Matsqui-Sumas Board of Trade Meets

The Matsqui-Sumas Board of Trade met in their rooms on Monday evening last with a fair attendance.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and adopted.

Communication from the secretary of the B. C. Municipalities was received and filed.

Communication from Railway Commissioners received and filed.

Mr. Charles Hill-Tout was elected vice-president of the board. The nomination was proposed by J. W. McCallum and seconded by A. Campbell.

Reports of Committees—H. Alanson reported for committee appointed to look after railway crossings, stating that the commissioners had sent their inspector and the committee had taken him over the grounds and he had decidee on asking that Montrose Avenue be opened up by having a crossing underneath the railway; and that Oscar street be widened twenty feet and railings put on.

The report was received.

Following this there arose a discussion regarding a water system for the town of Abbotsford. Also the advisability of incorporating the town. The matter was laid over to come up later.

The question of a farming and agricultural society between the municipalities of Matsqui and Sumas, Abbotsford and Huntingdon was discussed.

It was moved by A. E. Daviss and seconded by H. Alanson that the secretary write the council of Sumas and Matsqui municipalites and get their opinion and chances of support from the different municipalities toward an agricultural exhibition next year. Carried.

Moved by H. Alanson and seconded by W. J. Ware that at the next meeting of the board the question of incorporating the town of Abbotsford be considered; also providing the water system for the whole town. Carried.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned until the first Monday in August.

Sugar Beet Works

Active work is underway having for its object the establishment of a sugar beet factory in the Fraser Valley. The movement has been inaugurated by a number of prominent residents of the Valley and Vancouver. From theprogress made and thesupport being given the project by the farmers and business men of the district, the enterprise seems to be certain of realization and it is to be hoped to have the works in operation in September, 1911. The company will have a capital of $300,000 to commence with and is now in course of incorporation. It is to be known as the Fraser Valley Sugar Works, Ltd., and an excellent site, with water frontage, has been secured at Mission City.

At a recent meeting of the Board of Trade at Mission the matter of establishing a sugar beet factory in the district was fully discussed and it was proposed to bring the matter before the attention of the government and in a measure to seek its co-operation in the establishment of the industry. The board also heartily endorsed the movement and authorised the president and secretary to sign the petition being circulated among the residents asking for their endorsation.

Such an industry would greatly benefit the farmers of the Valley. The establishment of a fruit cannery in connection with the enterprise would be rendered possible by the lower cost of sugar, and it would be in itself a matter of considerable revenue to the fruit grower by making marketable much of his surplus products.

There cannot be any doubt but that the sugar industry would benefit the farmers to a very great extent. In Raymond, Alta., the farmers are making $125 per acre from sugar beets, and with the soil and climate in the Fraser Valley the same or a better crop can be relied upon. In addition to the revenue derived, the farmer gets his winter fodder free, because the pulp is returned to him, pulp which contains the protein intact, the most valuable part of feed. This makes the growing of sugar beets the most economical of crops. It takes nothing out as far as the sugar is concerned for the reason that the sugar is composed of water and carbonic acid only. All the nitrogen and phosphates are returned as pulp, and are either converted in to milk, beef or returned ultimately to the ground as manure. The fact must further be considered that after the first crop subsequent crops increase 25 per cent owing to the treatment the soil receives from sugar beet cultivation The farmer has advantage of an experienced chemist at his disposal in the sugar works, and his ground will be treated scientifically.

SIBBALD-SWIFT

On Wednesday, June 29th. in St. Paul's church by the Rev. A. E. Daviss, M. A., Mr. Thomas Alfred Swift, M. D., of Abbotsford, and Miss Florence Daisy Sibbald, daughter of Mrs. Sibbald Lamb and the late Capt. William Sibbald of Granby, Quebec, were united in marriage.

After spending a few days at the coast the newly married couple arrived in Abbotsford where they will reside, the doctor having a lucrative practise.

FUTURE LOOKS GOOD TO HIM.

