U.B.C. MILITARISTS HOLD FIRST PARADE

Great enthusiasm and esprit de corps featured the first C. O. T. C. parade, in the form of a smoker, that took place in the Masonic Hall, 10th and Trimble on Friday evening.

Songs and other entertainment intermingled with short and appropriate speeches to form a particularly lively program that augurs well for the future of the new organization.

A feature of the gathering was the presence of a number of members of the staff and of the University Branch of the Canadian Legion, as well as several graduates and militia officers. Among those present were Lt.-Col. Logan, Lt.-Col. Letson, Lt.-Col. A.M. Brown, Dr. Ashton, Dr. Shrum, Prof. Angus, and Capt. MacIntosh.

Items of the entertainment included a piano solo by C. Madsen, a song "The Drum Major" by W. Phillips, a member of Arts '25, a reading, "Gunga Din," by G. Craster, a song, "The Holland Men," by Capt. MacIntosh, a bagpipe solo by J. Coleman, and a lurid description of life at Work Point by G. McLean.

An outstanding event of the evening was the address by Ross Tolmie, A. M. S. President, who explained the relations of the Alma Mater Society and the Committee of Military Education, and the position of the President of the A. M. S. under the existing circumstances.

Reminiscences of military life were indulged in by Dr. Ashton, who convinced his listeners that a number of interesting things happen in the army.

Colonel Logan, the Officer Commanding, explained the details of the O. T. C. organization and policy. The Corps will eventually consist of a battalion of headquarters and two companies of two platoons each. Senior officers for the present will be members of the Faculty who have military experience.

The course will consist of two lectures a week, with a number of drills. Examinations will be held at the session for the "A" and "B" certificate, qualifying the holder for the rank of lieutenant and captain respectively. The uniform for the present will be the regulation khaki cap, tunic, pants and puttees with the white cap-band and U. B. C. cap badge as distinguishing emblems.

Captain MacIntosh, of the P.P.C.L.I. was called upon to act as "Devil's Advocate," and expressed his satisfaction with the progress of the Corps.

In the business part of the meeting W. Thornber, Brown, MacMillan, and Keeling were elected members of a Social Committee with instructions to prepare a lively program of entertainments for the ensuing year.

ARTS '31 STAGES CLASS DRAW AND ANTICIPATES GOOD PARTY

In preparation for their class party in the Hotel Vancouver, Saturday, Arts '31 conducted its draw yesterday amid all the usual festivities. Dr. Sage and Eric North officiated and drew the fates of students from hats. "Is it a boy?" asked North, in determining the gender represented by intials. Amid general laughter it was announced that tickets would be given out to girls only.

The executive of the class has worked untiringly, and they promise that this will be the best party any class in the University has ever held in spite of the protests of Arts '30. Eric North and the different committees spent most of their Christmas holidays arranging the details, and everything points to a very successful party.

Patrons and Patronesses are: Acting-President and Mrs. Brock, Dean and Mrs. Buchanan, Dr. Sedgwick, Dean Bollert, Dr. and Mrs. Sage.

Notice to Scribes

All reporters are requested to attend the Reporters' Meeting, TO-DAY, in the Publications Office at 12:15 noon.

Totem Staff Begins Yearly Torture

Work on the 1929 Totem is now well under way. Both the business and editorial staffs have organized their departments and are now going ahead with the actual work, which involves the co-operation of students outside the organization.

This year a new feature is being added to the Totem in the form of Indian art work. Designs of Totem poles and other Indian carvings will provide the general setting for the book.

The "Totem" staff this year consists of Miss Jean Woodworth, editor, and Misses Bessie Robertson and Barbara Ashby, assistants; besides the business staff of the Publications board.

Following is a notice issued by the Totem editor;

It is imperative that members of '29 either in Arts, Science, Agriculture, or Nursing, be photographed immediately in order that pictures may be ready for the Totem. Members of executives listed below must also be photographed. Will the presidents of the following executives make themselves responsible for seeing that the members of their executives are photographed as soon as possible, preferably this week? This will materially aid the work of preparing the Totem.

