Endorses Extension of Ferry Service

MT. LEHMAN, June 26.—It took the Matsqui council from 10:30 a. m. till about 6:30 p. m. to get through the business on the agenda at the regular meeting held in the municipal hall on Saturday, and even then it was decided to hold another meeting two weeks hence, to finish the business.

On motion of Councilors Aish and Phinney three contracts on the Pemberton road were awarded to W. F. Stewart for $175, also, on motion of Couns. Owen and Melander, the contract for the Ross road south was let to J. N. Rucker fo $149.

Councillor Phinney was allowed $100 on the McCallum road from D. Combs' west corner to the boundry of Ward II. H. R. Phillips was allowed 120 pounds of barbed wire at current prices and the sum of $125 was authorized for work on Phillip's Hill.

The former appropriation of $300 for the road from the old Clayburn Town was cancelled, and Councillor Phinney was empowered to call for tenders for this work. The sum of $50 was allowed for the Harris road.

It was voted to pay Mr. Kennedy $100 on the Ware road contract, and Coun. Melander was authorized to expend $125 on the Glenmore road, and also a further appropriation of $90 on the Huntingdon road. It was decided to pay John Overstall $75 and W. Overstall $20 as payment in full for improvements taken on the Anderson road.

Councillor Melander called the council's attention to the dangerous conditions of wells in various parts of the municipality, these having been left in times past by railroad contractors and mill men in an unprotected condition and now were a menace to life and property. Especially was a well close to the G. N. R. tracks on the Lefeurve road dangerous. Coun. Melander was authorized to have the latter well filled in, while it was stated that the dangerous wells on private property would have to be taken care of by the owners. It was pointed out that where there were wells not fenced in or otherwise protected, the owners were liable for any damages which might occur to settlers or roaming stock.

Councillor Aish called the attention of the council to the dangerous condition of the government wharf at Matsqui village, and the clerk was instructed to write to the Dominion resi dent engineer with a request that the necessary repairs be made.

The question of appointing a municipal auditor was taken up and the offer of Kendall Barr & Co. of Vancouver, for $100, including a half yearly audit, tax sale work and the preparation of the annual statement, was considered, but left over until it was ascertained whether the school audit was included in that figure.

Chairman of Finance Owen gave notice of motion for another loan bylaw to meet current expenses, to be introduced at the next meeting.

A communication was received from the Smith Hutchison Lumber Co., of Vancouver, stating that the firm contemplated the continuing of the saw mill that has been operated for several years by the Craig & Taylor Co., at Bradner. They have surveyed a right-of-way through the S. W. 1-4 of Cec. 3, Tp. 13 and Secs. 34, 27 and 22 inclusive, in Tp. 13. This they said would necessitate the crossing of the Township Line road, the White road and possibly the Ross road with their logging track. Permission was granted under the usual restrictions and provided a bond against damages, of $15 for each crossing, is provided.

An invitation was received for the Langley Prairie commitee for the council to attend their big Dominion Day celebration on July 2. This was filed and as many of the councillors that can will attend.

A request was made that the Matsqui council co-operate with the Mission City Board of Trade in an effort to have the running time of the extended The council passed a res-

MARION BALLOU FISK

Before Marion Ballou Fisk, Chautauqua's foremost lady cartoonist and lecturer-entertainer, took up her present work as a profession she was known in Chicago as "the little mother of the slums." It was her experience here amid the poverty, tears squallor, drunken scenes and despairing faces that she developed her art to its wonderful and characteristic perfection.

Mrs. Fisk is really a protege of the late Dwight L. Moody, the great preacher and evangelist. It was he who first interested Mrs. Fisk in her missionary work in Chicago. For a year she was a Sunday school visitor in his church and it was said she was the only girl who could go into Galt Court or Milton Avenue without being molested. For three years she worked in that part of Chicago made famous by Uuton Sinclair as "The Jungle."

