basketball quintette in action against representatives of the Students Council. In past years the professors have come off with flying colors and have played a steady game. Rumor has it that the profs. are out for gore this year and are practising consistently. But this is only a rumor, and the Students Council it is quite confidently believed can carry off the honors, although they will have to step some to do it. Another novelty which will be staged on the same evening will be a game between the Senior Ladies team and the Intermediate A hoop artists galloping around in skirts. The lowered appendages ought to slow up the fast-stepping firsts considerably and the Ladies team no doubt will put up a desperate scrap. The evenings proceedings will start at 8 o'clock.

INTELLIGENT VOTING.

Every student in the University, Freshmen not excepted, has a vote in the elections that are coming. A vote is a weapon; and the "Ubyssey" as traditional mentor to the young and inexperienced, extends a few words of advice as to its correct use.

In view of the responsibility that goes with a vote, it is necessary that every student should take an active interest in the elections. Indifference is the highest crime. Every student should inform himself of the particular qualifications of the men and women who are running for office. Personal prejudice is of course eliminated. The candidates should be considered from three points of view; past record, experience, and personal qualifications.

The result of such consideration will be intelligent voting; and intelligent voting will put the "best man" in every time.

DEBATING.

There has been a certain lapse of interest in the matter of debating this year, due in great measure to the unusual activities which have occupied the attention of the Student Body. Possibly, too, many have found that listening to a debate is much like attending an extra class; the subject is usually some hstoric or economic problem; and the involutions and contradictions leave a confused impression upon the minds of a student audience.

While it is true that it is often by no means easy to reach a definite conclusion from the subject matter offered in a debate, it is practically impossible to go away without a widened outlook upon the question at issue. The summary of several weeks work is presented in a few minutes, as a rule in a forceful, effective, and logical manner; the audience is given the benefit of many hours' reading, and even statistics are enlivened and dramatized by the fact that they are the ammunition in a contest of general interest.

THE ORATORICAL CONTEST.

One very important factor in oratory appeared to have been somewhat neglected in the Oratorical Contest. No speaker can afford to overlook the interest of his audience.

From the point of view of the mere listener, we might offer one or two criticisms. In the first place original ideas were conspicuous by their absence. Secondly, the old ideas restated were not presented in any vivid or systematic form, and at times it was difficult to discover the speaker's trend of thought.

The general impression made upon the audience appears to have been that the speeches delivered were far below the standard of the papers demanded by the various societies of the University.

It is to be hoped that in future the Oratorical Contest will excite more attention from the student body as a whole, and that the contestants will realize the advantages of the spoken over the written word.

A WARNING.

Don't provoke her! Auburn hair
Always was a sign of danger,

Flippant, unsuspecting stranger!"
Take the warning, for although
Sometimes she can see a joke, her
Temper's very queer, and so
Don't provoke her!

AGRICULTURE WINS DEBATE.

Last Monday night's meeting of the Men's Literary Society featured the Arts '23 vs. Agriculture debate. his was the final debate for the Men's Literary Society Shield as far as the Arts men were concerned. Agriculture will meet Science to decide in whose possession the shield will rest for another year. Norman Robertson and Bob Hunter debated for Arts '23 while Charles Barton and Jack Woods represented Agriculture.

SPRING.

(By Dr. Crank Frane)

In this age of Pessimism that masquerades as realism, when men are so wrapped up in their own limited souls, it is good for them to consider the cheering things of Nature. One of these things is Spring. Sometimes you hear people complaining in the middle of Winter, "O, I wish we could have Summer now!" Such people fail to realize that the Seasons cannot be turned aside from their wonted course like that. Besides, suppose we could pass from Winter to Summer right away. We simply wouldn't have any Spring. And then where would the human race be? All the great men of history had a Spring every year. George Washington did, so did Socrates, so did Tutankhamen, so does William Jennings Bryan—when he can find time. History itself would have been impossible without this link between the Seasons. Every Spring is a year later than any preceding thing of the kind. Nature is never wasteful, and hence we never get two Springs at once. One is enough to fill our souls with hope and joy.

