TO CO-OPERATE IN BERRY MARKETING

Although the Saanich and Gordon Head Fruit Growers' Associations failed to enter the recently formed Berry Growers' Co-operative Union of B. C. after a series of conferences, an arrangement has been made between the Vancouver and lower mainland growers whereby they will all co-operate in the marketing of their 1923 crop.

The arrangement agreed upon means that the 1923 berry deal will be handled in precisely the same way as far as the producing end is concerned, as last year.

At Friday's meeting a committee comprising Messrs. E. M. Gilland, E. Doberer, W. F. Somers, president of the Gordon Head F. G. A., and H. E. Tanner, manager of the Saanich F. G. A., was appointed to meet in Vancouver on Wednesday, April 11 to make further arrangements with regard to the marketing of the crop.

BRIGHT LAD CALLED TO AN EARLY GRAVE

The young friends of John Thomas Weston and family were surprised to hear that he had passed to the great beyond on Tuesday afternoon last after a short illness.

The funeral took place this afternoon at the Hazelwood Cemetery, Rev. A. H. Priest, conducting the services, the pallbearers being Frank Rucker, Charlie Roberts, Fred Taylor and Joe Audrey, school boy friends.

The deceased lad was a valuable employee of F. J. R. Whitechelo, Ltd. up until the time of his illness; and was a general favourite with his boy friends and school chums. He was 18 years, 8 months and 4 days old, and was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Weston of St. Nicholas, Ontario, and has been in B. C. for five years, three of which have been spent in Abbotsford, where he attended school.

The Flu has taken away many in its ravages, but none that will be more regretted than the deceased young man, for he was considered in every way one that would be honored and respected by all.

MUCH BUSINESS BROUGHT TO BOARD OF TRADE COUNCIL

A well represented meeting of the Council of the Board of Trade was held in the Bank of Montreal Chambers on Monday evening, Mr. F. J. R. Whitechelo presiding, all the chairmen of the various committees being present.

It was decided to add an arbitration committee to the standing committee of the Board, and Mr. Durrant was selected as chairman of this committee and Legal Council of the Board.

The secretary was instructed to write the Mission City Board of Trade re cost of oil for roads, and recommended that oil prices be obtained from the Union Oil Co. and others.

The lighting of the town is to be again looked into and something definite done at once if possible.

Mr. R. J. Shortreed, chairman of the Roads Committee presented a lengthy report of work proposed to be brought before the authorities for completion this fall.

Mr. N. Hill tendered his resignation as secretary of the board.

Dr. Quinn was asked to join the health committee and assist in making a report to the board on sanitary matters and the provision of a refuse dump.

The secretary was requested to write to the Hon. E. D. Barrow asking him to meet the board as soon as possible, and the chairman of the entertainment committee was instructed to arrange for a luncheon on the date that would suit Mr. Barrow's convenience to be present. Local matters will be discussed.

A jolly house party was held at the home of Mrs. A. McInnes on Wednesday evening in honor of her guest, Miss May Campbell, who leaves for her home in New Westminster at the week-end.

Services will be held in St. Mathew's Anglican Church at Abbotsford every Sunday night at 7:30. Rev. A. Harding Priest, vicar.

ROADS PARAMOUNT IN MATSQUI AREA

MATSQUI, April 9.—The new road-bed to be laid along the Turner and Fore roads seriously concerns the adjoining landowners. On Saturday they made their third appearance, this year before the council.

The delegation expressed willingness to shoulder one-fourth of the cost, under a local improvement by-law, in addition to the general taxes. With the grading this will amount to a little over $2000.

Whether crushed rock shall form the foundation is still debatable, some of the farmers doubting the ability of the crushers to deliver the rock, but Mr. Carl Poignant assured the council that he was already crushing more daily than could be carted away.

Decisions on contracts and appointments were adjourned until April 21, when the engineer's report is expected. A contract for graveling the Bates road at $1.10 per yard was given to Marion Smith.

