There are no better Mantels on the market today than "MODERN MANTELS," so far as workmanship, material and designs are concerned. There are more expensive Mantels, hand-made pieces especially designed to fill some particular spot or recess in a mansion, but even they do not represent or typify greater care in the construction or show greater beauty of design than the different styles we carry in stock.

Just arrived Two car-loads of "MODERN MANTELS" samples of which can be seen at our show-rooms
