CROWDED CARS.
LEAVE GREENWOOD FOR MIDWAY.

Sunday, May 4, 1902—An excursion train, carrying the Baseball Club and the Greenwood Brass Band, together with about 300 citizens, left Greenwood at one o'clock to attend a baseball game at Midway.

The train made stops at Anaconda and Boundary Falls, picking up additional crowds at each place.

Midway was beautiful, the valley a fine green and the hills yellow with sunflowers.

The day was threatening and once it rained, but failed to dampen the spirits of those watching the game.

The Greenwood boys had it all their own way, and beat Midway badly, scoring 11 to nothing.

Such visitors as went to the river banks enjoyed fine picnicking on the

ABOUT TOWN

The post office at Anaconda has been provided with glass-front boxes, neatly numbered in black. The office is a real credit to the town, and also to the energy of Mr. L. A. Smith, the genial postmaster.

The editor notices in his rambles about town that a number of back yards, and some front ones, are being cleaned up of tin cans and other rubbish, greatly to their improvement. Let the good work go on.

L. C. Shaw of the B. C. Copper Co.'s smelter left town for his home in Salt Lake City.

Mr. Duncan Ross, editor of the Boundary Creek Times has returned from the coast.

Mr. Law and associates who bought a half interest in the Providence, evidently believe that "Providence helps those who help themselves."