As a child, following her natural bend for art, she had illustrated nearly all of the Old Testament but she found here in Chicago for the first time a practical use for her talent and training. On Sunday afternoons she gathered over a hundred of these waifs into a Sunday School Class composed of eleven different nationalities. Almost half of them could not understand a word of English. Their restlessness made work or study almost impossible for the others, so she brought forth chalk and paper and gave illustrated lessons. Pictures are a universal language and speech in every tongue and so marked was her success in this work that she was repeatedly asked to give illustrated talks and teach model classes at conventions and this naturally led to the Chautauqua and Lyceum platform.

In the past few years Mrs. Fisk has become one of the most conspicuous figures in Lyceum and Chautauqua work. Her crayon creations have the indelible stamp of the vitality and living reality of her experiences in the slums where human nature is naked.

Hawaiian Music to Be Feature of Big Chautauqua Program

ONE of the rare treats in store for Chautauqua patrons is a short and finished afternoon program and a full evening concert by the Waikiki Hawaiian Quintet. This group of Hawaiian musicians are finely educated in music. They are principally drawn from the Alisky and Toots Paka Troupes, who aroused so much enthusiasm throughout the United States for several years. With ukelele and guitars they play the beautiful, soothing and wistful melodies of the islands in a manner that grips the hearts of every one in the audience.

Oliver Supplies Stumping Machines

Hon. John Oliver, Minister of Agriculture has authorized the purchase of a limited number of stumping machines to be supplied to Farmers' Institutes on a deferred payment system. This action on the part of the Minister of Agriculture is the outcome of a number of requests which have been received by the department from Farmers' Institutes.

In giving the Farmers' Institute this opportunity to purchase these machines the Department assumes absolutely no responsibility and makes no recommendations regarding the comparative efficiency of the various types of machine on the market. The Deputy Minister and Superintendant of Institutes, Mr. Wm. E. Scott has witnessed several demonstrations and at each one the results have been satisfactory.

The Department of Agriculture will supply application forms to any Farmers' Institutes on request. These forms must be signed by the President, Vice-President and directors and also by five members of the Institute. Freight charges on the machines must be paid by the Institute from the factory.

Terms of payment for the machines are: One-third on delivery; one-third in one year and the remainder in two years.

No interest will be charged on unpaid balances but interests at 10% will be charged on overdue payments. Institutes that fail to make their payments promptly will not receive their per capita grant on account of membership but this sum will be devoted towards the payments overdue. The department recommends that all Institutes securing these machines adopt a plan whereby a fixed charge of so much per diem be paid by members who use the machine. By this means a fund will be provided towards paying the cost of the machine and the depreciation in value.

THE SCOTCH CONCERT PARTY

The Scotch Trio coming to our Chautauqua occupies a conspicuus place in the splendid list of musical attractions for the week. It is a musical entertainment company which may, with confidence, be singled out from the mass of such offerings as an attraction of exceptional strength.

The Trio is composed of three distinguished artists. Mr. Lachlan MacNeill heads the company. Both as a splendid baritone singer and as reader and impersonator, Mr. MacNeill has long been an established favorite with Chautauqua and Lyceum audiences. Perhaps the strongest feature of the numbers given by this gifted entertainer will be selections from Harry Lauder's original repertoire. He will give these in the Scotch kilties of the Highland.

Miss Ruth Hill is the pianist and the accompanist of the Trio and has a beautifull lyric soprano voice. Miss Hazel Dean Bryam, violinist, completes the company. The aim of these artists is to offer the fullest enjoyment of good music rather than the passing amusement of a musical show, yet to present a program that sparkles with life and color.

Popular in appeal, versatile, happily combining the best entertainment, it would be difficult to secure a better voice and instrumental ensemble than the Scotch Trio, which brings to Chautauqua a program that has met with high favor everywhere. Discriminating music lovers will be drawn eveywhere from a considerable radius to hear them, for they more than make good the glowing accounts which preceeds and succeeds their every appearance. A typical Scotch program is invariably a general commingling of selections specially designed to suit every taste from the popular and classic operas to the old home favorites that every girl hums and every boy whistles.