Senior A Basketers Will Disband

Varsity's Senior A Men's Basketball team is no more for this year. With six straight league games under their belt and a clear road to their second consecutive championship the team has been forced to disband.

The trouble started when Don Horton, the flashy new forward and Bill Keat failed to make the grade at Christmas. Ted McEwen, the best center in the West, was forced to leave because of bad eyes. On top of all this Arnold Henderson, the best guardsman to wear the Blue and Gold, decided he would have to give up the game and devote his time to study.

This left only two regulars, Norm. MacDonald and Ed. Paulson, and Akerly, Chapman and Vandervoot as spares. The team had a meeting and decided it would be impossible to continue. Permission was obtained for the remaining men to play under the colours of the V.A.C.

Finalists For Oratorical Contest Will be Chosen Monday

Try-outs for entry to the annual oratorical contest will be held on Monday, January 21 at 3 p.m., in Arts 100. The speakers, who choose their own subject, are confined to a time of five minutes. Four men and four women will be chosen to appear as finalists in a contest early in February when a medal will be awarded the winner. Class Literary Representatives are asked to assist by having their classes represented in the try-outs.

The fact that success in this contest is altogether independent of ability in debating, and that the judges will weigh the speeches on their totality of merits should encourage lively competition. Further advice may be had from Frank Morley who is in charge of arrangements for the contest.

Varsity Debaters

BERNARD TOBIN

CHARLES BRAZIER

The Women's Building, on Friday night, will be the scene of the first intercollegiate contest this term. The debate is scheduled to begin promptly at eight o'clock.

The arbiters of this word battle will be Mr. Leonard Milne, Mr. Claude McAlpine, and Mr. H. R. MacMillan. They will decide whether the representatives of B. C. or Manitoba have proved their side of the topic, "Resolved that a quota system of immigration should be adopted by Canada." Varsity's standard bearer will uphold the affirmative while Messrs. Sanderson and Richardson of Manitoba will support the negative.

His Worship Mayor Malkin has consented to keep the contestants separated on the platform.

On the same night in Edmonton Mr. Denis Murphy and Mr. Greville Rowland will discuss the negative of the same subject with the University of Alberta. Both Varsity's Teams have been amassing figures of immigration and emigration which prove their side of the case. Orientals, Slavs, and Scotchmen are destined to be used to prove the truth or falsity of the Nordic Myth. Canada's tremendous resources in all lines of economic endeavour are sure to be paraded by both sides and even her spiritual life will be laid bare.

Messrs. Bernard Tobin and Charles Brazier are U. B. C.'s representatives here. These men have both had experience in intercollegiate debates last year. Bernard Tobin was one member of a team that met Idaho here last year and he won an oratorical contest during the same time. Charles Brazier upheld U. B. C.'s honor in Missoula, Montana last year. Both men are speakers of no little ability who will make Manitoba's team go all out to win.

On Friday at noon there will be a pep meeting at which Manitoba's men will be introduced to the student body.

U.B.C. DOWNS FIREMEN IN OPENING GAME OF TISDALL CUP COMPETITION

Varsity Plays Weakened Team in Keen Encounter

In an exciting game of fast football at Brockton Point, Saturday, Varsity English Ruggers, playing their first Tisdall Cup game, ran circles around the Firemen to come out on top of a 19-5 score. Seldom has a smoother-working college fifteen been seen in play, when answering Bert Barratt's war cry for action, they smothered the fire-fighters' attacks, and took advantage of every opening to add points to a steadily increasing total. Open play was the order of the day with both teams tackling hard.

Varsity took the field with only eleven men but shortly after the start three more came on, but they were always a man short besides lacking several of the regulars including Wilson, Fraser, Noble and Capt. Phil Willis.

Among the substitutes Gaul played well at center three-quarters and kept the opposite backs guessing with his swerving runs. Nixon also turned in a stellar performance, his white sweater being always visible where the play was thickest.

For a few minutes at the start of the game the Firemen were dangerous. Murray relieved with a well placed penalty kick. Varsity played the ball to their opponents 15-yard line through a series of runs. A forward pass necessitated a scrum from which Fell secured to carry the ball ten yards closer. Alpen opened the scoring for Varsity when he scooped up a loose ball and went over. Murray's well placed kick added two more points with a convert from a difficult angle.