I BELIEVE IN SPRING!

STUDENTS LOOK DOWN UPON FACULTY.

For perhaps the first time in the history of the University of B. C., members of the student body will look down upon the factulty. This pleasure will be granted them on the twelfth and thirteenth of March, when from the balcony and gallery of the Orpheum Theatre, they will look down upon the faculty on the ground floor.

Students and their friends need not hesitate to accept balcony or gallery seats. It is easy to see and hear from all parts of the Orpheum Theatre.

The New Westminster performance of "You Never Can Tell" will take place on Friday, and will be an excellent preparation for the opening night here. The Nanaimo performance is scheduled for Thursday, the 15th.

The Players' Club wishes to announce that there were only three entries in the competition for the best newspaper write-up of the day. As none of these were suitable for use, no award has been made.

THE UNWASHED

March 5th, 1923.

Editor Ubyssey.
Dear Sir:—

Two letters, by "Snob" and "Gown," printed in last week's Ubyssey, were, I suppose, intended to be sarcastic. They struck me as extremely cheap attempts at imitation. However, as "Imitation is the sincerest form of flattery." I feel quite proud of my letter of the previous week.

Regarding Overalls' epistle, let me say that "cleanliness is next to godliness." I have visited several mining camps, and can truthfully say that even the common "mucker" makes some attempt at removing the surplus dirt before sitting down to a meal. Overalls remarks that perhaps their obnoxious appearance is only skin deep—a little soap and water would go a long way towards revealing the truth of the matter. It is indeed a pity that there is no room for a "tea table" in the Mining Building, but could not a "trough" be easily installed in a corner?

In all sincerity, let me request Science '23 to use their own good judgment. It does not take many seconds to slip out of a pair of overalls and wash one's hands. Is this too much to ask from the Seniors of a University for the sake of their Alma Mater?

Yours sincerely,
SENIOR.

"DULCE ET DECORUM"

Editor Ubyssey.
Dear Sir:—

A statement appeared in the last issue over the names of the heads of three departments, stating that the main object of debates was to develop debaters. In view of this it is deplorable to find that after two men of junior years had been chosen to represent the college and they had spent weeks in preparation for a debate, they should be arbitrarily withdrawn from the team in favor of better men of the graduating class. The motive was apparently to make a better showing for the University, but as a University is composed of individuals, it would surely be a better aim to train men than to make a better showing with a few outstanding individuals. I claim that it does not matter whether we win the debate or not as long as we train men and if any one needs training more than another surely it is the student who has not had experience.

What encouragement will it be to a student in another year to try out for international debates if he has no assurance that he will be allowed to debate? He may within a week or so of the event be told that he does not come up to the required standard and be asked to retire.

Surely this injustice to ambitious students should not be allowed to occur again.

Yours for fair play,
"DEBATER."

WOMEN'S RIGHTS

Editor Ubyssey:—

This morning (Monday) some of the women students of the University gave an excellent display of sportsmanship and ladylike conduct. Several came up late and handed tickets to others in the lineup outside the Orpheum, and at least one senior stepped into a position near the head of the line, in front of men and women who had been waiting at least two hours. While this was going on others in the line were refusing to accept tickets from tardy individuals of either sex.

To arrive late and then ask someone in the front of the line to get your tickets is reprehensible, but breaking in ahead of forty others is an act which implies the possession of considerable 'crust' and the absence of everything pertaining to good manners.

Very truly yours,
'AMUSED.'

CORRUPTING MORALS.

Editor of Ubyssey.
Dear Sir:—

We have noticed in several of your latest issues, poetry (?) of a distinctly sentimental nature. We would like to point out that in Science there are a large number of men unsophisticated in these delicate emotions. While these sentiments may appeal to the soulful and aesthetic senses of Arts men they are likely to be detrimental to a more or less inexperienced Science Man.

The writer feels that any influence tending to detract from the atmosphere of virtue and studious application which has hitherto prevailed in the Faculty of Science should be rigorously discouraged.

