BLACK-FACED FRESHMEN DANCE ROUND FIRE AT INITIATION ORGY

Freshettes Frolic in Rompers at "Kiddies' Party" in Gymnasium

The flames of a monster bon-fire revealed a grotesque sight when pyjama clad freshmen gathered about a huge fire at Recreation Park, concluding a strenuous day of initiation for the new-comers, on Friday, October 4th.

At 4.30 p.m., Freshmen gathered at the Normal School Gym. Attired in pyjamas, Frosh were admitted singly to the house of horrors. To commence the ordeal each blind-folded victim was liberally anointed with black and red paint, forced to walk the plank, fall over barrels and submit to a paddling on his seat of instruction.

A boisterous parade down Cambie Street ended at the Strand Theatre where the initiates were received by Jackie Souders who was also attired in pyjamas. The program included the "Innovation" and Frosh skits amid a barrage of large "streamers" thrown by the students.

A lengthy snake-parade winding through the Main Streets of the City disrupted the down-town traffic. Theatres, restaurants and beer parlors were stormed by the riotous mob which virtually took possession of the district.

The procession now headed for the Recreation Park where a 20 foot bonfire, surmounted by a dummy Sophomore, was set ablaze. More than three hundred Freshmen joined by men of the upper years formed a huge ring, and danced about the flaming pyre with the songs and yells of their Alma Mater.

The spectacle was witnessed by large crowds of Vancouverites lining the adjacent street. The City Fire Department was in readiness to prevent the blaze spreading to the adjoining buildings.

Approximately 350 seniors, juniors and Freshettes frolicked around the new gymnasium in the rompers, braids and ribbons of their childhood days, at the Freshette initiation on Saturday night from 7 till 10.

On her arrival the freshette was seized upon and "dragged" around the spacious gym floor to the tune of "Ring around the Rosy," "London Bridge is Falling Down," or "The Big Ship Sails on the Ally-Ally-O," or to just no tune at all. They were kept moving by snake runs or "Three Deep" and before they had time to really understand what it was all about ten very efficient Captains, gleefully aided by the big sisters hustled them off to receive some lollypops.

They were allowed time to digest these while Master Betty Whiteside called the role—and woe to any freshette during the coming weeks if she was not there to jump up and bow as her name was called!

Every thirteenth child among them was then called upon to come forward and perform and, as might have been expected, "Mary's Little Lamb," with variations was the most popular topic of kiddish and somewhat undignified comment during the following hour. It was relieved by an occasion-

Plans for Library Annex Submitted, Says Ridington

At present the University Library numbers 7200 volumes, 1600 of which have been acquired since the close of last term.

"It is not a general library," stated Mr. Ridington, the Librarian, "being designed solely to help the University students in their courses. There are whole fields of knowledge that are untouched, but within its limits it is an effective book collection, and an excellent working tool for students."

The collection is admirably housed, as the Library building is one of the finest of its kind in Western Canada. The space, however, is insufficient for the use that is required of it. An extension is urgently needed, pointed out Mr. Ridington, and plans have already been submitted for one, about half as large as the present structure, which will accommodate the reading room and a permanent periodical room.

A portion of the new books will be on exhibition every Friday afternoon in the Seminar room of the Library. This exhibition will be a regular feature throughout the session. By this means students may become acquainted with the new books before they are lost in the permanent section.

TICKETS ARE READY FOR FROSH

Tickets to the Frosh Reception will be given free to all undergraduates next Tuesday and Wednesday from 12 to 2. Arts students will receive their tickets from the Box Office in the Quad., Science and Aggie students from the Box Office in the Auditorium. Each undergraduate is entitled to one ticket. The attention of all students is drawn to the clause in the Constitution relating to attendance at University dances.

HELP WANTED, MALE

The Men's Undergrad Executive wants applications from reliable Varsity men for the position of door attendant at Varsity dances. Since there is a function almost every week the position would offer a fair source of pocket money. Those wishing to make application should see Doug. Macdonald before next Friday.