Mr. Scoffin of Chilliwack, on a tour throught the province, was in town on Saturday last and visited some of our fruit lands, including Mr. D. H. Nelson's nursery. He claims that we have better fruit lands than he had seen in all his travels through the preovince. He was also charmed with the situation of our town and surrounding country, and to show the great faith he has in the future of the town he purchased seven town lots before he left. He was over to Mt. Lehman district and so pleased was he with the district that he became the owner of 80 acres. Mr C. A. Sumner put the deals through

Mr. A. Cruickshank of Chilliwack spent a few days in town this week

Happily Wedded

Much interest was aroused in Abbotsford on Sunday by the marriage of Mr. Arthur Blethyn Hulton Harrop, second son of Mr. William Edward Montague Hulton-Harrop, J. P., D. L., of Lythwood Hall, Shrewsbury, England, to Miss Annie Welch, third daughter of Mr. Henry Moses Welch, Macclesfield, England. The event created no little stir and although the news of the time of the marriage had been kept rather quiet, a goodly number assembled at St. Matthews church to witness the ceremony. The church had been tastefully and neatly decorated with syringa and roses. The bride looked very charming in a mauve-clored traveling costume and white picture hat decorated with pink roses. She wore a handsome white ostrich plume the gift of the bridegroom

Victor Edward Hulton-Harrop, brother of the bridegroom, attended as best man, and the bride was given away by her father.

The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. A. E. Daviss.

At the conclusion of the service the bridal pair amidst a shower of rice, entered an automobile and were driven off to the picturesquely situated Lythwood Ranch, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Hulton-Harrop. Here a reception was held, at which the following guests were present; Mr. and Mrs. Sumner, Miss Gwendolen Sumner, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, Mr. H. H. Skelton, Mr. A. E. Barrett and Mr. Joseph Heath.

An interesting feature of the marriage was that all the guests as well as the bride and bridegroom hailed from the Old Country. The newly married couple afterwards left amidst the hearty congratulations and felicitations of their friends, to take up their residence at Wellington ranch, one of the finest an dlargest fruit ranches in the district.

Mr. Porter Fleming, known to his friends as "Slim" was taken to Sumas to the hospital there, where he was successfully treated for a case of blood poisoning in one of his feet.

Miss J. MacKay's school closed here this week with a short programme, Miss Miller of Clayburn furnishing the music on the school organ.

FRIDAY, JULY 8, 1910

It is the people in the town that make the town; not the town that makes the people. We are pleased to see the people of Abbotsford take up the question of incorporation and to discuss it thoroughly which we hope it will be. It may be too soon to have the matter settled by incorporating; and yet it may not. It all depends upon what the propertyholders think about it. If all are willing to buckle to and meet the running expenses of the newly incorporated town the time is ripe for incorporation otherwise if there are a few dissenting ones why perhaps it would be better not to incorporate.

———o———

There is a small town on Vancouver island called Cumberland and when they run short of improvement money, they send a man to Victoria and he comes back with a promise of help. That promise is usually made good.

———o———

There are several small towns in the interior which were incorporated many years before their time.

———o———

There are cities in the province that date their material progress from the day they were incorporated as cities.

———o———

There are some small towns that would be much better were they incorporated.

———o———

Abbotsford should have a good water system that would benefit all. Good pure water is always wholesome. Every family uses it every member of every family uses water to drink, some like to have it handy at all times of the day while some people relish it most of all the first thing in the morning To have the town supplied with water is an absolute necessity to any town that means to prosper.

———o———

If your neighbor is prosperous, let him prosper. Do not growl or grumble. Say a good word for him and let it go at that. Do not be a knocker. If you see that the town is moving along nicely, feel good about that. Help things along. Shove a little. Push. Try and secure some of the benefit yourself. Do not stand like a cadaver. Do not waste time feeling sore because some fellow has a little more sand and sense than you have. Do a little hustling yourself If you can say a good word say it like a prince. If you are full of bile and disposed to say something mean, keep your mouth closed. Do not be a knocker. No man ever became rich and happy minding anybody's business save his own. No man ever helped himself up permanently by knocking his neighbors down. Give a kind word. Give it liberally. It wil not cost a cent an dyou may want one yourself some day. You cannot afford to knock. It will not pay. There is nothing in it. If you want to throw something throw cologne. Or roses. Do not throw brickbats Or mud. If you must kick—go to some secluded spot and kick yourself. For if you feel that way you are the man that needs the kicking Paste this in your hat.

HANEY NOTES

Mr. James Selkirk has resigned the reeveship, and now Mr. J. C. McFarlane of Hammond is reeve Mr. McFarlane served on last year's council and is in touch with the business of the municipality.

The council evidently believe in solid comfort while doing business for the municipality, and have purchased seven leather cushioned chairs to sit in while transacting the business of the municipality to the best advantage. One must give them credit for in their generosity they did not forget the municipal clerk as they bought one for him just as comfortable as the ones they bought for themselves. It shows the council appreciate his services and he will enjoy it every office day of the year.