Yours for morality,
ADONIS.

DESTRUCTIVE CRITICISM

Editor "Ubyssey,"
Dear Sir:—

Your columns are so full of criticisms that I am moved to offer, humbly, some solution to our problems. These are:

1. Re Theatre Night—Present style of skits to be abolished and more appropriate ones used. I suggest for Arts a discussion on Philosophy by one of the Seniors. The general Orpheum audience will not be bored by this—that is—not to any great extent.

For the Science Skit—A technical description of the highest bridge in Northern Rhodesia. But given by a student dressed as a Rhodesian.

The Aggie Skit—A short talk of an hour or so on the Agriculture of the Ancient Egyptians. King Tut's mummy could be used to show how healthy they were.

2. Re Chemistry I.—Eliminate all formulae.
3. Re Decorum—Cut the kidding.
4. Re Gowns—Abolish the Arts Faculty.
5. Re Noisy Women—Nothing can be done.

Wm. Takesbeer.

AN EXPLANATION

Editor Ubyssey.
Dear Sir:—

Contrary to amateur rules a certain member of the faculty of Agriculture coached and paced several of the members of his team during the Arts '20 Relay Race. Agriculture won the race and deserve credit for their victory. It seems unfortunate that ignorance of amateur rules on the part of one man should cause adverse criticism of the team which undoubtedly deserved the victory; especially as the coaching referred to was done without sanction of the team and entirely on the initiative of the offender who was not even the official coach of the team.

Sincerely yours,
D. H. RAE.

TRACK NOTICE.

On account of the heavy track at Brockton Point this week the Track eliminations and the Track meet were postponed one week. The eliminations will now be held on March 14, also the All Round Pentathelon Championship. The track meet will take place on March 21. The eliminations will be held at 1.30, all entries for eliminations and the All Around Championship must be in the hands of Secretary Wilkinson of Science '23 not later than noon Monday.

ARTS '24 HIKE.

The weather man must certainly favor Arts '24, for Saturday last was an ideal day for a jaunt up to Capilano. Catching the 2.00 ferry, a portion of the class proceeded to the north shore. The two-mile walk from the street car to the canyon was most enjoyable. After strolling around for an hour or so, supper was eaten in the pavilion before a huge, blazing log fire. After supper more members of the class arrived, and dancing and games were in order till 8 p.m., when the party broke up with a sky-rocket for Capilano. The saunter down the moon-flooded road to the car stirred some husky throats to songs, which did not cease until the little ferry had tied up at the Vancouver wharf.

GREEN LANTERNS

Where green-gleaming lanterns
A-swing on high boughs
Are breeze-tossed and leaf-flicked,
And wind music soughs

With soft falling cadence
In groves where the moon
Spreads a mystical carpet,—
Ah, dearest, come soon!

I have woven a magic
Of moonlight and dew,—
Of wind shaken beauty,—
A magic for you.

Through shivering branches
The star-light is blown;
Dim all the green lanterns;—
And I—am alone.

TEA DANCE FOR DEBATERS.

Dr. T. H. Boggs entertained on Wednesday afternoon, March 7th, at a delightful tea-dance in honour of the Debating team from the University of California. The guests included the Debating teams, the executive of the Lit. and Scientific Departments, the Ladies' Senior Basketball Team, and the Students' Council.

BASKETBALL NOTES.

Summary of Games Played.

In the past week's games, Varsity basketers broke even with two wins and two losses. The Ladies' Senior team whitewashed the Native Daughters 56-0; the Intermediate Firsts defeated St. Marks 32-23; the Men's Senior A lost to Y. M. C. A. 16-22, and a picked Varsity team lost to the Ex-Duke of Connaught High School of Westminster 20-34.

Ladies' Senior Game.

The Ladies' game was a walk-over for Varsity, who played stellar basketball throughout. Varsity had the game in hand at all stages. Helen Tatlow with 34 points was top scorer. The team—Helen Tatlow (34), Isobel Russell (2), Gladys Weld (14), Isobel McKinnon (6), Doris Lee (2), Eloise Angell.