ARTS '33 MAKES HIT AT FIRST PEP MEETING

Arts '33, blossoming out into vaudeville for the delectation of their Alma Mater, staged a well-planned Pep meeting in the Auditorium, Friday noon.

The orchestra, led by Reg. Bromiley, played the opening number, a spirited movement from the Opus Freshman, entitled "Freshie." Solo parts were taken by Harold Harper on the accordian, and by Teddy Slingsby and Les Robinson, two of the Frosh vocalists. The orchestra also played the neat number "Walking With Susie."

Harold Harper played with great feeling on the piano-accordian the selection "Sweet Sue."

Information concerning the Smoker to take place on Saturday the 5th, was announced by Doug. Pollock, president of the Artsmen.

The entertainment was continued by Professor Fake who performed tricks so marvelous that the Sophs are still wondering how he did them. Professor Fake is registered at the University under the name of G. S. Palmer.

The masterpiece of the Pep meeting was the last number, played by the orchestra entitled "Berets and Skullcaps." Two freshettes composed the words. During the number Audrey Reid, Helen Thompson, Mary Darnbrough, and Mary Mathieson, danced very ably.

Those in charge of the Pep meeting were: Ina Armstrong, Bob Arkley, Molly Bardsley, Reg. Bromiley, Howard Cleveland, Mark Collins, Bill Dunford, Mary Darnbrough, Ronnie Howard, Jean Jamieson, Mary Matheson, Les Robinson and Ken Telford.

Tobacco Fiends Carol Gaily At Arts Men's Smoker

Freshmen and Upper-classmen met in a manner somewhat more cordial than at initiation at the Frosh Smoker held in the Eagle's Hall, Saturday night. Professors' speeches and piano solos by Malcolm Pretty featured the evening. Doug. Pollock was the official arbiter at the smoke-fest.

The evening's events started with "Jazz numbers" played by Jack Emerson's "British Columbians." Welcoming speeches were made by Dr. Sedgwick, Dr. Sage, Dr. Shrum, Dr. Davidson, and Professor Day.

Amateur clouting by U.B.C. Boxing Club represented by J. Tough, G. Ward, and Cliff Parker then held the attention of the fascinated Freshmen.

Malcolm Pretty took the crowd by

Soccer Team Soaks Police

Demonstrating how brains can beat brawn, Varsity Senior soccermen came from behind to hand the Policemen a 3-1 lacing, Saturday, at Kerrisdale Park.

The Students took the field with ten men for their opening engagement of the season and for five minutes until the arrival of the eleventh man were sore beset. The Bluecoats made the most of their opportunities however, and burst through the U.B. C. defense to bulge the net for the first score.

With a full line-up, Varsity took the game in hand and bombarded the opposing goal. A certain goal was fisted over by a defender but Phillip's drive from the ensuing penalty struck the bar. The Gold and Blue squad penned the burly "cops" into their own half, yet at half-time were still a goal to the bad.

After the oranges, with the sun in their eyes, Varsity continued to press, the forwards playing pretty football. After fifteen minutes' play, Wong broke through and placed his shot out of the goalie's reach to level the score. The cheering had scarcely died down when Partridge gave Varsity the lead with a beautiful header. The guardians of the law, stung by this reverse raided Student territory using their weight freely, but Manning and Roberts were safe and cleared repeatedly. Again the Gold and Blue attacked and Wong netted once more after a solo effort to make the game safe for the jubilant Students, who were still dangerous when the whistle blew.

The whole Varsity team played stellar football and were full value for their win. Chalmers and Cooke on their respective wings dropped in

Registrar Warns Students Of Irregularities in Courses

It has been called to the attention of the Registrar that several students have selected for themselves courses that are not in conformity with Calendar regulations. The rules in reference to the courses open to students in the different years are clear, and students must choose their courses on their own responsibility, though, if any student is in doubt, all possible information and assistance will be given to him on request.