The real estate tax of Maple Ridge for this year is about $12,000 and about $2,000 is expected from road taxes.

Nearly all the teachers of the municipality have resgned and the secretary of the school board is advertising for teachers for next term.

Some people think that the clerk of the municipality has but very little to do, but he has some 800 accounts in his ledger. One firm who deals in real estate of the district has some 60 different accounts.

The C. P. R. station is a credit to the little town. The company's property on the north side of the track has been fenced in and Mr. Hunt, the station agent, has begun to beutify the place. He is an adept at this and should he remain a few years Haney will be able to boast of the most beautiful station and residence on the western division

It is claimed there is a good auto mobile road from Haney to New Westminster and Vancouver. Mr W. McNeil of the Canada Power Company motored in on Saturday last.

———o———

The engine from camp one fell through the trestle on Wednesday Charlie Opplinger the engineer was badly scalded and is now in the Sumas hospital.

Mr. G. H. Allardes of the Royal Bank staff, left yesterday for his holidays. His place is taken by M. W. Heslip.

No Fiasco, The Genuine Article

Citizens of Abbotsford, what do you think of it? This big fght was "practised and pursued under proper conditions", as the rporter of our third effort to procure a boxing match writes in Post of the 1st Do you pronounce this "the most manly and scientific form of sport" or is it like our three fiascoes, "a disgusting and degrading exhibition of most vicious animal passions?" It surely is the "sports" themselves being judged "Those conscientious people who constitute the anti-boxing element of the community" are to be congratulated and ought to be greathy multiplied by additions from the ranks of the non-conscientious elements designated by the name of "sports" There are sports that kill and surely we have read accounts of one that took place on the 4th of July in Reno, Nevada, that killed. It killed the last vestige of respectibility of the notorious city of Reno; it killed the honor of the whole state of Nevada it killed, we hope, the possibility of such an exhibition of human brutality ever being seen on this fair continent. Let it die and be buried, this abomination and reproach on the name of a Christian nation.

THE FIRST OF JULY AND THE FOURTH

Dominion Day and Independence Day are holidays in Canada and the United States respectively They have come and gone once again, declaring as the mile-post is past that we are a year older and may we say, a year wiser. We are growing greater in population in wealth and in experience; are we growing wiser and better—an example to the other nations of the earth? It is a matter of choice. We cannot avoid growing older, we may avoid growing foolish. He is a fool who owns no master but his own small self; who is so unthinking and so non-intelligent as to suppose that there is no Creator for the world or for man, and no moral governor to whom moral, rational beings must give an account A wise man wrote long ago "The fool hath said in his heart, there is no God" The sun is in the sky and gives us light and heat even though some silly person should profess he did not believe it or say we cannot know.

Canada is becoming greater every year in population, in the amount of her products, her exports and imports; greater too in industry; and in our schools and churches do their duty and our citizens embrace their golden opportunities and rise to their responsibilities we will be greater yet in all those things, which make nations great. The twentieth century is ours to make Canada a leader of nations in intelligence, in industry, in sobriety in purity and also in righteousness.

THE SAVING CLAUSE

In olden days 'twas held that thrift
Ranked as old Scotia's truest gift
But that is ended;
For now our reckless friend named Scot
Draws or drains his little lot
Till all's expended.
And we, with sorrow deep, lament
This loss of northern sentiment—
'Tis sad and shocking;
Yet, ere his boose pal starts to quake,
It might be just as well to shake
Our Scottie's stocking.

Many people have not yet forgiven our doctor for having stole a march on them, however, thanks to the wisdom and foresight of one of our prominent citizens we knew when the doctor and his bride were to arrive. All extend hearty congratulations.

Mr. Fred Bannister who travels in all parts of the dominion was particularly delighted without little town as he came in on the Great Northern. The first thing that appealed to himwas that he was arriving at a town with a future before it. To a reporter he said "It appeals to me as a good little town I would be willing to wager that the man who invests in Abbotsford to-day will realize on his investment beyond his expectations. I intend to purchase here if I can be suited as I believe it a good investment." When last seen Mr. Bannister was in company with one of our real estate agents.

Yesterday while several of our citizens were going for a drive the wheel of the rig came off while going up the hill east of the town. "Tim" was the only one hurt.