J. H. McCulloch, District Agriculturist with headquarters at Kamloops has resigned from the service of the Provincial Government to take a position in Winnipeg. Mr. McCulloch made his headquarters at Quesnell for several months but recently his district was enlarged and his headquarters transferred to Kamloops.

Mr. Geo. C. Hay who has been stationed at Telkwa for the past year and a half as District Agriculturist has been transferred to Kamloops and will fill the position vacated by Mr. McCulloch.

FRANCIS LABADIE

The tang and zest of the Northland, the tingling sensation experienced in tramping through fields of crusted crunching snow, is what one gets from a Labadie lecture-recital of the works of Wm. A. Drummond and Robert W. Service.

For many years, in both Canada and the United States, Labadie's genius in character delineation has enjoyed a popular prestige second to none. Especially does Labadie meet the Chautauqua demand for artists able to interpret the best in liter-

The telephone building is nearing completion and will be quite an acquisition to the buildings of the town It will just set off Washington street between James and Grand avenue, to perfection and will apparently be the most beautiful building in that part of the town. Mr. J. Munroe has the contract which is a guarantee that the work will be done in good style. This is the fourth new building for Mission City this year in the business part of the town. It looks like Mission City was going ahead.

LAID AT REST

The funeral of the late Mrs. Jos. S. Cyr, who died at New Westminster took place to St. Mary's on Friday last, followed by friends and acquaintances.

The pallbearers were Messrs. H. Windebank, T. J. Cox, T. M. Hairsine, R. Hudon, J. B. McKamey and J. O'Neil.

The deceased was for many years a resident of Hatzic Prairie, recently moving to New Westminster with her husband.

She leaves a husband and family to mourn her death.

One Woman's Opinion.

"I have been asked what kind of advertisements influence me most. Unquestionably, the ones I read in our own local paper. I read that paper when I am at home and thinking about household affairs. When I am away, my mind is fully occupied with other things.

Perhaps I do see bill board and street car advertisements, but I certainly do not remember them. The advertisements that attract me most in the home paper are the ones that give real news, such as prices, styles and particulars of quality."

It pays to advertise intelligently in the home paper.

Noted Cartoonist at Chautauqua

Marion Ballou Fisk Delights Audience With Unique Entertainment

MARION BALLOU FISK enjoys the distinction of being not only the leading lady cartoonist on the Chautauqua platform but is one of the most clever of all crayon artists. She excels especially in illustrated character delineation, and her scenic pictures are artistic in the extreme. She not only has the artistic element of her nature keenly developed, but she has a thorough understanding of the psychological phase of her work, happily combining wit, humor and pathos with character study.

Mrs. Fisk's forthcoming Chautauqua appearance here will be one of the best entertainments of the week.

olution unanimously to the effect that the government extend the schedule from 6. a. m. to midnight on week days and from 8 a.m. till 10 p. m. on Sundays. A copy of this resolution will be forwarded to the department at Victoria and also to Mr. E. D. Barrow, member for the district.

The noxious weed question was thoroughly discussed, and the municipality clerk was instructed to notify all property-owners that unless these weeds were cut on their property a fine would be imposed and that the council would take steps to have them attended to. These weeds must be cut within the next two weeks and the municipality is guided in their couse by the provincial act.

Bills and accounts were ordered paid, and it was decided to hold the next meeting in the Reeve's office at Abbotsford at 3:15 p.m. on Saturday July 7.

FEE'S WEEKLY MARKET LETTER

Three cars of Strawberries from across the line had a depressing effect. Two were Hood Rivers and one from the Far South of gts. These began to go and were sold as low as $3.50 and $4.00 Saturday. What were left were selling as low as $2 on Monday. Quite a few Gordon Heads arrived Sunday and Monday and were a little soft. Gooseberries are not selling fast. No safe market can be predicted. Prices should be good, but if arrivals from across the Line are heavy anything may happen. We have held our prices $4 on straws a few too green sold for less and $2.50 on goose.