A complete list of courses for First and Second year students is given on page 73 of the Calendar, and the regulations in regard to these are set forth on pages 72 to 74; no other courses are open to First and Second Year students. A full statement of the requirements in reference to the selection of pass courses in Third and Fourth Years is given on pages 75 and 76, and the regulations in regard to "Examinations and Advancements" on pages 88 to 91.

The Registrar wishes to draw the attention of students in Arts and Science whose standing is defective in any way to regulation "8," page 90 of the Calendar:

No student may enter a higher year with standing defective in respect of more than 3 units.

No student with defective standing of more than 3 units of the year immediately preceding or with any defects from a year earlier than the one immediately preceding, shall be allowed to register for more than 15

GRIDDERS TROUNCE WESTMINSTER IN INITIAL LIPTON CUP CONTEST

Shields and Parker Star as Students Perform Before Record Crowds

Trouncing New Westminster to the tune of 21-6, Varsity got away to a flying start in their opening game of the Canadian Rugby series on Saturday at Athletic Park. Before a record crowd, the students, by sheer fighting determination, pounded their way to a brilliant win over the team which only a week ago held Vancouver to a mere 3-0.

Varsity got away to a poor start when they fumbled the New Westminster kick-off and the Royal City men regained possession of the ball. However, the college line held firm and Westminster was forced to kick on their third attempt. Receiving d'Easum's punt on the deadline, Shields executed a brilliant run to recover fifty yards for the students. d'Easum, dropping with a thud before Shield's "straight arm," was carried off with a badly wrenched knee and was replaced at quarter by Coach George McMahon. U.B.C. followed up their advantage when Latta sneaked eleven yards around the end. Grauer immediately plowed through for four yards and Shields made fifteen with a fake kick. Latta and Grauer made further gains and Shields opened the scoring with a drop kick between the posts to make it 3-0.

Westminster, hard-pressed, adopted the kicking, and were out-played by the Varsity punters. U.B.C. regaining the ball, lost yards in two downs but recovered when Shields booted the spheroid sixty yards to the deadline for an additional point. The Royals failed to make yards and relinquished possession. Parker and Shields each completed good runs to carry the ball within striking distance of the touch line. After a series of bucks in which the line did some splendid offensive work, Grauer crossed for a touch. Shield's conversion brought the total score to 10-0 at the end of the first quarter.

Varsity gained possession of the ball when Grauer ran the kick back to centre, but losing yards, were forced to kick on the third. Westminster's

Debating Executive Threatens to Resign

Due to a difference with the Students' Council, members of the Debating Union Executive will resign on Wednesday, it was announced at a meeting that society held in Arts 108, Monday afternoon. A meeting is called for Wednesday when the matter will be discussed in detail.

The U. B. C. team for the New Zealand debate will consist of James Dunn and Frank Morley. The reception committee to entertain the visitors was also appointed.

Out of twelve persons trying out for admittance to the Debating Union, six were accepted. The possibility of further try-outs will be considered at the next meeting.

ANNUAL CAIRN CEREMONY IS WITNESSED BY FROSH

"Remember college traditions and revere the Cairn in order to be worthy of the spirit that made the Cairn a lasting tradition of our Alma Mater," said Russ Munn, president of the Alma Mater Society, during the ceremony at the Cairn at eight a.m. on Saturday, October 5th.

Mr. Munn also told the Freshman class of the great campaign held by former Varsity students to have the Varsity buildings built in their present location, and emphasized the fact that the Cairn, built by those students, represents one of the greatest traditions of a young University.

Elaine Colledge, president of the Women's Undergraduate Society then addressed the class and pointed out the tremendous difference between the new Varsity buildings and the old shacks at Fairview. She added that it is up to '33 to carry on the Varsity traditions with as fine a spirit and co-operation as the campaign of '23.

