Review of Deadwood Camp.

Some new deals on.

THE MORRISON AND AR- LINGTON-BURNS CHANGE HANDS.

Mining matters continue to look bright for Deadwood camp. Both the Mother Lode and Sunset mines lately installed additional machinery, in preparation for a largely increased output of ore for their smelters. It is probable the option on the Morrison will be taken up next month and operations on a more extensive scale than in the past be carried on at that mine this year.

And now comes news of the sale to capitalists from Deluth, Minn., of the Arlington-Burns group situated next to the Buckhorn. The late E.A. Bealberg did a lot of surface prospecting on these claims, exposing much rock freely mineralized with iron and copper, so that indications are favorable to finding here a body of ore that it will pay to work. It is stated that the new owners have ample capital, and consequently are in a position to push on with development operations.

All this, together with the additions to the smelter, now nearing completion, improves the prospects of Anaconda.

The repairs on the Boundary Falls smelter dam are finished.

CULTUS HEHE.

Farmer—"Don't you know it's a sin to steal my apples?"

"Y-Y-Yes, sir," blubbered the kid.

"And do you know why it's a sin?"

"Y-Y-Y-Y-Yes, sir. 'Cause the durned appels is full o' worms!"