Belgian Relief

In view of the recent statement issued by Mr. Hoover, Chairman of the Commission for Relief in Belgium which points out the impossibility at present of obtaining the necessary shipping tonnage to forward to Belgium the food supplies in the same quantity as in the past, and also draws attention to the fact that the United States Government have made arrangements to loan the Belgium Government the sum of $45,000,000, payable to the Commission for Relief in Belgium in six monthly instalments, which will cover the cost of such food supplies as can be shipped in that time by the limited number of available ships to the Commission— the Central Committee of the Belgian Relief Fund of Canada finds it unnecessary for the present to make appeal to the generously disposed people of Canada on the plea of the urgency of support in order to stave off starvation.

The needs of Belgium continue however as pressing as in the past and the situation may be considered as being even more pitiable as, through the forced decrease in imports, Belgium will be compelled to fall back on her own native resourses already so denuded. In order to maintain that so limited ration that has been doled out in the past it will be necessary to encroach upon the country's stock of Milk cattle which has been reserved to maintain a supply of fresh milk for the children.

In the hope, however, that the recent swiftly developed shortage in the world's shipping—the cause of this new departure of the Relief Work—may not permanently endure in the hope that the necessary funds may be available should any emergency or special occasion arise and in view of the fact that in any event relief in many forms will be required after the war, the Committee hope that all generous supporters of the Fund in the past and all those who have pledged themselves for future payments will continue to support the Fund and thus continue to show their sympathy wih the people who gave their all for the cause of Humanity.

All donations received after the 15th of June will be disposed of to the best advantage of this stricken people, according to the wish that may be expressed by any donor or according to the actual or more pressneeds of any of the already organized channels of Relief Work such as:

"Help to children removed from Belgian Front;" "Queen's Fund for the Wounded Soldiers;" "Home for the Belgian Soldiers;" Relief for Belgian Prisoners in Germany;" "Anglo Belgian Committee of the Belgian Red Cross;" "Relief for Belgian Children suffering from Tuberculosis and Rickets;" Belgian Orphan Fund;" "Belgian National Relief Fund for War Orphans, etc."

All donations received prior to the 15th of June will be held at the disposal of the Commission for Relief in Belgium, for the purchases in Canada of Canadian Produce, according to our previous pledges.

The Central Executive Committee will issue in the immediate future a report covering the whole of their operations up to the 15th of June.

The Price of Potatoes

When potatoes sold up to $5 per bag in the stores some people stopped using them. When bread jumped from 10 to 20 cents per loaf the man with a large family began to wonder what potatoes were really worth (at any time) as food and he reached the conclusion that potatoes were worth about two dollars a bag any year on their food value in comparison with other foods. We will have greater respect for the potato after this even if the price did drop to 15 cents per bag twenty years ago. Talking of potatoes, a New York writer declares that, with all the extra production the people are going in for a shortage of fall wheat, there will be plenty of food for this continent and the Allies and that potatoes will hardly be worth digging. We would not mind going on record with an opposite prediction.

Junior Chautauqua

The Junior Chautauqua this year should break all previous records in attendance and enthusiasm. Plans:

The Junior Chautauquans will certainly have a week filled to the brim and sparkling over the edges with the happiest experience of their whole lives. They are actually going to take an imaginary trip around the world. They will visit the different foreign countries, and the fun they will have cannot be easily described, for the boys and girls have been laid out on a larger scale than ever before. It is the aim of the management to make the Junior Chautauqua just as big as the regular programs are for the grown-ups. In disclosing the nature of the Junior Chautauqua it will be readily seen that no effort has been spared to make it a great event for the boys and girls.

Remember that the season ticket for the Junior Chautauqua in only $1.00. Don't forget that this $1.00 ticket also admits Junior Chautauquans to all other programs of the big Chautauqua.