Varsity maintained the offensive and forced the play to their opponents goal line where Farris dove on the ball for the second try. Murray's attempted convert was short by inches. Before the half ended U.B.C. added another five points, Fell scoring on a fumble, Locke converting the try to make the count 13-0.

At the commencement of the second half play centered about mid-field for several minutes. In an exchange of long kicks Firemen gained considerable territory bringing the ball to Varsity's twenty-five yard line. The city team then took the aggressive, a three-quarter run resulting in a try by Errington which was converted to give the Firemen their five points.

Varsity kicked off and pressed, the full-back's timely kick to touch relieving. The Firemen gained some lost territory on a free kick, bringing the play to center field. Then came the prettiest play of the game. Estabrook taking the ball on a pass from Barratt broke away, starting a three-quarter run which did not stop till everyone on the line had handled the ball, and the last man, Phil Barratt, placed it between the posts.

Before time Gaul secured a try for Varsity, bringing the final score to 19-5.

Playing for Varsity were: Ford, Locke, Fell, Gaul, P. Barratt, Estabrook, B. Barratt, Murray, Mason, Player, Farris, Sparks, Alpen, Nixon.

ALMA MATER SOCIETY AMENDS CONSTITUTION

Without discussion the Alma Mater meeting on Friday unanimously voted in favour of making the following amendments to the constitution:

1. To erect upon the lands of the University of British Columbia any erection, building, plant or equipment for the use of the Society, or of any of its associated organizations, provided always that the consent and approval of the requisite authorities shall have been first had and obtained.

2. To insure any such erections or buildings with the consent of the Board of Governors and the other requisite authorities, assign any moneys payable to loss, make such loss payable to, among others, any Trustee or Trustees for Debenture holders, and to insure all or any plant, equipment and personal property of the University and assign any moneys payable to loss.

These resolutions were read to the meeting by the president, Mr. Tolmie, and were passed unanimously. Those who had not already done so remained to sign the declarations of endorsement which are being circulated among the student body, according to the system by which the definite approval of the members of the Alma Mater Society is being obtained. The amendments will not become part of the constitution until the requisite number of names has been secured.

SOCCERITES SLUMP STOCK OF BROKERS

On Saturday, Varsity Junior Soccerites started the New Year by giving the Vancouver Stock Exchange an artistic lesson in chasing the round ball to the tune of 10-1.

The rejuvenated Gold and Blue squad at last came into their own and were superior in all departments of the game. The re-arranged forward line treated the spectators to a dazzling display of combination and shooting. Chalmers, supplying the much needed finish, led the line in superb fashion and the other men all played up to him and gave him perfect support. The defense was air tight but had little work to do, their chief trouble being how to keep warm.

The Students started with a rush and by half time had piled up the imposing lead of six goals. On the other hand the Exchange was easily held in subjection.

In the second half the Collegians played just as strongly, adding a further four goals. In this canto Stock Exchange found the net from a breakaway. When the final whistle blew the jubilant Soccermen cavorted to the dressing rooms after having scored the greatest and best deserved victory in the history of U.B.C. soccer.

Spectators were pleased with the good sportsmanship of C. Wright and T. Chalmers who both deliberately missed penalties given for accidental offences. The goal scorers were as follows: Chalmers, 5, McKellar, 3, England and King, 1 each.

Chalmers was perhaps outstanding, his sharpshooting leading Varsity to victory. McKellar turned in the best game of his sweet young life while the other forwards combined beautifully.

Women's Lit. Arranges Course Of Lectures in Public Speaking

The course of four lectures in public speaking given by the Women's Literary Society will take place informally in the Women's Upper Common room on four consecutive Wednesdays at 3 o'clock.

The first of these will take place Wednesday, January 16, when Judge Helen Gregory MacGill will speak on "Parliamentary Procedure." Judge MacGill, the only woman jurist in Vancouver, is judge of the Juvenile Court, and is well known throughout Canada for her active interest in university affairs as well as in juvenile welfare.