Introducing the Honor System, Douglas Macdonald, president of the Men's Undergraduate Society, stated that although it might at first appear ridiculous to the Frosh, it is really intensely serious and means a great deal to the whole Varsity. According to the system it rests entirely on the honor of the individual as a mature man or woman to uphold the standards of the University. Mr. Macdonald concluded by praising the Class of '33 as the best Freshman class in five years.

After the ceremony the entire class was served a free breakfast of coffee, rolls and jam in the cafeteria.

Arts '31 to Discuss Plans for Gift

A meeting of all those who have been able to make contributions to the Valedictory Gift of '31, is called for Wednesday, October 10, at 3 p.m., in room Arts 108. It is desired to complete an inventory of the work done this summer and to acquaint the Arts and Science classes of '31 and the University with the amount of material that has been so far collected. A plan of action for the winter months will be discussed, also means of raising funds for the furtherance of the idea. Members of the Valedictory Executive and anyone interested, particularly those who have gathered historical material this summer, are asked to attend. Anyone who has material for the Valedictory scheme but unable to attend the meeting, please communicate with Eric North, president of the '31 Valedictory executive.

Nominations are in Order For Freshman Executive

The past two weeks have helped to show to the class of Arts '33 some of its natural leaders. Others there are, no doubt, in Arts '33 who are willing and capable to serve on the class executive. On Monday, October 14 nominations will be received by the Junior Member of Council, Eric North. Elections will be held in the Auditorium on that day at 12.10 sharp. Nominations must be signed by ten members of the class. The positions to be filled by men are: president, treasurer, athletic representative, and literary representative. The positions for women are: vice-president, secretary, athletic representative, and literary representative. The class reporter may be either a man or a woman.

The current week is open for campaigning. Supporters of candidates may post bills, and for the two major offices, may call meetings at which candidates can address the class.

INSTITUTE LECTURES ARE OPEN AGAIN TO STUDENTS THIS WINTER

The opportunity for U.B.C. students to attend the Institute lectures is to be renewed this winter announces Prof. John Davidson. In the old days in Fairview the lectures were well attended by both students and faculty. The late Dr. F. F. Wesbrook, first president of the University, was instrumental in organizing the various educational bodies of greater Vancouver to form this central clearing house for the very best each Society could present, and the result has been an annual series of excellent lectures on a great variety of topics not usually covered in a University curriculum, and given by men who are specialists in their own particular field. It is an opportunity which all who can, should take advantage of.

This year the lectures will be held every Monday evening at 8.15 p.m. in the Science Building of the U. B. C. and the opening meeting is on Monday, 7th October, when Dr. Samuel Petersky, the President, will give an address on "The Newer Medicine,—Health Audits." Dr. L. S. Klinck will occupy the chair.

We hope to have the program of lectures in our next issue.

NOTHING SUCCEEDS LIKE SUCCESS

After a long and dangerous illness, the Varsity Soccer Club is well on the way to recovery. For the last three years the shattered remnants of the Faithful have gone forth weekly to almost invariable defeat but never gave in. Now with a hard working executive and plenty of enthusiastic material the club is revivified. The opening game of the season, last Saturday, gave the first team a chance to show its metal which resulted in the decisive defeat of the strong Police team.

The Soccer Club is one of the oldest in the University. Many of the present students will be surprised to learn that from 1920 to 1922, the Varsity team was one of the strongest on the coast, and occupied a place at top of the First Division. The slump that sooner or later effects every branch of sport set in a few years ago and student interest in Soccer waned. Last year the Soccer men showed themselves to be true sportsmen when they voluntarily resigned their Major Status to give place to the growing Canadian Rugby Club.

Now it seems that the dark days are over and the men who have been doing the pluckiest thing in sport—playing consistently for a losing team—are about to come into their own. The Ubyssey does not make a plea for student interest in this game, for it is a well-known fact that winning teams always draw supporters and therefore the Soccer Club seems destined to recruit a substantial body of followers.