The Matsqui police commissioners consider that a lock-up is now necessary in the district. It is not seemly that the chief of police should keep in his own house persons under temporary arrest. Abbotsford is too far away, and the costs there charged would soon pay for a municipal jail.

A small police court with a lock-up cell will be built near Mount Lehman station, B. C. E. Railway, the courtroom to be used as a municipal office as required.

Chief of Police T. Lehman was appointed forest prevention officer under the Provincial Government.

A request from the council to the B. C. E. R. for crossing lights at Bradner, Dennison and Mount Lehman points was countered by another from the superintendent asking what the Canadian National and Great Northern railways were doing in the matter, as railroads are not expected by law to put lights at their crossings.

After passing a resolution early in the year that indigent patients be treated at the hospital in the municipality, the council murmured faintly when a bill of $1100 was presented from the Vancouver General Hospital. It is hoped that these patients are not all indigent.

The ratepayers of Ward One delegated ex-councillor Melander and Trustee Tracey to place their grievances before the council.

The community of Peardonville near the international border, is the furthest settlement in the municipality from highways and shipping centres. The residents, therefore, claim the justice of a good road out, requesting that the Peardonville trunk road be built up for heavy traffic.

In the regrettable absence of Councillor Gledhill through illness, Councillor Mutch promised assistance. Mr. C. F. Smith, whose importunity has extended over several years and councils, succeeded in obtaining a little attention in his efforts to get a road from his property to Road B. C. E. Railway station.

The band boys are talking of asking the public to build them a band stand this summer. The band has been doing their best to keep Abbotsford on the map musically and they think they should have their wish gratified in this matter.

BASKET SOCIAL IS A DECIDED SUCCESS

The basket social held under the direction of the Orange Lodge in the Orange Hall on Monday evening was a decided success, and a very happy evening was enjoyed by the large attendance.

A nice programme was given in which the following took part: Lloyd Vannetta, piano selection; vocal selections, J. Downie; vocal solos, Mr. S. Brown; musical trio, Mrs. Walters, and the Misses Clara and Doris Walters; vocal solos, Mr. Allan Hill; recitations, Mr. Snashall, Prof. Hill-Tout, an old-timer in Abbotsford who has recently returned here, was chairman for the occasion.

Mr. J. Wood was pianist for the evening, and the Wood's orchestra supplied music for dancing. Prizes for the best waltzing were won by Miss Isabell McPhee and Mr. E. Chevalley. For the best decorated basket the prize went to Miss Laura McKinnon.

MRS. N. M. KEEPING BURIED AT MUSSELAWHITE

The funeral was held on Thursday afternoon, from the family residence to Mulletwhite Cemetery of Mrs. Nora Morrison Keeping, who passed away at Straiton on Tuesday, after a lingering illness.

The deceased was fifty-eight years of age, and had resided in Straiton for the past thirteen years, coming from Manitoba. She is survived by a husband, Mr. E. Keeping, two daughters, Blanch and Florence, and three sons, Charles, Arthur and Mark, all living at Straiton.

The pallbearers were A. McKinnon, D. Mathers, J. Brienner, F. Thomas, J. Weinstein and J. Ward. Beautiful flowers were received from the family, and Straiton friends also Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Straiton and Mrs. A. Barker. The services at the house were conducted by Mr. S. Good.

The sympathy of a very wide circle of friends is extended to the bereaved family, who are highly respected in the district.

MACCABEES DANCE HELD ON FRIDAY LAST

The dance held by the W. B. A. of the Maccabees last Friday evening was a very enjoyable affair. The finances were a little low, expenses barely being met.

The balloon dance which was the feature of the evening made much merriment. Prizes were won by Miss Evelyn McMenemy and Mr. A. Ayres.