Men's Senior Game.

In the Varsity-Y. M. C. A. game, Varsity started in whirlwind fashion and by snappy combination and good shooting ran up a ten point lead on their league-leaders. Varsity held the Y in great style until McKenzie, who was playing a splendid game, sustained a badly sprained ankle and was forced to retire. Although the Y began to pick up, Varsity held the lead at half-time, 10-6. In the second half, with the score tied 16 all, the Y gradually drew ahead and finished on the long end of the 22-16 count. This victory gives the Y aggregation the City Championship. Bickle with six points led the Varsity scoring. The line-up—McKenzie (2), Bickle (6), Bassett, Carlisle, Currie (2), Boomer (2), Penwill (2).

Intermediate Game.

In a close contest, the Intermediate Firsts were able to defeat the fast-stepping St. Marks quintette 32-23. The teams went neck and neck until near the end of the second half when Varsity drew away. Heiley Arkley with (14) points and Stan Arkley (10) points, starred for Varsity. The teams: Varsity—S. Arkley, H. Arkley, Henderson, McKay. St. Marks—Cody, Stevenson, Mout, Calvert, MacMillan.

In an exhibition match the Ex-Duke of Connaught High School from Westminster defeated a picked Varsity team 34-20. Varsity line-up—Bickle, Harvie, Boomer, Porter, Verchere, Elliot.

CORK'S ODE TO MISS NILLY.

Systems and worlds may falter,
Kingdoms may rise and fall,
But of all the sweet young damsels,
Miss Nilly's the best of all.

Lore of the constellations,
Tales of the lurid skies
Are not a patch on the sparkle
That "sparks" from Miss Nilly's eyes.

Sheen of the sun-kissed cloud-wracks,
Realms of the vaprous air;
Permanent, Marcelled, or Natural
There's naught like Miss Nilly's hair.

Lure of the sun-swept deserts,
Where aught nor breathes nor grows;
Let me tell you there's nothing finer,
Than the tilt of Miss Nilly's nose.

Of all of this life that is bitter,
And of all of this life that is sweet,
There's nothing that's half so lovely,
As the cast of Miss Nilly's feet.

Perhaps e'er this life is ended,
And my sun has ceased to shine,
O I may,—yes I may, Miss Nilly,
Ask you if you'll be mine.

QUESTIONAIRE.

If the gun has a muzzle, has the Canon? If not, should the Canon be muzzled?

Aggie—"What would you take for this horse if you were me?"
Artist—"Well if his neck was a little longer I'd take him for a giraff."

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

If the simpering, snub-nosed, face-bedaubed, tittering little freshette, who stuck her gum on a seat in Room Z last Tuesday morning, and permitted me to sit down on it, will meet me in front of the bulletin board at twelve o'clock tomorrow, she can have her gum back. It is on the southern extremity of my spare trowsers.

It taxes a lot of sparking to make a match.

Breathes there a man with soul so dead,
Who never to himself hath said,
When his finger met the hammer head:
£$%— ?/; **£/&?*.

SPRING FRESHETTES.

The following is an extract from a recent report on the Outdoors Club, turned in to the UBYSSEY:—"On the upward trip the hikers found the trail blocked by a freshette some four feet wide." You have to hand it to Arts '26: it's a big year.

HOMOCIDE.

Student: "I want the life of Caesar."
Librarian: "I'm sorry but Brutus was ahead of you."

MUCKLETTES

Senior has informed us that it would be quite proper for the Science men to wear white pinafores and bibs over their overalls in the Cafeteria.

WHO SAYS EVOLUTION.

When Adam in bliss, asked Eve for a kiss,
She puckered her lips with a coo,
Gave looks so ecstatic and answered emphatic,
"I don't care A-dam if you do."

THE PROFETERIA (APOLOGIES)

The profits of the Cafeteria, so we have heard, are $249.60. With such a surplus we see no reason why a fourth course could not be served: for instance a course in etiquette for Science men, who insist on eating in overalls.