INITIATION SUGGESTION

Last Friday's initiation celebration has made clear the need of more active supervision of all snake-parades if the good name of the University is to remain unsmurched. As always in such affairs, large numbers of non-university men—most of them the rougher element—joined in the procession and were directly responsible for a greater part of the damage done. These intruders have obviously no responsibility to hold them back. They rejoice in the opportunities for rowdyism, and whatever they do is done in the name of the University of British Columbia, an institution to which they do not belong and for which they care nothing.

The Initiation Committee took a great many precautions to curb and direct the exuberance of the Frosh, but failed to provide against interlopers. The Ubyssey suggests that in future parades of this sort there should be a number of third and fourth year students whose duty it is to warn off any non-university men. These students would know by sight most of the men of the three upper years and could not mistake the newly-initiated Freshmen.

A precaution of this sort would do much to prevent the wanton destruction of property which so frequently accompanies a snake parade and would ensure that the U. B. C. was judged by her own actions and not by those of a hooligan rabble taking advantage of an opportunity to break the law unscathed.

AN APPRECIATION

Dear Sir:

Initiation is over, and was considered by all—even the Freshmen—as quite a success. To anyone who kept in touch with the initiation program, which has been in operation during the whole of the last two weeks, it must have been evident that quite a number of ideas were collected in the complete program. A major portion of the credit for a successful initiation must go to Doug. Pollock, President of the A.M.U.S. A number of the new innovations including the Freshman committees, Pep meeting and bonfire, were his.

The theatre party was arranged chiefly by Irvine Keenleyside who secured the full co-operation of the Strand management for the event. Earl Vance, president of the Mamooks; Jack McDonald, president of Science, and Bill Roach, president of Agriculture, were tireless in their efforts in all departments and lastly, but by no means least, the Freshman by his splendid co-operation and fine sportmanship made the initiation program a success in his own interests and a pleasure to the entire initiation committee.

W. ERIC NORTH,
Chairman, Initiation Executive.

MANY TRYING FOR PLAYERS' CLUB

One hundred and forty students, the largest number yet had by the club, have applied for membership in the Players Club. Try-outs are to be held on Wednesday and Thursday, and on Tuesday the names of the successful aspirants will be announced. It is known that among the newcomers to the University there is excellent material, so the club is hoping for a very successful year.

The students of the University have always received with great enthusiasm the presentations of the club, and with no less enthusiasm has the public of Vancouver and the province welcomed any of its performances. So with the members already known for their ability, and with the additional talent being received in the new members, there is every reason to look forward to greater things than ever from the University Players Club.

RETURN YOUR TRAYS

The Cafeteria management wishes to remind all students that the trays must be taken back after use.

SOMEWHERE

Somewhere, with painted pageantry, the trees
Flaunt their defiance of the tyrant's will:
A million pennants taunt the chilling breeze
From woods in panoply upon the hill,
And ordered rows that line the streets of towns
Arrayed in russet robes and golden gowns
Make brave display.

Somewhere is glorious struggle—grim defeat—
Life—death—and life in death—and victory:
With pomp and splendor now the ripe months meet
Their doom—re-act the yearly history
Of change and Winter's conquering rage
Which reigns till, hope resurging, signs appear
Of new life that demands its heritage,
And burts into its own . . . somewhere . . . but here
Is green monotony.

BUSINESS PLANS FOR COMING YEAR ARE OUTLINED TO '31

Arts '31 held its first class meeting last Monday. The greater number of the class voted for wearing of gowns on the campus and pledged themselves to do so.

A report of last year's work was read by the retiring secretary and special thanks were voted for the help given to the class by Dr. Sage and Mr. Matthews.

A special fee of 50c. was levied to each member of the class for the current expenses of the Valedictory Gift plan. Eric North, chairman of the Valedictory committee, shortly outlined what these expenses were and mentioned the success with which the plan had so far received. Ordinary class fees will be, as last year, $1.50, payment of which will be expected within the next week.