This address will be followed on January 23 by one on "Debating," by Prof. Harvey, head of the History Department. Dean Bollert's address on January 30 will be on "Public Speaking," while Miss Blanche Nelson will speak on February 5 on "Voice Culture."

This course has been arranged to meet the needs of many women students of this university, but it has been necessary to limit the number to the first forty who sign the list posted on the notice board. Those taking this course are under no obligation to speak or to spend time in preparation.

TO POINT A MORAL

We are going to be moral again. We suppose we ought to apologize, but we really can't help it. There is a certain predilection in the editorial mind which leads it, when it metaphorically chews its pen and muses upon its next effusion, to a consideration of those subjects the discussion of which is fondly believed to elevate the moral tone, to instil dofty ideals, and in general to bring up the much abused student body in the way it should go.

As the result of this distinctly praiseworthy characteristic of our own mind, we have cast a reflective eye over the various phases of the life of the campus, and have succeeded in gathering together a number of topics which, in the ordinary course of events, would probably be treated separately and at length in a series of ineffectual and insipid outpourings from the editorial pen. In order to avoid such frank confession of the extremities to which even the mightiest of intellects is sometimes driven, we decided to present these moral discussions in brief, in a series of topic sentences, which, we sincerely hope, will be sufficient to remind the reader of his duty upon such points. At the same time, this cursory method will release the victim from the monotony of digesting future editorials upon well-worn subjects, and ourselves from the unutterable boredom of composing such inanities.

Firstly, the Library staff has seen fit to issue new regulations regarding silence in the sanctum. The moral is obvious.

Secondly, the Cafeteria staff is still under the necessity of spending much valuable time in collecting the miscellaneous remains of approximately five hundred lunches. This is an appeal for co-operation.

Thirdly, the Annual staff has begun its yearly labours. It has become too cynical to expect even adequate support, but it it optimistic enough to believe that its frequent notices will at least be read, and possibly in one or two cases be carried out.

Fourthly, the Christmas Exams.—but we can't keep this up much longer. Anyone who has followed our discussion this far will probably feel, as we are beginning to realize, that we have been saying the same things for time immemorial, and that we shall probably continue to say them throughout an eternity which is too appalling even to suggest.

Faculty Briefs

Several professors have been ill lately. Prof. M. W. Williams has had a bad attack of the flu and is still too ill to return to his work. Prof. F. C. Walker has been very ill for some time. He will not be able to resume his work this month.

* * * *

Dr. T. H. Boggs is again lecturing in Economics. Early last fall he was in a serious motor accident in California. When the University reopened, his doctor would not allow him to take up his work. Since he has not yet recovered his full strength Dr. Boggs is at present only giving about one lecture a day. We are glad to have Doctor Boggs with us again and we appreciate the spirit he has shown in returning to his work, although he is not yet fully recovered.

* * * *

The course in Agriculture given each winter at this University commenced January 8 with an enrolment of eighty. Some difficulty has been found in obtaining lecture rooms owing to clashes with Philosophy I. and other subjects. We hope these clashes will soon be settled satisfactorily.

* * * *

From Agriculture comes another interesting piece of news. There is a strong rumor on the campus, based on truth, that one of the junior members of the agricultural staff is to be married at the end of this month. So far rumour has failed to disclose the name of the lucky (or unlucky!) man. No doubt he is bashful and has made all promise secrecy.

President Klinck is at present in Eastern Canada. So far he has not set the date of his arrival here.

There is an opportunity for three freshmen to "break in" on journalistic work. Apply to the Business Office of the "Ubyssey." Administration Building.

Anglican College Briefs

The Anglican Theological College opened for the new term on January 2, and now student activities are in full swing. A very interesting program has been arranged by the Literary Society, and several speakers have been invited, including some of the University professors. On the evening of February 6, a Student Social is to be held, when the staff of the college and friends of the students will be entertained by a musical program followed by refreshments.

At a meeting last week the Principal outlined to the students the nature and formation of a Parliament for debating purposes. The men expressed themselves in favour of the idea, and such a Parliament has now been formed. The first session is to be held on Monday, January 21.