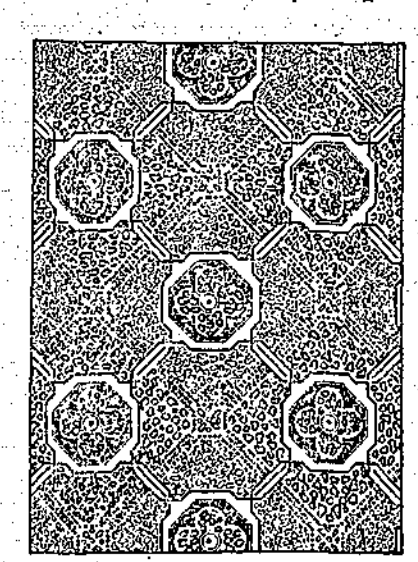

Hon. E. D. Barrow, minister of agriculture, was a visitor in town yesterday on his way to the Sumas Dyke.

Mr. Fred Parton is home from Hammond nursing a sore foot.

Mr. W. Harknes of Vancouver visited his home at the week-end.

FRIDAY, APRIL 13, 1923

Elsewhere we publish a synopsis of the speech made by Gen. McRae at New Westminster last Thursday evening. Space does not permit our giving as detailed an account as we would like but it is enough to show that the general is really no amateur in politics even if it is his first venture politically. He told all about himself and yet there seems to be a certain amount of information lacking that one would expect him to give. How he rose from a farmer boy in Ontario to a possessor of $2,000,000 in the big lumber company, from which he has never gotten a dollar in returns, and yet carries on at an expense of at least $25,000 a year, reads like a fairy tale. It is a record for a farmer boy, and there are but few Ontario farmer boys in his class, even if strict attention is given to business. How did he do it? Instead of being in politics he should be conducting classes, teaching your young men how to attain rank in the millionaire class—the ambition of many young men when they start out in life. In that sphere we believe he would do much more good than reforming politicians like Bowser and Oliver, who appear to be out only for the "spoils of victory."

However Gen. McRae is in the political field to reform and stop the "financial debauch" that has been going on for many years, according to his estimate. He places both the Liberals and the Conservatives in the same class. The field of making reformed politicians is a rich one for cultivation. Undoubtedly this campaign that Gen. McRae is carrying on will start something before next election day. Most people look upon politics and smile, but sensible people know that politics are no more corrupt than the demands of the people, neither side having the monopoly, and the leader of the provincial party is telling the people nothing but what they know to be true. When the present Liberal government came into power there was a great cry to do away with political patronage. Today patronage is as strong as ever it was, in the opinion of many, but are the political representatives to blame? If there had been no men who demanded a reward for the political help given during the day of battle, probably the government would have been able to carry out the policy of no patronage. So long as the present system of government is continued so long will there be demands for rewards, and if Gen. McRae ever reaches office in Victoria he will find out how long he will last unless he passes along to the victors, who will stand side by side with him, some plum to recognize the victorious aid given. Possibly reformers look upon patronage as the worst evil in politics, but to do away with it is a Herculean task that few public men dare carry out to the full letter of the law. And after all should not the good jobs be given to the faithful if they want them.

Now that an inside glance into the life of the new provincial leader has been given, the Liberals and the Conservatives will have a free hand to delve into some of the undertakings with which the new leader has been connected.

"Show me," says Mr. Pattullo minister of lands for this province, in speaking of the "exodus to the United States" from Canada. He has started something that we sincerely hope he will be able to finish, and when finished we will have some true facts in regard to this matter. It is said that 1,381,665 people have left this country for the United States. It does not state during what period this is. It is also stated that in 1921 the end of a ten year period that there were 9574 more people left for the States than came from the States to Canada. Mr. Pattullo after investigation thinks about one-third of this amount would be nearer correct. We have heard figures quoted that would make any honest Canadian blush for the honor of his country. The moral effect of the publication broadcast of thousands of people leaving monthly for the United States is bad, and we really believe that it is only a campaign of advertising started by Americans for the purpose of making Canadians believe that all opportunities, or a great majority of them, are to be found in the United States in preference to Canada, when as a matter of fact there are unbounded opportunities in Canada. Mr. Pattullo has started a "boost" for Canada that we should all keep going.