Two class functions are planned for this year. The annual tea-dance will be held on November 14, and the class ball will take place in the Gym. on February 14. The above dates are tentative.

The stock of Arts '31 class pins, carried by O. B. Allan, has run out and those members who want pins should get in touch with the '31 secretary. A list will be made out and an order sent in this week.

Lists will be posted for members who are going to wear gowns. An order will be sent into the curator as soon as the Arts '31 members sign up.

Wonderful progress has been reported by the Valedictory committee. A display of the material collected this summer is to be held soon. Material should be sent into Eric North or Jean Telford at the earliest possible date.

S.C.M. ANNOUNCES CHANGES IN PROGRAM FOR YEAR

During the college year upon which we are now entering, the Student Christian Movement will be a centre for students who are interested in the Christian religion and its implications for modern life.

Numerous irregular gatherings will be held from time to time; a number of groups will meet regularly, following a definite course of study throughout the year. Also there will be held several conferences. These take place out of town and occupy a week-end or longer. The program includes discussion and Chapel services. These conferences usually occur as follows: two in the fall, one at Christmas, one in the early spring and one after the spring examinations. Most of the organized study groups meet weekly. Sharman's "Jesus of the Records," personal religious questions and comparative religion are some of the topics.

Many people who found the Tuesday-noon meetings of the S.C.M. to be very valuable last year will be very sorry to learn that they are being discontinued. It is felt that the energy of the Movement should be directed to more essential phases of its activity. An effort will be made, however, to have occasional public addresses.

During the past summer much of the campus activity was continued. A group meeting in Vancouver during June and July studied Streeter's "Reality." Several spent two weeks camping together and studying Sharman's "Jesus of the Records." Six B.C. people attended the National Committee meeting and Central Area Conference at Elgin House, Muskoka.

units of work, these units to include the subjects (or subjects) in which he is conditioned or permissable substitutes.

Also the attention of partial course students in Arts and Science is called to regulation "2," page 89 of the Calendar:

The passing mark will be 50 per cent. in each subject, except in the case of First and Second Year students who, during one session do 15 units of regular work, in which case an aggregate of 50 per cent. will be required and not less than 40 per cent. in each subject. In Beginners' Greek and Beginners' German, however, the passing mark is 50 per cent. In any course which involves both laboratory work and written examinations, students may be debarred from examinations if they fail to present satisfactory results in laboratory work, and they will be required to pass in both parts of the course.

Any student taking less than 15 units, or pursuing an irregular course is a "Partial Course Student" and can be given credit only in those subjects in each of which he makes 50 per cent. or over.

Kiddies Party Initiates Freshettes

al drag or solo—"I Love Coffee" preferred, rendered with the proper amount of feeling. Songs and yells ably led by little ladies Elaine College, Marian Grant and Margaret Muirhead, concluded the kindergarten part of the evening's entertainment.

The Freshettes were then called forward by the president to take a pledge of loyalty to their Alma Mater Society, obedience to the rules and regulations of the University and the edicts of the Students' Council and to act to the utmost of their ability upon the truth of the words "Tuum Est"—It's up to you.

NOTICE!

Students who have not already done so should report to the Registrar's office at once their Vancouver addresses and telephone numbers.

Soliloquies

I notice with some interest the remarks of an honorable colleague who perpetuates judicious reflections as "Jottings of a Junior." Already he has dared to stone the Students' Council in regard to their endeavors to quell indoor destruction of University property. And mark you, in the phraseology of the professional speakers, with such 'vigorous vigour!' Let us bow ourselves before this great wisdom!

Though, upon my word, I can't as an afterthought, imagine the Frosh informing the Council 'where to go,' as he so naively describes it. Nearly all the Freshmen I know are far too polite to relieve their feelings in such a way.

But to sum up the whole matter, instead of, as he says, 'closing one eye and putting a shade over the other,' (I stagger before such eloquent wit) turn to Shakespeare: "There is a time and place for all things." Of course this has already been stated in a recent editorial, and no doubt the Council know best of all, how to deal with the situation.