Mussolini to be Subject of Interesting Debate

A splendid opportunity is being given to all students to hear an address to-day on "Mussolini and Present Day Conditions in Italy," by Harold Brown of this city. Mr. Brown has travelled recently in Italy where he has made a special study of this question. Since his return he has addressed the Canadian Club and several service organizations in the city. All are cordially invited to attend this meeting which is being held under S.C.M. auspices in Agr. 100 at 12:10 sharp, to-day.

AESTHETIC ESSAYS

The Fog

Our present almost daily fogs are perhaps the most enjoyable things to reach Vancouver since last winter. They are free tickets to another land. I do not refer to traffic smashes—to a fairyland of half-seen shapes and false distances.

To set out in the morning is like beginning a dream. Both surroundings and events are a dream-like mixture of the strange and the familiar, and everything is taken as a matter of course. In one respect it is even better than a dream, it can be appreciated while still in progress. Lectures and the University seem far off and incredible. They belong to other people, like accidents; or are too ultimate to worry about, like death, marriage or the April exams. Past and future are insignificant; the present is all-absorbing.

On a foggy morning it is best to travel by automobile. It is true that street-cars are safer, but, they are so full of reminders of Everyday that the effect of the fog is spoilt. A street-car, like a Scienceman, is a monument to its own enviroment.

Fog is not a mask but a revelation. It does not weaken perception; it strengthens it. Under ordinary circumstances every object is seen as part of its own surroundings. It has to fight with its background for a share in the limelight. Now the fog blots out the background and the object is conpicuous because solitary.

It takes a fog to teach the true value of car-tracks. Usually they are accessories to the tramcar-s daily crime of noise making, and the only thing in their favor is that they shine when the lamps are alight. But now they are silver threads leading through the Labyrinth. As we cruise along the middle of the road, they stretch some ten feet ahead of the car and point the way through chaos. Our driver follows them unswervingly and with complete trust. They are his mariner's compass.

The fog raises the driver of the car to an importance never enjoyed on clear days. Before, he ranked with chauffeurs; now, he takes his place with pilots, navigators and explorers. He is another Columbus sailing into the unknown. His followers may murmur of doubt (even a Columbus has back-seat drivers,) but he points not to a floating branch, but to a nameplate on a lamp post and the doubters are silenced.

Sunlight is deceptive. It is not until you drive through fog that you discover that the streets are the hunting grounds of monsters. In sunlight, these go about disguised as street-cars, trucks and other mechanical hideousnesses. But you have merely to see a street-car emerge suddenly from the mist, stare unblinkingly at you with its single eye and plunge forward with a roar only to miss you by a scant foot and you will know it for what it really is—a monster. And the street-car is not the worst. Humming up a hill in somebody else's Whippet, we heard a strange clanking and coughing. Nothing could be seen, but this noise was all about us. Suddenly we encountered the cause. Only the celerity of the driver saved us from the clutches of a new monstrosity, hunting prey in the very middle of the road. It missed us by barely an inch and its disappointed ravings followed us into obscurity. Yet, in daylight that terror passes unnoticed in the guise of a steam-roller.

Near the gates of this seat of learning the fog ends abruptly, probably the effect of the hot air, or perhaps by arrangement with the bus company. Here, the pilgrim of Learning emerges into the prosaic realty of the ordinary world. The fog is forgotten except as an excuse for being late.

THE MIRACLE

When they Say
That the age
Of miracles
Has passed,
Laugh at them.
Scorn,
Sneer
And deride the unbelievers,
For
One of the wonders has
Come to pass.
The Second Soccer Squad
The sole remaining survivor
Of the desolation
That has swept
Over Soccer
Won
Game.
Therefore let the Varsity
Be jubilant,
Not only because
The team
Piled up a huge score,
But
Because the crowd
U. B. C. supporters
Increased from three
To eight,
Making it a record
Crowd
Since that day it was
Rumoured that four students
Watched a game.
And Mabel, always
An ardent football follower,
Says she never was
So thrilled
As when the left outside
Mis-kicked and
Scored a goal!
All this may never
Happen again
So let us rejoice over
The incredible, startling, and Unexpected
Triumph.