High taxation is given the reason why so many people leave the Canadian soil to live in the United States. But gentleman, although we have high taxation in Canada, how many of us have lived in the United States to test taxation there? Years ago, before the war, taxation in Canada was a tame affair compared with that in Uncle Sam's dominions, and if we went deeply into the matter today we would probably find it the same. Of course we could do with less taxes in Canada, especially British Columbia, but we never hear of American citizens complaining much about the taxes they have to pay in Canada.

Let us not knock our own country but emulate the policy, started by Pattullo and call it the "Show Me" Club.

EXODUS TO U. S. EXAGGERATED

OTTAWA, April 7.—That "misleading statements" concerning the flow of emigrants from Canada to the United States were being used by members of the federal house on which to base arguments for the government's immigration policy was the opinion of Hon. T. D. Pattullo, minister of lands in the British Columbia Government, as expressed here Friday night. Mr. Pattullo has lately returned from New York on his way west.

He said that he had seen some figures submitted by E. J. Garland, M. P. for Bow River, which were to the effect that Canada had lost through emigration to the United States 1,381,665 people. Mr. Pattullo said that this was "absolutely wrong and misleading," and arguments based on such figures were unsound.

More Coming In.
Mr. Pattullo said that for the ten years ended 1920 more settlers had arrived from the United States than had departed from Canada. During 1921, however, there had been a flow the other way, but not nearly enough to make an aggregate loss to Canada of 1,381,665 as Mr. Garland was credited with saying. As the result of his careful investigations he had arrived at the result that the total difference between those leaving Canada for the United States during the ten years ended 1921, exceeded by 9574 those who came from the United States in the same period.

Hon. Charles Stewart, acting minister of immigration, said Mr. Pattullo had also been guilty of offering "unreliable figures." At one time Mr. Stewart had been reported as saying Canada had lost 2,000,000 people to the United States, said Mr. Pattullo.

Makes Own Estimate
He had examined the figures and had come to the conclusion that the correct figures were nearer 500,000 than 2,000,000. He said that while examining these figures he had found the startling fact that 900,000 who had died had been included in the total of those who had gone south.

Mr. Pattullo said that they experienced the same difficulty in arriving at conclusive figures at Washington than we do here. "If you look up the figures you will find that the increase of population in the United States for the ten-year period ended 1921 was not proportionately as great as the increase in population in Canada. There is at the present moment no doubt that the exodus from Canada is greater than the influx, but this is only a temporary condition. What we need now to stop emigration is immigration."

If the country would open its gates wide and allow large numbers of immigrants, Mr. Pattullo was confident that the result would be an immediate boom in Canada.

The farmer who plans ahead gets ahead.

D. C. Teachers Elect Officers at Convention

VANCOUVER, April 7.—Mr. G. A. Ferrousson, principal of King Edward High School, was elected president of the D. C. Teachers' Federation to succeed Mr. J. C. Lister, who has held the position for several years.

Mr. Lister received a great ovation on his retirement at the closing session, and a motion was passed by acclamation making him a life member of the executive body. A unanimous resolution was also taken in favor of a presentation to the retiring president as a mark of the esteem of the federation.

Members of the executive elected according to the district they represented were: Messrs. J. B. Brady, Northern B. C.; A. S. Matheson, Okanagan; W. Garner, West Kootenay; G. S. Wilson, Fraser Valley; J. D. Bonnet, North Vancouver; H. W. Laffert, Point Grey and South Vancouver; S. J. Griffiths, L. E. Morrissey, Central, B. C.; Dr. R. Anderson, Vancouver; Miss B. Alward, Victoria; P. H. Sheperd, Fernie and E. S. Martin, North Vancouver Island. This executive will elect vice-presidents and other necessary officers in executive session.

A number of general resolutions affecting the policy of the federation were then dealt with, one of the most important of which, from the point of view of the public, was among those referred to the executive for action. This was a resolution seeking to have section 159 of the School Act amended to the effect that it should not be considered a defense to proceedings for non-attendance that a child was attending a school providing efficient training, unless, in the opinion of the school inspectors, that school was as efficient as the public schools and satisfactory from the standpoint of premises, staff and equipment.