Gridders Win 21-6

advantage was short-lived, for Smith smothered their third down for a loss of two yards. Shields got away on the first for yards. The Collegians lost possession on a fumble but regained immediately with an intercepted pass. Another fumble was saved when Camozzi covered the elusive leather. Patterson's deadline tally made it eleven to nil.

From their own tweny-five yard marker, New Westminster was forced to kick to Patterson who was smeared for no gain. Varsity advanced eight yards but lost on the third down. New Westminster's attempted forward pass fell into Gordon's clutches, only to be lost after a twelve-yard sneak. Coleman was toppling the Westminster huskies with low deadly tackles. Half time found the score still at 11-0.

Varsity started the second session in fighting mood and made successive gains. Westminster, however, took heart from Shield's loss of twenty yards and in the next two downs made twelve yards on bucks and fifteen on a neat forward pass. Ken McDonald then brought the stands to their feet in a spectacular thirty-five yard gallop, and two downs later crossed the line for the visitors' first score. Olson's convert brought the board to 11-6. After the kick-off New Westminster started with a seventeen-yard forward pass but a second attempt proved futile. Max McDonald was badly hurt when the Varsity wing men dropped him on a catch. Duncan and "Tip" Robertson drew five minutes apiece for their pugilistic propensities.

The Royals began the final frame on their own thirty-yard line. Coleman nailed his man on the second down. Parker caught the kick and on the first down romped around right end for a pretty gain of thirty yards. The fight swung from end to end until Shields' twenty-yard run again brought the ball into enemy territory. New Westminster gained, only to be forced back for a safety touch. On an exchange of punts Shields kicked to the deadline to ring up 14-6.

New Westminster again essayed a forward pass with disastrous effect as Parker, scooping it up, dashed thirty yards to put it across. Shields converted and scored another deadline counter a minute later as the final whistle sounded. Final score, 21-6.

Varsity's line, which once more looks good for the traditional "stonewall" sobriquet, disconcerted the visitors who expected to gain heavily on line play and the forward pass. Although they completed two fine passes as a result of Varsity's inexperience with this form of attack, these were well covered in the later stages of the game. Varsity's backfield, though ragged at times due to the short training period, executed some neat open field work, especially during the last half. Dr. Burke has put the University further in his debt by the showing of his squad. Last Saturday has definitely banished the Royal City's rosy hopes, if any, for this season.

storm with his syncopated music. Everyone crowded around the piano and sang the songs he played.

Refreshments in the novel form of cider, apples, cheese and crackers nourished the famished throng. Tobacco and clay-pipes were also distributed to the smokers.

INTERMEDIATES WIN AGAINST SEAFORTHS IN OPENING FIXTURE

Three-quarters Dominate Play

The Intermediate "A" team of English Ruggers started the season with their old-time dash to triumph over the Seaforths by an 8-0 score. The Seaforths were on the defensive throughout and never threatened the Varsity goal_line.

The honor of the victory rests mainly with the three-quarters who had it all over their opponents and were only prevented from adding more to the score by the narrowness of the small Renfrew field. The forwards had a slight edge on the soldiers in the scrum and line-outs, but could just hold their own in the loose where lack of condition slowed down their game. Varsity had two notable pieces of bad luck when the ball rolled across the dead-line before it could be touched down.

Varsity began well and soon had the Seaforths on the defensive. Berridge, the Seaforth full-back, played perfectly and time after time prevented a score. Finally, following a throw in, after Davidson was forced out of touch after a gallant plunge to within two feet of the goal-line, the threes passed the ball across the field and sent Norman over for the first three points. The Seaforth defense tightened and the rest of the period was scoreless.

The second period was much the same as the first. An easy penalty kick with the Seaforth twenty-five yard line was badly fumbled. Varsity's score came when Norman scooped up the ball and sprinted along the side-line for a try. He converted, making the score 8-0. Varsity continued to press but could not cross the line again. Norman and Munn were the pick of the backs, while Brent Brown in the line-outs and Davidson in the loose, showed up well among the forwards.