And speakng of profits, why not use the odd sixty cents for toothpicks?

The International School of Undertaking has announced that in order to obtain one of its degrees a student has to put in a lot of stiff work.

THE WEEK'S EVENTS.

All roads will lead to Room 33 next Tuesday at 4 p.m., when Mr. Hislop and his men will tangle with those of the Vancouver (Rep.) Chess Club.

The International Tiddly-Wink Tournament will be staged in the Auditorium on March 12. Turn out and root for your team.

The Women's Relay Race will take place on Tuesday, 13, between Willow and Heather.

ARTS '20 RELAY TO AGRICULTURE

The Aggies copped the Arts '20 Relay trophy for the second year in succession last Wednesday, heading the field with one of the fastest, if not the fastest, aggregation of milers that have ever taken part in the Annual Classic. Although the record of Science '24 still stands, the pace set this year was the best yet, and if it was not for the slippery road the record would certainly have been lowered. The exact time of the race is a matter of doubt but is quoted at 36m. 24 secs., one second behind the record.

Science '23 and Arts '25 battled for second place, the former just nosing out the Arts men. Although it was generally conceded that the race was between Science '23 and Agriculture, the showing made by the sophs was a surprise to all.

From the outset the race was maintained at a fast clip, Wallace of Science '24 nosing out Blair of the farmers, with McVittie of Science '23 third.

In the second lap some of the best individual running took place. Husky Gab Luyatt overhauled the Science '24 man and put the Aggies in the lead. Carl Barton of Science '26 brought his team up from sixth to second place almost overtaking Luyatt in the sprint, and passing Doug Rae of Science '23. On a par with Barton was the performance of H. Arkley, who starting out last for the sophs and a good hundred and fifty yards behind, passed four of his competitors and finished fifth.

The third lap was featured by an increase in lead by Russell for the Aggies and the passing of two Science men by Bloomfield of Arts '25 who gained a lot of ground and brought his team to 2nd place, Loveridge of Scienc '23 placed his team third. On the 4th lap '23 overtook Arts '25 and the position of the leading teams in this order was maintained to the finish.

On the seventh lap Cliff Barry of Agric. receiving a substantial lead from Hope's excellent run on the sixth lap, handed Les Buckley a three quarter block lead, with about the same distance between Cliff Mathers of '23 and Smith of Arts '25. Buckley set too fast a pace and killed his own and his opponent's sprint, all finishing in an exhausted condition, Agriculture about a block ahead; about a quarter of a block separated Mathers and Smith. Smith ran a wonderful race and mid way in the lap drew abreast with Mathers, but the effort was too great because he weakened perceptably near the end and Mathers drew away from him in the sprint. Demidoff of Science '25 came fourth, Science '24 fifth, Arts 24 sixth, Freshmen seventh, Arts '23 eighth, Science '26 last.

The first four teams in order of running are:

Agriculture—A. Blair, G. Luyatt, H. Russell, F. Vaucher, H. Fulton, E. Hope, C. Barry, L. Buckley.

Science '23—A. McVittie, D. Rae, B. Loveridge, H. Gunning, D. Burton, M. Gregg, S. Say, C. Mathers.

Arts '25—N. Stewart, H. Arkley, J. Bloomfield, H. Thompson, S. Arkley, McKillop, Forrester and J. Smith.

Science '25—Stude, Neiderman, Kidson, Gibson, Hicks, Brock, Ramsell, P. Demidoff.

SPRING.

The Editor sits at his desk
Demanding a lyric of Spring,
But the lyricists there
Seem to lack the Spring air,
And this is the song that they sing:
"Now how can you ask such a thing
When Spring with its beautiful flowers
Means nothing but cram
For a final exam,
For hours and hours and hours."

ed in full strength. It is rumoured that Arts '26 may cling to the standard set by last year's Freshettes and produce a team that will outclass all the others.

But, with the keen enthusiasm shown, it is difficult to say which year will come out of the struggle on top, as the winner of the coveted cups.