Other Resolutions Adopted
A resolution, asking the department to formulate a regulation whereby all teaching certificates should automatically lapse if their holders had not engaged in teaching for five consecutive years, was carried.

Arising out of the general complaint that living conditions for teachers in rural communities are not as they should be, a resolution was passed recommending all members of the federation to make definite enquiries about such conditions before accepting service in such districts.

It was further decided that a grant of $1600 be sent to the Canadian Teachers' Federation to be applied to a fund for aiding teachers who had suffered losses through difficulties encountered with school boards and special reference was made to some districts of Manitoba and to New Westminster.

DAIRYING A WORLD INDUSTRY

The international character of the dairy industry is responsible for the organization of the World's Dairy Congress Association. Under the auspices of this body and of the government of the United States a World's Dairy Congress has been arranged to be held in Washington from October 2 to 5 this year. The vast extent of the dairy industry and its international status are recognized by those responsible for the congress. Scientists, health officials, government officials, social welfare workers, and producers, manufacturers, and distributors of milk and milk products will contribute to the discussions. These will relate to improving the quality and reducing the production and handling costs of dairy products and improving national health through their more general use. The international aspect of the commercial side of dairying has not been overlooked. It is recognized that the movement of surplus dairy products from Australia, New Zealand, the Argentine Republic and South Africa northward profoundly affects prices in Canada, the United States and Western Europe. The Congress is called together by President Harding, who has been authorized by Act of Congress to invite foreign representatives to attend.

WHEN TO MARRY

Marry when the year is new—
Always loving, kind and true.
When February brides do mate,
You may wed, nor dread your fate.
If you wed when March winds blow,
Joy and sorrow both you'll know.
Marry in April when you can—
Joy for maiden and for man.
Marry in the month of May,
You will surely rue the day.
Marry when June roses blow,
Over land and sea you'll go.
Those who in July do wed
Must labor always for their bread.
Whoever wed in August be
Many a change are sure to see.
Marry in September's shrine,
Your living will be rich and fine.
If in October you will marry,
Love will come, but riches tarry.
If you wed in bleak November,
Only joy will come, remember.
When December's snows fall fast,
Marry and true love will last.

LONG DISTANCE TELEPHONE SERVICE A REAL ASSET TO THE EXACTING BUSINESS MAN.

There are few advantages in modern business to be compared in actual value with the service your own office telephone is prepared at any moment of the day or night to supply you with.

At a minimum outlay in minutes you can get in direct touch with your desired party possibly hundreds of miles away where postal or other delay would be a decided drawback. Correspondence cannot compete with the speed of telephone service, besides which consider carefully the undoubted advantages of a personal talk.

Concerning Style in Printing

When you order printing you buy something more than paper and ink.

The best advertising talk in the world looks vulgar and commonplace if printed without distinction.

STYLE in printing is an art. You cannot buy it just anywhere.

Concerning Cost of Printing

The cost of printing depends upon something more than the profit which the printer puts upon it.

Much depends upon his plant, his organization his technical ability and experience.

TUT TUT

Following are verses from the brain storm of A. S. Fraser, sung with great success at the celebration of the eighteenth birthday of Rotary staged at the Masonic Temple:

Old King Tut was a jolly old nut
And a jolly old nut was he
He filled his hut with his best goods, but
He was dead as a mummy could be.

His steamer trunk was beside his bunk
And some ancient grub had he,
But his grub was punk, and his pile
of junk
Was labelled C. O. D.

Now old Tut Tank though a man of rank
Neither ate nor drank did he
He paddled no boat, and he played no note,
For 3000 years you see.

So he didn't get up take on sup
From the cup that held his gin,
And he lay quite still against his will
Till the Rotary boys broke in.

He bated no eye, and he heaved no sigh
When Carter cried "It's me,"
But he said quite plain "If I live again
I'd join your R O T A R Y."

CHORUS

Farewell, old nut; farewell Tut Tut;
Farewell old Nut Tut Tut.
I'm glad you spoke when you awoke.
Farewell old nut, old Tut.