Junior Hockey Loses To Meralomas 4-1

Varsity's Junior Hockey team lost a hard-fought game to Meralomas, 4-1, last Friday. In spite of the score Varsity held its own up to the last ten minutes of the game, when with the score tied 1-1, Meralomas slipped past three goals in quick succession.

Meralomas scored in the first period due to some good combination play. The second period was scoreless and in the third period Carswell equalized for Varsity on a splendid solo effort. At this point it appeared that Varsity would win but instead they suddenly wilted and lost.

The game was not up to the usual standard. It was marred by the unsteadiness of both teams. Over-skating the puck, passing where there was no one to receive, and frequent falls were common, but, although devoid of thrills, the game was interesting throughout.

For Varsity Willis and Carswell were outstanding. Willis had a busy night in goal and performed his duties like a veteran. Carswell scored Varsity's lone goal and was the most effective man on the ice. He played practically the entire game without a rest, travelling at full-speed all the time. Thorne and Pike worked hard and both had hard luck with their shooting. Callan, playing a good game at defence, was a little over-zealous and got two penalties. The absence of Smith and Mathews, the regular wingers, was a severe loss to the team and it is quite possible that with these two Varsity would have had the necessary extra strength to win.

As it was, the most conspicious weakness of our team was lack of practice. The boys were badly out of condition and it was small wonder since this was their first appearance on the ice since before Christmas. A few practices, however, will bring a great improvement; for the raw material of a real team is there.

The history of the University hockey team up to the present has been rather troubled. In their first game they drew with Ex-King George, a strong team. Then due to the Christmas exams, and the Victoria Invasion they were forced to default the next three games. For this they were threatened with expulsion from the league and they found their practice hours at the Arena had been appropriated by other teams. And last week, when there was no time for a practice Varsity was ordered to play Meralomas. So considering all things the team has not done badly and under their able manager and coach, Bill Selders, the team is certain to retrieve the name of the University in their next few games.

Soliloquies

The First Soccer team has been compelled to dissolve and the reasons for its dissolution are no doubt of the best, but it has done some noble things during its existence. To begin with, in losing a great many games, it has lost well, which to some is an unheard of thing. Secondly it is really incredible that the team voluntarily resigned its position as a major sport in favour of American or rather Canadian Rugby. But who knows? Perhaps the latter is really supposed to be a game. Yet I wonder if the sportsmanship that exists in C. R. would have agreed to such a proposal if the positions had been reversed?

Such distressing problems cause a myriad of innocent thoughts and possibly doubts.

The English have an idiom "to rise to the occasion." I think I should mention the fact that several members of the U.B.C. rose to the occasion on Friday night in the honourable purpose of Toc H. who with their help as a dance-band entertained an Institute of the Blind in Vancouver. There seems nothing extra-ordinarily exciting in this nor perhaps important, but (I have used the word before) it was under the circumstances, a thoroughly sporting thing to do. The world is made all the happier by sporting actions. To some this will merely be a truism but to a few others, a very strange ideal.

* * * *

I see that Willamette University has an official employment bureau for women and that is a success. It seems to me that U.B.C. could have something of this sort equally well, both for men and women. Of course it may be that we are reluctant to encourage anything of this sort because Vancouver is invariably void of reasonable positions. This can easily be learned by bitter experience.

There is no duty we so much underrate as the duty of being happy.—Ex., J.L.

SWIMMERS PREPARE FOR WINTER CARNIVAL

There are only fourteen days of practice left before the Swimming team representing the Universtiy of British Columbia leaves to attend the Banff Winter Carnival to compete in the annual swimming meet which has been the feature event of the Carnival for the past three years. In two out of three years the Varsity swimmers have captured the cup awarded the winning club. If natural ability and hard work do not bring the trophy to the U. B. C. again this year it will be a great surprise to followers of the sport.

The events for men are: 50, 100, and 220 yards freestyle, diving and a 4-man relay race.

The events for women are: 50 and 100 yards freestyle and a diving contest.

The teams will be selected by the coach and the number going and their choice will depend upon the standards attained and the amount of practice put in during the next two weeks.

The Memorial tank is open every morning from eight to half-past as well as during the regular evening periods for all aspirants to the teams. Practice at least once a day is advised.