The team was: Hisetle, Waites, Brown, Cleveland, Norman, Pollard, Munn, McIlmoyl, Davidson, Shaneman, Pilkington, Burns, Brent Brown, MacConnachie and Wood.

Junior Soccerites Are Snowed Under

The Varsity Junior Soccerites, opposed by the Renfrew Argyles, were defeated by the overwhelming score of 12-0 last Saturday afternoon.

Varsity lacked pep, especially in the second half, due no doubt to Friday's hectic initiation program. However, it canot be denied that Varsity had a hard nut to crack when confronted with the excellent combination and tricky footwork of the Renfrew eleven.

Very fast football dominated the first half, both teams making sudden, spasmodic attacks. Whereas Renfrew took advantage of its opportunities which resulted in five goals being scored in quick succession after ten minutes play, Varsity lacked the punch at the crucial moments.

Renfrew, having complete control of the situation, continued its success in the second half and brought the score to 12-0 after twenty minutes had elapsed. Varsity strove valiantly to score but the repeated efforts of the forwards, none of whom proved dangerous, were of no avail.

Dickson, playing left half, starred for Varsity. Time and again he repulsed dangerous rushes and gave splendid support to the forwards. Farnden, between the posts, played well and the shots that passed him gave him no chance. Thain, Wiles and Pollock turned in a good defence but were no match for Renfrew's superior team play.

Varsity's line-up: Farnden, Thain, Mundie, Pollock, Dickson, Hammett, Smith, Southey, Fraser, Verdiel.

OUTDOORS CLUB PLANS TRIP

The Outdoors Club will make a trip to Crown Mountain on the week-end of October 12th and 13th. The party will stay at the Club cabin on Grouse Moutain on Saturday night and the trip will be made on Sunday. As this has always proved to be an interesting trip a good turn-out is requested.

A special meeting of the club will be held in Room Applied Science 237 at noon on Friday of this week. Prospective members are invited to attend.

MEN'S GRASS HOCKEY LOSES TO CRUSADERS

Saturday marked the beginning of the Grass Hockey season. Varsity played the Crusaders at Connaught Park, losing to the City team by a score of 3-1. Semple, playing centre forward, scored the only goal. The repeated attacks of the forward line were effectually checked by the strong defense of the Crusaders.

The forward line of the Varsity team is very promising, from the excellent combination displayed and with more practice will make a very hard line to buck.

The line-up was as follows: Forwards, Semple, Jackson, Ward, Holmes and Ritchie; Halfs, Preston, Craster and Barclay; Backs, Lee and Knight and Bischoff in goal.

The Varsity and U.B.C. teams will practise every Wednesday at the playing field in front of the Collegiate and Dalhousie rooms. The coach will be on hand at 3.15 p.m., so every one should turn out as soon after 3.00 as possible.

Hockey Schedule Is Drafted

The Ex-High Women's Grass Hockey League has been definitely organized and a general meeting will be held on Friday night, 8 o'clock, at th Normal Auditorium to which all members of all teams are invited. Varsity is entering two teams, Normal school two, Ex-Britannia one and South Hill one.

On Saturday, Varsity "A" will play Normal "A", Varsity "B" will play Ex-Britannia, Normal "B" will play Ex-South Vancouver.

Practise will be held Wednesday afternoon as usual and all those wishing to play must be out.

perfect centres, Partridge and McKeller were fast and tricky while Wong kept the line together in fine style. Phillips at centre was a host in himself with his fearless tackling and long swinging passes, and was well supported by Stafford and Wright. The backs scarcely put a foot wrong, their volleying of the ball being particularly noteworthy.

Varsity: McGregor, Roberts, Manning, Wright, Phillips, Stafford, Chalmers, Partridge, Wong, McKeller and Cooke.