INTERMEDIATE RUGGERS SCORE OVER EX-TECHS

Ringing up their eighth consecutive victory this season, Varsity Intermediate rugbyists humbled Ex-Tech at Renfrew Park, Saturday, by seven points to nil. The field was frozen and the grass wet, so the brand of rugby was of the rough and tumble variety, though not without flashes of fine play.

With two of their best men, Gaul and Nixon, playing with the Senior at Brockton Point, Varsity fielded only fourteen men, Cokie Shields being a notable recruit.

The first period was scoreless although Varsity had slightly the better of the play. Shields came near to scoring on a penalty kick.

In the second half, the Varsity team took things into its own hands. Twice the ball was dribbled across the Tech dead-line before it could be touched down. An almost certain chance to score failed when four Varsity forwards dribbled the ball across the line only to have it bounce sideways twelve feet into the arms of the only Ex-Tech. player at hand.

Varsity's first score came when Shield's dropped a perfect field-goal from the middle of a knot of players. Five minutes later Garner ran thirty yards for a splendid try. The convert failed. The Ex-Tech.'s still fought hard but could not break through. Two minutes from the end, Munn, the Varsity half-back, plunged across the line from a five-yard scrum, but the referee had apparently forgotten the advantage rule and awarded Varsity a free kick as an Ex-Tech. player had been off-side. The final whistle blew soon after.

Playing for Varsity were: Garner, Pilkington, Brent Brown, Wood, Baker, Martin, Burns, Munn, Chappelle, Terry, Shields, Gillespie and Bill Brown.

Badminton Senior Team Successful at Chilliwack

The Varsity "A" team went to Chilliwack on Saturday, January 12, and defeated a team of the 47th Battalion, Badminton Club, by a score of 20-4. However the play was not such a walk-over for the visiting players as the score seems to show.

Playing for Varsity were: Helen Matheson, Esther Eddy, Jean Russell, Margaret Lyle, N. Solly, J. Sparks, V. Fernie and B. Holmes.

Junior Class to Hold Election For New President

At a meeting held in Aggie 100 on Tuesday last, the class President, Jimmy Dunn, tendered his resignation owing to his appointment as Mens' Athletic Representative. Election of the new President will be held prior to the Class Draw on Wednesday 16 in Applied Science 100.

Bentley Edwards was elected new Men's Athletic Representative in place of Allan Todd who has left the University. Plans for the Class Party were discussed and it was decided that it will be held at Willow Hall on January 25.

All those who have paid their fees are earnestly requested to attend the Class Draw on Wednesday 16 in App. Sc. 100. Anyone wishing to enter the is hereby duly warned to pay the fees $1.50 before the draw.

Eric Simpson, Freshman rugby star, who broke a leg last term, is back again at the University after an absence of over a month.

Senior A Women Stars To Wrestle Meralomas

Senior "A" women hoopsters will stage a very important game when they meet the Meralomas' team on Tuesday night, at 8 o'clock, in the V.A.C. gym. The Varsity team have all their old stars back again in full force and are confident of a good season. They have been twice victorious over the Meralomas' team and with a little support in the shape of rooters, ought to play their usual fine game on Tuesday. The team will be: Thelma Mahon, Rettie Tingley, Claire Menten, Jean Whyte, Rene Harris, Marjorie Lanning, Mary Campbell.

Senior "B" women were forced to default to the "Witches" on Saturday night, owing to the illness of several of their players. The team will play its next game on Wednesday night at 7 o'clock, in the Normal gym., when they will challenge North Vancouver.

GOLFERS FORM PLANS FOR SPRING TOURNAMENT

There will be a meeting of the Golf Club on Friday, January 18, at 12:15 p.m., in Arts 104. The purpose of this meeting is to discuss the program for the spring term, especially with regard to the coming golf matches with Victoria College which are to take place towards the end of February, and with regard to the University Open Tournament. The results of the Faculty-Student matches will also be discussed.

The golf team sent to Victoria was composed of W. Keate, R. Arkell, R. Brown and G. Baker. It tied with the strong Victoria team with a score of 3-all, and it hopes to take the College team into camp when it invades Vancouver in February.
